

SOCIETY

SOCIETY events this week have been in the main conspicuous by their absence. Honolulu's leaders in the accustomed social whirl are now devoting the major part of their attention to preparedness, patriotic duties and war relief work.

Many have thrown themselves into first-aid classes and the like with such a fervor of devotion that they have no time for the ordinary social events and are giving fewer dinner parties, bridges, teas and receptions as in the summer season advances.

In consequence, civilian society functions now revolve mostly around some patriotic task, this being now the fashion as well as the duty of milady and her friends.

The largest event of the week in which local society folk were interested was the wedding on Monday night that united in marriage two very well-known and widely popular Honoluluans—Mr. Guy N. Rothwell and Miss Mary Louise McCarthy, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Charles J. McCarthy, the ceremony taking place at the bride's home, Rev. Father performed the marriage ceremony, assisted by Chaplain Ignatius Fealy of Schofield Barracks.

It was a pretty wedding ceremony. The improvised altar was very simple and yet very beautifully decorated. It was covered with a handsome Venetian lace cloth and banked with maidenhair ferns. On the top of the altar stood a handsome sheaf of Easter lilies and below were two standards of seven-branched lighted candles. The room was in pink and green; hundreds of pink growing begonias and maidenhair ferns being used.

In one corner was a bower of these dainty blossoms, while the large, square, broad-seated window held the same flowers, with dozens of pink gladioli standing in their decoratively conventional manner, nodding their pretty heads. The piano on the lanai was banked with begonias, the door arches were daintily outlined with pink cass grandes and feathery pepper.

Miss Louise McCarthy was the third daughter of the family to be married in a year.

The bride approached the altar leaning on the arm of her father, Col. Charles J. McCarthy, who gave her into the keeping of the groom, who stood at the altar with Mr. Charles Davis, best man. The bride was very beautifully gowned in a white crepe meador, with an overdress of pearls and silver lace. A long queue train, attached from the shoulders, fell in graceful folds and the dainty white was enveloped in a mist of white tulle. Orange blossom buds held the veil in place about the head. The shower bouquet was of white orchids, white gardenias, and white bride-roses. The long satin streamers were dotted with white sweet peas and white violets. Before leaving the bride stood with her back to the assembled maids and tossed the bouquet over her head. It was caught by Miss Abbie Lucas amid a gale of laughter.

Miss Eileen McCarthy, who was the maid of honor, wore a pink georgette and chiffon, with touches of gold and blue, and carried a bouquet of Cecil Bruner roses and forget-me-nots.

Miss Margaret McCarthy, the bridesmaid, wore a green chiffon and net over silver, and carried a bouquet of enchantress carnations.

Mrs. Stuart Johnson played the wedding march, as she did for the two previous weddings in the McCarthy home. Supper served, a quintette played and dancing was enjoyed. In the midst of dancing the bride and groom made their escape, being generously showered with rice and petals of flowers.

The Honolulu Iron Works, of whose staff Mr. Rothwell is a member, sent a very handsome silver tea service. In the dining room the wedding gifts were arranged and they were very beautiful, attesting to the popularity of the young couple. They have gone to the Peninsula for their honeymoon and when they return they will occupy the Arthur Gilman cottage on Kalia road, Waikiki.

The wedding decorations were in the charge of Mrs. Arthur F. Wall and reflected credit on her artistic ability.

About a hundred guests were assembled, including relatives and intimate friends, to wish the young people all prosperity and happiness.

ENGAGEMENT OF TWO POPULAR YOUNG PEOPLE

Mr. Marshall B. Henshaw announces the engagement of his sister, Vera, to Lieutenant William E. R. Covell of Fort Shafter. The wedding will in all probability be an early fall one.

MRS. JAMES B. HOUSTON'S INFORMAL TEA

Mrs. James B. Houston was an informal tea hostess on Wednesday afternoon at her pretty Nuuanu home. About twenty guests were assembled and a delightful afternoon enjoyed.

