

Maui Representatives Delinquent

According to letters sent out by Secretary Wade Warren Thayer, a number of Maui legislators, as well as others are liable for a fine of $500 or six months imprisonment for not having filed their statement of election expenses within the time prescribed by law. Those delinquent in this matter are: Eric A. Knudsen, defeated by M. A. Mikaele of Kauai, for the senate; Archie Robertson, defeated Bourbon for the house, A. F. Favares, Peruvia J. Goodness and Ed. Waiaholo, representative-elect from Maui; J. P. Hale, representative-elect from Hilo; Abraham Hall and J. M. Kamoku of West Hawaii; Moses Dorian and T. N. Nalielehua, East Hawaii; K. Kapono, fourth district; E. J. Gay and D. M. Kupihea, fifth district.

Where Praising is a Pleasure

It will probably be some time before a more artistic and altogether attractive publication is seen in Hawaii than is the Christmas number of the Paradise of the Pacific, just off the press. The issue is profusely illustrated and the cuts and presswork are of a high order. Many of the illustrations are multi-color cuts of much beauty. The text, consisting of articles from many well known writers, is in keeping with the rest of the magazine. The leading editorial on Christmas is especially well worth mentioning both for its substance and style. The issue is something that not only the publishers, but the Islands may well be proud of. It will scarcely find its equal in magazines anywhere.

Boy Scout Reception a Success

The Alexander House Gymnasium was comfortably filled last Saturday evening by a merry throng of dancers and on-lookers, the occasion being the reception given by the Maui Boy Scout organization. Rev. Father Francis, of Paia, who is scout commissioner for Maui, headed the splendid Paia patrol of Scouts which attended in a body. The boys made a very creditable appearance. Under the painstaking efforts of Father Francis, the Scout movement on this island is coming to be recognized as one of inestimable value to the boys wherever a company has been established.

Supervisors Will Act on Ordinance

The county board of supervisors will hold its monthly meeting beginning next Wednesday. So far as is known, the only matter of much moment aside from the routine business of the meeting, will be the final consideration on the proposed ordinance creating a department of county engineer. The fact that the proposed ordinance has been objected to on the ground that it will create a county political machine of surpassing effectiveness, may possibly result in some amendments being made to the ordinance before its final passage.

MIDGET APPLAUDS.

The Maui supervisors have endeared themselves to the hearts of those who believe in sober, efficient, employees, by taboing booze on the part of county employees. One of them who visits a drinking place during working hours will be dismissed.—Kohala Midget.

FOR SCHOOL ESTIMATES.

Secretary Thayer has issued a call for the biennial meeting of the board of school estimates to be held in Honolulu on December 15. This board consists of the Territorial Secretary as chairman; the superintendent of public instruction; the mayor of Honolulu and the chairmen of the board of supervisors of Maui, Kauai, and Hawaii.

BUYS MOLOKAI RANCH LEASE.

Mrs. Annie Devauchelle was the purchase last Tuesday, of a 15-year leasehold on 250 acres of pastoral land at Pukoo, Molokai, which was sold by the land office in Honolulu. The price bid was $26 rental per year.

WAILUKU LIGHTED BY MILL

In order to permit certain repairs to be made at the power plant of the Island Electric Company, connection was made this week with the generators at the Wailuku Sugar Company's mill, and for several days current was furnished from the mill plant.

Kaeleku to Begin Grinding Next Week

Kaeleku plantation, at Hana, will begin grinding on the 1915 crop next week. The past season has been exceptionally favorable and the outlook is for another record breaking year, unless the weather should become unusually unfavorable before the crop is all harvested.

The mill will start with a new chemist, Charles Reinhardt, late of the Hakaluu Plantation Company, having taken the place of J. R. Lougher, who has gone to the Honokaa Sugar Company, on Hawaii, as head tanner.

On Maui For Honeymoon

The Maui friends of John R. Bergstrom, the well known representative of the Honolulu Music Company, were surprised this week by the announcement of his marriage in Honolulu on Tuesday evening to Miss Eugenia Yarrington, of San Francisco. Mr. Bergstrom and his bride arrived on Maui by the Mauna Kea on Wednesday evening and are spending their honeymoon on this island.

Mrs. Bergstrom arrived from the Coast on Tuesday morning by the Manoa, and the marriage was performed the same evening by the Rev. J. W. Wadman in the presence of a few of the near relatives of the groom.

Hawaii's Generosity

Information at hand is to the effect that $82,000 in cash has been forwarded from the Hawaiian Islands for the relief of suffering in the European countries at war. The figures are interesting. Estimating the population of the rest of the United States at 100,000,000 and granting that the United States, outside of Hawaii, has done as much, the enormous total of $41,000,000 in cash would have been sent from our country to Europe. But the people on the mainland, although closer to the scene of hostilities and suffering, have not responded so liberally as has little Hawaii. It is doubtful that, in proportion to population, they have done one-twentieth as much. Has Hawaii covered herself with glory, or been unreasonably, and gratuitously, overstrained? —Garden Island.

SUPERVISORS TO USE TOWN HALL.

Instead of meeting as heretofore in the county clerk's office, the county supervisors will hold their meetings hereafter in the town hall. The first meeting will be held there next week.

REPAIRING THE BREAKWATER.

Work of replacing the rocks dislodged by the storm of several weeks ago from the Kahului breakwater, is now being done by the Kahului Railroad Company, under supervision of H. D. Willard, engineer of the government. R. Quinn, of the U. S. Engineer's office in Honolulu, was here this week to have a look at the job.

On the Other Islands

High Values for Homestead Land.

