What Washington Wants To Know.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Acting Governor Atkinson has received a letter from the Department of the Interior, calling upon him to prepare the annual report of the governor of Hawaii, as provided for by the Organic Act, and in view of the absence of the governor it will be up to Atkinson to prepare the report. The letter asks that the report be in Washington by October 1, and in discussing its scope suggests the following topics and methods of treatment:

"Population; Taxable Property; Settlement and Disposition of Lands; Commerce and the Progress of Railroad Enterprises; Agricultural Development; Stock Raising in all its branches; Mining; Forest, and the Production of Lumber; Education; Labor Supply; Condition of the Natives in the Territory; Public Buildings; Legislation, and undeveloped resources, with a statement as to the character, quantity and location of the 'Crown Lands,' to which the United States succeeded by this Act of Cession.

"A full statement should also be given as to all exchanges of land, irrigation privileges, railroad, tramroad and other franchises.

"In treating of population, comparative statements showing annual increase should be given, together with notes on the distribution, and where practicable, on the character and nationality of immigration.

"In treating of taxable property, a succinct statement of the financial condition of the Territory should be given, embodying liabilities and resources, bonded and floating debt of the Territory, with their proper designation.

"Full particulars in reference to the social and industrial progress of the Territory are desired.

"Statistical information should not be given from estimates, where it is possible to obtain such information from original sources.

"The enumeration of the topics given above is not intended to exclude the presentation of other subjects which may commend themselves to you for embodiment in your annual report; on the contrary, the fullest information is desired upon all matters relating to the progress or affecting the welfare of the Territory.

"It is desirable that you incorporate in your report such recommendations for the enactment of legislation by Congress as, in your judgment, may be necessary to the proper administration of affairs in Hawaii under your supervision."

New Treasures From The Archives.

HONOLULU, June 13.—Work on the new Archives building has begun. The contract has been let to the Hawaiian Engineering and Construction Company and will cost $35,517.26. It will be at least six months, it is said, before it will be completed. The feature of the building is the fireproof fixtures and so will all the furniture except the chairs.

The appropriation for taking care of the archives is only $75 a month, which is far too small for the purpose, it is said. It is believed by the commissioners that many of the archives to be made available, should be, not type-written, but printed in cheap pamphlet form. This will make them much more available than if type-written merely.

Dr. Alexander who has already delved deeply into the treasures that are being brought to light, says that much that is of important historical value is being found. For instance there is correspondence between Lord George Paulet and Admiral Thomas with the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Hawaii, after the restoration of the Kingdom and the events of 1843. The existence of this correspondence has not been known to any historian of the Islands. In this correspondence, Lord George Paulet expresses a change of views as to the matters with which he dealt and regret that they had been misrepresented to him, so as to lead him to take the action he did.

In this correspondence besides, there is much to throw light on acts and motives that have hitherto been matter of conjecture.

Doctor (after careful examination): "Some foreign substance is lodged in your eye."

American Chutney Popular.

HONOLULU, July 14. Those interested in our new industry, will sympathize with Mrs. Annie Kearns in her deep gratification at the way the people of this town have patronized and highly commended her Hawaiian chutney.

At the time of starting, Mrs. Kearns sounded a few people as to the prospect of success and the demand of such a condiment as she had the recipe for. She was told that Americans did not care much for chutney, consequently there was little call for it, and those who did use it made their own.

However, with the knowledge that Americans do not miss anything worth having, Mrs. Kearns started to investigate the chutney question. She found that quite a few people made nice mango chutney and sold it, but quite in an intermittent way. She also found that quite a number of people liked home-made good chutney; also that the foreign article, owing to heavy duties and long carriage, was expensive, and very often indifferent in quality. These facts were enough for Mrs. Kearns, so she went right ahead. And what a glad woman she is! Why it is only a few months since the mango season commenced, and her chutney has spread all over Honolulu, and quite a few cases of it are finding their way to the coast. On the merits of a sample Mrs. Kearns sent to Sydney, she has secured a fine initiatory order from the Civil Service Stores, the leading groceryhouse in Sydney. She has also secured the patronage of the Oceanic Steamship Company's first-class passenger steamers, and Governor Carter decided that a case of her chutney was good enough to take along to the President.

No Hope For Chinese Labor.

HONOLULU, June 14. With regard to the proposed changes in the Chinese exclusion act Secretary Taft decisively stated that there could be no hope for the admission of more coolie labor.

"The changes will be made only in regard to the enforcement of the law so that Chinese merchants and students can escape insult and ignominy when landing. That is what the present agitation is about and not on the admission of laborers. There will be no admission of any more coolies."

Coffee Tariff Not In Sight.

HONOLULU, June 14. Sereno E. Payne, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of Congress, is among the distinguished visitors in Honolulu today. It is his first visit to Hawaii, and he expressed himself this morning as much interested in seeing the sights.

"Hawaii had an appropriation of $400,000, didn't she, for harbor improvement?" said Payne when asked about chances of legislation for Hawaii. Payne did not think there was much in the coffee tariff proposition, which is one of the things Hawaii and Porto Rico are asking for. "The matter has not been considered to any important extent," said Payne. "As far as I knew there is no real movement to place a tariff on coffee. It has been discussed a good deal in the newspapers, but not among the members of Congress."

Song Hits of 1905.

The Quaker City Quartette is one of the principal attractions with AL. G. Field's Minstrels, during the coming season. They will make a special feature of Jos. W. Stern & Co's. latest successful sentimental ballad "Down Where The Silvery Mohawk Flows," written by Monroe H. Rosenfeldt & Heinzman Bros.

Sam Pickett's Bluebeard Extravaganza is proving one of the biggest summer attractions, playing the cities through the upper part of New York State. The First act in the piece closes with a splendid rendition of "Peter Piper," Jos. W. Stern & Co's. new march and song success, by the entire company. Indeed this song has made a such success that it is to be introduced in several others of Mr. Pickett's new productions.

Norton & Russel, who are considered one of vaudeville's best specialties in their amusing skit "The Dago and the Monk" have added materially to the success of their act by interpolating a clever song published by Jos. W. Stern & Co. entitled "The Banana Man." This has proved one of the most popular songs of the season and is an assured hit.
