

MAUI BLUE BOOK

TERRITORIAL OFFICIALS
Hon. A. N. Kopoika, Circuit Judge, Wailuku
Edmund H. Hart, Clerk Circuit Court, Wailuku
Judge W. A. McKay Dist. Magistrate, Wailuku
J. Howard, " " " " " "
Chas. Copp, " " " " " "
Kunukaw, " " " " " "
J. Kama, " " " " " "
Pitman, " " " " " "
McCorriston, " " " " " "
Kahoonalana, " " " " " "
W. T. Robinson, Tax Assessor, Wailuku
J. N. K. Keola, Deputy Assessor, Wailuku
A. F. Tavares, " " " " " "
G. Dunn, " " " " " "
M. H. Reuter, " " " " " "

LAHAINA LINES.

Miss A. Z. Hadley is visiting friends in Honolulu.
Mr. Seong has returned from a business trip to Honolulu.
Mrs. Green of Honolulu is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hose.
Miss Payne, of the Halekala Ranch, is at the teacher's cottage.
The father of Mrs. Dr. Molony died in California, about the first of the month.
At Honokahau, while blasting was going on, a large fragment of rock fell upon the roof of the school building. Very little damage was done.
Samuel White, having completed his first year of study at the Honolulu High School, is passing his vacation at home in Lahaina.
Police Officer David K. Mookini and Sarah Hiram were united in marriage on Monday evening. Music and a wedding supper were enjoyed by the guests, after the ceremony.
A Japanese boy, 4 or 5 years old, while playing around the cars Monday noon, received a compound fracture of the leg. His injuries were carefully attended to by Dr. Burt at the Lahaina Hospital.
The Commencement exercises of the Japanese School took place at the Japanese Mission Church, under the direction of Pastor S. Fujii on Wednesday evening. The program was quite entertaining.
Mr. Dickenson has been superintending the erection of very convenient school buildings at Honokahau and Kahakuloa. Each of these school houses has four rooms for the use of the teacher. There are also 5000 gallon water tanks.
The Rev. Father Thomas sailed from Molokai on July 13, and landed at Kaanapali. From that district he came to Lahaina, as the successor of the lamented Father Oliver. Last Sunday the new priest commenced his pastoral work at Maria Lananakili Church. For eight years Father Thomas has been in charge of churches on the island of Molokai, outside of the Lepper Settlement. He is a native of Belgium; as were also his predecessors, Father Julian and Oliver.

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. Duggan of Wilson and Duggan, the road builders, is on Maui.
Miss Agnes Buchanan is visiting her sister Mrs. W. H. Cornwell.
Mrs. J. L. Osmer and child returned from a visit to Hilo last evening.
Chester A. Doyle was a passenger from Kau per S. S. Mauna Loa.
N. Olsted, postmaster at Hana, was a visitor at the county seat this week.
Bank Examiner J. Castle Ridgway of Hilo arrived in Wailuku Thursday evening.
Frank Sommerfeld has accepted a position as Superintendent for Wilson and Duggan.
W. E. Shaw representing E. O. Hall & Son, notifies his patrons that he arrived on Maui on the 18th inst.
Willie Roth of Honolulu was a passenger to Hilo for the Kinau to join the party of Stanford young ladies.
Noah Aluli who has just graduated from a special course at Yale returned home by the Kinau.
W. H. Crozier, wife and two children of Lahaina visited in Wailuku Monday and Tuesday of this week.
C. M. Lovestad representing the Gregg Co. Ltd. of Newburgh N. Y. arrived by Tuesday's steamer.
Dan Conway of the dry goods department of Theo. H. Davis & Co. is calling on the Maui trade.
J. N. S. Williams was a passenger to Honolulu by the Mauna Loa Thursday evening. He will return by the Kinau.
Mrs. Henry, Miss Henry, Miss Hearne, Miss Arques and Miss Ogier, left for the Volcano by the S. S. Kinau Tuesday evening.
Charles Notley, Home Rule Nominee as Delegate to Washington was a visitor to the county seat of Maui County Wednesday.

