Steger Will Be Out of Game At Post New Years

Big Half Back Will Not Play in Y. M. Contest; 32nd Infantry Will Watch Davis

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Dec. 28.—The culmination of the 1917 football season will be reached New Year's Day, when the Y. M. C. A. and 32nd Infantry eleven clash at Castner for Oahu league championship honors. Both teams engaged in Christmas Day games, the "Y" and Town Team clash resulting in a tie score, while the 32nd Infantry defeated the Marines 49 to 0.

The victory of the infantrymen was gained at considerable cost, for Steger, the ground-gaining left half back, broke his right hand and consequently will not participate in the big game. This is quite a blow to the followers of the "Baby" regiment, as the big blonde was one of the most consistent ground gainers of their eleven and was counted upon to continue his spectacular work of the season in the game with the "Y." However, Coach Bracken has three willing subs available in Braun, Currier and Garland, one of whom will fill the breach caused by Steger's injury, and the intervening time between now and date of game will see some strenuous sessions of practise for the 32nd Infantry, building up a new offensive and defensive around these subs.

Will Watch Davis

The 32d and "Y" clashed once before this season, both making their debut in the opening game of the league at Schofield, the boys from Honolulu returning home with the bacon after a sharp contest. It was Davis who upset the infantrymen in that contest, and it is this played the members of the 32nd Infantry squad will have to watch. The little speed merchant did not run "wild" in the recent game between the "Y" and 1st Infantry, though he did show some of the fast stuff in the latter part of the game, but at the same time it was Davis who booted the pigskin for three points and victory.

Little is known at the post of the "Y" workouts, but it is presumed that the players have become acquainted by this time. Press accounts preceding the first game between the "Y" and 32nd led some of the more unsophisticated fans to believe a "disorganized outfit" was to face the "Baby" regiment. A few minutes of play, however, dispelled such illusion. Now that the "Y" players have become acquainted and played together in half a dozen games some of the followers of the 32nd are apprehensive of their team's chances, though it is possible a few of the more devoted are willing to risk a few shekels on the outcome of the contest.

JAPANESE HIGH DEFEATS TAIYO

The baseball team of Taiyo of Aiea was badly defeated when the Japanese High School squad won out by a score of 16 to 4 at the former's home ground.

For two innings both sides played all-right ball, but after that the winners swatted the ball to all corners of the field and tallied at will. The losers were unable to do anything. They were just able to connect for a few singles which did no damage. The batting by the J. H. S. team was the feature of the day.

The lineup: Japanese High School—Yukutake, s.; Tani, c.; Yoshino, l.f.; Kosuki, 2b.; Idemoto, 3b.; Sakata, 1b.; Tani, p.; Tomoka, c.f.; Inoue, r.f.; Taiyo—Kusumoto, 2b.; Yamada, 3b.; Suzuki, c.; Kawamoto, s.; Kozumi, p.; Nakayama, l.f.; Imoto, r.f.; Shimizu, c.f.; Amane, 1b.

Summary—Two base hits, Yukutake. Struck out by Kozumi, 5; by Tani, 5. Bases on balls, off Kozumi, 8; hit by pitched ball, by Kozumi, 1; by Tani, 2.

Runs and hits by innings:
J. H. S. 0 0 7 0 3 0 1 1 5—16
Base hits 0 0 4 1 3 1 0 2—14
Taiyo 0 0 0 0 0 4 0 0—4
Base hits 1 0 1 0 0 1 0 0—3

Once Slam Is Warming Up

Those interested in helping swell the Clark C. Griffith ball and bat fund which is for the purpose of giving the U. S. soldiers baseball equipment, have sent out the following poem entitled, "The Real World's Series—And May America Win." It runs as follows:

"It opened in Bleeding Belgium, with Kaiser at the bat,
He won the game at Liege and thought he had the series pat.
Then Johnny Bull went in to pitch, and stopped the foe's advance,
While a feature of the game became the fielding work of France.
Russia went in to pinch-hit, along the Eastern front,
While Italy and Rumania each laid down a perfect boot.
They trimmed old Bill at Vimy Hill—with wine they filled the cup,
While out along the foul line Uncle Sam is warming up.

Your Uncle Sam is warming up to mount the pitching hill,
And show such speed and curves that he will strike out Kaiser Bill.
That war machine to conquer worlds will know the very worst,
When we hit one down to Hindenburg and beat his throw to first.
When Sims goes up to bat and sweeps the subs from off the sea,
And Pershing, sliding into third, spikes Crown Prince on the knee.
Yes, Uncle Sam is warming up, and after he goes in to pitch, we'll be building baseball diamond, in the city of Berlin."

