

Honolulu Star-Bulletin

MAILS From San Francisco G. Northern, Feb. 19. For San Francisco: Ventura, Feb. 20. From Vancouver: Niagara, Feb. 21. For Vancouver: Makura, March 2.

Evening Bulletin, Est. 1892, No. 6712 Hawaiian Star, Vol XXIV, No. 7753 32 PAGES—HONOLULU, TERRITORY OF HAWAII, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1917.—32 PAGES. PRICE FIVE CENTS

HARRY IRWIN MAY FILL KEMP'S JOB Former Hilo Man, Now Honolulu, Offered Assistant U. S. Attorney's Post

D. A. R. CAMPAIGN WINS RESULTS In accordance with the campaign which the Aloha Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution is waging to respect the American flag...

NEW MANAGER OF HOTELS IS NAMED To succeed T. B. Thiele as manager of the Alexander Young and Royal Hawaiian hotels for the Territorial Hotel Company...

NEW YORK SUGAR MARKET IS STRONG Alexander & Baldwin received a night marconigram from its New York house this morning...

U. S. HOT AFTER HARVESTER TRUST The federal government today filed a brief in the supreme court in support of its effort to secure the dissolution of the International Harvester Trust...

Point Rise On Market Today

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET TODAY

Following are the closing prices of stocks on the New York market today, sent by the Associated Press over the Federal Wireless:

Table with columns for stock names and prices. Includes Alaska Gold, American Smelter, American Sugar Rfg., etc.

LEGISLATORS TO CALL FOR PROBE OF DEPARTMENTS

Investigation Rumors Thicken as Members Gather for Session Legislative clans are gathering today for the 1917 session and as they gather in the capital city reports are rife of investigations into government departments.

Gen. Salazar Plans Attack On Americans

Raid "Some Sunday Soon" is Foretold by Villa's Right-hand Man Near Border (Associated Press by Federal Wireless) EL PASO, Texas, Feb. 17.—The American border is again gravely threatened by a raid of bandits in force, according to news which has reached here in the last 24 hours.

Many Americans In Germany Still Held

Only a Few Have Been Allowed to Cross Into Switzerland Since Gerard and Party Were Released By Berlin GENEVA, Switzerland, Feb. 17.—Many Americans who have been living in Germany are reported at Eingen, Lake Constance, waiting permission from the German military authorities to cross the border into Switzerland.

CUBAN REBELLION SEEMS SMASHED

Government Claims Revolutionists Dispersed in Camaguey Province HAVANA, Cuba, Feb. 17.—It was officially announced today that Col. Pujol of the government forces has occupied Ciego Avila, the rebel headquarters in Camaguey province.

TURKEY WOULD BE FRIENDLY WITH U. S.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 17.—Expressions of friendship for the United States and hope that friendly relations will continue have been given to U. S. Ambassador Elkus, at Constantinople, by the Turkish minister of foreign affairs.

GERMANS ORDERED TO CRIPPLE SHIPS

Captain of Kronprinzessin Cecilie Reveals Why Teutons Smashed Machinery (Associated Press by Federal Wireless) BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 17.—Capt. Charles Polack, skipper of the German steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie, which turned in mid-ocean when the war broke out, fled to the neutral port of Bar Harbor, Maine, and later was brought here, gave interesting testimony today at the hearing of the petition for sale of the vessel.

HEAVY FIGHTING IN CHAMPAGNE TODAY

PARIS, France, Feb. 17.—An appalling repulse was inflicted on the Germans by heavy artillery firing today on the Maison de Champagne sector. The French made a strong attack on the German positions at Ammerzweiler, with good effect, says the official statement.

GERMAN SKIPPER'S BODY FOUND IN HARBOR; DEATH IS BELIEVED ACCIDENTAL

The body of Capt. H. Schlueter of the refugee German merchant steamer Staatssekretar Kraetke was found by divers at 2:15 this afternoon at the bottom of the harbor, between his ship and the Longmoor, also a German refugee, at Pier 17. He has been missing since Wednesday night and is thought to have fallen overboard. The police say they believe the death was purely accidental.

