One Berlin paper says Germany will not delay answer. Most probably Germany's reply will be devoted to the sacred duties this government owes the nation. Such a note would make it clear to President Wilson that Germany must conduct her war just as she is conducting it now.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Intimations yesterday coming from a source friendly to Germany, that a basis of agreement between the United States and Germany might be reached under certain conditions, were followed today by a formal call by the Austrian ambassador on Secretary Bryan. This is the substance of the indirect communication conveyed to the State Department yesterday from diplomatic sources, friendly to Berlin. In the absence of anything from Ambassador Gerard, Berlin official, Washington is disposed to give the report credence. The only assurance obtainable here last night was that if Germany will give her full and unreserved concurrence in America's proposals, there would be the natural disposition of America to press for the right to ship food stuffs to German civilians.

That much has been accomplished by President's note. Arbitration would be welcomed but diplomats point out that so many nations have become directly involved or sympathetically committed that it would be difficult to constitute a board of arbitration satisfactory to the United States and Germany. No word from Ambassador Gerald that note had been delivered to Berlin. German press has no comment.
