U. S. RED CROSS CARES FOR BELGIAN ORPHANS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10.—The American Red Cross is assisting in caring for Belgian orphans who were carried by their captors into Germany and who are beginning to be released. The first groups, consisting of 500 children each, have been received back into the Allies' territory.

U. S. RED CROSS CARES FOR BELGIAN ORPHANS

The return of the first liberated orphans from Belgium is reported in a cablegram from the American Red Cross commission to France. These homeless children, sick and undernourished, all between four and thirteen years of age, will receive the best possible care from the American Red Cross, which recognizes in them Belgium's hope for its coming generation.

U. S. RED CROSS CARES FOR BELGIAN ORPHANS

Lieut. Charles E. Brickley, former Harvard football star and present coach of the Boston college eleven, was appointed chief aide to Brigadier General E. Leroy Sweater, commanding the depot brigade of the 26th army division.
