WOMEN TO PLAN ENTERTAINMENT FOR SOLDIERS

Formation of a war work council to provide recreation and entertainment for enlisted men on Oahu was decided at a meeting of Honolulu women at the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon.

At the meeting suggestions were made by the committee, Red Cross workers, church members, and Y. W. C. A. officers as to the best methods of having entertainments and socials at which the soldiers and civilians might get acquainted. The entertainments and socials are to be held at the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A.

There were about twenty to thirty women present. W. A. Horn, secretary of the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A., called the meeting to order and pointed out that the great need of the men in the service is the atmosphere of home he has left behind him in entering the army and navy.

A suggestion was made by Mrs. F. J. Lowrey to have a clearing house through which socials and entertainments could be arranged. Other suggestions were made by Miss Channon, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., who said that a committee representing the different organizations would have to be in charge of such work. There were many other suggestions made by women who have been devoting their time to planning school evenings for the enlisted men.

There will be another meeting on Friday afternoon, September 14, at two-thirty o'clock in the Y. W. C. A. building.

Among the women present yesterday were Mrs. H. B. Restarick, Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Mrs. George Potter, Mrs. William Whitney, Mrs. Carl Andrews, Mrs. Weedon, Mrs. Marquis, Mrs. W. J. Forbes, Mrs. Dowling, Mrs. Winne, Sr., Mrs. F. J. Lowrey, Mrs. Isadore Scharlin, Mrs. Walter Frear, Mrs. Lorrin A. Thurston, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. A. G. Hodgins, Mrs. Jack Lucas, Mrs. W. R. Castle, Miss Channon, Miss Agee, Miss Hearsey, Mrs. A. C. Alexander, Mrs. E. C. Perry, and Mrs. Jessica Pascoe.

The Bishop estate, succeeding the late Giles H. Gere. Mr. Collins is now spending his spare time familiarizing himself with the duties of his new office.

MUSIC SCHOOL AT O. C. WILL BEGIN MONDAY

Offering opportunity for the study of music to adults as well as the students of the Punahou preparatory school and the Punahou academy, the Punahou music school will open next Monday morning under the direction of Miss Margaret E. Clarke.

A new course on the appreciation of music intended primarily for adults, is offered to all who, by adding to their knowledge of how to listen to music, would not only enhance their own pleasures, but would also make possible a more intelligent oversight of the work the children may be trying to do.

The lectures in this course will be given by Miss Clarke with all the necessary explanation on the piano. The course will cover a period of 10 weeks, beginning the first of October, with one lecture a week, and may be supplemented in the second term with a similar series dealing with special composers.

The classes in sight reading and the history of music with Miss Clarke and the practical theory and children's classes with Miss Parrish, will begin September 10. The theory and history of music are required of those desiring a certificate, while sight reading in classes of four at two pianos, is of value to even the most advanced students.

The faculty of the music school will consist of Miss Helen G. Cadwell, Miss Emily L. Parrish, and Edwin H. Ideler, besides Miss Clarke, Miss Margaret Way, whose training has been under the best of teachers in Boston and Mt. Holyoke, will take the place left vacant by Mrs. Pearl Ideler's resignation in giving private lessons to the children of the department.

IRWIN DISPOSES OF MANY CASES

Police Judge Harry Irwin is having less trouble with the alleged gamblers now than ever before. Yesterday morning nine Chinese and Filipinos charged with being present at a gambling place, forfeited their bail of $10 each.

Nineteen Chinese defendants, arrested on the same charge, had their cases committed to circuit court.

F. Quarrels, charged with maliciously breaking the window of a Chinese store, had his case stricken from the calendar. According to the police, the defendant had made an amicable settlement with the storekeeper.

Rose Ah In, charged with assault and battery, was discharged for lack of evidence. Clarence B. Lockridge, colored soldier, charged with threatening the life of Frank Hawkins, with a deadly weapon, to-wit, a loaded revolver, was committed to the circuit court for trial. Lin Kee, who spilled soft pool on a drunken Hawaiian was discharged.

ALLEGED MURDERERS PLEAD NOT GUILTY; TRIAL NEXT MONDAY

Pleas of not guilty were entered yesterday by the five Filipinos charged with the murder of Tsunetaro Haya-shibara, the Japanese storekeeper who was shot and stabbed to death in a pineapple field near Kaneohe on the night of August 12.

The case was placed on the calendar for trial Monday morning, but there is a possibility that the trial date will be changed. The Filipinos are represented by Attorney Will T. Carden, who was appointed by the court. The sixth member of the Filipino gang, who was allowed to plead guilty to a charge of second degree murder, probably will not be sentenced until after the trial.

CHINESE ON WAY TO U. S. ARE ENTERTAINED HERE

Sixty-three Chinese students on their way to the states were entertained yesterday during their stay here. Consul Wellington Woo was host at a luncheon for the wives of the Chinese consuls of London and Paris and the leaders of the student party.