COL. SAMUEL PARKER'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

Col. Samuel Parker celebrated his sixty-fifth birthday last Monday with a luau. The party was also in the nature of a house-warming, for Col. Parker has just moved from the place he has been living to the old Hart home on the beach. The house resembled a huge florist shop, so filled was it with blossoms, the gifts of old friends. Hundreds of American Beauty roses, gladioli, Easter lilies, and golden yellow lilies were artistically arranged by Mrs. Carl Widemann and Mr. Ernest Parker.

The table was decorated with American Beauty roses and each guest was presented with a malle lei.

Mr. Parker's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Widemann, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shingle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stillman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Falk, and Mr. Edmund Norris, Mr. and

"THE RAINBOW"—PICTURESQUE TABLEAU WHICH WAS FEATURE OF PUNAHOU SUN BALLET ON PUNAHOU CAMPUS LAST NIGHT

Those in the group above are part of the ballet given last week by pupils of Mrs. Agnes P. Driver, and repeated last night for the benefit of the American Red Cross. Reading from left to right they are as follows: Bernice Jaeger, Oma Haley, Martha Cooke, Grace Stephens, Alvina Blom, Thelma McQuaid, Irene Holt, Gjerd Hiorth. Photo by Star-Bulletin staff photographer.

Bucklin, Mrs. Sayer, Mrs. Mary Beckley, Miss Mary Low, Miss Clara Low, Mrs. Anne Girard, Mr. Palmer, Mr. A. Brown, Mr. Ernest Parker, and others. Dancing and cards were the diversion. All of the assembled guests were overjoyed to find "Uncle Sam" in such good spirits and so happy.

MRS. A. W. T. BOTTOMLEY A BRIDGE HOSTESS

Mrs. A. W. T. Bottomley was hostess at a bridge-tea on Friday afternoon at her pretty Manoa home. The rooms were pretty with baskets of cut flowers and soft, cool ferns and palms. The prizes were very attractive knitting bags and were won by Mrs. W. L. Stanley, Miss Anna Danford and Mrs. Alexander G. Hawes. Mrs. Bottomley's guests were Mrs. William P. Kendall, Madam Bougardier, Mrs. Edgar Robinson, Mrs. Clinton G. Balleatynne, Miss Anne Hartnagle, Mrs. Edward M. Watson, Mrs. William Stanley, Mrs. Arthur Berg, Mrs. Frank Halstead, Mrs. Trofield, Mrs. Harold Hayselden, Mrs. E. W. Jordan, Mrs. Claude Watson, Mrs. Donald Ross, Mrs. Matthew M. Graham, Miss Ehrborn, Mrs. Jack Hayes, Miss Blanche Soper, Mrs. C. M. V. Forster, Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Miss Josephine Soper, Miss Maud Jordan, Miss Victoria Jordan, Miss Havling, Miss Frances Gillett, Mrs. A. A. Young, Mrs. Frances Reed, Miss Gillet, Mrs. R. Lange, Mrs. James Cockburn and Mrs. A. Hodgins.

MR. AND MRS. LAWRENCE JUDD'S DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Judd were dinner host and hostess on Tuesday evening at the Country Club honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ted Guard of Hilo and Mr. Harris of San Francisco. The table was very pretty, with its base-ket filled with pink and white begonias and lace ferns. Dancing was the enjoyment after dinner.

HAWAIIAN ALLIED RELIEF ENTERTAINMENT

The entertainment that was to have been given on the evening of May 28 for the benefit of the Hawaiian Allied War Relief Committee has been indefinitely postponed owing to the many programs for relief of the war sufferers. The committee in charge deem it advisable to postpone just now and a little later on the same ladies who have already been asked to act as patronesses, will be called upon again.

MRS. WILLIAM STANLEY HONORS MRS. R. SCOTT

Mrs. William Stanley was a bridge hostess on Monday afternoon at her Puunui home, honoring Mrs. Robert Scott. About twenty guests were in attendance.