COMMITTEE ANNOUNCES MONDAY PROGRAM

The Carnival Committee issued this program today as an official announcement of the events scheduled for Monday, the opening day: The 1917 Mid-Pacific Carnival will open at 2:30 p. m. Monday, not at noon as at first arranged. The Landing of the Carnival Kings on the waterfront at noon will not be held, and the kings instead will head their subjects in the Pan-Pacific Pageant.

ASKS GRAND JURY TO INVESTIGATE

Judge Ashford Suggests Body Look Into Continuances in District Court The Star-Bulletin today was informed that, at a meeting held Friday afternoon following the regular session, the members of the territorial grand jury decided to immediately begin investigation of conditions in police court suggested by Circuit Judge Ashford.

BELIEVES PIERS WILL BE PROBED

H. I. Holstein, probable speaker of the house in the coming legislature, is of the opinion that the territorial law makers will authorize an investigation of their own upon Piers 8, 9 and 10. He arrived today on the Mauna Kea. Holstein mentioned the matter today in an interview in which he had expressed the belief that the matter of efficiency of territorial and county office holders will come under the legislative eye.

TO CLOSE ARMY OFFICES.

Officers, clerks and messengers at department headquarters will observe half-holidays all of next week it was announced this morning. The custom followed on Saturdays of closing offices at 1 o'clock will be followed.

GERMANS ORDERED TO CRIPPLE SHIPS

Captain of Kronprinzessin Cecilie Reveals Why Teutons Smashed Machinery (Associated Press by Federal Wireless) BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 17.—Capt. Charles Polack, skipper of the German steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie, which turned in mid-ocean when the war broke out, fled to the neutral port of Bar Harbor, Maine, and later was brought here, gave interesting testimony today at the hearing of the petition for sale of the vessel.

NEW YORK SUGAR MARKET IS STRONG

Alexander & Baldwin received a night marconigram from its New York house this morning telling of New York sugar market conditions. It said: "NEW YORK, N. Y., Feb. 16.—Sales today of Porto Ricans for February were at 5.27; full duty equivalent 5.63. Offers of Cubas were at 5.64 with buyers at 5.52; offers of Porto Ricans 5.39, buyers at 5.37; full duties offered at 5.77 and 5.63 bid. "May options opened at 5.54 and closed at 5.50."

GERMANS ORDERED TO CRIPPLE SHIPS

Captain of Kronprinzessin Cecilie Reveals Why Teutons Smashed Machinery (Associated Press by Federal Wireless) BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 17.—Capt. Charles Polack, skipper of the German steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie, which turned in mid-ocean when the war broke out, fled to the neutral port of Bar Harbor, Maine, and later was brought here, gave interesting testimony today at the hearing of the petition for sale of the vessel.

HEAVY FIGHTING IN CHAMPAGNE TODAY

PARIS, France, Feb. 17.—An appalling repulse was inflicted on the Germans by heavy artillery firing today on the Maison de Champagne sector. The French made a strong attack on the German positions at Ammerzweiler, with good effect, says the official statement.

GERMAN SKIPPER'S BODY FOUND IN HARBOR; DEATH IS BELIEVED ACCIDENTAL

The body of Capt. H. Schlueter of the refugee German merchant steamer Staatssekretar Kraetke was found by divers at 2:15 this afternoon at the bottom of the harbor, between his ship and the Longmoor, also a German refugee, at Pier 17. He has been missing since Wednesday night and is thought to have fallen overboard. The police say they believe the death was purely accidental.

COMMITTEE ANNOUNCES MONDAY PROGRAM

The Carnival Committee issued this program today as an official announcement of the events scheduled for Monday, the opening day: The 1917 Mid-Pacific Carnival will open at 2:30 p. m. Monday, not at noon as at first arranged. The Landing of the Carnival Kings on the waterfront at noon will not be held, and the kings instead will head their subjects in the Pan-Pacific Pageant.

