CHIEF JUSTICE AND MRS. ALEXANDER G. M. ROBERTSON ENTERTAIN

Mayor and Mrs. John Lane were the complimented guests at an elaborate pool supper given on Monday evening by Chief Justice and Mrs. Alexander G. M. Robertson. A long table with a cross section at either end was arranged in the dining room. Crystal bowls held flaming red carnations and at intervals island fruits with juicy watermelons made for a pretty effect. At every guest cover was a lei of mints with which the guests adorned themselves. The places were also marked by name cards with tiny red hibiscus in one corner. "Dude" Miller's glee club played during the feast and for the dancing that followed. During the supper Judge Robertson in a few well chosen words told of the aloha felt for Mayor and Mrs. Lane and the keen regret that Mr. Lane is leaving office. The health of the complimented guests was drunk standing. The mayor answered in a happy vein. After the feast Mrs. Robertson, accompanied by the glee club, sang a number of Hawaiian songs in her charming manner. Mrs. Elizabeth Mackall also sang delightfully. Later on, to Mrs. Mackall's accompaniment, Mrs. Robertson again favored her guests. Dancing ended a pleasant diversion and a lively evening.
