Sec. Garfield Visits Hawaii

Knowledge of Local Affairs Imperative.

The presence of Secretary Garfield is urgently needed in Hawaii as all of our affairs are under the Department of the Interior of which he is the head.

Recommendations of the Governor and other officials have to be passed upon in the Interior Department without an actual knowledge of the conditions, and it was stated in the Secretary's office this morning that not one person in the Department who has anything to do with Hawaiian affairs has ever been on the ground to see exactly what is going on. There are many live questions in which Secretary Garfield will interest himself during his visit. One vital concern which the Secretary will take up is that of proper labor for the Islands.

Another question to be considered is lands. It is supposed that by offering inducement to Portuguese laborers, who always do well under conditions similar to those in Hawaii, the agricultural complications can be removed. On his return to the United States, some time in July, Garfield will spend two months visiting Indian reservations and going over the work of the reclamation service. During September he will interest himself in the campaign.

James Rudolph Garfield, of Ohio, Secretary of the Interior, is a son of James Abram Garfield, twentieth President of the United States. He was born in Hiram, Ohio, on October, 17, 1865; was a graduate of Williams College, Massachusetts, in 1885; studied at Columbia Law school and was admitted to the bar in 1888. He practiced law in Ohio from 1888 to 1902; was a member of the Ohio Senate from 1896 to 1900; member of the United States Civil Service Commission 1902 to February 1903; Commissioner of Corporations in the Department of Commerce and Labor from February, 1903, to March, 1907. Was appointed Secretary of the Interior on March 5, 1907.

Tax Appeal Board Holds Session.

The tax appeal board met in the County Clerk's office Monday to hear the appeals of those who were dissatisfied with the manner in which their property had been assessed.

The first case heard was the appeal of the Haiku Fruit & Packing Co.

The appeal was taken as a result of a disagreement as to the proper construction of the law exempting pineapple lands from taxation.

Deputy Attorney General W. L. Whitney presented the case for the territory while Manager W. A. Baldwin presented the case for the company.

No decision has as yet been reached.

Another appeal was from the taxation of the residence used by the teachers in the Alexander House. Deputy Attorney General Whitney withdrew and asked for a decision favoring the school.

The Board of License Commissioners for the County of Maui, will hold a meeting at the public room in the Masonic Temple, Kahului, on Tuesday, the 14th day of July, 1908, at 1:30 P. M. to consider the application of Edward K. Devauchelle, for a Second Class License, Saloon, to sell intoxicating liquors at Pukoo, Molokai, in the premises now used by him for saloon purposes at said Pukoo, under the provisions of Act 119, Session Laws of 1907.

All protests, or objections against the issuance of a license under said application should be filed with the Secretary of the Board not later than the time set for said hearing.

Court in Session

Completes Work in Short Order.

The Circuit Court was convened on Wednesday of this week and the charge was read to the grand jury and that body at once went to work and on the same day filed their final report and were discharged.

There were no cases of importance of a criminal nature except a cutting scrape at Puimene. In that case the defendant was indicted plead guilty and was fined fifty dollars. Another case was one of burglary. The defendant was a Korean. He plead guilty and was sentenced to six months imprisonment.

The court will probably adjourn either today or Monday.

Leaders of Season Lose First Game.

Last Sunday afternoon at Well's Park the spectators were given a surprise in the form of two new players for the Kahului team, who made it possible for that team to defeat the Waikapus by a score of 10 to 9.

Upton and Collins are the two new additions, the former being in the box and the other holding down first bag.

The game was a fine one, and the large scores were due to errors on the part of the support of both teams. In the sixth inning Upton showed what mettle was in him by striking out three men in succession after the bases were full.

H. Sylva of the Waikapus was hit hard and in the seventh inning was replaced by W. Enos, who was later in the same inning replaced by Cummings.

The first game was between the Stars and Heauni and was won by the former, 5 to 2.

Ahook, the Lahainaluna pitcher was in the box for the Heaunis, and certainly did good work, surprising many of the Star players, who could not connect with the sphere.

The attendance last Sunday was the largest had for quite a long while, many people coming from all over Central Maui, to witness the games.

If the proper enthusiasm is shown by the Maui fans, the Association would soon be in a position to make needed changes on the grounds.

The diamond is in poor shape and the fields are still worse, the weeds and holes interfering with the players.

The grand stand is in need of many repairs and more comfortable seats but the lack of funds makes it impossible to do anything.

Tomorrow there will be only one game between the Stars and Waikapus at 2:30 p. m. and promises to be interesting.

The Stars have lost twice with the Waikapus and will play to win back their prestige, while the Waikapus will hold down their own, for fear of losing a chance on the cup.

HIS BEST IMITATION.

The vaudeville actor (at the club smoker)—Glad to hear you enjoyed my imitations, Colonel. To tell you the truth, I think myself that one of Joe Jefferson was pretty true to life.

Colonel Redeye (enthusiastically)—Not one-tenth as true, such as your imitation of a cork being pulled from a bottle.—Brooklyn Life.

HAD TO DO SOMETHING WITH IT.

Mrs. Crimsonbeak—John, you yawned twice while we were calling on that lady.

Mr. Crimsonbeak—Well, dear, you didn't expect me to keep my mouth closed all the time, did you? —Yonkers Statesman.

DIDN'T CARE HOW HE WENT.

Would-be passenger (out of breath from running)—When does the half-past 5 train leave?

Porter—Five-thirty.

Passenger—Well, the church clock is twenty-seven minutes past, the Postoffice clock is twenty-five minutes past, and your clock is thirty-two minutes. Now, which am I to go by?

Porter—Yer can go by any clock yer like, but the train's gone.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

THE VERY IDEA.

Mistress—You can't entertain your company in the parlor.

Bridget—Oi can't. Why, mum, didn't yez hear him laughin' fit to splhit?—Philadelphia Inquirer.

IN NO DANGER.

As the philanthropic tourist pursued his course he saw many things which he felt needed sympathetic attention. One day, says the Youth's Companion, he stopped to gaze at a bareheaded man, who was turning a windlass which clumsily hoisted a bucket filled with sand.

"My friend," said the philanthropist, as the man paused to mop his forehead, "why do you not cover your head? This hot sun is likely to affect the brain."

"Brain is ut?" said the man staring at him. "D'ye think if I had any brain I'd be here h'isting this bucket?"

A COMMON ROLE.

Senator Gilchrist, discussing in Albany his insurance bill, said of speculation.

"Speculate features, uncertainties ought to be removed from our life as much as possible.

When I think of speculation, I think of a man I know.

This man, a conservative, suddenly took to stock gambling. At the end of a flurry I met him one afternoon and asked:

"Well, were you a bull or a bear today?"

"Neither," he answered, giving me a sour smile. "I was an ass."
