

SOCIETY

FORT SHAFTER SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
FORT SHAFTER, June 2—The delights of aqua-planing have reached Honolulu and one of the jolliest afternoons spent lately was the one in which Mr. and Mrs. Dowsett at their beach home entertained a party to indulge in this delightful pastime. After a couple of hours spent in the sport a delicious supper was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Dowsett's guests were Miss Dorothy Palmer, Misses von Holt, Miss Vera Damon, Lieut. Wallace C. Phillon, Cyril Damon, Herman von Holt and Miss Beatrice Castle.

While Lieut. Alfred L. Rockwood is down in camp with his battalion, Mrs. Rockwood is with her sister, Mrs. Walter S. Green of Schofield Barracks.

Miss Middleton was hostess at tea and for a swim on Sunday afternoon for Miss Isabel Baker and Lieut. Lester Baker.

Invitations have been received from Miss Louise Cochran for a beach party on Saturday, the 3rd inst.

Capt. Theodore A. Baldwin, Jr. was one of the guests invited to picnic on the other side of the island last Sunday.

On Sunday at noon Maj. and Mrs. Guy Palmer will have dinner for Gen. and Mrs. Frederick S. Strong, Col. Samuel L. Faison and Lane Faison.

Mrs. H. D. Niles was a guest of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell for luncheon on Friday.

Col. and Mrs. Earl C. Carnahan have had Mrs. Julia E. Lohman as a house-guest at Schofield Barracks for the past week.

Dr. Harry M. Dieber was a dinner guest of Dr. and Mrs. Friend on Thursday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Friend have just returned from the Orient.

Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell was the guest of Maj. and Mrs. Eugene H. Hartnett on Saturday evening for dinner. The decorations were yellow nasturtiums which were arranged artistically in a silver bowl, and the table was lighted with green candles. Dancing at the Roof Garden was enjoyed later in the evening.

Lieut. and Mrs. Frederick A. Barker, with Lieut. and Mrs. Carl A. Haridge had a jolly day on Wednesday, when they picnicked on the other side of the island.

Mrs. Eugene H. Hartnett and Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell were the guests of Mrs. William B. Cochran on Wednesday afternoon for tea and bridge.

Mrs. William R. Dashiell was hostess at the card club on Tuesday evening, and the members present were Mrs. Richmond N. Pearson, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell, Lieut. and Mrs. Samuel J. Heldner, Capt. and Mrs. William E. Hunt, Mrs. Alden C. Knowles, Mrs. Eugene H. Hartnett, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell. The prize was won by Mrs. William R. Dashiell.

Last Sunday Dr. Harvey M. Dieber made one of a party who enjoyed a hunting trip.

Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell had Miss Daphne Dow of Fort Ruger as a guest at the bachelor mess on Sunday.

On Wednesday Capt. Benjamin F. McClellan motored in from Koko Head for a visit in the post.

Mrs. Alden C. Knowles, Mrs. Wilby, Mrs. Eugene H. Hartnett, Mrs. William B. Cochran, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell, Mrs. Jack Hayes, Miss Ehrhorn and Mrs. Charlie L. Lincoln were a party having tea together at the Outrigger on Saturday afternoon.

While at Heala Lieut. William H. Jones is a guest at Dr. and Mrs. Tuttle's home.

When the recruits were taken down to the beach for a day's pleasure on last Tuesday, Lieut. and Mrs. Samuel J. Heldner and Mrs. Helen MacAdams accompanied them. The day was spent in swimming and in riding the surfboards, all having a most enjoyable time. Lieut. and Mrs. Heldner, Mrs. MacAdams and Lieut. Lester Baker had dinner at Heine's.

Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday and Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred H. Hobly were among the number who were with parties on the Young Roof Garden on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Eugene H. Hartnett had lunch at the Outrigger club at noon on Saturday, entertaining Mrs. George M. Halloran and Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell.

News from the coast this week to Mrs. John S. Sullivan, tells of the improved condition of her mother, who has been in a hospital for six or seven weeks with a broken limb. It is expected that she will be able shortly to be moved to her home, and after the plaster cast is removed will get around on crutches. Mrs. Sullivan's sister, who was also very dangerously ill, was reported better.

Major Horace D. Bloombergh of the Department Hospital, will give the class in Red Cross their first and examination on Monday, the class having completed its course of study with the lectures and bandaging on Monday and Thursday of this week.

