

TWO BILLS THAT CUT GOVERNOR'S POWER TABLED

Declaring that there have been distinct abuses in the recent past resulting from the governor's power of appointment of district magistrates, Senator Manner C. Pacheco raised a protest against a report submitted by the judiciary committee this afternoon. Pacheco asked for a vote by ayes and noes on the question.

The judiciary committee had recommended the tabling of two bills taking from the governor the power of such appointment and it was while a show of hands on the report was being called for that Pacheco fired his broadside.

"There is a distinct desire for a change," declared Pacheco heatedly. "I have a decided opinion on this question. The appointment of district magistrates is not in proper hands at present."

"I don't have to mention names," Pacheco went on. "Despite the fact that the justice of the supreme court maintains that it is, there is too much politics at present in these appointments and abuses of the privilege. I say there should be a change."

"Kokuai!" shouted Senator Desha as Pacheco sat down.

Sensors Baldwin, Cooke, Desha, Pacheco, Shimizu and Chillingworth voted against accepting the recommendation to table. Senators Castle, Cosey, Correa, Hild, Kamaoaha, Makela, Mikaelo, Quinn and Robinson favoring it.

Senator Coney, chairman of the military committee, introduced two bills today for National Guard legislation, placing that organization under laws that will coincide with the federal requirements.

A request to visit the boys' industrial school at Waialeale was received from Superintendent Frederick Anderson and referred to the educational committee that a date might be set.

Word that Governor Pinkham had signed house bill 61, relating to the punishment of kidnapers, was received from Secretary Wade Warren Thayer.

Governor Pinkham also notified the senate that he has nominated Lieut. S. W. Fay of the Naval Militia and Charles T. Wilder as members of the Naval Militia board, and E. N. Holmes, M. S. Spiloff and David Ewaliko on the board of appraisers.

At 3 o'clock the senate took a short recess to listen to the report of the house on the proposed Congressional visit, the bill having passed third reading in the senate last evening.

House bill 49, taken up after the recess, passed third reading. This bill relates to a tax on social clubs.

House bill 4, relating to duties of coroners, was referred to be taken up later. The senate also passed house bill 52, relating to juvenile courts, and house bill 48, relating to vacancies in county offices.

If a bill which was introduced by Senator Manner Pacheco of Oahu this afternoon becomes a law all old-established highways would be exempt from the frontage tax law.

At 5:30 o'clock the select committee of Oahu went into session to consider the vice-allegation bill.

ABATEMENT LAW TO BE STUDIED

Upon the adjournment of the senate this afternoon from regular business, Senator Robert W. Single was in call a meeting of the Oahu select committee which has before it the abatement by injunction bill for consideration and report.

Single said today that his purpose in calling this meeting was that the Oahu members might reach some conclusion as to the policy on which to proceed in dealing with the question.

It is probable that tomorrow or the next day the committee will invite in other members of the senate to hear various federal, territorial and municipal attorneys, sheriffs and marshals, officials of the board of health and prominent physicians of the city.

This committee will give their study to the attention to the probable effect of shutting up absolutely a "red light" district in some remote part of the city, both as to the present and the coming two years," said the chairman.

Admiral Knight will relieve Admiral Winterhalter at Manila.

RUSH OF NEW BILLS CAUSES HOUSE TO HOLD SECOND SESSION TODAY

First Hour of Morning Meeting Given Over to Introducing of New Legislation

Creation of a delinquent tax commission in each of the several counties is provided for in a bill introduced in the house today by Representative Lorrin Andrews. Each commission, says the bill, shall consist of five persons to be appointed by the governor with the approval of the senate.

Ex-officio members of the commissions shall be the auditor and treasurer, as well as the tax assessor of the division, the other two members to be residents of the county in which the commission exists. The term of office shall be for not more than one year after July 1, 1917.

The duties of the commission are outlined as follows:

"It shall be the duty of each commission to thoroughly examine all delinquent tax accounts in its respective tax division and determine, as nearly as may be, the possibility of collecting all such delinquent tax. They shall cause to be prepared a complete list of such delinquent tax accounts as are, by them, considered uncollectable and shall endorse at the foot of said list a statement to the effect that the commission has considered all of said accounts and that said accounts are by them declared uncollectable."

Second Session Necessary

A few moments after the solons were called to order this morning the house was flooded with bills that continued to pour in for nearly an hour.

So great was the pressure of the morning business that another meeting is being held this afternoon for discussion of bills that are to come up for third reading.

A measure of importance was introduced by Representative C. H. Cooke which proposes broad amendments to sections 1297, 1222, 1223, 1225, 1226 of the revised laws of 1915, as well as other sections, and to repeal sections 1224, 1226 and 1227 of the revised laws, relating to taxation.

