

RUSS COLLAPSE MOST OMINOUS EVENT OF WAR

—Rep. Reavis
"If You Don't Buy Liberty Bonds We Will Take Your Money By Taxes," He Tells Commercial Club

"News received from Russia this morning that Kerensky has been deposed is the most ominous thing in the history of the war," said Representative Reavis of Nebraska. In his talk before the members of the Commercial club today, "We have to make sacrifices in this ghastly tragedy, but no matter what obstacles have to be faced, we're going through."
"We are asking for no annexations. We want no indemnities. We are seeking for enduring peace. We are fighting for enduring peace. I am a Republican, but I know that President Wilson did not try to tell the kaiser what kind of a government he should have. He did tell him, gentlemen, what kind of a government he shall not have."
"More than four-fifths of the world have banded together to make their sacrifices in order that civilization may not be driven from the haunt of man. We are raising money through Liberty Bonds to give our soldiers the finest treatment ever received in the history of the world. We want the money, and if we don't get it from you, we will take it away from you through taxes. There is only one end and that end is victory for America and her Allies," he continued.

Congressman Reavis sent a message to a friend in Nebraska shortly after his arrival. The message read: "Safe and happy in Paradise."
Congressman Reavis said that he

ROSE UPHELD IN FIRING COP

When the civil service commissioners came together at noon today to continue hearing the charges brought by Sheriff Rose against Officer J. K. Walchia, the meeting speedily resolved itself into an executive session, and the case was decided in favor of the plaintiff, Commissioners Aluli and Sheldon standing out for permanent dismissal of the officer, against E. P. Fogarty, who held that the sheriff's charges had not been substantiated by the evidence brought before the commission.

Further business transacted by the commission was the setting of Saturday, November 10, as the date when Peter Luka, the newly appointed policeman at Wailuku, will be examined for a commission in order that he may be permanently appointed to serve on the police force.
It was glad that he had an opportunity to come 6,000 miles to tell the people of Hawaii what good work had been done by Delegate J. K. Kalaniana'ole. There was no one in congress who did better work for his people than Hawaii's delegate was the expression of the speaker.

One of the last luncheon speakers called was Angus Ery, Delegate Kuhl's secretary. "This is entirely unexpected and I am going to evade it by gracefully resigning my seat," he declared, and proceeded to do so, amid the laughter of those present.

SEVEN KILLED IN BUILDING CRASH

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Wireless.)
NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Five women and two men are believed to have been killed early today in the collapse of three floors of a big building in Brooklyn.
The building was occupied by a concern furnishing provisions to the United States.
An explosion was followed by a sharp fire.

U. S. WAR MISSION TO EUROPE REACHES LONDON

Colonel E. M. House of Texas heads the mission, which numbers 27, including attaches and secretaries.

OHIO HAS MOVED TO 'DRY' COLUMN

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Wireless.)
CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 8.—Unofficial returns complete for this state indicate that prohibition won in Tuesday's election by 3000 majority. The latest returns give 513,171 for prohibition and 516,219 against it.
Late returns completely changed the aspect of the vote on prohibition. The belated returns have favored the dry amendment and if the remaining districts from which returns have yet to be received run as have the other late returns the majority will be increased over the present figures.

NEW YORK SUFFRAGE ELECTION GOES BIG IN FAVOR OF WOMEN

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Wireless.)
NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Women of the Empire State won a great victory on Tuesday. A splendid majority for woman's suffrage has been piled up and there seems no doubt that it will be still larger when the full returns are in. With only 396 districts to be heard from, the suffrage amendment has a majority of 94,292.
While a large vote will be cast in the trenches and at the various camps and military posts of the country by citizens of New York now with the army and navy whose total must be added and may not be known until December 29th, it is not believed that those votes will go against the amendment and it is considered that the majority is much too large to be overcome even if that vote should swing somewhat the other way.
