Boom the Island.

While nations are working through their various diplomatic corps for universal peace and for a better understanding between peoples, the island of Maui is doing her small share towards removing the local prejudice that exists between the surrounding islands. The one thing in which all people have common interest is sport, and working along these lines Maui is becoming better known to the people of the other islands. The recent celebrations have proved without doubt that Wailuku is becoming recognized as one of the important centers. While we have attractions here that far and away surpass many of those that are boomed elsewhere, it is only on occasions like those that have just passed that they are ever heard of. The time has come now when some of the public spirited men of the island should get together and see that we are heard of during the year. What we want here is some kind of a promotion committee who will handle the work for the good of all. If this were done there is every reason to believe that some of the tourist trade could be diverted here instead of us only getting a few stray folks who want to see the big mountain. This sight as a tourist attraction is one of the marvels of the world, and if it was properly boomed would be the means of many more people visiting the island. Everyone who has any interest should get in and put their shoulders to the wheel. Wailuku has at last reached that stage when she must be recognized as something more than a village. It is up to us to do it, however, for if we do not, then things will still go on in the same old way. Now is the time to start while the iron is still hot.

The Arabs had a custom that as long as a man had eaten their salt, and was staying in their houses, and enjoying their hospitality, he was immune from all danger at their hands. Wailuku entertained a gentleman on these same terms during the last recent celebration, but he violated all ethics. It seems unfortunate that Wailuku should have the bad luck to strike the only bad cocoanut under the tree.

care of their property after death they were happy in the knowledge that it would be in the hands of a man who would look after the widow and orphans as he would have done it himself. It is safe to say that in many instances Mr. Smith proved a wiser trustee than the man who put the property in his care. And no man ever questioned his integrity. Why Mr. Smith was in the senate during a session when graft stuck out like a wart on a nose. And he went through without a suspicion. The other change in the affairs comes in the incorporation of the Waterhouse Co. The capital is $140,000 and all held by four men who were originally with the old house of John Thomas Waterhouse on Queen Street. This company will not do a trust business. At present it has a number of agencies which include hardware and dry goods, cash registers and Burroughs Adding machines. As the capital subscribed is without water and represents the actual value of the business of the Waterhouse Company the suggestion is made that the National Cash Register and the Burroughs Adding machine may have had a hand in the upbuilding of it. The men comprising the firm are young and ambitious. May success follow them. By the way the founder of the Waterhouse business back in the early 50's was in business at Lahaina. Perhaps you remember him; a fine looking old gentleman with a dialect that would pass current in Yorkshire but I am told he came from Hobart, Tasmania in '51. It is said of him that his attention to the details of his business was so close that he one day missed a wheelbarrow from his stock and the clerks were unable to say to whom it had been sold. One of them remembered selling it but not the name of the buyer. He ordered his bookkeeper to add it to the quarterly statement of every man whose name was on the books as having bought anything during the month. Bills were rendered quarterly in those days, all but one of the customers paid for a barrow without a kick.

The great auto contest in the theaters is over and Punchbowl, after being stirred from center to circumference, is in its normal state. The first prize was won by A. P. C. Correa, a young clerk in Ehlers. He is new to Honolulu having reached here on the Orteric and by close attention to his duties and his sartorial affairs he has reached the high position of cashier in this big shop. He deserves a lot of credit though he came backed by a very good education in his mother tongue. When he first entered the employ of Ehlers he was seen in the intervals when the cash baskets from the salesladies were not working, studying from an English dictionary and grammar. He never lost a minute and it is said of him that when Cupid's arrow pierced his best coat it went through a copy of Swinton. Now he speaks English with only ordinary foreign accent, has a good position, a wife and baby and is the proud possessor of an Overland from the garage of von Hamm Young. Also he is the envy of half the residents of the slope. I am informed that his contest cost in dollars from his personal exchequer something like two thousand. The price less discount for which one may be bought at the garage is about eight hundred. It seems to have been a case of highest bidder. I am also informed that the management of the amusement company was offered by three different persons the sum of one thousand dollars for sufficient votes to make them winner of the machine.

Mr R. A. Drummond has been appointed Supervisor from the Hana district, to take the place of William P. Hana resigned. Mr. Hana has been appointed Deputy Tax Collector for Hana.

The Woman's Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd will hold its Social Meeting at the residence of Mrs. Aiken Kahului, on Wed. July 12th at 2:30 p. m. All members particularly requested to attend.

Another Gala Day.

Major Collier, entered by W. L. Decoto, 1st.; Izaldivar, entered by A. McPhee, 2nd. Time 60 3-5.