On Wednesday Capt. and Mrs. Raymond A. Wheeler took a trip around the island, enjoying both the trip and a chicken dinner, for which they stopped at the Hauia Hotel.

Dr. Terry M. Bull and Mrs. Helen MacAdams were guests at the Moana Hotel for dinner on Wednesday.

Capt. James A. Gallogly had Capt. Elmer F. Rice as a guest for dinner on Thursday evening, and later they attended the performance at the Liberty Theater.

Complimentary to Mrs. Gustav Sloan entertained at a delightful beach party on Friday evening at the Outrigger club, Mrs. Schaefer expects to leave shortly for the states, and this party was in the nature of a farewell. Swimming, surf boards and canoes were enjoyed during the time spent in the water, and afterwards the party sat down to a quaint appetizing supper, served under the hau tree on the lanai. Lieut. and Mrs. Sloan's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Schaefer, Mr. Harold Giffard, Mrs. Victor Houston, Capt. John Brooks of Fort Kamehameha and Mr. Fred Dawson.

Capt. Theodore A. Baldwin Jr. was in the post for luncheon on Thursday, coming up from the camp on the Hawaii College grounds.

Major and Mrs. William B. Cochran had Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell as a dinner guest on Wednesday, and afterwards for a game of auction bridge.

When Mr. and Miss Tryol gave a wienie roast on Friday night, Dr. Harvey Dieber was one of the invited guests.

On Monday evening Mrs. Wilby and grandson, Master Jack Hayes, were visitors at the Fort Shafter picture house, having come up to see Marie Doro in "Oliver Twist."

Lieut. Lester Baker was a dinner guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Samuel J. Heldner on Sunday for noon dinner.

Miss Dorothy Palmer was a guest at a charming tea given by Mrs. Daniel L. Gienty on Tuesday at the Lanika tea rooms, in honor of her house guest, Miss Davenport from Chattanooga, Tennessee. Her other guests were Mrs. Jack Hayes, Mrs. Cecil, Miss Catherine Raymond, Miss Louise Ayers, Miss Margaret Schofield, Miss Dorothy McEae, Miss Thelma Murphy and Miss Pauline Magruder.

On Wednesday Major and Mrs. Lewis S. Sorley and their family were guests of Major and Mrs. Guy G. Palmer for luncheon at the Outrigger club.

Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday entertained at Sunday dinner for Lieut. Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, and Mrs. Richmond N. Pearson, White begonias with their waxy beauty adorned the table with charming effect.

Capt. Elmer F. Rice was the guest of Mr. John Webber of Trenton on Sunday for noonday dinner and a swim afterwards.

Lieut. Eugene A. Lohman had Dr. Harry M. Dieber as a dinner guest on Wednesday evening.

The work of making surgical dressings and rolling bandages is well under way, number five in the Cantonment having been assigned for the work, and fitted up with the necessary tables, lockers and rolling machines. Two ladies are appointed to take charge of the rooms each week, while Mrs. James A. Irons is at the head of all, and Mrs. Alden C. Knowles makes a most efficient treasurer. Mrs. Castle of the War Allied Relief Society down town, came up on Tuesday and started the work going, and bringing up material, etc. All completed work will be turned over to the War Allied Relief, to be rushed to the distributing depot at once. The ladies of Fort Shafter are also contributing a sum of money each month to help in the purchase of materials for the work, besides the time which each one is gladly giving. The four rolling machines were bought by the Sewing Club, and donated for the purpose of facilitating the work.

Major and Mrs. Guy G. Palmer had Mrs. Francis E. Lacey and Miss Moore as luncheon guests on Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles A. Lewis, Mrs. Thomas L. Crystal, Mrs. J. D. Curry, Mr. Henry C. H. Muhlberg, Mrs. James M. L. and Mrs. Charles S. Frank were the luncheon guests at a delightful party given by Mrs. J. E. Chaney of Schofield Barracks, at the Young Hotel on Monday.

At the Outrigger Club on Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Alden C. Knowles had tea for Mrs. Wilby, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell, Mrs. Eugene H. Hartnett, and Miss Ehrhorn.

It is very gratifying for her friends to know that Mrs. Paul S. Reinecke is now recovering from the attack of illness which kept her confined to her home for three weeks.

Dr. H. M. Delber had Dr. Terry M. Bull as a guest on Wednesday night.

