

1ST-32ND NINE WINS IN GAME AT SCHOFIELD

Jackson Twirls Splendid Game for Winning Team, Though Control is Doubtful

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Sept. 23.—A fair crowd was on hand for the game between the 1st-32nd Infantry and the 1st Field Artillery nine, and witnessed a one-sided contest, the doughboys strolling to victory to the tune of 9 to 2, the pair of runs scored by the cannoners being gifts of the infantry in the seventh canto. Jackson pitched for the 1st-32nd combination and hurled a splendid game, but six bingles being made off his deceptive delivery. However, his control was rather poor, six redlegs reaching first via the pass route. Incidentally the same number fell victims to his slants by whiffing.

Jackson occupied the mound for seven frames, Mashaw relieving him, the latter not permitting a cannoner to reach the initial station in the two frames he twirled, three artillerymen fanning. Maddis caught his usual good game for the 1st-32nd infantry, none of the artillerymen taking liberty on the tow paths. Maddis also slammed out three clean singles, Judd, Hollis, Buckland and Ralls furnished fielding features for the infantrymen. Leading sluggers for the Blues were Maddis with three, Judd, Holcomb and Coyle with a brace of safeties apiece.

Burnett of the artillery tried a comeback stunt this afternoon and lasted two frames, the infantrymen amassing six markers and five hits in the two rounds he occupied the mound. At that, the runs gathered by his opponents might have been less had he been given better support. Wright, a newcomer, took up the pitching burden in the third, got by unscathed in the third canto, but was the victim of a heavy bombardment when three markers and the same number of hits were gleaned off his delivery in the fourth frame. After that round he held the doughboys runless and hitless, with the exception of the eighth, when the Blues wasted three safeties without a score. Erick and Burnett were the clouting stars of the cosmolites. Erick also contributed some sensational catches.

The score:

PEARL HARBOR NEEDS MORE SKILLED LABOR

Despite the fact that there are nearly 700 laborers of all classes engaged on the various works of construction at the Pearl Harbor yard, more skilled workmen could be used there if they were available, says Captain George R. Clark, the naval commandant.

"We are, however, getting along the best we can," he said this morning when asked about the reported labor shortage at Pearl Harbor. "It is skilled mechanics we need the most, as plenty of common laborers can be secured," he added.

Since the Carl Schurz and Guifport have been fully repaired, the need of skilled workmen for shipbuilding is not so urgent as before at Pearl Harbor, but there are many other improvements under way there.

REGISTRATION RALLY IS HELD AT LOCAL Y. W.

About 160 girls and women attended the rally at the Y. W. C. A. last night when the registration for the night school was begun. The enrollment will continue until next Monday when the first classes will be held.

Games, races and a "take-off" on a dinner at the Y. W. C. A. conference featured the entertainment which the secretaries of the association gave the prospective students of their school. In the mock dinner Miss Grace Chanon aptly took the part played at such affairs by Miss Mary Bentley, head of the Pacific coast field of the association.

With promises for a large attendance, the night school opens in less than a week, offering the usual sies of courses. The faculty will consist of several teachers from local schools. It will be, in part, as follows:

Stenography and business English, Miss Sterling of the McKinley high school; English for foreigners, Miss Lillian Welch of Punahou; dramatics, Mrs. Roger Burnham; conversational French, Madame Quevillon; cooking, Mrs. James Russell, head of the Y. W. C. A. cafeteria; dressmaking, Mrs. Elizabeth Frazier and Miss Olsen of Johnson and Olsen; millinery, Miss Grace Dugan Hustace.

CAMPAIGN FOR SECOND LIBERTY LOAN LAUNCHED

plan it is hoped to increase the number of subscribers and by the work of a large committee interest the small buyer and the man of little means and thus give each and every patriotic citizen an opportunity to "do his or her bit" for the United States.

Robert F. Steyer of the Bishop Trust Company today received a message from Mr. Lynch of San Francisco asking what preparation for the campaign was being made here and intimating that the new plan adopted on the mainland had received official recognition at Washington, D. C.

The local brokers and financial men are eager to make this coming drive, which is to be officially known as the "Second Liberty Loan of 1917" a huge success and are preparing to back the new plan with every effort. It is figured that out of a population of almost a quarter of a million people on these islands the loan should reach twenty per cent. of the people and when the committee gets down to work that will be their goal. A. W. T. Bottomley, Bishop & Co., Clarence H. Cooke, Bank of Hawaii, L. Tenney Peck, First National Bank and E. I. Spalding, was highly meritorious in every respect campaign appointed by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo during the first campaign and as their work was highly meritorious in every respect it is expected that they will be reappointed with perhaps one or more additional progressive business leaders for the positions on the advisory council of the big committee to be formed to make the second Liberty Loan drive even a greater success than the first.

