

Locals

Dr. Rothrock was a visitor to Honolulu this week. A light fall of snow was reported last week on Haleakala. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Walsh are home from a short trip to Honolulu. Mr. and Mrs. L. Weinzheimer spent a few days in Honolulu this week. Mrs. Frank Stark, of Lahaina, returned this week from a visit to Honolulu. Mrs. Annie B. Howell, of Wailuku, is in Honolulu, the guest of Mrs. C. D. Lillie. Sister Helena came back from Honolulu last Saturday, after a week's visit in that city. A. Fries, of the Pioneer Mill Company, returned home this week from a short trip to Honolulu. Wm. Thompson, of Davies & Company, returned to Honolulu this week after a business trip to Hana. J. Garcia made a quick business trip to Honolulu last Saturday, returning on Tuesday's Claudine. Mrs. A. J. McLeod, who was the guest of Mrs. R. B. Dodge, is now visiting Mrs. W. A. Sparks, of Kahului. Charles B. Hall, of Honolulu, was an arrival by the Mauna Kea on Wednesday, on a few days business trip. Enos Vincent returned home on Wednesday evening from Molokai where he was called on business last week. H. H. Taylor, manager of the Island Electric Company, returned from Honolulu on Wednesday after a short business trip. R. L. Turner, the "roselle king," is expected to reach Maui next week to look into his interests in the Nahiku district. Dan Conway and Leon Tobriner, are two well known traveling salesmen who are spending a week in the Hana district. William Green, the popular Honolulu salesman, returned to the city after spending a week calling on Maui customers. William Williamson, of Honolulu, was at Nahiku this week looking into the rubber and roselle business, in which he is interested. Mrs. William Searby of Puanene and the Misses Searby returned home from a week's visit to Honolulu on last Saturday's Claudine. Bank Examiner George F. Smithies made his regular visit to Maui this week, during which he made an inspection of the four banks of the County. The Christmas Tree exercises of the Sunday School, Church of the Good Shepherd, will be held in the Parish House, on Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock. Mrs. D. P. Penhallow, who has been on the coast for several months, returned this week by the Lurline and is again living with her son Harry B. Penhallow. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brown, accompanied by Master Arthur Brown, will depart on the Kilauea Wednesday for Maui, where they will spend the Christmas holidays.—Advertiser. A. W. Anderson, manager of the Nahiku Rubber Company, has returned from a trip to Honolulu, where he accompanied his wife and children, who are now enroute to the coast for a visit. The Honolulu Drug Company is making a specialty this year of filling mail orders for the famous "Orange Blossom" candles, a large consignment of which arrived fresh from the factory this week. Miss Edna Edings, a niece of Judge W. S. Edings, arrived in Honolulu from the coast by the Lurline on Tuesday and will visit in the islands for some time. She will probably accompany Judge Edings to Wailuku after the holidays. Ralph Walker, timekeeper of the Puanene plantation, it is reported, is to be promoted to the position of head luna of the Kihel division, on the first of the month. The place was made vacant by the death of A. J. McLeod, some days ago. John Fassoth, late manager of Waima (Kauai plantation), has been at Hana this week. It is reported that he is interested in the possibility of reviving the Kipahulu plantation, which had planned to go out of business after this season. Mrs. R. B. Dodge is looking forward to a visit from her father, Prof. John E. Sinclair, of Worcester, Ohio, and her sister, Miss M. Emily Sinclair, of Oberlin. They are expected on the February trip of the Manoa, and will remain in the islands for a month or more. Marco Wolff and Miss Fanchon Wolff, who were guests of their uncle, D. L. Meyer in Wailuku last week, left last Saturday afternoon for Honolulu where they have opened a select dancing class and are instructing the smart set of the metropolis in the latest terpsichorean creations.

