MRS. LOUIS E. DAVIS HONORS
MRS. C. G. HEISER, JR.
 Mrs. C. G. Heiser, who leaves shortly, has been the incentive for many very pleasant and happy assemblages of friends. Mrs. Louis E. Davis was a hostess complimenting this popular matron on Thursday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock at her Manoa home. The rooms were very attractive. Dozens of fern baskets were suspended from the ceiling and in the windows, lending an air of coolness and charm. Pink begonias and gladiolus were attractively grouped.

Mrs. Davis followed a custom that is very vogue on the mainland of the ladies receiving being decollete. Surely in tropical Honolulu this is a cool and charmingly pretty custom. The ladies who received with Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Heiser were Mrs. Charles Frasier, Mrs. J. Howard Ellis, Mrs. Ray Allen and Mrs. Oscar Phillips.

The friends invited by Mrs. Davis to honor Mrs. Heiser were: Mrs. George A. Brown, Mrs. A. H. Tarleton, Mrs. A. R. Gurry, Jr., Mrs. A. Gignoux, Mrs. Robert McLean, Mrs. E. A. Berndt, Mrs. Fanny Hudson, Mrs. Daniel McCarriston, Mrs. E. B. Loomis, Mrs. Samuel Tay, Mrs. S. Peck, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. G. G. Bockus, Mrs. F. E. Steere, Mrs. F. E. Blake, Mrs. C. MR. AND MRS. ALLEN BOTTOMLEY HONOR MR. AND MRS. R. A. JORDAN

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bottomley entertained at their Manoa home last Tuesday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jordan, whose golden wedding anniversary it was.

It was a very happy occasion and the bride and groom of 50 years ago were the life and center of the gathering. The table was massed in golden daylight lilies and crapeolais. A wedding bell was suspended over the table of yellow crapeolais and yellow pansies. A wedding cake was also part of the decorative scheme. As the bride of 50 years cut the wedding cake the wedding march was played on the piano. The place cards were golden slippers and wedding bells.

The evening was devoted to music and social chat. Mr. and Mrs. Jordan were the recipients of many beautiful gifts and flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Bottomley's guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jordan, Mrs. Less, Mrs. Elizabeth Waterhouse, Mrs. Ismay Stubbs, Miss Pinder, Mr. and Mrs. George Waterhouse, Jr. and Mrs. Arthur Berg, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Cockburn, Mr. and Mrs. C. Lindsay Watson, Mr. James Dole, Lieut. A. C. Cochet and Master Jack Bottomley.

ALSHIRE WEDDING

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Alshire, daughter of Major General and Mrs. James B. Alshire, and Ensign Alexander Gilchrist Hatch U. S. N., which took place in Washington, D. C., is of interest here. They were married at the apartment of the bride's parents in the St. Nicholas in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. A large reception followed.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Roland Cozma Smith, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, and took place in the parlor, which was a bower of white lilies and dogwood offsets by palms and ferns.

Miss Marjorie Alshire, who was the bride's only attendant, wore a dainty gown of shell pink georgette crepe with a girde of French blue ribbon. She wore a hat of shell pink georgette crepe trimmed with pink blossoms and French blue velvet. Her bouquet was of lavender, orchids.

Ensign Tully Shelley, U. S. N., was best man and, like the bridegroom, and the bride's father, was in uniform.

Mrs. Alshire, mother of the bride, wore a gown of sand-colored georgette crepe embroidered in beads of the same shade, worn with small black hat trimmed with guir, her costume finished by a corsage of orchids.

Ensign Hatch's father and sister, Judge Francis March Hatch and Miss Harriet Hatch of Honolulu, were unable to reach Washington for the wedding on account of the state of the streets being advanced, hastened by uncertain conditions created by the war.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Miss Katherine Gage of Philadelphia, Miss Harriet Gillette of Sheridan, Wyo., who is the guest of General and Mrs. Alshire, and Major General and Mrs. George Goethals, recent arrivals in Washington.—San Francisco Examiner, May 6.

