A ROUSING CONVENTION

Republicans of Maui Nominate Representative Citizens for Senate and House

LAHAINA'S HOSPITALITY

Precinct Club and Townspeople Feast and Entertain the Delegates

At 10:30 P. M. on Monday the Republican District Convention of the Second Senatorial and Third Representative District was convened at Lahaina, with Judge A. N. Kepoikai as temporary chairman. Opening prayer was offered by Rev. S. Kapu, after which a credential committee consisting of Delegates H. P. Baldwin, W. F. Pogue, George O. Cooper and S. Kapu were appointed by the Chair. After a short recess the committee reported, seating all the delegates in person or by proxy. The question of the status of delegates from the newly created precincts was raised by Delegate S. Kapu and called forth discussion until Chairman Kepoikai called attention to the fact that no action could be taken in the matter until permanent organization was effected.

Delegate Kapu nominated Hon. A. N. Kepoikai as permanent chairman, nominations closed and he was elected by acclamation. On taking the gavel, Judge Kepoikai courteously thanked the convention for the honor they had conferred upon him, adding that he was glad to be allied to the republican party and expressing the hope that each of the delegates would take it upon themselves to show their brothers on the opposite side, that the Republican party is the party of progress and prosperity, and that the platform of the Republican party was built to bring democrats and home rulers home to the Republican party. He further added that the time was ripe for the spectators present to come out and declare themselves for the republican party, and specially requested Hon. Wm. White, who was present to set the ball rolling in the right direction.

W. E. Henning was chosen Vice-President; J. N. K. Keola, Secretary; T. M. Church, Treasurer and R. W. Miller, Auditor; all of whom were elected unanimously.

On motion of Delegate H. P. Baldwin, the following committee of five on Rules and Regulations were appointed: J. D. McVeigh, First District; W. E. Henning, Second District; W. A. McKay, Third District; H. P. Baldwin, Fourth District, and W. P. Hala, Fifth District. An adjournment was taken to 2 o'clock P. M. at which time the committee submitted their report consisting of fourteen articles. Article 1 outlined the governing power of the District Committee, relating both to the Precinct Clubs and to the Territorial Committee. Article 2 provided officers to hold for two years. Articles 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 dealt respectively with the duties of the District Committee officers, and all carried as read except rule 5 which had a rider added that the Secretary should submit a report to the District Committee whenever required as to what business had been transacted as per his minutes from the time he took office. Article 8 specified that the Executive Committee should consist of one member from each of the twenty precincts. Article 9 defined the duties of the Executive Committee. Article 10 made a majority of the members of the Executive Committee a quorum, and Article 11 fixed two-thirds of the members of the District Committee as a quorum.

Article 12 provided that all precincts should have the privilege of nominating representatives, apportioned as follows: Precincts 1 and 2, one candidate; Precinct 3, 4 and 5, one candidate; Precinct 6, one candidate; Precincts 7, 8, 9 and 15, one candidate; Precincts 10 and 11, one candidate; Precincts 12, 13 and 14, one candidate. This brought Delegate Kalua to his feet in a rousing speech in which he argued that as the sixth precinct had been divided, it was only fair that both Waihee and Waikapu be recognized and given a voice in the selection of candidates. Chairman Kepoikai offered an amendment that the selection of candidates be apportioned according to the Judicial or Taxation Districts, which would give a representative from Hana, Makawao, Wailuku, Lahaina and Molokai, and one delegate at large. Delegate McKay suggested that as Makawao had a senator already, and proposed putting up another senator and two representatives, and Lahaina and Molokai together would be represented by a senator and two representatives, the candidate at large should come from Wailuku, thus giving Wailuku District two representatives. This led to a long discussion led by Delegate Baldwin, supported by the Hana, Lahaina, Molokai and Makawao delegates against Wailuku having a second representative, while Delegates Kepoikai, Kalua and McKay fought for the measure. Finally on motion of Delegate Kalua the consideration of Article 12 was temporarily postponed until the convention could caucus on a settlement of the matter.

Article 13, outlining the order of business and Article 14 providing for changes in the by-laws, were passed, and the convention went into caucus for half an hour, at the end of which time the convention was called together again, and after some slight amendments to Article 13, adjourned to 9:30 A. M., Tuesday morning.

9:30 a. m. Sept. 6. The session was again opened with prayer and after the reading of the minutes and other routine Delegate Baldwin made a motion that article 12 be adopted as originally drawn up. Chairman Kepoikai made a strong speech for two representatives for Wailuku; but reiterated his talk of the day previous regarding the advisability of nominating them at the present convention on account of the confusion it would cause. Pledges were given that at the next convention Wailuku should have the two and if the republican vote was brought up to a figure mentioned the Sixth Precinct would be given three representatives. The article finally carried as originally put, and the rules adopted as a whole. The nominations being in order the following were elected. Senators, Sam Kalama and A. N.