Representative Marques introduced a bill to amend the law prohibiting officers and employees of the territory or its political subdivisions from becoming interested in public contracts. The bill provides that the act "shall not prohibit any such officer or employee from bidding in open competition with others for the purchase or sale of any property or the performance of any work in this section set forth, nor from the acceptance by any government, county or municipal officer of any such bid."

A bill introduced by Representative Kelekolio forbids the imposition of penalties for the non-payment of water and sewer rates and substitutes an interest charge in lieu of such penalties. This interest charge is at the rate of six per cent a year, to attach 15 days after the rates become delinquent.

Another bill by Kelekolio makes it unlawful for any public officer to use any territorial or county conveyance for his private use or pleasure, a fine of not less than $10 or more than $100 being provided as a penalty for violation.

Medical License Required. In a measure introduced by Representative Miles it is provided that no person shall practice medicine or surgery in the territory, or append the title "doctor" to his name without possessing a valid unrevoked license from the treasurer.

It provides that licenses may be granted to persons to practice osteopathy and chiropractic who hold diplomas from any legally chartered colleges and upon the applicant passing an examination before the board of medical examiners to show he is able to diagnose diseases, particularly contagious and infectious diseases.

A petition by Representative Lyman asks for an appropriation for the construction of a road along the banks of the Waialeale river. Upon recommendation by the agriculture committee, Representative Kelekolio's bill to give the board of agriculture certain additional powers, including investigation into the shipment of live stock, passed third reading.

Representative Wahalo introduced a resolution instructing the superintendent of public works to proceed with the repairs of the Pukou, Molokai wharf, and that an appropriation of $15,000 be made to cover the expenses of the repairs.

Citizens Given Preference. Representative Andrews introduced a joint resolution that contractors on government works give to citizens or persons eligible to become citizens the preference in the employment of labor. The resolution points out that at the present time many contractors are employing aliens on government work, many of the aliens not being eligible for American citizenship.

Another petition introduced in the house urged the passage of House Bill 61, which provides for the licensing of chiropractors. This bill is now with the health committee, a public hearing on the measure having been held recently.

Despite hot opposition, led by Representative Kelekolio, the bill to set aside a tract of government land at Pihouua, South Hilo, as public grounds for a high school, agricultural and botanical gardens, passed third reading in the house, the vote being 17 for and 12 against.

Representative Kelekolio introduced the following resolutions: "Resolved, by the House of Representatives in regular 1917 session assembled that the delegate to Congress from Hawaii be instructed to introduce in Congress a law to amend Section 66 of the Organic Act relating to executive power, so that the governor of this territory cannot under any circumstances alter or set aside the judgment of a judge of the circuit court in all cases where death is the judgment pronounced by said judge of said circuit court."

"Resolved, by the House of Representatives, regular session 1917, that the delegate to Congress from Hawaii be requested to introduce in Congress a law amending Section 26 of the Organic Act relating to compensation of members, making it $900 instead of $600.

"Be it further resolved, that the said delegate from Hawaii be also requested to introduce another law in Congress amending Section 43 of the said Organic Act relating to the sessions of the legislature, making it 90 days instead of 60 days."

The following bills were introduced in the house today:

- House Bill 248. Substitute bill relating to recovery of costs and attorney's fees by an employee recovering against employer for claim for wages.—Judiciary committee.
- House Bill 249. Substitute bill relating to corporations.—Judiciary committee.

- House Bill 256. To facilitate acquisition of lands for homesteads.—Kelekolio.

CHARTER HITCH IS POLICE CHIEF

With but minor amendments, including some of those proposed by the Chamber of Commerce, Representative Lorrin Andrews' city charter bill has practically been accepted by the Oahu delegation of the house, barring one section on which now hinges a mild disagreement, or rather an uncertainty.

Every section of the charter bill, with the exception of the one providing for the appointment of a chief of police by the mayor with the approval of the board of supervisors, has been passed, it was learned today at a meeting of the delegation yesterday afternoon.

The difficulty now confronting the delegation is the provision regarding the chief of police. The problem for the delegation to solve is to provide for a chief of police with jurisdiction throughout the island of Oahu, or to turn the powers back into the hands of the sheriff, who now holds them.

One member of the delegation says it was understood that the idea was to have the mayor appoint a chief of police only for the district of Honolulu, deputy sheriffs to have control of police in the outside districts on this island. But now the matter has simmered down to the question of whether the chief shall be vested with all the powers, or whether there be no provision for the creation of this office.