On the Other Islands

Would Bring Bats to Islands. Bats introduced to the islands to help keep down the various insect pests, is a plan proposed by L. G. Blackman. Prof. Blackman gives the little night flyer a very high reputation, and makes the assurance that it will not in itself become a menace. Veteran Navigator Makes Last Port. Captain Ephraim T. Rogers, who for the past eighteen years has been closely identified with local shipping, died in Honolulu last Saturday. He was 76 years of age. Captain Rogers made his first trip to the islands in 1887 when he brought down the then brand-new steamer Maui for the Wilder Steamship Company. Filipino Murderer Breaks Jail. Pedro Senape, a Filipino murderer, broke jail in Hilo last week and is still at large. Another Filipino prisoner who made the dash for liberty at the same time, was recaptured. Senape is said to have killed a fellow countryman by stabbing him with a pair of scissors. Capt. Peleg Shepherd Dead. One of the best known waterfront characters at Honolulu is no more, through the death on Saturday last of Captain Peleg Shepherd. Capt. Shepherd was born in New Bedford, Mass., 83 years ago, and came to the islands in 1849. During his active career he commanded some of the best known sailing craft in the Pacific trade. Later he was connected with the Wilder Steamship Company, as commander of the Likelike. He married a sister of W. C. and S. G. Wilder, and at the funeral last Sunday his nephews—Chauncey, Harry, Charles, Gerrit, Samuel and Elwood Wilder acted as pall bearers. K. of C. Excursion for July. According to advices received this week from the Coast, an excursion of two hundred Knights of Columbus will sail from San Francisco on June 22 in the steamer Sierra, for a two-weeks visit to the islands. The Sierra has already been chartered for the trip, and Hilo will be the first port of call. More Troops For Hawaii. According to Secretary Garrison, in his annual report to the President, the War Department expects to increase the force of troops in Oahu by 6300 men, including three regiments of infantry, one battalion of field artillery, and two companies of coast artillery. Believes Mauna Loa Will Break Towards Hilo. Prof. Jaggar believes that the present activity in the summit crater of Mauna Loa will be followed before long by an outbreak on the flank of the mountain, probably on the Hilo side. Inquiry For Hawaiian Bonds. The mayor of Cincinnati has cabled Treasurer McCarthy to learn how many Hawaiian bonds are still unsold. Poi In Demand On Coast. The promotion committee has received word from San Francisco that recent shipments of poi to that city were quickly exhausted and placing orders for three regular shipments monthly. Fake Club In Trouble. The Spanish-American War Veteran's Club, at corner of Alakea and Merchant street, Honolulu, has been investigated by Attorney General Stainback, and declared nothing more than a common saloon operating under a club license. The place is to be closed and the managers prosecuted, says Stainback. Mainland Capital Would Invest. Provided it can be shown that need exists in Honolulu for a modern building, the Western States Life Insurance Company, intimates that it is prepared to invest half a million dollars in such a project. The proposition follows the recent visit to the islands of H. J. Saunders, president of the company. Uncle Sam Will Build Big Wireless. According to advices just received Secretary Daniels has explained the delay in carrying out the big project of a system of great radio stations for the Navy Department, which will extend around the world, as due to difficulty in quieting title to the site at San Diego. This difficulty has been removed, and the contract for the Pearl Harbor station together with the ones at San Diego and Guam will probably be let this month. Gang of Boy Thieves Arrested. Eighteen boys have been arrested in Honolulu charged with systematic junk stealing. A large amount of plunder was unearthed. A Japanese named Moto, is to be arrested as the "fence" through which the stolen goods were disposed of. Hawaiians Going to Exposition. Ernest Kaal, with a quintet of native singers, four hula girls, six "utility" girls, two-old Hawaiian couples to sit around and weave mats and fans, and Miss Rose Gibson, as chaperone, leave today for San Diego to form a "Hawaiian village" for the San Diego exposition. They have all signed contracts for one year. North Pole Discoverer Coming Here. H. Gooding Field has received a letter from Rear-Admiral Robert E. Peary, Arctic explorer, to the effect that he is coming to Hawaii this winter for the purpose of trying Hawaii's game fishing. Besides this, Field says