Hayselden; Representatives:— First District: Moses Nakua, and Nakaleka. On the ballot, Nakua, nominated by J. D. McVeigh in the speech of the convention, won out by 29 votes to Nakaleka 4.

Philip Pall was nominated by acclamation on motion of A. N. Hayselden.

Judge Kalua nominated W. J. Coelho as representative from the 6th 7th 8th and 10th. George Copp and Peter Noa were the nominees from 7th 8th 9th and 15th and after a vote standing 25 for Copp and 7 for Noa, the election for Copp was made unanimous.

John Hapaiui was defeated by Rev. Chas. Kalua from the 10th and 11th districts.

W. P. Hala, "the watch dog of the legislature," was again nominated from the 12th 13th and 14th districts. The standing committee of the Executive Committee appointed by the chair after being proposed by their respective precincts including the newly established precincts are, First precinct, J. K. Waimalu; Second, Rev. G. Kaia; Third, J. J. Newcombe; Fourth, R. C. Searle; Fifth, Charles Gay; Sixth, Judge McKay; Seventh, H. P. Baldwin; Eighth, Jas Scott; Ninth, Edgar Morton; Tenth, H. A. Baldwin; Eleventh, W. F. Pogue; Twelfth, Wm. Nawai; Thirteenth, George O. Cooper; Fourteenth, J. K. Kapoi; Fifteenth, J. F. Kaalou; Sixteenth, Henry A. Meyers; Seventeenth, J. Nakaleka; Eighteenth, J. K. Nawahine; Nineteenth, M. A. Reuter; Twentieth, J. J. Kapoopii. Following these appointments the Convention ratified the platform of the national party as adopted at Chicago, and endorsed at Hilo.

A vote of thanks was extended to the Lahaina Precinct Club for the generous entertainment. This being all the business to be transacted the convention adjourned and the Executive Committee went into session.

A meeting was held in the Waianae Church in the evening at which the Hon. A. N. Kepoikai being introduced by Nominee A. N. Hayselden made a pleasing and spirited address turning over the management of the campaign so far as the individual precincts were concerned to their respective leaders.

W. F. Crockett being called upon gave a characteristic talk on the position of the Republican party as compared with the other two factions. S. Kapu chairman of the Lahaina Precinct Club, and Judge Kalua also gave short talks. W. J. Coelho acted as interpreter.

RECEPTION TO THE GOVERNOR

Lahaina Dons Gala Attire for the Head of Territorial Government

Midst the waving of flags, the fantastic dancing of miriads of Japanese lanterns, the cracking of Chinese bombs, and the shooting of sky rockets, Governor George R. Carter set foot upon the soil of Maui at Lahaina, Wednesday evening, and was lustily cheered by hundreds of admiring and staunch supporters.

This is the Governor's first visit to Maui as a representative of the people and to many present it was their first opportunity of seeing and knowing the Governor.

Sugar 95dg.—Centrifugals 4,225. Beets 10 shillings 9 pence.

As early as six o'clock in the evening people of all nationalities began gathering at the wharf and by the time the Kinau was sighted it is conservatively estimated that there were in the crowd fully eight hundred people, many of whom came halfway across the Island to be present to greet the Executive.

The wharf was so crowded that even elbow room was at a premium, while on the street in front of the Pioneer Hotel there were fully five times the number as on the wharf, the crowd extending possibly fifty feet each way.

The Governor was escorted to the veranda of the Pioneer Hotel by the Reception Committee of the Executive and the Lahaina Precinct Club, Hon. H. P. Baldwin, A. N. Hayselden, Delegate Henning and Manager Cooper. Mounting a table the Governor said that he not was going to address them, that he had been given to understand, and in fact had read in the papers, that Thursday had been set aside for a big jubilee meeting, but that before he retired he wish to tell those gathered how glad he was to be among them, that he had been fasting for a week that he might do justice to the many luaus. It was his wish to meet and know every one present, and that they must not hesitate to come forward; that he was no different than they, he was one of them and wished to be treated as such. That his reason for holding off Maui to the last, was because he liked the good things last and "Maui No Ka Oi."

Thursday morning, the Governor held a reception and listened to the various suggestions regarding the needs of Lahaina. In the afternoon he inspected Lahainaluna, and went over the water rights question, and at 4 p. m. was given another reception and luau in the Court Yard. After the luau and address by the Governor the first guns of the campaign were fired by the newly appointed Senators and Representatives in rousing speeches.

Yesterday the Governor and party spent the day at Honolulu, where the residents of Honokohau and Honolulu met, luaued, and listened to him. Today he will visit Kahakuloa and Waihee and should arrive in Wailuku about 7:00 p. m. where he will spend the evening.