ASKS GRAND JURY TO INVESTIGATE

Judge Ashford Suggests Body Look Into Continuances in District Court The Star-Bulletin today was informed that, at a meeting held Friday afternoon following the regular session, the members of the territorial grand jury decided to immediately begin investigation of conditions in police court suggested by Circuit Judge Ashford.

BELIEVES PIERS WILL BE PROBED

H. I. Holstein, probable speaker of the house in the coming legislature, is of the opinion that the territorial law makers will authorize an investigation of their own upon Piers 8, 9 and 10. He arrived today on the Mauna Kea. Holstein mentioned the matter today in an interview in which he had expressed the belief that the matter of efficiency of territorial and county office holders will come under the legislative eye.

TO CLOSE ARMY OFFICES.

Officers, clerks and messengers at department headquarters will observe half-holidays all of next week it was announced this morning. The custom followed on Saturdays of closing offices at 1 o'clock will be followed.

GERMANS ORDERED TO CRIPPLE SHIPS

Captain of Kronprinzessin Cecilie Reveals Why Teutons Smashed Machinery (Associated Press by Federal Wireless) BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 17.—Capt. Charles Polack, skipper of the German steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie, which turned in mid-ocean when the war broke out, fled to the neutral port of Bar Harbor, Maine, and later was brought here, gave interesting testimony today at the hearing of the petition for sale of the vessel.

NEW YORK SUGAR MARKET IS STRONG

Alexander & Baldwin received a night marconigram from its New York house this morning telling of New York sugar market conditions. It said: "NEW YORK, N. Y., Feb. 16.—Sales today of Porto Ricans for February were at 5.27; full duty equivalent 5.63. Offers of Cubas were at 5.64 with buyers at 5.52; offers of Porto Ricans 5.39, buyers at 5.37; full duties offered at 5.77 and 5.63 bid. "May options opened at 5.54 and closed at 5.50."

GERMANS ORDERED TO CRIPPLE SHIPS

Captain of Kronprinzessin Cecilie Reveals Why Teutons Smashed Machinery (Associated Press by Federal Wireless) BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 17.—Capt. Charles Polack, skipper of the German steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie, which turned in mid-ocean when the war broke out, fled to the neutral port of Bar Harbor, Maine, and later was brought here, gave interesting testimony today at the hearing of the petition for sale of the vessel.

HEAVY FIGHTING IN CHAMPAGNE TODAY

PARIS, France, Feb. 17.—An appalling repulse was inflicted on the Germans by heavy artillery firing today on the Maison de Champagne sector. The French made a strong attack on the German positions at Ammerzweiler, with good effect, says the official statement.

GERMAN SKIPPER'S BODY FOUND IN HARBOR; DEATH IS BELIEVED ACCIDENTAL

The body of Capt. H. Schlueter of the refugee German merchant steamer Staatssekretar Kraetke was found by divers at 2:15 this afternoon at the bottom of the harbor, between his ship and the Longmoor, also a German refugee, at Pier 17. He has been missing since Wednesday night and is thought to have fallen overboard. The police say they believe the death was purely accidental.

COMMITTEE ANNOUNCES MONDAY PROGRAM

The Carnival Committee issued this program today as an official announcement of the events scheduled for Monday, the opening day: The 1917 Mid-Pacific Carnival will open at 2:30 p. m. Monday, not at noon as at first arranged. The Landing of the Carnival Kings on the waterfront at noon will not be held, and the kings instead will head their subjects in the Pan-Pacific Pageant.

ASKS GRAND JURY TO INVESTIGATE

Judge Ashford Suggests Body Look Into Continuances in District Court The Star-Bulletin today was informed that, at a meeting held Friday afternoon following the regular session, the members of the territorial grand jury decided to immediately begin investigation of conditions in police court suggested by Circuit Judge Ashford.

BELIEVES PIERS WILL BE PROBED

H. I. Holstein, probable speaker of the house in the coming legislature, is of the opinion that the territorial law makers will authorize an investigation of their own upon Piers 8, 9 and 10. He arrived today on the Mauna Kea. Holstein mentioned the matter today in an interview in which he had expressed the belief that the matter of efficiency of territorial and county office holders will come under the legislative eye.

TO CLOSE ARMY OFFICES.