LOCALS

The crop of sugar of the Pioneer Mill will reach well toward 26,000 tons.
The next meeting of the Board of Supervisors is slated for August 1st or 2nd.
A ratification Democratic Home Rule Inau was held at Wahee, Tuesday, P. M.
It is believed now that work will commence on the new Wailuku Sugar Co's mill early in October.
Fifty leghorn pullets from excellent laying stock are offered for sale. See classified for sale adv. on page 6.
A party of six school teachers from Honolulu and Hawaii took in Iao Valley and canyons Tuesday.
A tennis court has been built in Rev. Ault's yard adjoining the church premises.
All citizens desiring daywork road-building can obtain the same by applying to J. Duggan of Wilson and Duggan at the Maui Hotel.
The divorced wife of a former Attorney General of Hawaii is now a chorus girl with the Kolb & Dill company at the Marquam theatre, Portland, Ore.
The streets of Wailuku have been unusually lively the last week. Mainland visitors as well as island people taking in the sights of Maui is the cause of the activity.
All persons having accounts due from the County will have to have the same acknowledged before a notary public or the clerk of the court before presenting to the auditor.
C. W. Ashford has filed an appeal to the Supreme court in the case of W. R. Kahaeokekei vs. the Wailuku Sugar Company, in which Judge Lindsay granted a nonsuit.
Lahaina can boast of the best equipped Third Class Post Office in the islands. Postmaster Waali is justly proud of the new 135 lock boxes which are modern in every respect.
Dr. W. O. Aiken announces that from July 31st he will be at the Puunene Club House the first part of the week and at the Custom House the latter part of the week.
All persons whose names appear in the list of entries for the tennis tournament to be held at Sunnyside August 12 and will be unable to join in the tournament will please communicate with J. N. S. Williams chairman of the tennis committee at the earliest possible date.
The attention of the readers of the News is called to the mid summer announcement of the Kahului Store in this issue. To reduce the enormous stock of shoes and hats prior to taking inventory the Kahului store proposes to permit the purchasing public of Maui to get a supply of shoes and hats at bedrock prices which compare favorably with the coast and which would, considering qualities, be hard to duplicate on the islands.

UP COUNTRY NOTES.

W. E. Smith of Kahului has taken a position in Kahului Store.
Mr. V. L. Boeck is at work again and with his family has moved to the beach house at Camp 1.
Work has been begun on a new house at Puunene. Wren Wescoat is to be the happy occupant.
Mr. W. P. L. Bett and family of Puunene are spending a few weeks at the mountain house at Makawao.
Mr. H. P. Baldwin and family and Mr. F. F. Baldwin and family are spending a few weeks at Maluhia.
Everyone is practicing for the tennis tournament and some lively games may be expected on Aug. 12th. The tournament is to be played at Sunnyside beginning at 9 a. m.
Mr. J. N. S. Williams and family left by the Mauna Loa Thursday evening for Honolulu. Miss Mist who has been visiting Mrs. Williams at Puunene went to Makawao Thursday to visit friends.
Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Dora von Tempky invited a number of her friends to tennis at Puunene after which a high tea was served.
Quite a number were present and during the evening dancing and social converse were engaged in till midnight.
The Honolulu sextet were engaged for the occasion and furnished their usual good music. During the evening there were several songs which were much appreciated by the guests.
Mrs. von Tempky is a charming hostess and it goes without saying that every one was delightfully entertained.
An unusually large crowd was in attendance at the Harvest Home Dance last Saturday evening, nearly all those invited responding to the invitations.
The large sugar room in the Mill was beautiful decorated with ferns, palm leaves and flags and brilliantly illuminated with colored incandescent lights. At one end of the dancing floor was the Ladies and Gentlemen's dressing rooms and at the other the refreshment room.
At about 8.30 the grand march was announced which started the evenings festivities. The floor was in splendid condition and the music the best we have had on Maui for some time.
A score of waiters under the direction of Mr. Mayfield served those who wished refreshments any time during the evening.
All the ladies looked very charming and there were some elegant evening gowns worn. Being Saturday the program was not all danced but there is no doubt that all those who attended thoroughly enjoyed themselves and that this was one of the best Harvest Home Dances ever given at Puunene.

DEATH OF MRS. EDGAR MORTON.