When Lieut. Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell entertained at a swim and party and supper on Wednesday, Capt. and Mrs. Claire R. Bennett, Master Bob Bennett, Capt. and Mrs. William E. Hunt, Master Richard Hunt, Mrs. Charles A. Lewis, Master William Hunt, Master Billy Lewis, and Mrs. Richmond N. Pearson were their guests. The party enjoyed a fine swim at Fort De Russy and then motored out to Kahala, where they had supper on the beach.

Capt. A. C. Knowles was a dinner guest at the Moana Hotel on Tuesday night.

When Capt. and Mrs. Joan D. Burnett entertained at Kahala on Saturday night with a birthday party for Mrs. Burnett, Lieut. Eugene A. Lohman, and Mrs. Julia E. Lohman were among the guests from Fort Shafter.

Capt. Benjamin F. McClellan had Mrs. McClellan and the three children out at Koko Head for a week-end visit with him.

Lieut. Alfred L. Rockwood was a guest at the Bachelor Mess for the luncheon on Tuesday.

Another beach tea was that given by Mrs. William B. Cochran on Saturday afternoon for Mrs. John Randolph, Miss Margaret Randolph, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell, Mrs. Eugene H. Hartnett, Mrs. George M. Halloran, Mrs. Alden C. Knowles, Miss Louise Cochran, Miss Morton Cochran, Master John Randolph, and Harrison Randolph.

Lieut. and Mrs. Samuel J. Heldner had dinner for Lieut. Lester Baker and Mrs. Helen MacAdams on Monday night and afterwards the party enjoyed the performance of "Oliver Twist" at the local picture house.

Major and Mrs. Guy G. Palmer will entertain at noon dinner for General and Mrs. Frederic S. Strong, Colonel Samuel L. Faison, and Master Lane Faison on Sunday.

Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday had one table of bridge on Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Forbes of Honolulu.

Lieut. Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell and Mrs. Richmond N. Pearson will be the dinner guests of Mrs. H. D. Niles at the Colonial Hotel on Sunday evening.

Miss Harriet Lyon from Schofield Barracks has been the house guest of Miss Alice Palmer for a couple of days, returning to her home on Thursday.

Colonel and Mrs. James A. Irons are entertaining at a very large dinner on Sunday night at the Moana hotel. Their guests will be General and Mrs. Frederic S. Strong, General and Mrs. Charles Treat of Schofield Barracks, Commander and Mrs. Clark, Miss Louise Clark of Pearl Harbor, Capt. and Mrs. Charles Watson of Schofield Barracks, Mrs. Edward Fuller Witsell, Capt. Theodore A. Baldwin, Jr., Lieut. Lester Baker, Miss Isabel Baker, Major and Mrs. Frank C. Bolles, Capt. and Mrs. Alden C. Knowles, Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred L. Rockwood, Major and Mrs. Guy G. Palmer, Capt. and Mrs. Jack Hayes, Col. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Lieut. Wallace C. Phillon, Miss Dorothy Palmer, Col. and Mrs. William B. Kendall, Mr. and Mrs. Case Deering, Col. Richard Croxton, Col. William Weigel, Capt. and Mrs. Edwin S. Hartshorn, Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph C. Holliday, and Lieut. Eugene A. Lohman.

SCHOFIELD SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, June 2—One of the most delightful events of recent date was the "Haversack supper" and dance given by Mrs. John D. Burnett at the Haleiwa Hotel on Saturday evening. The event was the annual celebration of Mrs. Burnett's birthday and was essentially for the younger set though the guests included quite a number of her long standing friends among the older set. The several large tables, about which the party was seated, were beautifully decorated, red hibiscus blossoms being strewn over the damask covers while quantities of American beauty roses and many pretty shaded candles made a charming effect. The hostess' table was unusually attractive, having for a centerpiece a large red, white and attractive flowers made most acceptable favors for the ladies.

Lieut. and Mrs. Eley Denson had as luncheon guests on Thursday afternoon Capt. Edward Everts and Mr. Samuel Knight of Honolulu.

The 1st Infantry Reading Club met with Miss Evelyn Hodges on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Walter Frank was hostess at a pleasant "kennington" on Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Hugh Wise, Mrs. Samuel Lyon, Mrs. Henry Sheen, Mrs. Merrill Spalding, Mrs. Holliday, Mrs. Carl Ballinger, Mrs. John Loud, Mrs. Jere Baxter, Mrs. Eley Denson, Mrs. Eugene Householder, Mrs. Joseph Cecil, and Mrs. Ernest Carr.

Lieut. Louis Hoad of Fort De Russy spent Tuesday at Schofield and was the dinner-guest of Capt. and Mrs. De Russy Hoyle.