Officers, clerks and messengers at department headquarters will observe half-holidays all of next week it was announced this morning. The custom followed on Saturdays of closing offices at 1 o'clock will be followed.

GERMANS ORDERED TO CRIPPLE SHIPS

Captain of Kronprinzessin Cecilie Reveals Why Teutons Smashed Machinery (Associated Press by Federal Wireless) BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 17.—Capt. Charles Polack, skipper of the German steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie, which turned in mid-ocean when the war broke out, fled to the neutral port of Bar Harbor, Maine, and later was brought here, gave interesting testimony today at the hearing of the petition for sale of the vessel.

NEW YORK SUGAR MARKET IS STRONG

Alexander & Baldwin received a night marconigram from its New York house this morning telling of New York sugar market conditions. It said: "NEW YORK, N. Y., Feb. 16.—Sales today of Porto Ricans for February were at 5.27; full duty equivalent 5.63. Offers of Cubas were at 5.64 with buyers at 5.52; offers of Porto Ricans 5.39, buyers at 5.37; full duties offered at 5.77 and 5.63 bid. "May options opened at 5.54 and closed at 5.50."

GERMANS ORDERED TO CRIPPLE SHIPS

Captain of Kronprinzessin Cecilie Reveals Why Teutons Smashed Machinery (Associated Press by Federal Wireless) BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 17.—Capt. Charles Polack, skipper of the German steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie, which turned in mid-ocean when the war broke out, fled to the neutral port of Bar Harbor, Maine, and later was brought here, gave interesting testimony today at the hearing of the petition for sale of the vessel.

HEAVY FIGHTING IN CHAMPAGNE TODAY

PARIS, France, Feb. 17.—An appalling repulse was inflicted on the Germans by heavy artillery firing today on the Maison de Champagne sector. The French made a strong attack on the German positions at Ammerzweiler, with good effect, says the official statement.

GERMAN SKIPPER'S BODY FOUND IN HARBOR; DEATH IS BELIEVED ACCIDENTAL

The body of Capt. H. Schlueter of the refugee German merchant steamer Staatssekretar Kraetke was found by divers at 2:15 this afternoon at the bottom of the harbor, between his ship and the Longmoor, also a German refugee, at Pier 17. He has been missing since Wednesday night and is thought to have fallen overboard. The police say they believe the death was purely accidental.

COMMITTEE ANNOUNCES MONDAY PROGRAM

The Carnival Committee issued this program today as an official announcement of the events scheduled for Monday, the opening day: The 1917 Mid-Pacific Carnival will open at 2:30 p. m. Monday, not at noon as at first arranged. The Landing of the Carnival Kings on the waterfront at noon will not be held, and the kings instead will head their subjects in the Pan-Pacific Pageant.

ASKS GRAND JURY TO INVESTIGATE

Judge Ashford Suggests Body Look Into Continuances in District Court The Star-Bulletin today was informed that, at a meeting held Friday afternoon following the regular session, the members of the territorial grand jury decided to immediately begin investigation of conditions in police court suggested by Circuit Judge Ashford.

BELIEVES PIERS WILL BE PROBED

H. I. Holstein, probable speaker of the house in the coming legislature, is of the opinion that the territorial law makers will authorize an investigation of their own upon Piers 8, 9 and 10. He arrived today on the Mauna Kea. Holstein mentioned the matter today in an interview in which he had expressed the belief that the matter of efficiency of territorial and county office holders will come under the legislative eye.

TO CLOSE ARMY OFFICES.

Officers, clerks and messengers at department headquarters will observe half-holidays all of next week it was announced this morning. The custom followed on Saturdays of closing offices at 1 o'clock will be followed.

GERMANS ORDERED TO CRIPPLE SHIPS

Captain of Kronprinzessin Cecilie Reveals Why Teutons Smashed Machinery (Associated Press by Federal Wireless) BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 17.—Capt. Charles Polack, skipper of the German steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie, which turned in mid-ocean when the war broke out, fled to the neutral port of Bar Harbor, Maine, and later was brought here, gave interesting testimony today at the hearing of the petition for sale of the vessel.