BILL JOHNSTON HAS NEW DOUBLE PARTNER; CUPID

Bill Johnston, former national champion tennis star, who has appeared on the courts of Honolulu, has a new double partner. Johnston first played with Griffin, shifted later to Strachan, and now has as a double partner Mrs. William Johnston.

Johnston, who is now an ensign in the navy, and Miss Irene Norman of San Francisco were married in San Diego last week. Mrs. Johnston played in a number of tournaments and was considered by many to be the prettiest tennis player in California.

Qualified.

"I'm caddising for you, sir," explained the boy as the player approached the first tee.
"Just a moment, son," rejoined the golfer. "I have had a lot of trouble with my caddies of late. I'm playing medal today. Can you count?"
"Yes, sir," replied the boy.
"Well, what's five and seven and four?"
"Twelve, sir."
"Gimme that driver and a couple of balls."

Unceyread.

From a daily newspaper published in Oregon, concerning certain alterations that were going on to the clubhouse of a golf club:
"The builders have been busy with additions to the clubhouse. . . . The old ladies' room has been taken for a smoking room."

FOOTBALL AND THE OLD GRAD

(With usual apologies.)

We meet up with many leavens on the field,
And some of 'em is brave and some is ples,
One time our flying wedge will make 'em yield,
And then again their ball back he gets wise;
But whether on Our Gridiron or away,
Or if we put it over or get done,
Some old feller in the grandstand's sure to say,
'You ought to seen the match of 'Nineteen-one.'

Football season, pesky 'lumnus, and you spend each Saturday
Wrapped in steamer rug and sweater, criticizing of our play;
Well, you've got the reputation and we're feeling rather sore,
Though we bust our hearts with trying we can never beat your score.

We took our chanst among the town bred boys,
The rough necks didn't know football at all,
Their cheer stunt was a most ungodly noise,
They actually tried to kick the ball;
But all we ever got from such as they
Was soft to what Old Memories made us swaller.
We held our own, as anybody'll say,
But '92's touchdown has knocked us holler.

Then here's to you, pesky 'lumnus, an' the madam an' the kid,
Though we do a sight of thinking while we're listening what you did,
You put the ball across oh, yes, but how about the rule?
Or was regulations hung up the time you went to school?

You haven't got no standing in the world,
Our father never heard of you a-tall,
Your daughters at our dances are not twirled,
Our mater at your flat will never call;
But still you are the bitter in our cup,
The crumpled roseleaf in our father bed,
The spook that scares us when we warm'er up,
The thorn hid in the bays about our head.

So here's to you, pesky 'lumnus, at your home where it may be,
You're a poor, thin chested citizen, interfering at the knee,
Bue we give you a diploma, and if you want it signed,
You may call up the old frat house whenever you're inclined.

And if to credit all we're told we're willing
You rightfully regard us chaps with hauteur;
When you kicked off you always made a killing,
Was personally responsible for slaughter;
You was a peach, a teaserin', a Jim Dandy,
And ginger was your customary diet,
At putting pep in football you was handy,
And always laid the other squad out quiet.

So here's to you, darn ole 'lumnus, at your home away out West,
However good we may be, you always will be best;
But a single recollection fills these autumn days with cheer,
Say, fellows, we'll be 'lumnus, in the stand, another year.
—Edith Minter.

CORRIGAN WILL DISPOSE OF HIS FAMOUS STABLE

LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 16.—James W. Corrigan of Cleveland, through his secretary, J. W. Fraser, announced here today that on Jan. 15 at Kingston farm his Wickliffe stud of thoroughbred stallions, brood mares and weanlings and his Wickliffe stable of thirty-seven racers now at Churchill Downs would be sold out and absolutely dispersed and that he will until after the war put aside his fondness for horses.

The number of horses to be sold is about 140 and it will be the largest single disposal sale since the passing of Colonel Milton Young's McGrathiana stud in 1908, and fully as important to the horse world as the James R. Keene estate and James R. Hays' estate disposals. The stallions to be sold are Colin, Delhi, Disguise, Hippodrome, Last Coin and Ultimis.

COMMITTEE WILL LINE UP EVENTS FOR NEW YEAR

Members of the racing committee are going ahead with plans for the New Year's race meet. Although the Christmas card did not come up to expectations, the majority of horsemen recognize that the committee was up against a hard proposition this year, and all are getting behind the movement to make the New Year's races a success.

There is an interest taken in keeping the game alive here, and the meet was staged to show what the imported talent could do. The committee is evidently aware that it is up to them to work for the success of the New Year's event, and a number of races scheduled should bring out good events.
