COURT DISPOSES CRIMINAL CASES.

Grand Jury Finds Ten True Bills. Five Not Indicted.

On last Saturday afternoon the Grand Jury finished their labors and rendered the following report:

We, the undersigned, Grand Jurors of your Honorable Court, beg to make our final report as follows:

We have investigated fifteen cases and have found ten true bills as follows:

True bills found and indictments presented, as follows: Tsue, embezzlement of more than one hundred dollars; Mitama, selling liquor without license; Papa Kahaulelio, mayhem; Manuel Chase, assault and battery with a weapon dangerous to life; Sasake Kekichi, embezzlement; Roke Posano, larceny first degree; Tai Sing and Ah Mai, burglary first degree; Joseph Kalli, embezzlement; Kaahue Ioane, and Kaina, assault and battery.

In the following cases, after due investigation, we have declined to indict viz: Y. Sunisaki, selling liquor without license; Ah Tong et al., gaming at Kahului; Ah Lo (two cases), selling liquor without license; Aka, selling liquor without license.

We have had several cases before us in which the Police Department has figured. We are much impressed with the methods resorted to by them in obtaining testimony in liquor cases—having no regard in many instances as to the character of their paid spies. In two cases before us we feel that the spies were perjurers and one spy admitted having been in jail three times for various offenses.

We have heard much evidence; so much as to make it convincing to our members that the Police Department are lax in their methods; that many of the officers are inefficient; in fact, we think there should be a general shaking up of the department.

Instances have come to our knowledge of the divulgence by members of former Grand Juries, of the proceedings had before them. Without a desire to mention the names of offending members of those bodies, we respectfully recommend that all Grand Juries and jurors be so admonished by the court as to reprove past and prevent future violations of the secrecy which should attend all proceedings before the Grand Jury.

We further recommend that the clerk of this Grand Jury, Mr. T. M. Church, be paid a reasonable sum in addition to his per diem as a Grand Juror, for his faithful and arduous services as clerk of this body.

We thank the Court and its officers for the courtesies extended to the members of this Grand Jury during our labors.

And, having completed our duties and given our best attention to all the matters submitted to our consideration by the court or by the Deputy Attorney General, we respectfully ask that this Grand Jury be now discharged for the term.

The following cases have been disposed of since the opening of the court:

Territory of Hawaii vs. Y. Sumisaki. Selling liquor without a license. Richard Joon for defendant. Nolle pros.

Manuel Chase who on July 4th celebrated the day by building up a jag and assaulting Antone de Rego and Manager Camara with a weapon dangerous to life, plead guilty and was sentenced to ten days hard labor. The Judge took cognizance of the fact that the defendant had been confined to jail since the day of the affray.

Sasaki Kekichi indicted by the Grand Jury for embezzlement, when brought before a jury was found not guilty. The same was the result of the assault and battery case against Kaahue Ioane and Kaina on Lee Lung on the water rights of lower Wailuku valley.