TWO LITTLE PORTUGUESE GIRLS ARE WAITING FOR FOSTER PARENTS TO COME

They haven't a home, but they would like one awful well, and also a mother's care and Circuit Judge Heen of the Juvenile court wants to know if there is anyone in Honolulu who would like to adopt two pretty, rosy-cheeked Portuguese girl babies.

VICE CASE TURNED OVER TO MILITARY OFFICIALS

Federal officials today turned over to the army authorities the case of Pvt. H. Hayes, 25th Infantry, who was recently arrested on a charge of maintaining a bawdy house in Kalihi and within five miles of a military post. A colored woman, who was arrested with Hayes, has been released on bond in the sum of $1000. The case of the man was turned over to the army for the reason that his punishment is provided for in the articles of war.

LETTERS

EXONERATED BY COURT.

Mr. Editor: By your issue of 24th inst. I am under bail. Please allow me to state I am not; the case was tried in the district court, along with other cases which you published the court decisions of. The court heard the testimony of both sides. His Honor, Judge Irwin, agreed to the statement of the representative of the other side, to wit: that there was lying in the testimony, and said "Defendant discharged." Anyone with the least common sense knows that if His Honor, Judge Irwin, had the least idea I was lying to him that he would not discharge me.

Hoping you will publish this in your issue of today, so I will not have people asking me when I am to be tried. I am,
JEROME J. PATTEN,
Photist,

LOCAL AND GENERAL

The schooner Harvester sailed from Port Angeles for Honolulu last Sunday afternoon.

The Mills Club will meet on Thursday, September 27, at 3:30 P. M., at the home of Mrs. J. P. Winnie, 2030 Nuuanu Avenue. The club will welcome all former students of Mills College, whether residents of Honolulu or visitors here.

Petitions for naturalization have been filed in federal court as follows: Arthur Edward Jordan, Australia; Andrew Misinec, Hungary; Harry C. Waldron, England; Francisco Angelo Ruggeri, Italy; Charles Lendray, Hungary; Martin Michael Niemecky, Austria.

Interisland shipping will be affected by the demand made by the Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association of the Pacific, which has called for an increase in wages averaging 25 per cent. The organization is said to represent 2000 engineers at present employed in deep water vessels not only along the Pacific Coast of the United States, but those operating in island waters.

The Seijo Maru of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha line, which it was reported in San Francisco an attempt was made to destroy at sea with a time bomb, sailed for Honolulu last Sunday. She arrived in San Francisco Saturday from Iquique, Chile, where her officers told of the attempt to destroy her, presumably by German spies. The bomb was placed on the ship with her nitrate cargo.

Fifty cabin passengers and 30 steerage passengers are booked to leave on the Wilhelmina this afternoon for San Francisco. She will sail from Pier 19 at 4 o'clock. The Matson steamer is to take out a large cargo of canned pines and sugar. As she did not arrive off port last night until 8 o'clock from Kahului, permission had to be secured from the naval authorities for the Wilhelmina to enter the harbor.

Arrested as he was boarding the steamer Mauna Kea for Honolulu, a Filipino contractor, said to have absconded from Kau, Hawaii, with $700, was turned over to the Hilo police yesterday. Deputy Sheriff Kawaha of Kau is responsible for the arrest. He was notified of the missing man and money, immediately telephoned the Crescent City police, who apprehended the fugitive. He will be taken to Kau for a hearing.

If her cargo of 500 tons of canned pineapples is loaded in time, the schooner Albert Meyers, Capt. H. G. Anderson, will sail for Vancouver some times this afternoon. From Vancouver she will return to the Sound, where she will load lumber for Kahului. Captain Anderson expects to make three trips to the Maui port, but as to this there is little certainty, considering the present shortage of lumber carriers. The Albert Meyers arrived from Port Ludlow on September 9 with 500,000 feet of lumber.

STOWAWAY WON'T HAVE TO ENLIST; UNDER AGE

Frank Moriarty, the stowaway who came in the Ventura yesterday, isn't going to have to join the British army after all, or to go to jail either. He succeeded in convincing the federal authorities and British Consul E. L. S. Gordon that he was under 21 years of age and was given his liberty yesterday evening, as soon as the Ventura had sailed. He was detained until then to keep him from again stowing away on the vessel.

WARREN GOES AWAY, FRIENDS WONDER WHY

Wm. R. Warren, cashier of the Treat Trust company is leaving on the Wilhelmina this afternoon on a two months' vacation. His original plan to visit his old home, Ireland, according to his fellow employees has been abandoned owing to the war. His Kaimuki potato farm and sundry livestock will not suffer by his absence as his kind hearted friends have promised to keep a watchful eye on them particularly his Irish setter, Mike.

