ARMY OFFICERS WILL BATTLE WITH CLUB MEN AT PARK ON SATURDAY

University Club Players Will Present Strong Lineup of Baseball Stars—Game Will Be Played for Benefit of Army Relief—Large Crowd Expected at Athletic Park on St. Patrick's Day—Is the Pen Mightier Than the Sword?

Will the pen be mightier than the sword? That is the question that will be settled on Saturday afternoon at Athletic park when the mighty ink bladders of the University Club meet the sword hurriers of the Army in a game which goes under the classification as a "diamond contest." The combat will be staged for the benefit of the Army Relief Fund, which has been doing a great work.

Seats are now selling at Gunst's Cigar Store, and already a large number have been purchased. Several old stars and a few lesser lights will endeavor to show how our national pastime is played. The Army officers of Oahu will be out in force, and it is expected that the members of the University and Oahu Country Clubs will have a big delegation in the stands.

From the talk around the clubs and on the streets everybody and his brother will watch the battle of the baseball stars, and it has been rumored that a large delegation of the fair sex will be represented when the umpire gives the signal for the boys to begin work.

The University and Country Clubs have joined forces, and stars will be selected from each club to hurl their forces against the Army, which will be strongly entrenched. It should be a bag-up game from start to finish, if just performances may be taken as a criterion.

Charley Lyman, who will have charge of the Army forces, has gathered together a collection of range finders and heavy artillery men who are expected to start something when the flag is raised. Charley will wear the windup, and this insures some good work behind the plate. Hanna, who is one of the Army stars, will go on the firing line, and his ammunition has been carefully preserved for the enemy.

Captain Anderson, who used to dig them up around the initial sack for the Kamehameha team, will take care of base work. No. 1, as he has been working out with his team, should show some good baseball. "Satch" Schneider will be the guardian of the keyhole sack, and when he marches up to the plate will carry a brassie and a mallet. The rules of the game will allow the player to use whatever weapon he may, and in case "Satch" gets in trouble with two strikes on him you may see him digging for the sand disturber which he carries in his hand.

Capitain "Kain" who is one of the shining lights of the Shafter team, is the man selected to handle the shots around the left field station, and with much experience should prove to be an excellent third gardner. Devere, who has been working out with the Kailua Tigers, will play shortstop, and this means trouble for the opposing forces.

Walk Waltz Step
Britton, who played football and baseball at West Point, will be stationed at third. He has armed himself, or rather one should say legged himself with shin guards and a head gear to stop the club men from stealing. Britton will use the new walk waltz step in running bases which should prove to be a novelty.

Lohman, who has been playing ball on the Cavalry team, will be mounted on one of his chargers in center field, if the opposition does not make any objection. During the battle of Low Bridge, Lohman caught four shells with an infielder's glove, so should receive consideration.

St. Patrick's Day
Pat Riley, who hurls from the south side, has decided not to pitch for the Army. Pat has taken up golf, and believes that pitching will injure his "follow-through," so will play the outfield. He is a former West Point star, and is expected to show something to those who believe that Pat Riley is not a good name for St. Patrick's Day.

Louis Beard has secured Sally Wallies for the occasion, and may play one of the outfield positions. According to the recent edict he will be allowed to use his mallet when batting in the fourth chucker. Wallace Phil-kins, who was one of the real football stars at West Point, has promised to coach the outfielders on interference and may break into the game. Loomis and Wheeler are two other stars who must not be overlooked, and both are dead right field hitters.

PHI Spalding, who will boss the club men, has been a busy man for the past week. To begin with he is a good hitter, and an unusually hard hitter. He cares nothing about singles and is expected to make a home run before the month is over. He was selected as boss of the team in order to secure experience.

One would think by the infield lineup that Spalding has intended the contest to be a love game as the four infielders are all tennis players. A. M. Nowell, who will be the man back of the net at first base, has the reach, and when marching to the plate will

DUTCH COMPANY DEFEATS CHINESE TEAM YESTERDAY

Zweifel and Schatzlein Prove Too Much for Locals; Portland Hits Ball Hard

Chinese baseball players of Honolulu got "in Dutch" yesterday afternoon at Athletic park. They were forced to meet the Pretzel twins, namely "Ignatz" Zweifel and Herman Schatzlein. This was enough to cause trouble as the Dutch Company was the best that ever came over from Breslau.