Col. and Mrs. Henry Hodges had Miss Alice Palmer of Fort Shafter as their weekend guest.

Decorations Day was observed as a general holiday throughout the post, in the morning services appropriate to the day were held at the post cemetery, at which hundreds of officers and enlisted men were present. In the afternoon baseball games were in order on all of the post diamonds, while many people motored to Haleiwa for a swim and dinner at the hotel. The Cavalry hop in the evening was well attended, in spite of the rain the dance continuing much later than is usual on hop nights.

Maj. and Mrs. Charles Lloyd entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening in their usual delightful manner. The red and white color scheme was most effectively carried out in gladiolus and periwinkles, which were arranged in three baskets through the center of the table. Many crystal shaded candles added much to the beauty of the scene. The place cards were indicative of war time and were named for Col. and Mrs. Lloyd Brett, Maj. and Mrs. Morton Henry, Capt. and Mrs. Conger Pratt, Capt. and Mrs. Ephriam Graham, Miss Lloyd Brett, and Maj. Robert Foy.

The approach of summer is marked this year, as always, with a return of beach suppers by moonlight. On Thursday evening Capt. and Mrs. Richard Kimball gave one of these charming affairs at the Waimea Bay, their guests including Maj. and Mrs. Hamilton Hawkins, Maj. and Mrs. Benjamin Hyer, Maj. and Mrs. Charles Lloyd, Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre, Capt. and Mrs. Jerome Pillow, Capt. and Mrs. Phillip Kiehl, Capt. and Mrs. Ephriam Graham, Capt. and Mrs. Conger Pratt, Capt. and Mrs. John Hyer, Capt. and Mrs. LaVerne Gregg, Lieut. and Mrs. Cuthbert Stearns, Lieut. and Mrs. Howell Estes, Lieut. and Mrs. Archibald Arnold, Miss Katherine Treat, Miss Lloyd Brett, Miss Castle, Miss Damon, Miss Doris Hyer, Miss Nancy Hawkins, Maj. Robert Foy, and Lieut. Raymond McQuillin. A trio of Hawaiian players and singers added much to the pleasure of the evening.

Miss Schofield of Honolulu has been spending a few days this week with Maj. and Mrs. Henry Sheen.

Capt. and Mrs. Raymond Pratt, Capt. and Mrs. John Corey, Lieut. and Mrs. John Hauser, Mrs. Leora Hoggson, Lieut. Patrick Lynch, and Lieut.

Mrs. Charles Lloyd entertained at a most enjoyable bridge-luncheon on Tuesday morning for Mrs. Frederic Strong of Honolulu, Mrs. William Banister, Mrs. Tierman N. Horn, Mrs. Allen Smith, Mrs. Ellen Jordan, Mrs. De Russy Hoyle, and Mrs. William McEave. At the end of the morning's play Mrs. Banister and Mrs. Hoyle were awarded most acceptable prizes in the form of large, perfectly equipped first aid packages. At the noon hour Mrs. Eugene Householder, Mrs. Fred Austin, Mrs. David Cain and Mrs. Phillip Thurber joined this merry party for luncheon.

Miss Dorothy Palmer of Fort Shafter spent the week-end as the guest of Miss Katherine Treat.

Maj. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds were dinner hosts on Saturday evening at the Haleiwa Hotel, their guests including Gen. and Mrs. Charles G. Treat, Col. and Mrs. William Banister, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. C. Deering of Honolulu, and Mr. Augur.

Mrs. Samuel Lyon, accompanied by her two daughters, Miss Harriet and Miss Mary Lyon, will leave for the States on the Sheiman, sailing about June 5th.

A very pleasant affair of the week was the bridge-luncheon at which Mrs. Merrill Spalding was hostess on Wednesday afternoon. An exquisite centerpiece of tiny white chrysanthemums combined with maidenhair ferns and pink tulle filled the center of the table, where covers were laid for Mrs. Hugh Wise, Mrs. Henry Sheen, Mrs. Henry Eames, Mrs. Eugene Householder, Mrs. Clyde Abraham, Mrs. John Corey, Mrs. Jere Baxter, Mrs. John Boniface, and Mrs. Walter Frank.

On Friday evening the University Club in Honolulu was the setting for a beautifully appointed dinner given by Lieut. John Hoskins when his guests were Capt. and Mrs. William McCleave, Miss Caroline Raymond, Miss Katherine Raymond, Mr. Smith and Lieut. Maury Mann. The table had for a centerpiece a large low basket of pink roses and sweet peas, while corsage bouquets of the same Bradley made up a congenial party who enjoyed a day's outing at Manakuli on Sunday last.