he has received, as secretary of the Hawaii Tuna Club, a large number of inquiries from others who are interested in the sport in these waters, and who are planning trips here in the near future. Roselles Being Given Away. In order to introduce the new jam and jelly fruit, roselle, which is being grown in considerable quantity in the Territory, the Territorial Marketing Division is giving away 2-pound samples in Honolulu. The Division reports that the fruit is not known, and that the large shipments sent cannot be disposed of. Finding Leaks On Oahu. H. Gooding Field, working with a committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the Honolulu Ad Club, has been digging into the methods of the Territorial government business on Oahu. The report submitted last week shows that over 37.5 per cent of the tax which should be paid on automobiles in Honolulu remain uncollected, representing a sum of $38,525, in the last six years. Field also finds that there is a great loss in efficiency through overlapping of different departments, and of territorial and county work. He found that on account of this, forty-five dairies have escaped taking out the necessary permit to sell milk. The loss on automobile taxes is found to be due to conflict of authority between the sheriff's department and the tax office. Money For Germany. A further sum of $3,090 has been raised on Kauai (almost wholly contributed by Germans) for the relief of widows and orphans in Germany. This is in addition to $3,000 already raised here for the Red Cross in Germany and the amounts contributed by local Germans to the fund raised at Honolulu.—Garden Island. Side Show Man Fined. A sideshow man named Dillon was fined $25 in the police court for giving an indecent exhibition of a deformed boy at his show on Front St. The boy is a son of a Waipahu plantation laborer and it is not known how he came into the hands of the showman.—Hawaii Herald. KULA NOTES. Prof. Krauss will be in Kula on Monday, December 21, with his engine and bean thresher to demonstrate to Kula farmers bean threshing by power. The threshing will be done at the home of George Copp. In a single shipment last week the K. F. C. A. sent more than seven and a half tons of corn, beans, potatoes and cabbage to Honolulu. The total shipments for the week totaled more than thirteen tons. Dr. Durney made a flying trip to Honolulu last week to meet his sister, Mrs. Winters, wife of Captain Winters, U. S. A. Quartermaster Corps, and her two daughters, Miss Mary Winters and Miss Susan Winters. The doctor returned on Monday, with his guests, who are now with the Durneys at the Sanitarium. Rothrock-Kinney Dr. A. C. Rothrock, who recently opened an office in Wailuku in connection with Dr. Osmer, surprised his friends this week by slipping away to Honolulu and returning on Wednesday evening with a bride. Mrs. Rothrock was Miss Frances Kinney, a nurse in the Queen's Hospital for the past year or more. The marriage, which was a very quiet one, occurred on Tuesday night, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Father Stephen. Dr. Rothrock, who has been on Maui for the past several months, substituting for various physicians while they took vacations, has already made many friends, who are glad to know that he has decided to reside permanently here. He and his bride will go to housekeeping in Wailuku very shortly.

Versatile Visitors Charming Entertainment

Very delightful was the reception and dance given last Friday evening at the K. of P. hall by Mr. Marco Wolff and Miss Fanchon Wolff, the celebrated dance artists, to the new friends they had made in Wailuku during their visit with their uncle, D. L. Meyer. The affair was largely attended. Mr. Wolff is a past master on the violin, as well as in the terpsichorean art and greatly delighted the music lovers in the audience by his beautiful renditions of classic music. The demonstration by Mr. Wolff and his sister, of the dance steps which have placed them in the Vernon Castle class, was a revelation to most of those present, and was greatly admired. Miss Wolff entertained most delightfully at the piano, and with her "pianologues". The Wolffs were assisted in their program by Miss Mary Hoffman, a stringed quartet, and by W. S. Chillingworth on the mandolin. Following the demonstration and program, the dancing became general and lasted until midnight. FISH POND LEASE SOLD. The lease of a fishpond at Pukoo, Molokai, held by a Japanese named Akudagawa, was sold last Saturday by Sheriff Crowell on an execution for debt. The lease was bid for by several Japanese, and finally was knocked down for $760 to one of them. The lease has four years yet to run.