Charles Wong and a number of Chinese merchants entertained the rest of the party at a Chinese restaurant on Smith street. Following this a trolley ride was taken about the city. Mr. George Castle arranged for a visit later to Kapiolani park and the aquarium.

The committee in charge was Dr. R. D. Williams, Norman Schenck, Charles Wong, Rev. W. D. Westervelt and W. A. Bowen.

WOMAN IS INJURED IN DOMESTIC SCRAP

All that Mrs. Bradley wanted after her husband had cut her forehead in a scrap between the two last night at School and Fort streets, was her clothes—she told the police that she did not want to prosecute her good husband.

Officer J. K. Keliikoa rushed to the scene of the family dispute, but before he could be of great assistance Mr. George C. Bradley had inflicted a wound upon his wife's head. She was taken to the Emergency hospital and treated—but she insisted that in spite of the wound she did not want to prosecute hubby.

ONE LITTLE BILL HOLDS UP BOARD FOR WHOLE HOUR

"I don't ever talk very much in these meetings," said Supervisor William Ahia last night, looking around at some of his fellows who could not say the same, "but when I vote I know what I'm voting on."

This little statement summed up Ahia's determined stand—a stand which consumed fully half an hour of the board's time in which his six fellows sought to induce him to vote yes or no on the adoption of a report which he, as a committee member, had already signed.

Business was proceeding merrily when halted suddenly by Ahia's request for time. There was a bill for the waterworks department which he was not familiar with. It was the only one, he said; that he had not looked over. The clerk passed over Ahia's name for the first count and the vote stood 4 to 2, Petrie and McClellan voting negatively.

"I want more time," said Ahia when his name was again called. "Go ahead and vote," urged his fellows. "Vote yes or no, as you please." Ahia wanted to be excused from voting but the others deliberately put their feet down on it. The supervisor must vote one way or another, they said. Driven to the wall, Ahia made a last stand.

"If I was sure this man is a citizen," he said, "I'd vote yes. That's all that's holding me back." Accordingly Arnold suggested that this matter be left to the auditor, and upon this understanding Ahia voted in the affirmative.

MAN GOES TO RESCUE OF WOMEN IN DEEP WATER AT WAIKIKI

Finding themselves in deep water, and unable to swim, two unidentified women in bathing yesterday afternoon near the tripois in front of Heine's Tavern, screamed for help. A. M. McMullen, who was reading in a house nearby, heard their cries and dashed into the water to their rescue, pausing only long enough to remove his coat. With the aid of a surfboard he brought both women to shore, where they recovered.

An appropriation for the appointment of two life guards at Waikiki Beach was passed by the last legislature.

Pupils desiring to enter the territorial normal school this fall may register on Friday and Saturday morning, this week, beginning at 9 o'clock in the morning.

DUTCH CAPTAIN TRIES TO SEAL YANKEE TONGUES

Attempts to suppress free speech among Americans aboard the Dutch steamer Rindjani while that vessel was in this port was met with indignation or indulgent smiles at the colossal nerve of the Dutch officials. The Rindjani sailed yesterday for San Francisco.

Before entering an American port, a notice is posted on every Dutch ship carrying passengers, purporting to be a wireless from the Dutch consul in San Francisco ordering the passengers to refrain from speech with newspaper men. (Consul Torchiana of San Francisco is also reported to have instructed the commanders of the Dutch vessels to not give out passenger lists to the press.)

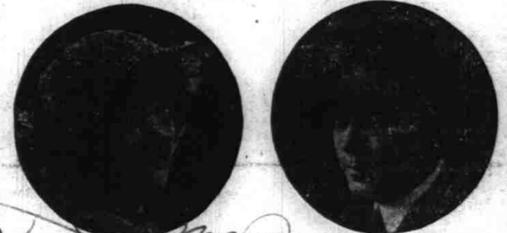

The usual message was received and posted to that effect on the Rindjani before she entered port yesterday, and the purser was instructed to try and enforce the order. But without avail, for the American passengers were spurred on by the order and eagerly sought out reporters to tell of what some of them termed "a high handed outrage." Some of them took the order as a direct insult and voiced their indignation in no uncertain words.

Not so A. Coleman, a young businessman who has been in the Philippines for over a year. He has a sense of humor, and the absurdity of the order caused him to laughingly inform a reporter about it.

"You know, I actually believe those Dutchmen thought that the mere posting of the order would cause us to obey. They've got as much to learn about the psychology of the American as has the Germans," he declared with another indulgent chuckle.

"But," he added, "the Hollanders on board looked on the restriction as a proper war time precaution and thought nothing of it." The near-sighted boy has only half a chance.

Why handicap your boys and girls in the pursuit of education by neglecting to have their eyes examined and fitted with proper glasses?

A defect in the eyesight will cause the most studiously inclined child to become discouraged and opposed to application in the school room.

Bring your children to me for a thorough examination of their eyes before the opening of school. If no error of vision is found glasses will not be recommended.