Owing to the recent epidemic of hysena plague among the Treat Trust company employees, Mr. Warren's statement that he is merely going for a vacation is taken by his associates with a grain of salt. Rumor has it that he will not be alone on his return. In view of this suspicion entertained by his associates, a large delegation of his admirers is expected at the pier to crown him with leis and wish him bon voyage.

PERSONALITIES

MRS. PHILIP HERRICK, a former Honolulu woman, has been visiting here for the last month while on her way to the states from her home in Manila. Mrs. Herrick will leave on the Shinjo Maru next Friday.

FORMS GALORE FOR DRAFT USE REACH HAWAII

Sixteen bags of mail from Washington containing approximately 1,400,000 separate pieces of registration blanks or forms for use in the territory arrived yesterday and were delivered this morning at the draft headquarters in the capitol.

This mail contains package after package of separate forms—a form for every process through which the registered man will go from the time his name is first drawn until he becomes a part of the big national army, or is rejected. As there are approximately 30,000 registered names some idea of the amount of work ahead of the authorities may be gained at mention of the size of this official mail.

An interesting estimate of the probable makeup of the territory's quota can be formed from a study of the proportion of races and exemption claims to be found in the registration cards.

Speaking in general there were approximately 20,000 aliens registered on July 31, and 10,000 citizen declarants. The latter number includes Caucasians and Hawaiians, the former Japanese and others.

If an army of 5000 should be drawn here, the average for those who have waived exemption among the aliens and those who are liable to call among the citizens would probably work out on a 2, 2 and 1/2 basis. In other words the citizen and citizen declarant force would contain a little more than 2000 men, and the same would hold true for Japanese, while other races would be about 700 or 800. This would allow the forming of two separate regiments and a separate battalion.

Monte Carter Musical Comedy Company Coming to the Bijou Theater

It is with pleasure that the management of the Bijou announces the engagement of Monte Carter "Iszy" and his big musical comedy company for a limited season of musical comedy. Monte Carter or as he is familiarly known "Iszy" for his characterization of that role is an old Honolulu favorite, and the announcement of his early appearance will no doubt be a source of pleasure and gratification to his many friends. The company has been carefully selected and strengthened, for this engagement will contain many favorites who were with him on his previous trip.

A word to the wise, don't get shut out, secure your season's reservation at once.—Adv.

ANOTHER NURSE'S NAME LINKED UP WITH BERG CASE

Grand Jury Begins Investigation of Death But No Witnesses Heard First Day

That a local nurse whose name has not heretofore been mentioned in the investigation may shortly be connected up with the circumstances surrounding the death of Miss Florence Berg, former Queen's hospital nurse who died following a criminal operation, is the substance of information reaching the Star-Bulletin from authoritative sources.

It is reported that the nurse in question, whose name has not yet been ascertained, left Honolulu for one of the other islands as soon as the investigation of Miss Berg's death was begun following the publication of the first story of the case in the Star-Bulletin. A city official, although he declined to comment further on the matter, said the nurse in question is now in Honolulu.

An investigation of the death of Miss Berg was begun yesterday afternoon by the territorial grand jury, acting in cooperation with the city attorney's office. Deputy City Attorney A. M. Cristy is representing the city and is presenting the case to the veniremen. Attorney Cristy would not comment on the Berg case today, saying that it lies entirely in the hands of the grand jury.

No witnesses were before the jury yesterday afternoon, although Capt. John Ludy, Medical Corps, Fort Shafter, was present. Attorney Cristy added that only preliminary matters were discussed. Announcement that the grand jury would investigate the Berg case was made recently by City Attorney A. M. Brown, who said that all witnesses who testified at the coroner's inquest probably would be summoned before the grand jury.

MISS DOROTHY PALMER WEDS RESERVE OFFICER

Friends in Honolulu of Miss Dorothy Palmer, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Guy G. Palmer, recently of Fort Shafter, will be interested to know that she has been married to Lieut. Edward Porter Bruck, Reserve Corps of the United States army. The wedding took place September 9, in Oakland.

Lieutenant Bruck, according to reports received here, has been ordered to duty in the training camp of the 91st Division, Camp Lewis, American Lake, Washington, and the young couple will be at home there after a brief honeymoon.

ATTENTION!

Directors of the Needlework Guild: Collect all your garments for the Guild and give them with a list to your Section President on or before Thursday, Oct. 4.—Adv.

Three of those who took the recent medical examination before the territorial board have been recommended for acceptance as certified physicians before the board of health. They are Dr. Ewald H. Angermann, Dr. Eva Durgin Missner and Dr. F. R. Missner. These names will probably be acted on Friday at a meeting of the board. Eight persons took the examination.