MRS. LOUIS E. DAVIS A TEA HOSTESS

Mrs. Louis E. Davis will be at home from three to six on Thursday of next week, complimenting Mrs. Charles G. Heiser, Jr., who leaves shortly for the mainland.

A WEEK-END AT AHUIMANU

Miss Lady Macfarlane was hostess at a week-end party from last Saturday until Monday at Ahuimanu, windward Oahu. The guests motored over Saturday. Those who enjoyed Miss Macfarlane's hospitality were

CALLING DAYS FOR HONOLULU

- Monday—Punahou, Makiki.
- Tuesdays—Waikiki, Kapoliolani Park, Kaimuki, Palolo. First Tuesday—Fort Ruger.
- Wednesdays—Nuuanu, Puunui, Pacific Heights. First and third Wednesdays, above the Nuuanu bridge; second and fourth Wednesdays, below bridge; fourth Wednesday, Pacific Heights; first and third Wednesdays, Alewa Heights.
- Thursdays—The Plains.
- Fridays—Hotels and town, fourth Friday; Fort Shafter, first Friday; Manoa, College Hills, first and third Fridays; Kamehameha schools, last Friday.
- Saturdays—Kalihi, third and fourth Saturdays.
- Fort Shafter—Calling day is every Friday.

Miss Harriet Lucas, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Mary Lucas, Mr. Robert Smith, Mr. Robert Purvis, Mr. Charles Brenham, Mr. Robert Menary, Mr. and Mrs. George Collins, and Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Paxson.

MISS EMILY LADD GIVES A POI SUPPER

Miss Emily Ladd was hostess at a poi supper on Wednesday evening, honoring Mrs. Gabbs of San Francisco. The table center was ornamented with a Chinese market basket filled with several varieties of island fruit, giving a pretty effect. After supper a motor trip to the Pall finished a charming evening. Miss Ladd's guests were Mrs. Gabbs, the guest of honor, Mrs. Victoria Ward, Kulumanu Ward, Miss Lucy Ward, Miss Kathleen Ward, Miss M. Mossman, Miss Emmeluth, Miss Kate McIntyre, Miss Margaret McIntyre, Mr. Arthur Hewett, Mr. Allen Robinson, Mr. Frank McIntyre, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Booth.

THEATER PARTIES AT THE FRAWLEYS

The Frawley Company have awakened real enthusiasm among the lovers of legitimate drama in Honolulu. Many theater parties are being given.

On Tuesday evening the A. L. Castles and the Harry Macfarlanes had parties. On Wednesday the Robert Shingles had six guests, the A. W. T. Bottomleys had three guests, the W. J. Wests six guests, Capt. and Mrs. R. H. Wheeler had eight guests, and Mr. H. Schultze four guests. This evening Capt. James Gallogly is entertaining for ten guests, Mr. Frank Moss is having six guests, and Mr. John McCrosson ten guests. Saturday brings a full house. The bills have been excellent and Honolulu has enjoyed the splendid things provided by this company.

PLEASANTON HOTEL NOTES

The Pleasanton hotel is enjoying the patronage of a fair amount of tourist guests who are here for the summer despite the war scare. They entertain in an informal way and enjoy the broad cool lanais and summer breezes. Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Barnes, recent home-comers, are domiciled there for the winter, as are Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Coburn with their son and daughter. They come from Colorado and plan to remain all summer.

MISS PAULINE SCHAFFER HONORS MISS ROSIE HERBERT

Miss Rosie Herbert, who is to be a June bride, has been the motif for a large number of delightful parties and Hawaii, who has charm of manner combined with absolute unaffectedness.

Miss Schaefer's party was a bridge-tea. After several interesting rubbers were played, tea was served and a social hour enjoyed.