AT CORONADO

Mrs. W. D. K. Gibson is visiting her sister, Mrs. John D. Spreckels, at Coronado. Mrs. Frank Hall Moon gave a luncheon for her a few days ago and also entertained Miss Ruth Boettcher of Denver, who is traveling with her father in their private car. Others present were Mrs. Raymond V. Morris, Mrs. Fred Winchester, Mrs. Claus Spreckels, Mrs. Helm, Mrs. G. A. Davidson, Mrs. Burr of New York, Mrs. Evelyn Chadwick, Mrs. Reed Dilworth, Mrs. George McKenzie, Mrs. William Caperton, Miss Maria Crocker, Mrs. J. B. Richards, Mrs. J. H. Pendleton, Mrs. Francis H. Mead, Mrs. Harry Holbrook, Mrs. John McClellan, Mrs. Frank von Tesmar, Mrs. John Dupe,

JACKLINGS RETURNING TO CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. Jackling will leave New York on Saturday, arriving in San Francisco early in the coming week.

The Jacklings were hosts at an elaborate and beautiful dinner given at the Ritz Carlton the other evening. Twenty-five guests were present at the dinner and the decorations, principally American Beauty roses, were handsome in the extreme.—San Francisco Chronicle, May 13.

ABOUT MRS. HERBERT HOOVER

Mrs. Herbert Hoover, who was guest of honor at the Century Club on Wednesday, delighted and interested the members with a talk upon her experiences in Belgium during the time that her husband, Herbert C. Hoover, was in charge of the relief work. This was the first time that many of the women had enjoyed meeting Mrs. Hoover, and there was a large attendance. Mrs. Bruce Cornwall was the hostess of the day.—San Francisco Chronicle.

DELIGHTFUL DANCING PARTY AT MAXAM HOME

A delightful dancing party was given Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. John Maxam and their daughter, Miss Hazel Maxam, at the family residence, 1573 Pihoi street. About 40 friends attended and dancing was enjoyed on the broad lanai until 11:30 o'clock. Refreshments were served. Guests included Honoluluans and several from outside points, including Schofield Barracks. Hawaiian music was furnished by a glee club of local musicians.

ARMY CHRONICLES

Brig. Gen. Robert K. Evans, U. S. A., and Mrs. Evans, who are at the St. Francis hotel for an indefinite stay, were hosts Tuesday evening at a dinner party given at the hotel.

DANCE AT PEARL HARBOR

Miss Louise Clark, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. George Clark, was hostess at a dancing party on Wednesday evening at Pearl Harbor. About 75 guests were in attendance.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN DUN ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. John Dun entertained at a very informal dinner at the Country Club on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Lewis Merriam, wife of Maj. Merriam, U. S. A., who spent the winter and spring as the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gillespie, has returned to her home in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Merriam came West last winter to visit with her son, Capt. Merriam, U. S. A., before his departure for his new post in Honolulu. Mrs. Gillespie is spending several weeks at Skaggs Springs.

A number of San Francisco women went to Palo Alto last Tuesday to attend the tea given by Mrs. Howard W. Morrow in honor of Mrs. A. Douglas McBryde. Mrs. McBryde has been a resident of the peninsula since last fall, when she gave up her establishment on Green street and bought the Oxford place in Woodside.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bowles (Beatrice Nickel), who are spending their honeymoon in Honolulu, will return the latter part of this month. They will be the guests of Mr. Bowles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bowles, in Piedmont, for a time, and will later establish a home of their own on this side of the bay.—San Francisco Bulletin.

The Canadian branch of the Red Cross Society is rejoicing in the gift of a beautiful fountain from Mrs. James Jordan. This will be disposed of by the society for the benefit of the Canadian division of the Red Cross work and a generous return is expected, as the fountain is an unusually