Upper Makawao was much grieved Saturday to learn of the death of Mrs. E. Morton, wife of Deputy Sheriff Morton. Mrs. Morton while not exactly an invalid has not had her usual good health for the last six months, and within the last week the ailment took a turn to the worse, terminating in her death Saturday. Mrs. Morton leaves a bereaved husband and three boys to mourn her death.

DEATH OF MRS. BECKWITH.

The news of this sad death of Mrs. Caroline P. Beckwith Monday was a severe blow to her hosts of friends on Maui. While Mrs. Beckwith has been an invalid for some time, she had only been ailing about a week and it was hoped that she might be spared to her friends for some time to come. Mrs. Beckwith with her husband came to the islands many years ago, and made Honolulu their home during the time Dr. Beckwith filled the pulpit of the Central Union Church. Dr. Beckwith's health compelled their moving to Maui and the Makawao district has since been their home. Mrs. Beckwith leaves her husband, the Rev. Dr. Beckwith and a daughter, Mrs. J. J. Hare to mourn their loss. The funeral service took place Tuesday from Mrs. Hare's home in Hamakua and the remains were interred in Makawao Cemetery.

ENTERTAINED WITH CARD PARTY.

Miss Katharan Hearne, Miss Bessie Henry, Miss Arques and Miss Ogier former Stanford students who are touring the islands, chaperoned by Mrs. Henry were entertained at cards by Mr. and Mrs. Penhallow at their home last Monday evening. Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wells, Messrs H. B. Weller, T. A. Lloyd, Ferdinand Hons, E. Keeney, Nelson Lausing, Ward Wells, and Fred McGraw. The game of five hundred was played until nearly eleven o'clock when light refreshments were served.

WE SHALL TAKE STOCK SOON!

To reduce the enormous quantity we now have.

WE WILL SELL GOODS AT

Greater Bargains

THAN HAVE EVER BEEN OFFERED ON MAUI.

AT FIRST

SHOES

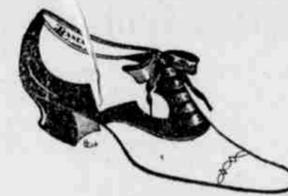

Commencing MONDAY the 24th inst., and for TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY. STUDY THE PRICES.

MEN'S SHOES

Gent's Patent Leather Kid Oxfords, Lace or Button, $4.50 now $3.25

Table with 4 columns: Formerly, Now, Formerly, Now. Lists various shoe models and prices.

LADIES' LOW CUT SHOES

Table with 4 columns: Formerly, Now, Formerly, Now. Lists various ladies' shoe models and prices.

And a lot of Ladies' Lace Boots that space does not permit us to enumerate, but the prices on which are all bargains.

Also a large variety of house and street Slippers at prices which defy competition. We have not forgotten the little ones, and have made it cheaper for them to wear shoes than to go barefooted and stub their little toes.

Then HATS FOR THURSDAY FRIDAY & SATURDAY

Our entire stock of Gent's Hats are offered without reserve at extremely low prices.

Table with 4 columns: Item, Price, Item, Price. Lists various hat models and prices.

And hundreds of others to suit all purses and purchasers. Come early and take your pick. For the convenience of intending purchasers we will until further notice keep

Open Wednesday and Saturday Evenings until 9 O'clock

We have the most complete stock of Groceries, Hardware, Furnishings, Crockery and Drugs of any store on the island.

KAHULUI STORE

Pearson & Potter Sell Out.

HONOLULU July 17. The J. A. M. Johnson Company, Ltd., has acquired the entire business of Pearson & Potter, Ltd., and moved into the latter's place of business on Fort street. The old name of Pearson & Potter will be erased and that of Johnson Company substituted. The Johnson Company will continue the Pearson-Potter line of goods, comprising the Globe-Wernecke Co. fixtures, Diebold safes, Parcell safes, Underwood typewriters, the Standard Scale and Supply Company's fixtures, fireproofing metal furniture. The Johnson company will continue with its old lines, comprising the Standard adding machine, National cash register, loose-leaf ledgers and general paper stock, and the Metropolitan Meat Company's locally tanned leathers. The J. A. M. Johnson Company has secured the contract for furnishing the new Archives building with doors for the vaults.