EX-CONSULS OF GERMANY SAID TO BE INDICTED

Names of Plotters for India Revolution on Secret File; Arrests to Be Made; District Attorney Huber Says His Information is Warrants Do Not Name Anyone Here

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 7.—Ninety-eight persons have been indicted by the federal grand jury, charged with conspiracy to foment revolution in India.

The list of those indicted includes ex-consuls of San Francisco, Honolulu, Manila, Chicago and Shanghai; embassy attaches in Washington, prominent businessmen and scores of Hindus.

The conspiracy was organized in Berlin and financed by the imperial government. The district attorney, Preston, is telegraphing warrants of arrest, broadcast, to the cities where those under indictment are to be found. The names of the indicted have been placed on the secret file and will be made public after the arrests.

It is indicated also that 41 persons have been indicted, charged with being involved in the "Sacramento case," in which the steamship Sacramento was alleged to have been used for outfitting and supplying German warships in the Pacific. These indictments are said to include shippers and brokers Frederick Jensen and C. D. Bunker, Captain T. Anderson, an attaché with Capt. von Papen, Hans Teuchner, von Schack and J. L. Day.

NO WARRANTS HERE FOR ANYONE IN HONOLULU, SAYS DISTRICT ATTORNEY

That the indictments and warrants of arrest mentioned in the foregoing despatch will not include anyone now resident in Honolulu is the opinion expressed by District Attorney S. C. Huber shortly before leaving for Hilo this afternoon.

"I have furnished District Attorney Preston with considerable evidence," said Mr. Huber, "but it was not concerning anyone in Honolulu."

Mr. Huber said his last report to Preston was forwarded about 30 days ago and that it had to do with the movements of Hindus. He added that no warrants have been issued here, nor has he received any instructions to issue warrants.

LIONEL R. HART TO BE RETURNED TO FACE TRIAL

Specific Charge is He Swindled Two Local Persons Out of $10,000 in Stocks

Lionel R. Hart, former local stock broker and representative of the Charles A. Stoneham Co. of New York City, was indicted by the territorial grand jury yesterday afternoon on two charges of embezzlement. This information was given out this morning by the city attorney's office, but the office declined to make public the names of the two persons alleged to have been swindled by the former local broker.

The indictments have been placed on the secret file and probably will remain there until Hart is brought back to the islands to face trial. He was arrested in San Francisco yesterday, news of his arrest being announced by the Star-Bulletin.

City Attorney A. M. Brown said today that Hart will be brought back to Honolulu by Detective Captain Arthur McDuffie, who is spending a month's vacation in California. McDuffie is expected here the first week in August.

According to Attorney Brown, the two indictments found yesterday charge Hart with the embezzlement of $10,000, through fraudulent stock manipulations, although it is reported that his alleged defalcations totaled much more.

DENIES LAND LAW CHANGE FOR SAKE OF PLANTATIONS

Commissioner Rivenburgh Appears Before House Committee; Says Hawaii Would Stop Fake Homesteading

That the proposed land law amendments are to guard against fake homesteading and to protect the government's remaining sugar lands from exploitation were statements made by Commissioner of Lands Rivenburgh before the house committee on territories on June 19. Commissioner Rivenburgh has gone to Washington and it was given out, a few days ago that his presence there was on land business.

Rivenburgh was closely questioned by committee members while explaining the details of the amendments, which are contained in House Bill 4722, introduced by Delegate Kuhio. He explained briefly the amendments, which, summarized, are: To do away with the present system of opening up homesteads on application of 25 persons to the land commissioner; to place homesteading under a board of six men appointed by the governor; to have this board separate bona fide from fake homestead applicants; and

ART SMITH TO FLY HERE ON WAY TO U. S.

TOKIO, Japan, July 7.—Art Smith, the young American bird-man of looping-the-loop fame, will make a stop at Honolulu to give several exhibition "stunts" on his way to the United States. He will sail home from Yokohama next month. Since his second arrival in Japan, Smith made his famous flights at Tokio, Osaka, Kyoto and many other large cities. He was received by the Japanese people as if a hero and won general respect. He said he wishes to get support of his proposed flights in Honolulu from every nationality, but especially from the Japanese, as he believes the Japanese are among his best friends.

LATE NEWS AT A GLANCE

MARCONI CO. GIVEN FURTHER TIME TO PLEAD
Circuit Judge C. W. Ashford has signed an order giving the Marconi Wireless Co. until July 18 to enter a further plea in the suit for alleged damages brought against it by J. J. Carroll. Judge Ashford recently overruled the company's demurrer, thus holding the territorial workman's compensation act unconstitutional.

GOTHENBURG, Sweden, July 7.—Fourteen steamers have arrived here from England under German safe conduct. Three have arrived at other ports, including the Apen, which was damaged by a torpedo last May.

JAPAN MAY SEND TROOPS TO CHINA

TOKIO, Japan, July 7.—Japan's policy of non-interference toward China in her present crisis must not be construed to indicate that Japan is aiding the monarchial propaganda in Peking. This was the emphatic declaration by Viscount I. Motono, the foreign minister of Japan. He positively declared that the Japanese government is not backing Gen. Chang Shun either directly or indirectly. General belief here today is that Japan would be asked jointly by the powers to send a strong military force to protect the foreign interests in the troubled country. If such be the case, it is believed, Japan will immediately comply with the appeal.

