

SOCIETY

SCHOFIELD SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Oahu, March 17.—The arrival of the transport Sherman on Monday from San Francisco brought many new officers to Schofield, among whom were Col. and Mrs. Lucius Durfee, who are living in the quarters formerly occupied by Col. B. Walker Atkinson; Chaplain and Mrs. Haywood Winter, who have taken Chaplain Aiken's house; Maj. and Mrs. Hunter, Capt. and Mrs. Merrill E. Spalding and Dr. and Mrs. Skelton, who are living in the 20th Infantry cantonment; Mrs. Lloyd Brett and Miss Brett, who have joined Col. Brett of the 4th Cavalry; Maj. and Mrs. Hunter N. Nelson, Capt. and Mrs. Conger Pratt and Capt. and Mrs. Joseph J. McMullen, who are living in the Cavalry post at Castner.

Capt. and Mrs. Robert Love were dinner hosts on Sunday afternoon for Mr. and Mrs. Klots and Miss Klots of New York City, Mr. Augustus Lawrence and Capt. Thomas Rothwell.

Col. and Mrs. William Litterbrant entertained charmingly at dinner on Wednesday evening when their guests included Col. and Mrs. Charles Hedekin, Col. and Mrs. Frank Albright and Maj. and Mrs. Lewis Sorley.

Mrs. John Boniface and Miss Isabel Boniface returned on Sunday from Kahuku where for the past month, they have been staying while Capt. Boniface has been doing guard with his troop at the wireless station.

Capt. and Mrs. De Russy Hoyle gave an enjoyable breakfast on Sunday morning for the members of the Mongoose Hunt Club. The guests included Gen. Charles G. Treat, Maj. and Mrs. Fred Austin, Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre, Capt. and Mrs. Richard Thomas, Capt. and Mrs. Henry Kilbourne, Capt. and Mrs. William Brown, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Vanderveer, Miss Margaret Treat, Miss Katherine Treat, Miss Gertrude Jones, Miss Katherine Jones, Miss Witherspoon of New Orleans, Lieut. Clyde Selleck, Lieut. Karl Greenwald, Lieut. Daniel Murphy and Lieut. Archibald Arnold.

Mrs. George Helme, who has been the house-guest of Capt. and Mrs. George Paine for several weeks, returned to the States on Tuesday, sailing on the Sonoma.

Col. and Mrs. Henry Hodges were dinner hosts on Friday evening for Lieut. and Mrs. Walter Greacen and Lieut. Charles Bonesteel.

A daughter, which has been called Anna Evelyn, was born to the wife of Lieut. Louis A. Beard on Tuesday, March 13, at the Department hospital at Fort Shafter.

Mrs. Clyde Abraham was hostess at a charming bridge-luncheon on Wednesday afternoon her guests being Mrs. Samuel Lyon, Mrs. Charles Willard, Mrs. Charles Meals, Mrs. Walter Pridgen, Mrs. Thomas Lowe, Mrs. Woodfin Jones, Mrs. Walter Frank, Mrs. Robert Calder, Mrs. Carl Balingier and Mrs. Julius Disney Willis.

Col. William Gulgnard had Col. John Bellinger and Col. John McMahon as his dinner guests on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Walter Pridgen is spending a week at the Colonial hotel in Honolulu.

Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre entertained at a most delightful dinner on Wednesday, complimenting Capt. and Mrs. Conger Pratt and for Capt. and Mrs. John Kerr, Capt. and Mrs. De Russy Hoyle, Lieut. and Mrs. James Chaney and Lieut. and Mrs. Oliver Dickenson.

Mrs. Jerome Pillow and Mrs. Richard Kimball have each taken a set of quarters at Fort Kamehameha, for a month during their husbands' guard tour at that post.