The pretty Schaefer home was abloom with fragrant flowers and cool baskets of maidenhair fern were an added attraction. The guests were Miss Rosie Herbert, the guest of honor, Mrs. Merwin Carson, Miss Ann Johnson, Mrs. Frank West, Miss Martha McChesney, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. William B. Lymer, Miss Sara Lucas, Miss Thelma K. Murphy, Mrs. Reynolds B. McGrew, Miss Helen Pratt, Miss Marie Balleatynne, Miss Alla Ward, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss L. E. Hooper, Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Mrs. A. Wiley Mather, Miss Ruth McChesney, Miss Marjory Capps, Miss Geraldine Berg, Miss Dorothy Guild, Mrs. Dickson Nolt, Miss Alife Hoops.

To the guest of honor was given a very handsome Venetian lace cloth. Miss Ann Johnson scored highest at bridge and was given a pretty bronze bowl. Miss Martha McChesney was given two desk cardinals and sticks in the bluebird design.

CAPT. AND MRS. C. M. WALSON'S LUAU

Renewing old friendships in a hospitable manner befitting the customs of the land where they now reside, Capt. and Mrs. C. M. Walson entertained delightfully on Thursday evening for Col. and Mrs. Irons of Fort Shafter and their guest, Miss Moss, who is being widely entertained during her short stay here.

The entertainment took the form of being unable to attend because of a sprained ankle. Maj. and Mrs. Sorley, Miss Harker, Dr. Harry Deiber and Capt. and Mrs. Walson.

COLLEGE OF HAWAII GIVING DANCE

This evening in the main building of the College of Hawaii, the students are entertaining complimentary to the seniors and juniors of Punahou Academy. The dance-room is to be done in yellow coropsis and yellow daylight lilies, making the room most attractive.

Following is the reception committee: President and Mrs. Arthur L. Dean, Prof. and Mrs. A. L. Andrews, Mr. Hebard Case, who represents the seniors of the college, Mr. Gustav Balleatynne, who stands for the Juniors, Miss Jannett Sharp, who represents the sophomores, and Miss Ruth Farrington and Mr. George Bromley, who represent the freshmen.

The evening promises to be a very jolly one. "Dude" Miller's Glee Club will furnish the dance music.

MR. AND MRS. A. L. CASTLE'S INFORMAL DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Castle entertained on Friday evening at a charming informal dinner. The table was decorated with pink and white oleanders, the straight conventional green leaves making an attractive feature. Mr. and Mrs. Castle's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Schaefer, Miss Beatrice Castle, Lieut. Wallace Pihome, Miss Noble left the next day Barnes.

ENGAGEMENT OF MUCH INTEREST

Mr. and Mrs. E. Wells Peterson announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to Mr. Waldo H. Heinrichs.

Mr. Heinrichs is a graduate of Denison university, Ohio, and came to Honolulu some years ago as one of the Y. M. C. A. secretaries. From here he went into Y. M. C. A. work in India, returning later to the States. He is a young man of fine character and attainments and has many friends in this city.

A TEA AT LANIAKEA

Miss Florence Butler was hostess on Monday afternoon at the pretty tea rooms at Laniakea honoring Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Weller. Miss Butler's guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Weller, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. C. Deering, Mrs. Grafton Beall, Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse, Mrs. Albin G. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Patterson, Mr. Frank Moss, Mrs. E. R. Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Buchy, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cartwright, Mr. Donald Blanding, and others.

Madeira Embroidery for Night Gowns, Chemises, Baby Dresses, Handkerchiefs, Napkins, Tea Cloths, Centerpieces, Etc.

Initials a Specialty
Miss J. P. Melin
With Johnson & Olson
Walters Bldg.

POPULAR HONOLULU GIRL BRIDE OF HONOLULU MAN

A Splendid Collection of Graduation Dresses

Frocks, so simple, so dainty, so appealing have been designed for this pre-eminent occasion of "school days" that every sweet graduate is sure to find just the one "after her own heart."

A charming collection of pretty models in new fabrics and trimmings, priced from $10.50 to $15.00

SACHS'

Hotel St., near Fort