Nothing Definite On Commandeering Says Matson Cable

Uncertainty regarding possible action by Uncle Sam to take over the Matson lines Maui and Matsonia, grew today when Governor Pinkham received from Capt. Matson the following telegram: Governor Pinkham, Honolulu: Have nothing definite regarding commandeering Matsonia, Maui, or Matsonia. The governor has cabled to Secretary Lane, receiving a reply that neither the secretary, nor the shipping board was advised of probable commandeering. Then he cabled to Capt. Matson and the reply this morning gives the latest available information.

GERMANS SWEEP ON CITY, WITH 36 KILLED AND 141 BADLY HURT

TEUTON MACHINES SHOW NEW TACTICS, FLYING HIGH AND SUDDENLY "BOGGANING" DOWN OVER HEART OF GREAT CITY—SIX WOMEN, TWO CHILDREN VICTIMS

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service.)
LONDON, Eng., July 7.—A score of German airplanes bombarded London at 9:30 this morning. Thousands of persons in the streets saw the bombardment or its effects and were witness to one of the greatest air battles of the war.

The explosion of the bombs and the reply of the anti-aircraft guns was deafening. The sun was shining but a haze overcast the sky, making it difficult to see the raiding planes, which flew at tremendous speed, dropping the explosives as they sped over the city.

The damage was in the heart of London and in the west end as the raiders approached that point. The raiding squadron suddenly appeared from the north, high in the air, and tobogganed down the sky until it was at an altitude of less than 1000 yards.

The anti-aircraft guns opened up with a tremendous curtain fire. The raiders held their bombs until they had reached their objective. Three of the raiding craft were shot down in the sea, and one shot down on land.

It is announced that 36 people were killed and 141 injured. The killed are 28 men, six women and two children. The bombs had a terrific effect. Windows were shattered over a wide area and plaster torn from the walls. The basements in which refugees sought haven were convulsed as by an earthquake.

In this raid the Germans showed new tactics. They approached at an extremely high altitude, swooped low, dropped their bombs and then sped away.

German Policy May Be Known Monday

LONDON, England, July 7.—The most important political developments in weeks are expected in Berlin when the reichstag meets again next Monday, as Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg, Foreign Secretary Zimmermann and Admiral von Capelle, minister of the navy, and Financier Hoffmann are to make speeches.

The correspondent of the Central News Agency at The Hague wires that he has received authoritative information from Germany that the German imperial chancellor, von Bethmann-Hollweg, has radically altered the tone of the address which he was expected to make in the reichstag today. Originally, the plan of the imperial chancellor was to address the members that his speech might be taken as affording the basis for peace negotiations.

The chancellor has been forced to the decision, however, that the last hope for a negotiated peace with Russia has now disappeared and that it is hopeless to suppose any peace along lines which would be in the least acceptable to Germany. He has therefore, outlined a speech in which he will make it plain to the Germans that they must prepare themselves to face an offensive on both fronts greater than any the armistice have yet been called upon to bear, and he will urge Germany to steel itself into holding out until the final victory comes.

POWERS MAY ACT IN CHINA TO PREVENT MONARCHISTS FROM DESTROYING RAILWAY ROUTES

TOKIO, Japan, July 7.—News that the republican army under the command of Gen. Tuan Chi-jui, the former Chinese premier, in marching toward Peking to give battle to Gen. Chang Shun's force, was the signal for destruction by the supporters of the monarchy of the railway which leads from Peking to Tientsin. The railroad was cut outside of Peking in order to block the progress of the superior republican army.

Representatives of the powers in Peking met in a secret conference and the Chinese situation was fully discussed. It is believed here that a joint step will be taken by the powers to prevent Gen. Chang's troops from destroying any more transportation routes.

Gen. Chang was yesterday reported from the Chinese capital as having been decided to take refuge at Nekka, taking with him the Manchou emperor and his command. But the latest despatch today reports that Chang is now making preparation for a possible siege by the republican army of Peking.

Peking is today practically isolated of the city are in constant fear of from the rest of China and inhabitants possible looting by Chang's soldiers.

TIENTSIN, China, July 7.—The Peking-Tientsin railway has been cut and the royalists, of whom part are advancing on Tientsin and part on Paotingfeng, are endeavoring to prevent the junction of the republican forces. The people of Peking are in a panic.

RUSSIAN GAINS FEATURE OF DAY

LONDON, Eng., July 7.—The British today made a slight advance at Wytchaeets.

PETROGRAD, Russia, July 7.—Violent fighting is taking place around Pinsk, which is in flames. The Russian artillery driving straight ahead, is leveling all obstacles and forcing the Germans to fall back. Today the Russians captured the fortified forest of Slinka Hill and penetrated the village of Godov. They have also made further gains in Galicia.

BERLIN, Germany, July 7.—The Russian attacks today at Konitsch, along the Carpathian front, were repulsed.

UNCLE SAM NOW HOT AFTER SPIES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 7.—All Germans formerly in the German embassy and consulates have been requested to leave the United States. This request includes employees who were transferred to the Swiss legation and consulates just prior to the outbreak of war between the two countries.

The United States government is tightening its spy net. Peter Cavallo, an inmate of the boys' industrial school who was indicted by the territorial grand jury yesterday afternoon on a stationery placed in Circuit Judge's desk Monday morning.
