Foot Ball Fatalities

Number 10 and 290 Injured During Season.

Chicago, November 15.—'Debrutalized' football has been as brutal as ever in this session of 1908, now nearing a close.

The total to date in gridiron warfare between colleges, high schools and athletic clubs is 10 dead and 290 injured.

The adoption of a more open scheme of play has failed for the third season to realize the hope of the game that a cleaner record could be shown.

Fatalities have been reduced to no appreciable extent, and more players have been injured thus far than were hurt in the season of 1905, when the appalling record prompted coaches and college heads to revise the rules. This is the list of the dead:

Wilfred Balthazer, Waterbury, Conn. high school, fractured his spinal column in a practice game September 27 and died September 28.

John Cooper, University of North Carolina, died November 6 at Clinton, N. C., from an injury to his spinal column sustained during practice.

Albert Daugherty of the Evansville, Ind., Young Men's Christian Association died November 10 at Evansville from paralysis resulting from a collision with another player in a game November 7 at Henderson, Ky. Team disbanded.

Ernest Dickson, 21 years old, of the University of Arkansas died November 5 from injuries received October 20 in a game with Oklahoma university.

J. J. Dyck, senior at Southwestern normal school, died September 19 from internal injuries received the day previous in a game at Wheathford, Okla.

Thomas Evans, Utah agricultural college, died October 27 at Logan, Utah, from a broken neck sustained October 24 in a game against the Colorado School of mines.

G. Cooke Ferebee, Virginia military institute, died October 31 from concussion of the brain sustained in a game with Roanoke college at Lexington, Va.

Charles Marker, 57 years old, died November 8 at Great Bend, Kan., from injuries received two weeks previously while a spectator at a game.

William M. Potts, 21 years old, member of a school team at Cannonsburg, Pa., died October 11 from concussion of the brain sustained October 3 in a game at Cannonsburg.

William Smith, 16 years old, died October 19 at Clarion, Iowa, from heart trouble following a violent strain during a game October 17 between the Clarion and Eagle Grove elevens.

May Be Disbarred

Chas. Achi is under Investigation.

Honolulu, November 19.—It really does look very serious for W. C. Achi, the politician and real estate dealer, whose land transactions are being investigated by Deputy Attorney General Whitney under instructions from Chief Justice Hartwell of the Supreme Court. The first complaint that was made against Achi came through Mrs. Hiram, who had paid Achi $980 for land to which she never received title, but since that the complaints have been coming in with great regularity, and each complainant who calls on the Deputy Attorney General gives the names of others.

Up to the present time there have been eight cases, all practically similar, that have been investigated, but there are many more to look into, all of which will be examined before any definite step is taken. As has been said before there appears to be no sense in the bringing of civil suits, as there are judgments on file against Achi which aggregate many thousand dollars, but which cannot be collected. At the present time the question seems to be whether there will be criminal proceedings brought or whether the steps for disbarment will be all that the charges ensure at the hands of the courts.—Star.
