COL. AND MRS. RICHARD CROXTON'S DINNER DANCE

The Moana Hotel was the scene of one of the largest dinner dances given this season when Col. and Mrs. Richard Croxton entertained, giving a farewell dinner dance in honor of Col. and Mrs. Daniel Lane Howell, who are so shortly to leave Hawaii.

The large table was a field of golden crapepods and lace ferns, with lighted tapers shaded in yellow and in silver stocks. Tiny yellow electric bulbs were flashed and the lights peeped and winked from under the yellow field of flowers.

Col. and Mrs. Croxton's guests were: Col. and Mrs. Daniel Lane Howell, Col. and Mrs. James B. Houston, Col. and Mrs. William Pratt Kendall, Col. and Mrs. Tiemann N. Horn, Maj. and Mrs. Charles Lincoln, Capt. and Mrs. James Gallogly, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Case Deering, Maj. and Mrs. William Cochran, Capt. and Mrs. Jack Hayes, Capt. and Mrs. Harry E. Knight, Capt. and Mrs. Thomas H. Lowe, Miss Caroline Hughitt, Miss Baker, Miss Lucille Ladson, Miss Lucille Kitson, Miss Hodges, Miss Stevens, Miss Del McCue, Mr. Waller, Mr. Clifford Hannon, Lieut. Lester D. Baker, Mr. F. E. Hughitt, Capt. Henry Merriam, Mr. William Lewers, Maj. Lawrence Hedington and Mr. Guy Butolph.

After dinner the guests enjoyed dancing until a late hour. Col. and Mrs. Croxton have made a delightful niche in the civil social life of Honolulu as well as in service circles.

Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, who has been in San Francisco for the past three months, returned home this week and is comfortably settled in the W. H. Babbitt home in upper Nuuanu. Mrs. Henry Foster Dutton, whom Mrs. Macfarlane has been visiting, will arrive in Honolulu in a month for a visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Warren celebrated the eighth anniversary of their wedding on Thursday evening, and the candles that were burned on the altar the night of their wedding were lighted again this year for a few minutes, as they have been each year since that first happy occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dusenberg enjoyed the evening with them.

TWO HATS IN ONE IS NEWEST FEMININE FAD

The latest novelty from the mainland is the "Tustyle," or two-style hat for women. As the name implies, it is two hats in one, a large hat for afternoon and evening functions—a small hat for automobilizing and the gusty day. It is made in extremely smart models, with detachable brim, and is reported to be quite the fad on Fifth avenue this season.

A stock of "Tustyle" hats arrived by the last steamer and is now on display in Miss Power's millinery parlors, second floor, Boston building, Fort street.—Adv.

WOMAN'S BOARD MEETS TUESDAY

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Board of Missions will be held at half-past two on the afternoon of Tuesday, March 6, in the parlors of Central Union church.

The committee on Chinese work has charge of the program. Mrs. Leigh Doane, superintendent of this department, will tell of her work and her plans. There will be music by classes of Chinese girls followed by the report of the Chinese Bible woman, Mrs. Tsang Yau. Mrs. McKenzie, who has recently returned to take up again the Chinese work at the Beretania mission, will give a short address.

In addition to the regular program, Miss Ruth Huntington will tell of her interesting work among the mountaineers of Kentucky. Mrs. F. C. Albertson will follow with one or more Southern ballads. Strangers are particularly invited to be present at this meeting.

One woman was fatally injured and 12 others hurt when a trolley car rushed backward down a steep hill, jumped the track and crashed into a building at Schenectady, N. Y.

HAWAIIAN ART OF WEAVING REVIVED

To supply work for industrious Hawaiian girls, the ancient Hawaiian art of weaving has been revived under the auspices of the Hawaiian Fiber, Art and Craft School at the Damon house, known as the Old Plantation, and the articles turned out by the 15 girls now at work are finding a ready market.

The industry is in charge of Mrs. Mary Kalauli, an expert weaver, and although most of the girls knew nothing about weaving they are making rapid progress in the art. Fred H. McNamara is manager. A large number of the weavers are from the Girls' Industrial School, being brought down in the morning and returned at night.

Articles are now being manufactured from the lauhala, banana, black banana, loulou, coconut, iwa and ekaha and comprise hats, mats, bags, cushions, fans, baskets, hula shirts and satchels. The girls work by the piece and all the profits go to them. The industry has been under way two months.

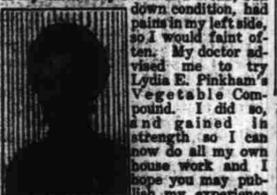

BROTHER RETURNS FROM 'DEAD' AFTER 23 YEARS' ABSENCE

CHICAGO, Ill.—Mourning was dead because no word had been received from him after he left home to go adventuring 23 years ago, Arthur Schulman came back to Chicago recently and a few minutes after he got off a train, found his folks. He started 60 Van Buren street. On the door of a trunk factory he saw "Schulman." He made inquiries and the first man he spoke to was his brother, Henry.

MOTHER OF NINE CHILDREN

Able to do Housework by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Springfield, Mass.—"After the birth of my ninth baby I was in a weak, run down condition, had pains in my left side, and I would faint often. My doctor advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and gained in strength so I can now do all my own house work and I hope you may publish my experience with your Compound for the benefit of other mothers."—MADAME EUGENNE BEDARD, 558 Main Street, Springfield, Mass.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful in overcoming woman's ills because it contains the tonic, strengthening properties of good old-fashioned roots and herbs, which act on the female organism. Women from all parts of the country are continually testifying to its strengthening, curative influence.

If you want special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (consultant), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read, and answered by women only.

Portraits

It's the natural, unconscious pose that gives artistic value to my portraits of little folk. My moderately priced cabinets are as worthy in this respect as are the more expensive mezzographs.