You may call him plain Yee at the present, as the Portland willow wielders proceeded to knock the Luck out of his name early in the game. Yee did not carry much out to the park with him yesterday afternoon, and as a consequence the Portland batters hit his offerings at all corners of the pasture.

Portland went out by a score of 9 to 1, and it might have been worse had not the gloaming sneaked out from behind the stand, causing the players to hurry it along. The corn beef and cabbage was already placed on the festive boards and the plate cards were assigned to their localities before the last man was out in the ninth inning.

The Chinese were not charged with an error, but there were a number of mental lapses which helped Portland to run up the score. After Luck Yee was hammered hard Hoon Ki came to the firing line, and was also greeted with a number of hits. All this time "Lefty" Crumpler, the premier south-side pitcher of the islands, was seated on the Chinese bench, and the man in charge of the squad allowed him to remain there.

Crumpler could not have done any worse against the visitors, and might have helped a lot. The Chinese could stand a better chance of winning on Thursday if they would give the south-paw hurler a chance against the left-handed batters of the Beavers. The All-Americans said that Crumpler was the best pitcher in the islands, and they included Roan in the list.

Why Not Crumpler?
With Crumpler on the mound on Thursday, providing that he is in shape, the Chinese could be expected to give the Portland players a run for their money, and Crumpler would in addition be a big drawing card. Luck Yee and Hoon Ki have both been found in the last two games, and the Beavers are getting on to their style of playing.

Charley Hollocher, the little blonde shortfielder of the Hulas; who is certain to hit them up in the Baum circuit this year, broke into the limelight with one of the best plays of the year. With the exception of the one pulled by Moriama during the series, it was the leading feature. Swan hit a drive between short and third which looked like a drive to the outfield, and with the crack of the ball the little Portland player was off and snagged the ball with one hand, and out of position hurled the ball to third for a putout. It was a great play and he richly deserved the applause that was given him.

Bill Pullis Circus Catch
Bill Rodgers robbed Kan Yen of a clean hit, when he raced over towards Stumpville and speared a drive which carried him off his feet, but he rolled over and came up with the ball in his hand. En Sue again starred in the field, handling six difficult chances with ease. Both Ayau and Moriama played good ball, the latter especially keeping up his record of playing errorless ball since the Beavers came to Honolulu.

Moriama has accepted 27 chances, many of them difficult, and has not had one error charged against him. The Portland newspaper men think that the second basemen will make good in the North-West League, but Zweifel looks better every day, and should be seen in the Coast League before many moons.

BILL UNMACK LOOKS AFTER LOCAL STARS

D. L. Quonking is in receipt of a letter from William Unmack, the well-known sport writer of San Francisco, in which Unmack says that he will meet Lane and Kelli on their arrival and do what he can to make their visit a pleasure.

Unmack has already done much in looking after the Honolulu athletes, and his attention in this respect is certain to be well received by swimming devotees of Honolulu. Unmack writes that Lane and Kelli will only be allowed to compete in the 50-yard national championship, and McGillivray was also barred from this race. The San Francisco man was making an effort to arrange for a special race at the time his letter was written.

HAWAIIAN ELECTRICS AFTER BALL GAMES

Jack Dassel has lined up a strong aggregation of baseball stars for his Hawaiian Electric team, and the aggregation will go on the war path on Sunday. The Hawaiian Electric squad have a number of stars on the team and are expected to show something against the other aggregations around town.

SOLDIER WEISS MEETS SPRAGUE IN POST SMOKER

Sailor Boy Will Be One of Principals in Main Event; Six Bouts on March 17

Arrangements are now being made for another big smoker at Schofield on St. Patrick's Day, and inasmuch as the last smoker brought out a number of good boxers it is expected that there will be a record crowd as March 17 has always been a good day for a card of this sort.

Chaplain Ignatius Fealy, who will have charge of the program, is planning on staging a number of good bouts with Weiss, a fast boy from the 9th Field Artillery, and Cy Sprague of the U. S. S. Alert, as the headliners. Both these boys have a good record in the hempen square and should draw a big crowd at the post.

There is no admission charge for the smokers at the post, and the enlisted men have never looked on the matches as other than a boost for the art of manly defense. Many boxing fans from Honolulu attend the bouts, and all pronounce them one of the best features that could be staged for the enlisted men. Chaplain Fealy has promised six bouts during the afternoon.

