

WAKEFIELD HOME AFTER WORK FOR ARMY-NAVY

National Committee Pledges $175,000 for Honolulu Project, But Owing to War Pressure Money Will Not Be Available for Some Time Yet

James Wakefield, director and manager of the drygoods department of Theo. H. Davies & Co., who recently secured the unanimous approval of the army and naval national committee of the Y. M. C. A. in New York City for the purchase of the Royal Hawaiian hotel for an army and navy Y. M. C. A. building in Honolulu, returned this morning by the Matson liner Macon. Wakefield made the trip to New York and other Eastern cities primarily in the interests of his firm, but was able to take up the Y. M. C. A. work during lunch hours when he met members of the national committee.

While in New York City, Wakefield was elected a member of the National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A. This was after he had gone before the national committee and explained the need of an army and navy Y. M. C. A. in Honolulu and submitted the plan for the purchase of the Hawaiian hotel for this purpose. In attending this hearing and in meeting personally the members of the committee, he was assisted by Dr. Warner of New York City, who was here when the Y. M. C. A. project was first proposed, and who was familiar with the need for such an institution.

"I had met Dr. Warner while here and later in New York City where I found his assistance of great aid," said Wakefield, "as he was fully informed of the needs of the enlisted men here."

It was after two sessions of the national committee that Wakefield managed to secure the unanimous recommendation that the Hawaiian hotel be purchased for the purpose of the national body to contribute $175,000. However, due to the pressure of war demands on Y. M. C. A. funds, it will likely be some time before this money is available, Wakefield adds.

At the time Wakefield secured the promise of national support the committee was committed to a campaign to raise $400,000 for war work, in which it was afterward successful. "But the committeemen realized the value of the project and unanimously endorsed it," he says.

Appreciation was expressed by the committeemen for the $100,000 loan of the Honolulu people, and also of the attitude of the Young estate which made the purchase possible. Particular appreciation was voiced for the interest and generosity shown by Archie Young.

That the people in New York view the war work of the Red Triangle the Y. M. C. A. insignia of war duty—as second in importance only to that of the Red Cross is one of the interesting statements of Wakefield. He accounts for this by the knowledge of the Eastern people of the valuable work the Y. M. C. A. has performed for the British troops on the western front where, even in the advanced trenches, canteen depots have been established by the organization so that it is possible for the soldiers to get small necessities and delicacies. In connection with this work he says millions of sheets of writing paper have been distributed by the organization. The Red Cross Triangle will carry on similar work with the troops in France, he says.

With the war sentiment in the East, Wakefield is highly pleased, but he speaks critically of the people of the extreme West who he thinks do not seem to realize that America has entered a conflict which would seriously affect them as well as those in the East if not carried to a victorious termination.

"They have still to learn that this war cannot be won by cheering when the flag and marching soldiers pass and when the band plays Dixie. But this they will learn, in time," he concludes in a more hopeful tone.

FOGARTY BUILDS WAREHOUSE FOR ELSASS' CARGO

To store the cargo of the ex-German steamer Elsass, E. P. Fogarty is building for the U. S. customs service a substantial warehouse in the Iwilei district adjoining Piers 18 and 19 and handy to the west side of the harbor. The warehouse is of corrugated iron and will have 6000 square feet of floor space. It will be rented to the customs service, and after the Elsass cargo has been disposed of it is anticipated that there will be no difficulty in keeping the warehouse busy, as the site is a desirable one and Fogarty says the charges will be reasonable.

CHIEF THURSTON PROTECTED BY CIVIL SERVICE

the commission in accordance with its rules and regulations. The only exception as to the application of this section is found in Section 1878, which provides that this chapter shall not apply to any sheriff or deputy sheriff; and shall not be construed to require the examination of any person employed on April 4, 1913, in either the police or fire department of the city and county. I understand that the present chief of the fire department was employed on and prior to April 4, 1913. By its terms, the chapter applies to each and every member of the fire department from the top to the bottom. Such employees who were in the department on April 4, 1913, or have since been appointed according to the rules of the Civil Service Commission can only be removed under the provisions of Section 1876 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, 1915, which provides, "Whenever any person in the police department or fire department has been appointed under these provisions, he shall hold his position during good behavior, subject to removal only as provided by said rules and regulations."