Maj. and Mrs. Horace Bloomberg had Dr. and Mrs. Walter Pick as luncheon guests on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. L. Mason of Sierra Madre, Cal., was hostess at tea on Wednesday afternoon at Lanikaia in Honolulu for the following ladies: Mrs. Lewis Sorley, Mrs. Byard Sneed, Mrs. Englebert Ovenshine, Miss Bogdees, Mrs. John Burnett, Mrs. Elvid Hunt, Mrs. George Kumppe, Mrs. Robert Sears, Mrs. Walter Greacen, Mrs. Alfred Rockwood, Mrs. William Dashiell, Mrs. Otto Rosenbaum, Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum, Mrs. Alden Knowles, Mrs. William Hunt, Mrs. Bernard Stumberg, Mrs. William Cochran, Mrs. Edward Witsell, Mrs. Raymond Wheeler, Mrs. Carl Hardigg, Mrs. Henry Muhlenberg, Mrs. Thomas Camp, Mrs. Lohman, Mrs. Edwin Hartsborn, Mrs. Paul Reinecke and Mademoiselle Stauber.

Col. and Mrs. Lucius Durfee were house-guests of Capt. and Mrs. Harry Lassland for several days after the arrival of the transport on Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Blodgett have moved into Honolulu, where they will make their home in the future. Dr. Blodgett has resigned from the army and will practise in civil life.

Mrs. Charles Wyman was hostess at bridge on Monday afternoon for Mrs. Walter Frank, Mrs. Carl Balingier, Mrs. John Baxter and Mrs. Karl Truesdell.

Col. and Mrs. Henry Hodges have been moving this week into the quarters formerly occupied by Col. George Bailey.

On Wednesday evening before the Cavalry hop, Capt. and Mrs. Kerr T. Riggs had as their dinner guests Capt. and Mrs. Philip Kiehl, Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Cheney and Lieut. and Mrs. Howell Estes.

Miss Nancy Hawkins is confined to the house with a case of measles.

Lieut. and Mrs. Walter Greacen had Capt. and Mrs. George Kumppe as informal guests at dinner on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Charles Leonard entertained the 1st Infantry Reading Club on Thursday afternoon, the members present being Mrs. Earl Carnahan, Mrs. Frank Halstead, Mrs. Thomas Lowe, Mrs. Harry Blaisland, Mrs. Robert Sears, Mrs. George Kumppe, Mrs. Charles Rice, Mrs. Englebert Ovenshine, Mrs. Elvid Hunt, Mrs. Walter Greacen, Miss Leonard and Miss Evelyn Hodges.

Mrs. Byard Sneed has been the house-guest of Capt. and Mrs. Edwin Hartsborn at Fort Shafter for the past week.

Col. and Mrs. Charles Hedekin had Capt. and Mrs. John Boniface and Miss Isabel Boniface as their luncheon guests on Wednesday.

On Wednesday evening Capt. and Mrs. Paul McCook were dinner hosts for Lieut. and Mrs. Walter Greacen and Lieut. Charles Bonesteel.

Col. John Bellinger of the Quartermaster Corps, who was a passenger on the Sheridan en route to the Philippine Islands, was the guest of Col. William Gulgnard while the transport was in port.

Lieut. and Mrs. Walter Greacen were over-night guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred Rockwood of Fort Shafter on Thursday.

The Country Club was the scene of a prettily appointed bridge-luncheon on Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Jerome Pillow entertained in honor of Mrs. Robert Cheney and for Mrs. Charles Hedekin, Mrs. Clarence Day, Mrs. Charles Willard, Mrs. Russell Reeder, Mrs. De Russy Hoyle and Mrs. John Heardon. The prizes, dainty sandwich baskets, were won by Mrs. Hedekin and Mrs. Willard.