The starter had great difficulty in getting the horses into line and time after time a false start was rung up. Athlone was the chief offender and his rider did not seem to be able to manage him at all. Finally the horses came to the post and down went the flag. The recall bell in the judges stand rang a few half hearted strokes and the boy on Athlone thought it was the recall signal. The other two horses were racing for home however. It was Major Collier's race from the start and he came in an easy winner.

3rd. Race—Trotting and pacing. Free for all, best three in five. Half mile heats. Purse $500.00. Denerovo, entered by L. Morrell, 1st; Maui, entered by A. Gross, 2nd.

This was left for two horses to fight out. Athlone failing to put in an appearance. In the first heat it appeared for a time as though Maui would come home with the honors but when they got at the back of the track Denerovo took charge and came in an easy winner. The time was 1 m. 12 1-5 s. The second heat was another easy win for Denerovo who made faster time leaving the half mile behind him in 1 m. 10 3-5 s. It was in the third heat that he showed what he really could do however and he slipped over the ground in the fast time of 1 m. 6 2-5 s.

4th. Race—Running Race. One mile dash, free for all. Purse $750.00. Merlingo, entered by John O'Rourke, 1st; Copit, entered by A. McPhee, 2nd.

Major Collier failed to show up in this event and the greatest interest was shown in the go between the remaining two. When the flag fell Copit jumped out and made the pace a cracker running two or three lengths in front of Merlingo. The mare could not hold the pace, however and cracked up on the second turn. Merlingo won as he liked.

5th. Race—14.2 hands and under half mile dash, free for all. Purse $125.00.

Wila, entered by Hauki, 1st; Waihee Boy, entered by Manuel Gomes, 2nd; Dora D. entered by J. M. Medeiros, 3rd. Time 57 1-5s.

Two of those sporting colors were forced to retire to the saddling paddock owing to the fact that they could not walk under the measuring stick at the height fixed. Rewco, one of those who had to retire was a hot favorite and the crowd were very much disappointed. The remaining three put up a fine race however, and the crowd forgot all about their favorite when they saw the three ponies come neck and neck up the straight.

6th. Race—One mile dash. Hawaiian bred. $300.00 to winner; $50 to second horse. Major Collier, entered by W. L. Decoto, 1st; Izaldivar, entered by A. McPhee, 2nd; Athlone, entered by Dr. J. C. Fitzgerald, 3rd. Time 1 m. 49s.

This was practically a repetition of the first time the horses were matched. Willis jumped Major Collier out and came in a winner as he liked.

7th. Race—Three fourths mile dash, free for all. Purse $250.00 Spring Ban, entered by Louis Morrel, 1st; Merlingo, entered by John O'Rourke, 2nd.

The interest in this race centered around Spring Ban and Merlingo and there was a good deal of speculation as to which would be the first to catch the judges' eye. The run Merlingo had to put up against Copit in the mile told and Spring Ban won comfortably after a good race.

8th. Race—Half mile dash. Maui bred maiden ponies. $75.00 to winner; $25.00 to second horse. Poni Moi, entered by Manuel de Rego, 1st; Beeswing, entered by L. von Tempisky, 2nd; Jubilee, entered by A. McPhee, 3rd.

Being a maiden race and for Maui bred horses considerable interest was manifested over the result of this dash. Jubilee was picked out as a hot favorite by most of the crowd. It was a good race but the crowd picked the wrong horse. When they passed the judges stand Poni Moi was the first one to be noticed. Some of the fans expressed a wish after the race was over to see a match pulled off between Poni Moi and Jubilee. The majority of them thinking that the latter would be able to reverse the decision.

9th. Race—Running Race. Hawaiian bred. Three quarter mile dash. $250.00 to winner; $50.00 to second horse. Major Collier, entered by W. L. Decoto, 1st; Athlone, entered by Dr. J. C. Fitzgerald 2nd; Hanalei, entered by L. von Tempisky, 3rd. Time 1m. 23s.

Once again Major Collier showed the assembled thousands what a good animal he was and shaking down all opposition won easily from Athlone who beat Hanalei for second place.

10th. Race—Half mile dash. Free for all. Purse $200.00 Merlingo, entered by John O'Rourke, 1st; Rewco, entered by John K. Notley, 2nd; Mary Winkfield, entered by Dan. T. Carey, 3rd.

Owing to Copit being injured a favorite was made out of Merlingo. He upheld the public's faith and came home in front of Rewco and Mary Winkfield.

11th. Race—Cowboy Relay Race. Post entries. $25.00 to winner; $10 to second place. Halekaka Ranch 1st; Grove Ranch 2nd.

This proved a good race and had the crowd going the whole of the time. The boys from the big mountain had all the luck of it, however.