Twenty-three homestead lots on the windward side of Oahu, with value appraised at from $50 to $70 per acre, will be drawn for at the land office in Honolulu on December 28. The land is being opened under the special homestead agreement, which requires a continuous residence on the land of not less than three years. The lots range in area from nine to fourteen acres, and successful drawers may take two adjoining lots if they so desire. Nine lots are also advertised in the Kapaa district, Kauai, under the same terms of entry. These lots average 22 or 23 acres in size and are appraised at about $10 per acre.

Niihau Children Shy.

On the island of Niihau Superintendent Kinney, of the Department of Education, had to ride fifteen miles on horseback to reach the little school. He found everything running smoothly, but the children were markedly shy—due to the fact that they seldom see strangers. Mr. Kinney is said to be the first superintendent to visit the school since the days of the late A. T. Atkinson.—Garden Island.

Immigration Force Cut.

Edwin Farmer, J. S. Cavaco, Walter Fieldgrove, Manuel Spencer, F. R. Tranquada, Dan Naeole, J. K. Namolau and John A. Swain, employees of the local federal immigration station, have been eliminated from the payroll of the station. Lessened immigration from Europe is given as the cause for the reduction of the immigration force all over the country.

Sugar Company Wins Big Damages.

The Halawa Mill and Plantation Company of the County of Hawaii, has been awarded damages in the sum of $11,727 by a jury in the Circuit on account of cane destroyed by fire in 1912. Road laborers, while burning trash near a cane field permitted the fire to get beyond control, and a large amount of cane was destroyed. The case will be appealed to the supreme court.

Would Have Supervisors Grant Licenses.

A proposition is being agitated in Hawaii county to have the territorial law changed to place the issuing of liquor licenses in the hands of the county supervisors. It is said that an effort will be made to pledge the representatives from the Big Island to support such a measure in the legislature.

Eames Estate Worth $100,000.

According to the appraisement of the estate of the late Alfred W. Eames, the Oahu pineapple grower, the property he left is worth $100,000. The estate is left in trust to be divided after three years time between the four children equally. Alfred Eames came to Oahu as a Wahaiwa homesteader, and made his money in the pineapple industry.

Convicted of Cattle Stealing.

William Meyers, a ranchman of Hawaii, was convicted by a jury in the circuit court in Hilo, of having stolen a steer belonging to the Shipman ranch, which he later sold after having destroyed the brand.

Mokuawewewo Very Active.

The eruption of Mauna Loa is confined to the summit crater of Mokuawewewo, according to returning parties. There is no sign of outbreak lower down, as at first reported. The area of activity is as large as the entire crater of Kilauea, it is said, and is strikingly spectacular. The trip is best made by the new trail from the Volcano House. Prof. Jagger, the volcanologist in charge of the observation station at Kilauea, attempted to reach the mountain top by way of Kona, but was caught in a fierce snow storm and was compelled to return, abandoning his instruments on the mountain side. He suffered greatly from hunger and cold.

Chillingworth for President.

The latest from Honolulu is to the effect that Senator Charles F. Chillingworth is to be put forward as president of the senate when the legislature meets. It is said that the Oahu delegation in the senate will offer to support the reappointment measure in order to get Chillingworth the support necessary to elect him.

BAZAAR A SUCCESS.

Successful both as a social affair and from a financial standpoint, was the dance and bazaar given on Tuesday evening by the Ladies Aid Society of the Kahului Union Club. The Kahului Lyceum was used for the purpose, and a delightful evening is reported by all who attended.

TRIED RECIPES

Rich Drop Cookies.—Work one cup butter until creamy, and add one and one half cups sugar gradually while stirring and beating constantly; then add three eggs well beaten. Dissolve one teaspoon soda in two tablespoons hot water and add to first mixture, with two cups pastry flour mixed and sifted with one half teaspoon salt and one teaspoon cinnamon; then add one cup chopped English walnut meats, one cup chopped seeded raisins and one and one fourth cups flour. Drop by spoonfuls on a buttered tin sheet; bake 15 minutes.—Woman's Home Companion.

Apple Ginger.—Wipe, pare, quarter, core and chop 2½ pounds of sour apples. Put into a stew pan and add 1½ cupfuls of light brown sugar, the juice and rind of 1½ lemons, ½ ounce ginger, and just enough water to prevent the apples from burning. Cover and cook slowly for four hours, adding water if necessary. Apple ginger may be kept for several weeks. For the holiday dinner serve around roast goose in apple cups made of bright red apples.

Apple Cheese.—Remove the cores and cut in small pieces enough tart apples to make two quarts. Add one quart of water and cook until soft, then rub through a sieve. Add to each pint of the pulp two cups of sugar and the juice of one lemon. Place again on the fire and boil, removing the scum as it rises. When a drop will retain its shape, it is sufficiently cooked. Fill soup plates, which have been wet with cold water, about half full. Let stand till cold. Keep for a few days in a warm place, and when thoroughly dried wrap each cheese separately in white paper. Nice for sandwich filling.

Boiled Apple Dumplings.—Beat well, without separating, two eggs; add a pinch of salt, one pint of milk and one cup of flour. To a second cup of flour and two teaspoons of baking powder; add this to the batter and as much more flour as is necessary to make a soft dough. Roll out quickly one half inch thick. Cut into squares, lay two or three quarters of pared apples on each, sprinkle with sugar and pinch the dough around the apples. Have a number of pudding cloths ready, wrung out of cold water, and sprinkled well with flour. Put a dumpling in each, leave a little room for swelling and tie tightly. Drop into a kettle of rapidly boiling water and keep the water at a steady boil for an hour. Serve hot with hard sauce. Have a saucer in the bottom of kettle to prevent burning.

Apple Tarts.—Line patty pans with nice crust, put in each chopped apples and a little sugar, bake in a moderate oven and let cool. Just before serving cover each tart with whipped cream and place a drop of currant jelly on the top of each.