A number of the ladies of the 4th Cavalry are entertaining this afternoon at bridge and tea at the Cavalry Club as a compliment to Mrs. Lloyd Brett, who is a recent arrival at Castner. The hostesses for this charming affair are Mrs. Charles Hedekin, Mrs. Hamilton Hawkins, Mrs. Clarence Day, Mrs. Richard Thomas, Mrs. Howell Estes, Mrs. Conrad Babcock, Mrs. Philip Kiehl, Mrs. Kerr T. Riggs, Mrs. John Herr, Mrs. Robert Cheney and Mrs. Charles Jewell, while the guests included are Mrs. William Snow, Mrs. William Banister, Mrs. Tieman Horn, Mrs. Charles Lloyd, Mrs. Fred Austin, Mrs. Benjamin Hyer, Mrs. Arthur Locke, Mrs. Augustine McIntyre, Mrs. John Corey, Mrs. Raymond Pratt, Mrs. Dennis Currie, Mrs. William Browning, Mrs. Henry Kilbourne, Mrs. George Paine, Mrs. De Russy Hoyle, Mrs. Charles Daly, Mrs. Ellen Jordan, Mrs. Herman Erikkotter, Mrs. Jacob Devers, Mrs. Harold Vanderveer, Mrs. Frank Sedlesek, Mrs. David Cain, Mrs. Wilfred Stokes, Miss Carrie McMahon, Miss Esther McMahon, Miss Gertrude Jones, Miss Katharine Jones, Mrs. William McCleave, Mrs. John Boniface, Mrs. Frederick Arnold, Mrs. Allen Smith, Mrs. J. Perrine Barney, Mrs. Jerome Pillow, Mrs. Conger Pratt, Mrs. Robert Love, Mrs. Augustus Lawrence, Mrs. Richard Maxwell, Mrs. Charles Van Way, Mrs. Seth Scofield, Mrs. Walter Pick, Mrs. Dexter Rumsey, Miss Brett and Miss Dorothy Van Way.

Mrs. J. L. Mason of Sierra Madre, Cal., who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Walter Greacen, for several months was a home-going passenger on the Great Northern, sailing on Friday.

Maj. and Mrs. Charles Lloyd had Col. and Mrs. William Litterbrant as informal dinner guests on Friday evening.

Mrs. Karl Truesdell is giving a large bridge party this afternoon. Included in this delightful affair are Mrs. Frank Albright, Mrs. Charles Willard, Mrs. Frank Halstead, Mrs. John Corley, Mrs. Clarence Day, Mrs. Allen Smith, Mrs. La Verne Gregg, Mrs. Clyde Abraham, Mrs. James Bell, Mrs. Charles Wyman, Mrs. Merrill Spalding, Mrs. Ellen Jordan, Mrs. Robert Calder, Mrs. George Tooley, Mrs. William McCleave, Mrs. Oliver Dickenson, Mrs. Herman Erikkotter, Mrs. Walter Pick, Mrs. Eley-Dancon, Mrs. John Baxter and Mrs. Carl Balingier.

The squadron of the 4th Cavalry which has been living in the Cavalry Artillery Cantonment, moved to the Cavalry post at Castner on Wednesday. The officers who were affected by this change were Maj. Benjamin Hyer, Capt. J. Perrine Barney, Capt. John Boniface, Capt. Charles Van Way, Capt. Robert Love, Dr. Walter Pick, Lieut. Dexter Rumsey, Lieut. Seth Scofield, Capt. Edgar Whiting and Lieut. Leopold Herwig.

FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
FORT SHAFTER, Mar. 17.—The Shafter Bridge Club met on Wednesday of this week, being postponed from the regular evening to give the members a chance to attend, "The Battle Cry of Peace," which was being shown at the local picture house. Mrs. Claire R. Bennett was the gracious hostess, and the meeting was the largest held this season, there being nine tables playing. The attractive prize, a Koa wood bowl, was won by Capt. John B. Richardson of Schofield Barracks. Playing were Capt. and Mrs. Chas. A. Lewis, Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred L. Rockwood, Mrs. John T. Mason, Lieut. and Mrs. John S. Sullivan, Capt. and Mrs. William E. Hunt, Capt. and Mrs. Raymond A. Wheeler, Capt. and Mrs. Callender, Mr. and Mrs. McQuesten, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell, Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum, Mrs. Robert A. Sharrar, Mrs. Bernhardt K. Stumberg, Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas J. Camp, Miss Jessie Deens, Capt. and Mrs. Claire R. Bennett, Mrs. Morris, Lieut. Eugene A. Lohman, Mrs. Julia Lohman, Col. William Weigel, Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. William B. Cochran, Mrs. Frank Hunter, Lieut. Ralph C. Holliday and Capt. and Mrs. John B. Richardson.

