WITH GOAL NEAR, Y. W. CHECKS UP

Work in soliciting funds for the Y. W. C. A. budget has ceased at the association and at present the committee is busily engaged in checking the returns received by mail.

The amount contributed to date has reached over $16,400, and with contributions from the other islands coming in the committee feels that the total amount necessary to carry on the work will be assured.

The regular program of the association is being carried out and much interest is being taken in the lecture by Prof. T. A. Jaggar, Jr., on Thursday evening.

BILL MAY RAISE GIRLS' MAJORITY

Attorney William J. Sheldon, former representative, is preparing a bill which he hopes to have introduced in the coming legislature which if passed would raise the age majority of young women in Hawaii from 18 to 20 years.

Sheldon believes that 18 years is too young for a woman to start on her way as her own mistress, and believes the younger generation here will be generally better off if the limit is raised to 20.

Several Honolulu women who are moral workers in their respective communities are back of Sheldon's bill and one very prominent resident has asked him to prepare the text of the proposed measure.

"Two years more added to a young woman's dependent life makes a great deal of difference in her reasoning and point of view," Sheldon says, "and I hold that at 18 too many of them are not as competent to handle their own affairs and destinies as they might be."

ASHFORD CRITICIZES AUTHORITIES FOR NOT STOPPING DESTRUCTION

Circuit Judge C. W. Ashford today wrote the following and handed it to the Star-Bulletin: "Speaking of 'British stupidity' in connection with war measures (and there has been much to the discredit on this score printed in American papers since the war began), it appears to me that the last few days have given us samples of American stupidity right here in Honolulu that would make a Britisher blush."

"The spectacle of four distinct sets of officials—federal and territorial civil officers, naval and military potentates—standing by with folded arms and watching the destruction of the German naval and merchant fleet in this harbor, is one of the least edifying of recent months."

TWO COUPLES WOULD MAKE HOMES FOR CHILDREN

Two petitions for permission to adopt children have been filed in Circuit Judge Whitney's court. One is by August Costa and Mary Costa, his wife, for the adoption of Caroline Estrella, 1 year old, whose mother, according to the petition, is an insane person. The father has consented to the adoption.

The second petition has been filed by Keawe Kalanui and Pualani Kalanui, his wife, for the adoption of Paul, Joseph and William Hanohano, 11, 9 and 5 years old, respectively. The father and mother of these children have both consented to the adoption.

PINEAPPLE MEN DINE SOCIALLY

Pineapple factors, guests from the mainland and a few guests from the islands, 35 in all, met at dinner at the Young hotel last evening. While it was in the nature of an annual dinner of the pineapple canners and those closely connected with them the special occasion was the presence here of four men who are prominently identified with pineapple canning or the manufacture of cans and are resident on the mainland.

Beyond the fact that all of the guests at last night's dinner were all directly or indirectly interested in pineapple culture or canning, there was nothing of a business nature at the dinner, merely a social affair.

PACIFIC CLUB'S OFFICERS NAMED

The annual meeting of the Pacific Club was held at the club last night. Selection of officers resulted as follows:

President, Dr. St. D. G. Wolters; Vice-president, A. J. Campbell; Secretary, A. L. C. Atkinson; Treasurer, J. L. Fleming; governors, A. H. Rice, J. C. Hagena, William Lewers, E. L. Spalding, W. H. Baird.

COURT BUSINESS SHOWS INCREASE DURING DAYS OF MUCH EXCITEMENT

Down at the police station Bailiff Joe Nubriga of the district court is trying to determine what has caused such an unprecedented increase in his business. He believes it is the war excitement, but is not quite sure.

"The way the cases have been piling up in the police court is something awful," says Joe, "and I can't figure out what is happening. Assault cases, fights, profanity charges, drunkenness, threatening language, gambling—they all seem to be coming in right at this time."

Joe says he is inclined to believe that the general tone of possible war has instilled into the Honolulu inhabitants a spirit of reckless belligerence of the "let-'er-bleeze" nature and that the populace is taking life in these exciting times a little less seriously than ordinarily.

In the meantime the bailiff counts his stack of reports, casts a critical eye over the avalanche of warrants and summonses and says, "Let us have war or peace—cut out the monkey business."

Word has been received here that Dr. A. G. C. Schnack, son of J. H. Schnack of Honolulu, has completed his term as interne in the Massachusetts General Hospital and is now in the infants' Hospital there.

Demand for a jury trial has been filed in circuit court by the defendant in the case of Pierre Baron against T. N. Horn, an action for damages. Baron alleges the defendant ran over him with an automobile. The defendant has denied all the allegations of the complaint.