NEW YORK SUGAR MARKET IS STRONG

Alexander & Baldwin received a night marconigram from its New York house this morning telling of New York sugar market conditions. It said: "NEW YORK, N. Y., Feb. 16.—Sales today of Porto Ricans for February were at 5.27; full duty equivalent 5.63. Offers of Cubas were at 5.64 with buyers at 5.52; offers of Porto Ricans 5.39, buyers at 5.37; full duties offered at 5.77 and 5.63 bid. "May options opened at 5.54 and closed at 5.50."

GERMANS ORDERED TO CRIPPLE SHIPS

Captain of Kronprinzessin Cecilie Reveals Why Teutons Smashed Machinery (Associated Press by Federal Wireless) BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 17.—Capt. Charles Polack, skipper of the German steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie, which turned in mid-ocean when the war broke out, fled to the neutral port of Bar Harbor, Maine, and later was brought here, gave interesting testimony today at the hearing of the petition for sale of the vessel.

HEAVY FIGHTING IN CHAMPAGNE TODAY

PARIS, France, Feb. 17.—An appalling repulse was inflicted on the Germans by heavy artillery firing today on the Maison de Champagne sector. The French made a strong attack on the German positions at Ammerzweiler, with good effect, says the official statement.

GERMAN SKIPPER'S BODY FOUND IN HARBOR; DEATH IS BELIEVED ACCIDENTAL

The body of Capt. H. Schlueter of the refugee German merchant steamer Staatssekretar Kraetke was found by divers at 2:15 this afternoon at the bottom of the harbor, between his ship and the Longmoor, also a German refugee, at Pier 17. He has been missing since Wednesday night and is thought to have fallen overboard. The police say they believe the death was purely accidental.

COMMITTEE ANNOUNCES MONDAY PROGRAM

The Carnival Committee issued this program today as an official announcement of the events scheduled for Monday, the opening day: The 1917 Mid-Pacific Carnival will open at 2:30 p. m. Monday, not at noon as at first arranged. The Landing of the Carnival Kings on the waterfront at noon will not be held, and the kings instead will head their subjects in the Pan-Pacific Pageant.

ASKS GRAND JURY TO INVESTIGATE

Judge Ashford Suggests Body Look Into Continuances in District Court The Star-Bulletin today was informed that, at a meeting held Friday afternoon following the regular session, the members of the territorial grand jury decided to immediately begin investigation of conditions in police court suggested by Circuit Judge Ashford.

BELIEVES PIERS WILL BE PROBED

H. I. Holstein, probable speaker of the house in the coming legislature, is of the opinion that the territorial law makers will authorize an investigation of their own upon Piers 8, 9 and 10. He arrived today on the Mauna Kea. Holstein mentioned the matter today in an interview in which he had expressed the belief that the matter of efficiency of territorial and county office holders will come under the legislative eye.

TO CLOSE ARMY OFFICES.

Officers, clerks and messengers at department headquarters will observe half-holidays all of next week it was announced this morning. The custom followed on Saturdays of closing offices at 1 o'clock will be followed.

GERMANS ORDERED TO CRIPPLE SHIPS

Captain of Kronprinzessin Cecilie Reveals Why Teutons Smashed Machinery (Associated Press by Federal Wireless) BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 17.—Capt. Charles Polack, skipper of the German steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie, which turned in mid-ocean when the war broke out, fled to the neutral port of Bar Harbor, Maine, and later was brought here, gave interesting testimony today at the hearing of the petition for sale of the vessel.

NEW YORK SUGAR MARKET IS STRONG

Alexander & Baldwin received a night marconigram from its New York house this morning telling of New York sugar market conditions. It said: "NEW YORK, N. Y., Feb. 16.—Sales today of Porto Ricans for February were at 5.27; full duty equivalent 5.63. Offers of Cubas were at 5.64 with buyers at 5.52; offers of Porto Ricans 5.39, buyers at 5.37; full duties offered at 5.77 and 5.63 bid. "May options opened at 5.54 and closed at 5.50."