Department Heads Elected. The delegation has agreed that the heads of departments shall be elected by the people, and not appointed by the mayor and supervisors. It has been further agreed, as announced in the Star-Bulletin yesterday, that there shall be six instead of seven supervisors, three from the fifth and three from the fourth district. When the vote was taken on the supervisors yesterday, only six members were present, four voting for and two against. It was learned today, however, that two other members went to the meeting later and agreed with the majority on this point.

Superintendent to Be Appointed. Another charter provision that has been agreed to is that regarding the superintendent of city works. The Star-Bulletin is informed that the delegation has agreed that the superintendent shall be appointed by the mayor with consent of the board of supervisors.

What was done with the amendments proposed by the Chamber of Commerce, a member of the delegation said today: "Wherever possible, and wherever it was thought feasible and in the best interests of the voters, the Chamber amendments were adopted."

A report from the house Oahu delegation on the charter bill is expected this week.

BIG ISLAND ASKS BRANCH MARKET

Residents of Hawaii favor the house bill which provides for the creation of a territorial marketing division and urge that, if the bill becomes a law, a branch of the market be established at Hilo, according to a letter received by the house, from the members of the Hilo board of trade. The letter asserts that, despite the large expense of creating the branch, it could be made self-supporting within a very short time.

The letter follows: "House bill 153, which is now before the members of the house, is an act in which the citizens of the different districts of Hawaii are deeply interested. The Board of Trade of Hilo, at a special session held a few days ago, heard the report of a committee which was strongly in favor of a marketing division for the island of Hawaii, to be established at Hilo. Section 6 of the house bill covers this point and it is a matter into which we wish you would look closely."

House inquires as to homesteading plans. Questions relating to the opening of homestead lots on Hawaii are put to Land Commissioner B. G. Rivenburgh in a letter addressed to him today by Representative Norman K. Lyman, chairman of the public lands committee.

The letter is based on a house resolution asking an explanation of the delay in opening up certain homestead lots applied for as far back as 1913.

"Will you kindly let me know what you are going to do with the Kaanuhuu lots, in North Kohala, which lots have all been surveyed and divided for homesteads? If the land has been appraised, and by whom? What is the appraised value? How many lots are there? What agreement are the lots to be given out under? When is the drawing to take place? How many lots can each applicant draw? What will be the interest under the agreement which you intend to put these lots out?"

BILL WOULD SAVE BATHING BEACH FROM POLLUTION

It is one bill I will endorse if it tends to make the superintendent of public works do something," declared Representative Lorrin Andrews, chairman of the house judiciary committee, commenting on a proposed measure to divert the stream that empties into the ocean between the Outrigger Club and the Moana Hotel.

"This is a nuisance that, I think, has been tolerated just about long enough," he adds. "We are permitting these waters to be spotted before the eyes of tourists, to say nothing of local bathers. It is even worse than our poor streets."

The proposal that the bill be introduced was made by J. Ashman Beaven, secretary of the Outrigger Club. The bill was drawn this morning and introduced by Representative Andrews this afternoon. It appropriates $15,000 to divert the stream, the appropriation to be under the control of the superintendent of public works.

That C. R. Forbes, superintendent of public works recently demurred to a plan to fill in the lagoon between the club grounds and the Moana is the assertion of Beaven, who says that the club had planned to buy 1000 wagonloads of dirt for the project. Forbes explained, Beaven adds, that the matter of diversion had been arranged with the governor and that, within a week the government would take up the work of diverting the stream.

Another charter provision that has been agreed to is that regarding the superintendent of city works. The Star-Bulletin is informed that the delegation has agreed that the superintendent shall be appointed by the mayor with consent of the board of supervisors.

What was done with the amendments proposed by the Chamber of Commerce, a member of the delegation said today: "Wherever possible, and wherever it was thought feasible and in the best interests of the voters, the Chamber amendments were adopted."

WANT TO LEARN WHY DOCK UNUSED

If arrangements can be made, Capt. Ahman of the Great Northern will meet with the public lands committee of the house of representatives this afternoon to discuss the Kuhio wharf project now before the committee.

A resolution has been introduced to ascertain why the Great Northern and steamers of the Matson fleet do not dock at Kuhio wharf. The public lands committee already has held several meetings to discuss the measure and last Saturday visited the wharf. The committee has addressed the following letter to the local agent of the Great Northern:

"If it will be convenient for you, could you arrange with Capt. Ahman of the Great Northern to meet the public lands committee at the harbor board rooms in the capitol building at 2 p. m. this afternoon to discuss the Kuhio wharf project in Hilo? Any suggestions from him to help put this wharf in condition so that your boats can use it will be greatly appreciated."
