FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
FORT SHAFTER, H. T., Nov. 25.
 The Tuesday Evening Card Club was an usual affair and attended. Mrs. Elizabeth E. Standish made a most creditable dinner on this occasion. Those who were present during the evening were: Lieut. Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Madam Pearson, Capt. and Mrs. Raymond A. Wheeler, Capt. and Mrs. William E. Hunt, Col. and Mrs. James McKee, Capt. and Mrs. Arthur T. Dalton, Lieut. and Mrs. John S. Sullivan, Madam Cochran, Mrs. William B. Cochran, Mrs. Alden C. Knowles, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell, Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred L. Rockwood, Dr. and Mrs. Stumberg, Mrs. Charles L. Wyman, Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday, Mrs. Lohman, Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum and Miss Campbell. Capt. Wheeler, the one favored by fortune, was presented with a useful card table.

Capt. and Mrs. Arthur T. Dalton had as their dinner guests on Sunday Capt. and Mrs. Erady G. Rutten, commander of Schofield Barracks.

Mrs. Thomas C. Spencer and Mrs. Charles L. Wyman enjoyed a pleasant evening of bridge as the guests of Lieut. and Mrs. John S. Sullivan in their home in the cantonment on Saturday.

Mrs. Elvid Hunt of Schofield Barracks is the house-guest of Capt. and Mrs. Benjamin F. McClellan, while Capt. Hunt is detailed at the joint maneuver camp at Red Hill.

Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday entertained on Sunday in their home in the cantonment for Miss Ruth Tubbs of Honolulu and Mrs. Hugh Harrison of Los Angeles.

At the wedding of Miss Hazel Buckland and Lieut. Walter A. Reesman on Tuesday evening, at St. Andrew's cathedral, Honolulu, those noticed among the invited guests from Fort Shafter were Lieut. and Mrs. George M. Halloran, Lieut. and Mrs. Frank A.

Sloan, Lieut. and Mrs. Carl A. Hardigg, Dr. Harry M. Deiber and Lieut. Edward F. Witsell.

Mrs. William B. Cochran entertained Tuesday at a most pleasant swimming and luncheon party in honor of Mrs. Jack Stuart and Mrs. Janice Stuart of Vancouver. The guests met at the Gutzwiller Club, where they enjoyed a delightful swim, after which they returned to the house for luncheon. The table was most artistically set, and the decorations red roses. After luncheon the hours of the afternoon were most pleasantly spent at the game of canner. Mrs. Hayes and Mrs. Hartnett, holding the highest honors, were awarded very attractive work boxes, while Madame Cochran was given a dainty fan as a consolation, and the guests of honor were charmed by being associated with artistic gold lacquer boxes. Those on duty: Mrs. Cochran's hospitality were Mrs. Jack Stuart and Mrs. Lang Stewart, Mrs. Guy G. Palmer, Mrs. Eugene H. Hartnett, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell, Mrs. James E. Bell of Schofield Barracks, Mrs. Jack Hayes, Madame Cochran and Mrs. James A. Gallogly.

Mrs. Ruth Tubbs of Honolulu was the week-end guest of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell at their home in the main garrison.

Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum was the dinner-guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday in their home in the cantonment on Wednesday evening.

When Maj. and Mrs. Guy G. Palmer entertained at dinner on Thursday evening in their quarters in the main garrison, their guests were Lieut. Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Madame Pearson, Col. and Mrs. Daniel Lane Howell, Maj. and Mrs. William B. Cochran and Madame Cochran. The daintily appointed table had as a centerpiece sweet peas with a lace etching of maidenhair fern, while candles shaded with pink added much to the beauty of the table.

One of the largest and most delightful affairs of the week was the tea given by Mrs. Alden C. Knowles in honor of Miss Hazel Taylor and Miss Mary Littell of New York, who, en route to the Orient, are enjoying for a few months the beauties of the Hawaiian Islands. The decorations were most profuse, varicolored hibiscus predominated in the hall and reception room, while large yellow chrysanthemums were used to form a most attractive centerpiece at the table, where Mrs. William R. Dashiell presided at the tea cups and Mrs. Witsell served tea.