12th. Race—Gentlemen's Race. Half mile dash. For Members of Association. Owners to ride. Race-horses barred. $25.00 Cup. Parlor Maid 1st; Billy Buster 2nd. Time 59 3-5s.

This proved to be one of the best races of the day and was won on the post by a nose after a fine piece of horsemanship. Coming up the straight for the finishing line Billy Buster looked as though he must win. Just as they got within the distance, however, Parlor Maid's rider came with a rush and after what was probably the best finish that has ever been seen on the course, secured the verdict.

13th. Race—Mule Race. Half mile dash. Post entries. $35.00 to winner; $15.00 to second mule. Opium, entered by J. K. Kahue, 1st; Baby, entered by Joe Kauiki, 2nd.

This was a fine race and sent all the fans home feeling pleased with the result of their days sport. Although it was the thirteenth race and he had a sleepy name to carry round the track, Opium laid his ears back and showed those other mules the proper way to do things. It was a good race from start to finish and proved a fitting ending to a good day's sport.

Yacht Race Was Good.

the Maui people always took in sailing and also of the fact that the courage and skill of the men was tested out in a way that was good for them. He traced out the history of the cup, and how it was that the Maui folks had come to present it. Lewis received the trophy amidst the cheers of those assembled and in a few words thanked them for the honor.

George Crozier assumed the part of chairman and called on numerous of those present to give their version. The Maui folks spoke of how glad they were to see the Honolulu boys, and the latter in their turn thanked the former for the good time they always had when they paid their annual visit.

Mention was made of the time when the breakwater would be finished here, and the local boys would be able to get into the sailing game. The matter of the rowing race and the crew which were to leave for Honolulu also came up and Captain Hughes said that the Maui boys were going up with the full determination to win. He did not know whether they could manage it or not but if they could not they would at least do their best. During the evening the music boys, who came down from Honolulu were kept busy and added greatly to the general good time. The Honolulu boys returned home after one of the best times they have had yet.

H. P. Baldwin Returns.

Last Wednesday the Honolulu poked her nose into the harbor of Kahului, after a fast run down from the coast, with H. P. Baldwin on board. Mr Baldwin went to the coast some time ago in search of health, but after a short stay on the coast, it was decided that a return to the islands was the most beneficial thing for the sick man. On arriving here his condition was apparently much improved and he was taken immediately to Maluhia. Friday morning a sinking spell attacked the invalid, and his family was immediately summoned, and as we go to press, news of his death is hourly expected, as the doctors hold out no hope for his recovery.

Up-To-Date Machine.

One of the curiosities of the week has been the big flaring arc light that has been hanging outside the Orpheum theater. It is being run in connection with the moving picture show that Eddie Fernandez has now in town. The contrivance is worked from an automobile and is one of the latest ideas in connection with the picture business.

Instead of the back seats there are a gasoline engine and dynamo fitted in place and these generate the desired electricity. Besides the big flaring arc light there is also enough current to run a series of lights inside the hall and to throw a perfect light on the screen.

During the week he has been here the pictures have been very good and to-night the big fight films will be thrown on the screen again. A g crowd is expected.

Lahaina Wins the First Road Race.

Promptly at 6:30 Tuesday morning the first annual road race for the championship of Maui was started from in front of the court house. Five men were sent away on the ten mile grind by Captain Bal, and the Filipino, Maximo Teodoro, raced into the lead immediately. The little Brown man's lead was short lived, however, as after he had gone about a quarter of a mile, he wanted to quit. He was prevailed upon to keep running for a mile or two, but he evidently had left all his speed at home and was hopelessly out of it. George Liliha of Lahaina and Maikai Keao of Wailuku, raced shoulder to shoulder for nine miles, and they put up as game a struggle as any man should wish to see. Both men were apparently running easy, at the eighth mile, with Maikai slightly in the lead. After the ninth mile had been run, Liliha came up and took the lead, and immediately Maikai weakened and collapsed. He was all in and had to be carried home in an automobile. About a mile behind Kama Apo was plugging along at a good pace. Apo had been attacked with cramps earlier in the race and lost ground, but was coming fast at the end. This man has the appearance of a fine runner, and we hope he will enter the next race that is run.

All the men finished strong and while the time of the winner, one hour, 14 minutes, is not very fast, still it is a good starter and may result in producing some good men in the future.

There is a prospect of matching the winner of this race and another local runner with Nigel Jackson in the near future, providing Jackson produces anything more than wind.

There were two weddings at Honokohau last Saturday. Ernest Gilbert Cockett was united in marriage with Rose Mary Pali. The other couple were Solomon Pali and Lizzie Lum Cong. Rev. Mr. Kapu performed the ceremony.

A concert, tableau and dance were the attractions at Lahaina Hall last Saturday evening.