Capt. and Mrs. William McCleave had Lieut. John Hoskins and Mr. Smith as their dinner guests on Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Sheen was hostess at bridge and tea on Thursday afternoon for Mrs. James Bell, Mrs. John Corey, Mrs. Barrett Glover, Miss Schofield, Mrs. Eugene Householder, Mrs. Robert Calder, Mrs. Merrill Spalding, Mrs. Jere Baxter, and Mrs. Walter Frank.

Miss Harriet Lyon was the house guest of Maj. and Mrs. Guy Palmer of Fort Shafter for several days last week.

On Thursday evening Mrs. Leora Hoggson gave a most enjoyable "movie" party, her guests being Capt. and Mrs. William Browning, Capt. and Mrs. Henry Kilbourne, Capt. and Mrs. John Corey, Capt. and Mrs. Raymond Pratt, Lieut. and Mrs. John Wyeath, Lieut. and Mrs. John Hauser, Lieut.

Mrs. Frank Wright, who has been a patient in the Department Hospital at Fort Shafter for the past week, is convalescing rapidly and expects to return to her home on Monday.

A jolly party of Artillery people enjoyed the Cavalry hop on Wednesday evening. They included Col. John McMahon, M. O. and Mrs. Fred Austin, Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre, Capt. and Mrs. De Russy Hoyle, Lieut. and Mrs. Archibald Arnold, Lieut. and Mrs. John Hauser, Miss Carrie McMahon, Miss Esther McMahon, Mrs. Leora Hoggson, Miss Katherine Treat, Lieut. Vincent Erwin, Lieut. John Ezer, Lieut. Karl Greenwald, and Lieut. Clyde Selbeck.

Real Economy

Electric Utensils are real economies because—

You can cook in less time
 With less bother
 And at less expense
 Than in any other way.

Nowadays when house-keeping costs are rising, it will pay you to find out what a real saving can be accomplished with

Westinghouse Electric Ware

The approach of summer is marked this year, as always, with a return of beach suppers by moonlight. On Thursday evening Capt. and Mrs. Richard Kimball gave one of these charming affairs at the Waimea Bay, their guests including Maj. and Mrs. Hamilton Hawkins, Maj. and Mrs. Benjamin Hyer, Maj. and Mrs. Charles Lloyd, Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre, Capt. and Mrs. Jerome Pillow, Capt. and Mrs. Phillip Kiehl, Capt. and Mrs. Ephriam Graham, Capt. and Mrs. Conger Pratt, Capt. and Mrs. John Hyer, Capt. and Mrs. LaVerne Gregg, Lieut. and Mrs. Cuthbert Stearns, Lieut. and Mrs. Howell Estes, Lieut. and Mrs. Archibald Arnold, Miss Katherine Treat, Miss Lloyd Brett, Miss Castle, Miss Damon, Miss Doris Hyer, Miss Nancy Hawkins, Maj. Robert Foy, and Lieut. Raymond McQuillin. A trio of Hawaiian players and singers added much to the pleasure of the evening.

Miss Schofield of Honolulu has been spending a few days this week with Maj. and Mrs. Henry Sheen.

Capt. and Mrs. Raymond Pratt, Capt. and Mrs. John Corey, Lieut. and Mrs. John Hauser, Mrs. Leora Hoggson, Lieut. Patrick Lynch, and Lieut.

The Hawaiian Electric Co., Ltd.

Dirt simply fades away before

WHITE KING

BLEACHING SOAP

All dirt and grease is dissolved and carried away by the frothy suds made with White King Bleaching Soap, without the slightest injury to fabric, painted or varnished surface, or hands.

Made without rosin or other injurious materials.

Buy White King a case at a time

It is most economical that way, because you can dry out each cake thoroughly before using, and a hard dry cake of soap lasts longer than a moist fresh one.

5c a cake
 Special quantity prices.

Buy from your Grocer—

"BIG CHUNK" is the largest 5c cake of YELLOW scrubbing soap made.

June Sale of Millinery

Starting Saturday
 JUNE 2ND.

offers an exceptional opportunity to obtain the latest in imported Hats, new shapes, flowers, ribbons, at greatly reduced prices.

Also Silk Goods, Lacquer Ware, Kimonos, Crepe de Chine, Pineapple Silks.

K. ISOSHIMA