Among those calling during the afternoon were Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Madame Pearson, Mrs. Guy G. Palmer, Mrs. Eugene H. Hartnett, Madame Cochran, Mrs. William B. Cochran, Mrs. John B. Reesman, Mrs. Robert Dashiell, Mrs. William E. Hunt, Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln, Mrs. Lohman, Mrs. Benjamin F. McClellan, Mrs. Gladys B. Bennett, Mrs. Madam Pearson, Mrs. T. L. Crystal, Mrs. Arthur T. Dalton, Mrs. George M. Halloran, Mrs. Carl A. Hardigg, Mrs. Alice E. Hobbie, Mrs. William Reesman, Mrs. Raine C. Holliday, Mrs. Evald Hunt, Mrs. Robert M. Lytle, Mrs. Henry C. K. Muhlenberg, Mrs. Bernard K. Scrumberg, Mrs. Jack Hayes, Mrs. James A. Gallogly, Mrs. Raymond A. Wheeler, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell, Mrs. Charles L. Wyman, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Julie Martin, Mrs. Elizabeth Rosenbaum and Miss Bonnie Scott.

Capt. and Mrs. Arthur T. Dalton entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening for Col. and Mrs. James McKee. After dinner Capt. and Mrs. Dalton took their guests to the Tuesday Evening Card Club.

Chaplain and Mrs. William Reesman and family have moved from quarters number four in the cantonment to quarters number sixteen in the main garrison, recently vacated by Capt. Charles L. McKain.

On Thursday evening Capt. and Mrs. Claire R. Bennett had as their dinner guests Col. Henry C. Hodges and Capt. George E. Kumppe. Yellow snapdragons and pink sweet peas intermingled with maiden hair fern formed a charming centerpiece.

Lieut. Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell entertained in their home in the main garrison on Saturday evening for Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday and Miss Ruth Tubbs. After dinner the rest of the evening was spent playing bridge.

Another dinner of the week was that given by Capt. and Mrs. Edwin Simpson Hartshorn, when they entertained on Friday evening in their quarters in the main garrison for Maj. and Mrs. Guy G. Palmer, William B. Cochran and Madame Cochran. The pink shaded candles cast a soft glow over the attractive table on which artistically arranged roses formed a lovely centerpiece.

When Mrs. James E. Bell of Schofield Barracks entertained at tea at Lanika, her guests from Shafter were Mrs. Daniel Lane Howell, Madame Cochran, Mrs. William B. Cochran and Mrs. Lloyd R. Fredendall.

Lieut. Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell entertained on Friday evening in their home in the main garrison for Chaplain and Mrs. William Reesman, Mrs. Bonnie Scott, Miss Eleanor Scott and Master Billy Scott.

Lieut. and Mrs. Carl A. Hardigg had as their dinner guests on Tuesday evening Lieut. and Mrs. Douglas Taft Greene of Schofield Barracks. Later in the evening they invited their guests to Honolulu to attend the Reesman-Buckland wedding.

At the dinner given by Mrs. Jack Stuart and Mrs. Laverne Stuart, their guests from Fort Shafter were Maj. and Mrs. William B. Cochran and Madame Cochran.

Lieut. and Mrs. George M. Halloran's dinner guests on Tuesday evening were Dr. Harry M. Deiber and Lieut. Edward F. Witsell.

Capt. and Mrs. Elmer F. Wice were the luncheon guests of Capt. and Mrs. Edwin Simpson Hartshorn on Wednesday.

Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday had as their dinner guests on Thursday evening Miss Hayes and Miss Ruth Tubbs of Honolulu. Honolulu was used to form a most artistic centerpiece.

Lieut. and Mrs. George M. Halloran entertained informally at dinner on Thursday evening for Mrs. Claire R. Bennett and Mrs. Joseph A. McKain, whose husbands are on duty with the joint maneuver camp at Red Hill.
