Zamloch at Wailuku.

The P. C. Advertiser of Sept. 5, speaking of Zamlochs farewell performance says: Honolulu holiday makers like to have some evening amusement with which to finish the day and Zamloch's clever entertainment is just the thing.

During his present engagement Zamloch has steadily grown in popularity and the theater has nightly held a big and interested crowd. He will always be welcomed to Hawaii by the many who have attended the performances and who firmly believe him to be the greatest living wizard.

Zamloch's rank stands high on account of the own inventive powers and the clever tricks he has evolved for himself. The rapping trick where a drum, a coin in a bowl, a wooden plate or a hat answers question successfully, is a marvel cleverly worked out, and with the simple neatness of his basket trick would alone place him as the equal of Hermann and Houdin.