SIGNAL CORPS BEAT FORT ARMSTRONG AT ARMY PIN BATTLE

Signal Corps bowlers won three out of four games from the Fort Armstrong pin men at the Army last evening. "Dolly" Gray secured high average for the three games with a mark of 186. Pomeroy still holds high score with 222.

Signal Corps	Fort Armstrong

Scott	180

There ought to be some exciting times in the Pacific Coast League this year when the Christmas players, Hollywood and Hollocher stage a duel at the shortstop position. Hollywood is making good with a vengeance in the Seal camp, while Hollocher looks like a second Bancroft, and ought to land the shortfield job if he doesn't break a leg.

DOUBLE HEADER WILL BE STAGED AT ATHLETIC PARK THURSDAY AT 2 P. M.

Portland Will Play Last Games in Honolulu With 25th Infantry and Chinese Teams—Portland Players Have Made a Good Impression in Honolulu, and Fans Will Surely Welcome Them Back Next Year—Southpaws May Hurl Tomorrow

Honolulu baseball fans will be given a double bill at Athletic park tomorrow afternoon when Portland meets the 25th Infantry and Chinese teams. The first game will begin at 2 o'clock and the second will be called at 3:30 or thereabouts.

This will be the last time that the fans will have an opportunity of watching the Portland players in action, and furthermore it will be the last glimpse of Ayau before he leaves for Seattle. It is to be hoped that a record crowd will turn out to send the players on their way to the mainland with a good feeling for Honolulu.

The Portland trip here has been a big boost for Honolulu. The McCredies have brought down a nice bunch of fellows who have been a credit to the community. There has been no wild escapades at night, as the Portland boss has seen that his players were in excellent condition. McCredie has allowed the players an opportunity to enjoy Honolulu, but there has been no getting in at an early hour at Camp McCredie.

Portland Boys Popular
The Portland boys have made a big hit with the fans of Honolulu, and there will be thousands here who will boost for the Hulas to land the pennant in the Baum circuit this season. It will be a much bigger boost for baseball here if we could have more teams of this sort in training.

When Portland was beaten there were no excuses. Other teams have come here and when they lost a game have said that they dropped it on purpose. This hasn't helped the game much, and the sooner this is stopped the better. Portland players have to make good and every defeat handed to them has been recognized as a defeat.

Both the McCredies think well of the baseball players here, and when they have lost they admitted that the other team played better baseball. Portland has now rounded into shape, and as was expected, is winning. Let it be hoped that the visitors will continue to win and come back next year as Pacific Coast League champions.

The two games tomorrow ought to be good ones, and if the Chinese can secure Crumpler to work in the last game there will surely be a larger crowd out, as the southpaw is popular with the army fans. Crumpler pitched good ball against the All-Americans and if in shape would be a big help to the locals. Aulston may have lost his wildness, and if so will perhaps be scheduled to pitch. The Hulas will have a harder time hitting portside fingers, and we may see two interesting games to wind up the local series.

PACIFIC LEAGUE WILL MEET FRIDAY AT 5 P. M.

Officers and managers of the Pacific League are requested to meet at Theo. H. Davies Hardware department on Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The league will take up the question of prizes and arrangements will be made for a series to begin in the near future. The league brought out a number of star players during the year and the style of play has much improved. All managers and officers are urged to be present as the meeting will be one of importance.

COMBBS AND EHLERS TO FIGHT IT OUT SUNDAY

Frank Combs' baseball team will clash with the B. F. Ehlers aggregation of ball tossers on Sunday morning at Athletic park at 9 o'clock. Combs has lined up a strong team with Luck Yee on the mound, and it is expected that the dry goods team which has won five straight games will receive strong competition.

PALAMA WILL GREET RETURNING SWIMMERS

Palama Settlement will hold a swimming meet and "sats" for the returning swimmers on Tuesday evening, March 20, at the Palama gymnasium. At that time it is expected that the medals will be ready for distribution. Clarence Lane, the Palama swimmer, and John Kelli, the Healan boys who were sent to San Francisco with Harvey Chilton, will be present.

New glass number plates for residences can be attached to porch ceiling lights so that they can be read easily at night.