"Unquestionably, the chief of the fire department is within the civil service rules and his reappointment is unnecessary at the present time, in fact in order to remove him proceedings would have to be brought against him because of inefficiency or some other cause under the provisions of Section 1876. So long as there is no cause for his removal, and so long as he keeps said position during good behavior, the board of supervisors or the mayor would have no more control over dismissal or over the appointment of some other person than has the sheriff over the appointment or removal of his police officers without cause."

Will Nicolaievitch Be Called On to Head Russian Armies Again?

Grand Duke Nicholas Nicolaievitch, believed by many military critics to be Russia's greatest general, if not the leading strategist of Europe, has been little heard from since the overthrow of the Romanoff. He is said to be living quietly in retirement but many observers of Russia's plight wonder if he will not be sought to aid Minister Kerensky and Gen. Korniloff in the Teuton campaigns.

FROM YESTERDAY'S LAST EDITION

BRITISH PRESS ALARMED AT SINN FIEN INDICATIONS LONDON, England, July 12.—The newspapers here regard the election of Prof. De Valera of the University of Dublin to parliament, representing East Clare, as one of the most important of recent political developments. He is the third Sinn Fein elected to parliament lately. The Unionists declare that the folly of government "leniency to rebels" has been shown. The Liberals are alarmed at the prospects for home rule for Ireland and the leaders of the parties are unanimous in saying that the prospects for home rule have been impaired and possibly doomed by this showing of Sinn Fein strength.

GOVT. SUGAR REPORT SHOWS HAWAII LEADS IN EFFICIENCY That Hawaiian sugar production leads in efficiency, and that Hawaii has brought the cost of production very low, though freight rates to the mainland bring up the total marketing figure, are facts brought out in a bulletin from the department of commerce which arrived in today's mail. The report shows the average cost of producing sugar in Hawaii for 1913-14 was $44.89 f.o.b. factory; in Porto Rico, $52.29; in Louisiana, $79.50, and in Cuba $29.2. The average marketing cost per ton from factory to delivery in the United States was, for Hawaii, $9.54; for Porto Rico, $4.27, and for Cuba, $5.46. Since the government collected these figures, Hawaii's production cost has gone up on account of the very large increase in cost of labor, including bonuses.

CONTEMPT CHARGE AGAINST SHERIFF IS DISMISSED Circuit Judge Kemp today dismissed a charge of alleged contempt against Clement C. Crowell, sheriff of Maui. In connection with the case of E. W. Quinn against the Grand Hotel of Wailuku, Crowell was alleged to have declined to levy an attachment which had been placed in his hands. His explanation to the court was that Judge Edings of Maui had appointed a receiver for all property of the Grand Hotel, and that he could find no other property to levy.

TOKIO'S CHINESE POLICY CRITICIZED BY BIG JAPANESE

The policy of the Japanese government in its treatment of the last Chinese revolution is a failure.

This is the assertion of S. Watanabe, ex-member of the house of representatives of Japan, made to one of the local Japanese papers yesterday. When approached this morning he would say nothing on the present situation other than that he thought it demanded more thought on his part before he could make further statements. Mr. Watanabe is president of the Osaka Electric Lamp Company, president of the Yokohama Exchange, Ltd., president of Uwa Hydro-Electric Company, director of the First Fire and Marine Reinsurance Company, director of the Japan Gas Company, auditor of the Kyoto Electric Railroad Company, auditor of Osaka Cotton Thread Exchange, Ltd. He arrived in Honolulu from the Orient yesterday morning and left again on his way to the coast this morning. While on the mainland he will devote his time to business.

In his interview with the Japanese papers he did not amplify his statement concerning the government's present Chinese policy, although he did say that he had reference to the act of the Japanese in allowing their minister to China to offer protection to President Li Huan Hung, who had been forced to resign.

TRIBUTE TO THE FLAG
I have seen the glories of art and architecture,
And of rivers and mountains,
I have seen the sunset on the Jungfrau;
And the moon rise o'er Mount Blanc;
But the fairest vision on which these eyes ever rested
Was the flag of my country in a foreign port;
Beautiful as a flower, to those who love it;
Terrible as a meteor to those who hate,
It is the symbol of the power and the glory
And the honor of Americans,
And the freedom of the world.
Yours respectfully,
