

Locals and Personals

Mr. C. R. Collins of Honolulu is in Wailuku on business.

There will be no service in the Church of the Good Shepherd tomorrow.

You take no chances when you buy a "Singer" L. J. Ekberg, the Singer man.

Sam Kuula, the Kihai democrat, politician, went to Honolulu on the Claudine this week.

Don't miss the show at the Gem Theatre tonight. A good set of films will be shown.

Geo. Weight has been appointed time-keeper for the Wailuku road district service.

Mr. E. P. Chapin says Paia's new $22,000.00 school house is nearing completion.

The banner crop produced from one acre of pines in Haiku netted $1800.00, so we are told.

Chairman Pogue has called a special meeting of the Maui Board of Supervisors for February 25th.

The "Makaweli" Capt. Neilsen from Iquique, Chili, with nitrates is in Kahului discharging cargo.

W. Henning Esq., ex county supervisor from Lahaina, was a visitor to the County seat Wednesday last.

Don't tell your troubles to the policemen. Phone Ekberg, the Singer man, about that old machine.

The people of Lahaina want a new $25,000.00 concrete school house, as the present school buildings are overcrowded.

Dr. J. J. Carey, the dentist, will be at Piper's Hotel, Paia, on Monday morning, where he will be ready to do dental work.

The recent rains have given the people of Kula enough water, and the farmers are beginning to plant their crops for the year.

Rev. J. Nua has been asked by the members of the native church at Paia to accept the pastorate vacated by Rev. J. Kalino.

Jas. L. Coke County Attorney is confined at home, being, a little under the weather with something harmless, mumps.

Ben Souza, a Portuguese brakeman, working for the Maui Agricultural Co., was killed in a railroad accident at Paia last Monday.

Sol. Aikau, Captain of the Hanapoulice, brought over two Japanese prisoners sentenced to three months imprisonment for embezzlement.

Sixty-one men of Hilo headed by H. F. Ludwig have petitioned the government to be enrolled as a militia company of the National Guards.

For the sake of old associations the Lahaina court house should be repaired instead of being replaced by a new building as suggested by some.

The Woman's Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd will hold their regular business meeting on Tuesday, February 23, at the Rectory at 2:30 p. m.

Co. "D" N. G. H. of Hilo, Capt. Peter, with 47 men and two officers came through on their way to Honolulu by the Claudine, Tuesday, February 16.

Eleven officers and one hundred sixty-one men of the National Guard went to Honolulu this week's trip of the Claudine to attend the annual encampment.

Needles and parts for all makes of machines. Expert repairing. "All work guaranteed. Our motto, "A pleased customer." Phone Ekberg, the Singer man.

Capt. Keliinoi, Lieut. Searle and Lieut. Kaluakini, with 53 men of Company "L" of the Lahaina Militia went to the annual encampment at Moanalua, Honolulu, by the Claudine.

Next Wednesday, Ash Wednesday, there will be special services at the Church of the Good Shepherd. Holy Communion at 7 a. m., Evensong with devotional reading at 7:30 p. m.

The members of the Women's Aid Society of Union Church regret that they will be unable to entertain YOU on the evening of February twenty-second. They are obliged to postpone that pleasure.

W. G. Scott returned from his Nahiku "bber lands to Paia last week and expects to go back to Nahiku today. He reports the roads and bridges around that section of the district of Hana in good condition and praises the work done by Supervisor Haja for his district.

Mr. C. D. Lufkin of Wailuku, Maui, sells the Inner Player Piano, now so extensively advertised in the magazines. If you want a piano of any style or price it will be to your interest to consult him. When in the East last Spring Mr. Lufkin renewed business relations with piano manufacturers with whom he had done business before coming to these islands. It will be to your interest to bring up Mr. Lufkin if you contemplate purchasing a piano. The Inner Player can be seen in Wailuku by calling on Mr. Lufkin.

Your old machine taken in as part payment on a new Singer. Telephone Ekberg, the Singer man.

The Gem Theatre will exhibit a new set of films this evening at their Hall at Alchi Block, Market street. If you want to enjoy your self, don't fail to come.

The teachers of the Makawao and Wailuku districts will hold their next regular meeting in the Paia school house on February 26 inst., commencing at 10 o'clock a. m. A full attendance is requested.

Captain McAllister of the U. S. Army came up from Honolulu Tuesday evening on a visit to Maui. The Captain was accompanied by his wife who is a sister of Mr. C. C. Krumbhaar of Hamakua-poko.

Officer Karmaka Katiiani has been accused of assaulting a Japanese woman and will be tried before Judge McKay Feb. 24th. He went to arrest the woman for an alleged petty offense and got into trouble instead.

New Mani Circuit Judge Has Arrived.

Judge Selden B. Kingsbury arrived from Honolulu Tuesday evening last to assume the duties of Judge for the Circuit Court of the Second Judicial District. He is a pleasant mannered gentleman, past middle age and a veteran of the civil war.

He has ordered alterations made in the arrangements at the Court House where he intends to put on shelves for the convenience of lawyers and lovers of legal lore the whole of his law library consisting of 1500 volumes. To carry out this plan the room occupied by the County Attorney for an office will be taken for Court purposes, and the County Attorney will have to move elsewhere.

He left for Honolulu last evening to return with Mrs. Kingsbury Saturday next week. They will reside in the Bailey premises on Vineyard Street.

Engagement of Popular Young Couple Announced.

Saturday afternoon, the 13th, an afternoon tea was given by Mrs. D. T. Fleming of Kawaapa, Makawao, in honor of her mother, Mrs. J. C. Foss of California, who is at present visiting Maui.

The interior of the parlor was prettily decorated with a profusion of red paper hearts and other tokens of good Saint Valentine.

The afternoon entertainment began with the following musical program:—

Piano Selection— Miss Woods. Vocal Solo— Mrs. Campbell. Piano Duet— Misses Mattison and Hayward. Vocal Solo— Mrs. Dora von Tempsky. Vocal Duet— Mrs. Nicoll and Mrs. Hair.

angelus Selection— Mrs. Nicoll. The programs themselves were most artistic containing tiny photographic glimpses of Makawao, Standford University, and the Lahaina lagoon and cocoanut palms. The covers bore reproductions of the seals of Hawaii and California.

After the music there was a pleasing game of hearts and arrows followed by most elaborate refreshments, during the service of which a large cake containing a ring, a thimble, and a dime was cut by the unmarried ladies.

A most interesting feature of the occasion which came as a surprise was the announcement by Mrs. Foss of the engagement of Miss Irene Crook to her son, Harry Foss of Palo Alto. Miss Irene Crook is the daughter of Mr. W. C. Crook of Makawao and is one of the most popular young ladies of the district. Mr. Foss who is at present instructor at Standford was formerly well known on Maui as civil engineer in the employ of the Maui Agricultural Company.

There were about forty ladies present to meet Mrs. Foss.

BY AUTHORITY.