The friends of Mrs. John T. Mason, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Alfred L. Rockwood, for the past three months, are regretting her departure for her home in the States on the Great Northern, which sailed away on Friday. Mrs. Mason was a charming guest in the post and was the recipient of many complimentary parties. She carries with her the aloha of her friends at Fort Shafter.

Maj. and Mrs. William B. Cochran were guests of Capt. and Mrs. Clark of Pearl Harbor when they entertained on Tuesday evening.

The many friends of Maj. and Mrs. George H. Jamerson and of their small son, Osborne, are rejoicing at the news of their return to the islands in the near future.

Lieut. Lester D. Baker and Miss Baker had tea with Miss Skeel at the Moana on Sunday afternoon.

Capt. and Mrs. William E. Hunt entertained, at a delightful supper, after the card club on Wednesday evening, complimenting Mrs. John T. Mason. The table was most attractive with its centerpiece of fragrant violets, its quiet place cards and glistening silver. Seated at this festive board were Mrs. John T. Mason, Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred L. Rockwood, Dr. and Mrs. Bernhardt K. Stumberg, Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas J. Camp, Lieut. and Mrs. John S. Sullivan, Capt. and Mrs. Raymond A. Wheeler, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell, and the host and hostess.

Mrs. Mason was presented with a lovely corsage bouquet of violets.

Lieut. William H. Jones is a new arrival on the post, having reached here on the transport last Tuesday.

Lieut. and Mrs. Samuel J. Heidner are also newcomers at Fort Shafter, having arrived on the last transport from the States. They have with them their sister, Mrs. McAdams.

Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell entertained at dinner for Capt. and Mrs. John B. Richardson and their small son Junior on Wednesday evening. After dinner the party enjoyed a game of auction at the card club.

Capt. and Mrs. Claire R. Bennett had as their guests for luncheon and dinner on Tuesday Lieut. and Mrs. Heidner and Mrs. McAdams.

Lieut. William H. Jones was the luncheon guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred L. Rockwood on Tuesday.

Mrs. John T. Mason was hostess at a charming tea at the Lanikaia tea rooms on Wednesday afternoon. She was assisted in entertaining her guests by her two daughters, Mrs. Alfred L. Rockwood and Mrs. W. S. Greason. Those enjoying the delightful occasion were Mrs. Raymond A. Wheeler, Mrs. Paul S. Reinecke, Mrs. Claire R. Bennett, Mrs. William B. Cochran, Mrs. Otto Bane Rosenbaum, Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum, Mrs. Carl A. Hardigg, Mrs. Thomas J. Camp, Mrs. Bernhardt K. Stumberg, Mrs. Henry C. K. Muhlenberg, Mrs. John S. Sullivan, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell, Mrs. Alden C. Knowles, Mrs. Julia Lohman, Mrs. Byard Sneed, Mrs. Kumppe, Mrs. Ovenshine, Mrs. Sorley, Mrs. Hartsborn, Mrs. William Hunt, Mrs. McClellan, Miss Stauber, Mrs. E. Hunt, Mrs. Burnett, Miss Voght, Mrs. Sears, Mrs. Rice, Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Mrs. Pearson.

Commander and Mrs. Victor Houston had as dinner guests at the Country Club on Thursday evening Lieut. and Mrs. F. A. Sloan.

Capt. and Mrs. Alden C. Knowles were the guests from Fort Shafter when Mrs. Bland entertained at a charming dinner at the Country Club on Tuesday evening.

Capt. Edwin S. Hartsborn and family are spending a few days at Haleiwa.

Miss Isabel Baker had Miss Marior Chapin for a luncheon guest on Wednesday.

Lieut. and Mrs. Samuel J. Heidner have been assigned to quarters No. 2 in the cantonment. These quarters were lately occupied by Capt. and Mrs. Fredendahl.

Mrs. Guy G. Palmer was hostess at a small tea for Mr. and Mrs. Nitchley, Miss Nitchley, Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Rockwood and Mrs. Sullivan on Thursday afternoon, this being a very thoughtful and delightful way to make the outgoing passengers acquainted before they sailed on the Great Northern Friday.