Charged with manslaughter, Samuel Kaal pleaded not guilty in circuit court on Monday. Kaal is alleged to have run down with an automobile a wagon in which a number of prisoners were riding, the collision resulting in the death of Edward A. Strout, prison guard.

COMPLAINS OBSTRUCTION INJURIOUS TO BUSINESS

A. T. Longley, superintendent of the territorial marketing division, has complained to the board of supervisors that Quong Sam Kee Co., Mau-nakes and King streets, has an obstruction on the sidewalk which is contrary to law.

The letter says in part that the platform is seldom used by the company but is more often occupied by a miscellaneous lot of undesirables who do not add anything to the attraction of the street but drive away trade. "On more than one occasion," he says, "complaints have been received from ladies concerning the action of these men on the platform."

INTERESTING TOPICS FOR TONIGHT ARE ANNOUNCED

At a meeting of the Men's League of Central Union church this evening Hon. W. F. Frear will speak on "The Nature of the Abatement by Injunction Law;" Wallace R. WANTS REPAIRS MADE TO HELP CLEAN-UP OF CITY

R. W. Aylett, inspector of garbage, has written the board of supervisors requesting that the roads to the city dumps at Kalia and in Iwilei be repaired in order that the carts during "clean-up week" can more readily transport the refuse gathered about the city.

According to a resolution passed by the board, all residents are requested to gather together all rubbish and place it near the sidewalk and the city carts will then come around and take it away.

A WOMAN'S VOCATION

One of our modern writers has said, "A woman is as efficient in business as a man—when she is." The reason why sometimes she is not so efficient is that her health may fail. But the wise business woman knows now what to do when attacked by the ailments peculiar to the so-called "weaker sex." That greatest of all remedies for woman's ills, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, has been freeing women from such ailments for forty years. Try it, if you suffer from such an ailment, and insure your competency and efficiency in the business world.—Adv.

THIRD RALLY ON BONDS ARRANGED

The third of a series of rallies for the municipal water and sewer bond issue, a plebiscite for which has been called February 21, will be held Thursday evening on Luso street, at the end of the Emma street car line.

The first two rallies were held at Aala Park and in Kakaako, and so enthusiastically were the speakers received on those occasions that a large gathering is expected in the Punch-bowl district. The Hawaiian band will furnish music and a large number of speakers who have been making a study of the issue will present the facts to the voters and explain the merits of the bond issue, which amounts to $480,000.

As stated before, these rallies are entirely along educational lines and are non-partisan, speakers from all parties being invited to address the people.

The "silent campaign" in the form of maps distributed about the district showing where the new water and sewer mains are to be laid, is steadily going on and meeting with marked success.

PAINTING DISPLAYED IN WINDOW ADMIR'D BY ALL WHO PASS BY

Amid wars and rumors of wars it is good to see that the love of art still holds sway in Honolulu. Apropos of this there is a magnificent painting of the Yosemite valley on exhibition for a few days in the window of the Hawaiian News Company on Bishop street. The feature of this picture is the marvelous way the soft amethyst haze has been caught by the artist and imprisoned on the canvas.

This painting was purchased from the artist, H. C. Best, in his Yosemite studio by J. L. Cockburn of the Bishop bank and it was the sale of this picture that induced Best and his family to come here for the winter with the purpose of painting the island scenery.

How well he has succeeded in catching these vivid hues and the changing lights and shadows on the hills and valleys may be judged later at his exhibition opening, February 12, at the University Club. Mr. Cockburn is glad of the opportunity to allow the public of Honolulu to enjoy his painting. Mr. Best is known as the Yosemite artist, having his studio there for the last 16 years.

ALERTS AND TIGERS TO PLAY FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Table with columns: Clubs, Won, Lost, Pct. Alerts vs. Tigers: 3-0-1000. Alerts vs. All-Stars: 2-1-666. Alerts vs. Reds: 2-1-555. Alerts vs. Oahus: 0-4-000.

Games Tuesday—Tigers vs. Alerts, Reds vs. All-Stars.

The second round series of the Senior Basketball League comes to a close with the double-header tonight at the Y. M. C. A., in which the Tigers take on the Alerts in the first game and the Reds meet the All-Stars in the second match.

An interesting situation develops in these games. The Alerts are leading the league with a clean record and must win tonight's game in order to qualify to play the Reds, winners of the first series, for the Senior championship. Both the Tigers and All-Stars are tied for second place with two games won and one lost, and should both of them win their games tonight it would produce a triangular tie between these two and the Alerts.

Should the Tigers and the Reds be the winners tonight then the Tigers and Alerts become tied and another game would have to be played to determine which will be the opponents for the Reds.

C. Uchiro hurt his leg on a rock crusher at Moiliili Monday when he was caught on a set screw of a revolving shaft. He is at the Queen's Hospital.