Mr. and Miss Taylor had Capt. and Mrs. Alden C. Knowles in for dinner at the Moana on Thursday evening. Later the party attended the garden fete.

Col. and Mrs. Daniel Lane Howell left on the transport Thomas last week for their new post on the border.

Chaplain William Reese Scott, Mrs. Scott, the Misses Scott and Master William Scott were also passengers on the same transport sailing for the States.

A meeting of the ladies of the post has been called for 3 o'clock Monday afternoon at Mrs. Guy George Palmer's to discuss the forming of a Red Cross class. It is to be hoped there will be a large attendance at this meeting.

Lieut. and Mrs. Lohman had dinner with friends at the Pleasanton Hotel on Monday night, and later enjoyed the dancing on the lanai.

At Capt. and Mrs. Gienty's dinner on Thursday evening at the Moana the guests from the post were Capt. and Mrs. William E. Hunt, Lieut. Lohman, Mrs. Julia Lohman and Col. William Weigel.

Miss Isabel Baker had dinner with Miss Eleanor Gartley on Thursday evening and later Miss Gartley took her guest to the Moana to enjoy the garden fiesta and the dancing.

The baseball game between the army officers and the members of the University Club is being played today at Athletic park, and is being witnessed by nearly every one from Fort Shafter. The proceeds from this game are devoted to the indigent widows and orphans of soldiers, the game being held under the auspices of the Army Relief Society. Among the representatives on the team are Lieut. Eugene Lohman, Capt. Charles L. McKain and Lieut. William H. Britton.

Mrs. McQuesten, who has been a constant visitor at the Tuesday evening Bridge Club during her stay on the islands, entertained at a luncheon and bridge at the Country Club on Thursday. Those bidden from the post were Mrs. Raymond A. Wheeler, Mrs. William E. Hunt, Mrs. Julia Lohman and Mrs. Alden C. Knowles. This was a very charming entertainment and was greatly enjoyed by those present.

Lieut. Chris Burlingame and Miss Daphne Dow had a buffet supper with Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell on Sunday evening.

Mrs. McQuesten's friends will be very sorry to see her sail away next Wednesday, as she has planned to do.

Miss Jessie Deens was with Capt. and Mrs. Claire R. Bennett for dinner on Wednesday evening and later accompanied them to the Bridge Club.

Among those noticed from Fort

Every Can In Which Rawley's Pure Ice Cream

is packed, has been carefully sterilized beforehand, with boiling water and live steam; dried by hot air blasts and further purified by filtered, dustless sunshine.

This is only one of many precautions taken in the big, modern factory to insure the purity and wholesomeness of this high grade dessert.

Sunday Specials: Phones
 Fresh Strawberry 4-2-2-5
 Pistachio 4-5-5-5
 Tutti Frutti

Unusual Values IN USED PIANOS

PLAYER PIANOS AND UPRIGHTS

These instruments have just been thoroughly overhauled, new strings in some instances even have been added. Their cases have been cleaned and polished. Altogether they are very desirable instruments and, at our prices, are a great buy.

Step into our salesroom today or early next week. You can then see for yourself what bargains these pianos represent at

$50 and up

THAYER PIANO CO.

STEINWAY HALL

148-150 Hotel St.

Telephone 2313

The Only Exclusive Piano House in Hawaii

Neolin Soles

Neolin is a patent composition said to wear a very long time, besides being easy on the feet.

Those who are looking for Neolin Soles will find them here in

Men's and Women's Shoes and Oxfords in Tan and White

Regal Shoe Store
 Hotel and Fort Sts.

Shafter at the garden fete at the Moana on Thursday evening were Col. William Weigel, Capt. and Mrs. William E. Hunt, Lieut. and Mrs. Lohman, Lieut. and Mrs. Camp, Lieut. and Mrs. Henry C. K. Muhlenberg, Mrs. Frank Hunter and Capt. Theodore A. Baldwin, Jr.

The annual dinner of the West Pointers is being held at the Moana this evening.