Dr. W. B. Deas, who resigned last week as government physician at Hana, will sail next Tuesday for San Francisco on the schooner Defender, direct from Hana. Dr. Deas expects to join his family on the mainland, and not to return to the Islands.

John MacLaren, secretary of the Punene Athletic Club, Maui, arrived in the Mauna Kea yesterday from the Valley Island to meet his young son. The young son arrived at four o'clock Monday afternoon at the Kapiolani Maternity Home. Both he and the mother are doing nicely.

MANNING-HOCKING

At the home of Mr. Simon Hocking, in Paia, will occur this afternoon, the marriage of his daughter, Miss Minnie Elizabeth, to Mr. Ralph Manning. The marriage will be witnessed by only the immediate relatives of the young people and a few intimate friends. Miss Hocking is a popular young lady of central Maui, her father being head luna of the Paia section of the Maui Agricultural Company. Mr. Manning, who is a homesteader at Haku, is an employe of the Maui Agricultural Company, in the machine department. The young couple will make their future home at Haku.

WESSLER-PECK.

The marriage of Mrs. Mary Peck and Mr. Bernard Wessler will take place this evening at the bride's home, Makawao, Father Athanasius officiating at the ceremony. Mr. Wessler is connected with the "Maui News" and has rented a cottage on Wells' avenue where the young couple will begin housekeeping.

THREE MONTHS FOR GROSS CHEAT.

Henry Medina, a Porto Rican, was on Monday sent to jail by Judge McKay for three months on conviction of gross cheat. The man had stolen a time ticket belonging to a laborer on the Wailuku plantation, and had obtained goods from a store on the strength of it.

Harvest Home Was One Great Success

Big H. C. & S. Day Furnishes Much Pleasure to Many Guests—Oahu Wins Tennis By One Point.

Winning at bowling by a high margin, losing by one point in tennis, an exciting polo game, and a jolly dance to end the day, Maui has every reason to feel that the Harvest Home festivities of last Saturday were an unqualified success. It is quite certain that the day was enjoyed by the many hundred guests which partook of the hospitality of the H. C. & S. Company, whose special day it was.

The tennis tournament which began at 8 o'clock and continued until after noon on the Punene Club courts, was one of the most exciting ever played in Maui. When the final set was played, the score stood: Maui, 135; Honolulu, 136. When the last match started between Littlejohn and Davis, of Oahu, and Engle and Taylor, of Maui, the score was tied.

Maui won the first set of this doubles, 6-2. With the score 134 to 130 against them, Littlejohn and Davis had to win by 6 to 1 to give the match to Oahu. Maui took the first game and then Littlejohn and Davis rose to the occasion superbly and took six straight.

No less than seven times was Maui within one point of another game. Just previous Baldwin and Livingston (Maui) had Podmore and Zabriskie (Oahu) 5 to 3 and 40-love, but Oahu then won 6-5.

Tennis Score.

The official score by games was as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Player names and scores. Includes Collins and Lindsay (3), Collins and Lindsay (2), Rice and Rosecrans (5), Rice and Rosecrans (7), Walsh and Thomson (8), Walsh and Thomson (12), Engle and Taylor (3), Engle and Taylor (3), Burns and Burns (12), Burns and Burns (7), McLaren and McLaren (4), McLaren and McLaren (12), Duke and McKenzie (12), Duke and McKenzie (12), Baldwin and Livingston (11), Baldwin and Livingston (12).

Total

Table with 2 columns: Team names and total scores. Includes Dillingham and Castle (9), Castle and Hoogs (12), Castle and Hoogs (12), Dillingham and Castle (12), O'Dowda and Macey (6), Littlejohn and Davis (6), Littlejohn and Davis (7), O'Dowda and Macey (12), Bockus and Gibb (7), Pfeuger and Warren (12), Pfeuger and Warren (12), Bockus and Gibb (6), Rice and Cooke (6), Podmore and Zabriskie (6), Podmore and Zabriskie (9), Rice and Cooke (6).

Bowling Was Easy.

The All-Maui bowlers had no difficulty in recouping the 2 to 1 defeat of last year from their Honolulu adversaries, taking all three games played with good margin to spare. It is true that Oahu did not have some of her strongest men on the team, and a sea trip is not conducive to steady rolling (at least on a bowling alley). The score follows:

Table with 2 columns: Player names and scores. Includes Honolulu: J. H. Haney (136, 161, 154-451), W. Clymer (116, 99-215), Capt. Stayton (150, 116, 151-417), Jas. Winne (195, 158, 126-497), C. C. Clark (157, 161, 182-500), Lt. Van Duzen (107, 107).

Maui:

Table with 2 columns: Player names and scores. Includes G. Paschoal (169, 194, 156-519), L. B. Kaumeheuiwa (177, 145, 146-468), W. Chillingworth (151, 151-302), J. H. Nelson (185, 169, 145-499), E. F. Deinet (183, 112, 150-445), Frank Lufkin (220, 153-378).

Snappy Polo Game.

A good crowd journeyed to Sunny-side in the afternoon and witnessed an exciting game between the "Reds" and "Whites", in which the former won by a score of 7 to 5. It was in no sense an inter-island match, although three of the regular Oahu champions were in the saddle. However, they were divided between the two teams, and played on borrowed mounts.

The Reds lined up as follows: A. W. Collins, Harold Castle, Caleb Burns and Arthur Rice. The Whites: W. A. Clark, Edward Baldwin, Walter Willingham, and F. E. Baldwin. Harold Rice was umpire. The playing of young Edward Baldwin, the 12-year-old son of F. F. Baldwin, attracted probably the most attention. The boy played brilliantly throughout the game, and demonstrated that he has the makings of an exceptionally fine player with a little more experience and increased strength.

The dance which closed the day at the Punene Club House was largely attended, and when the Honolulu guests departed in time to catch the Manoa from Kahului at midnight, the day was unanimously voted the most pleasant Harvest Home that Maui has ever given.

PIANO WANTED FOR THE HANA CHURCH.

W. A. Bowen, one of the leading church workers of Honolulu, is making an effort to secure a piano for the Hana church, which was recently taken charge by Rev. George J. Lake, a new arrival in the Islands. Mr. Lake is reported to be expending much energy in making the Hana church a strong influence in the community.

Settlement Workers To Arrive Next Week

Reception Being Planned in Their Honor at Alexander House for August 31.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Leslie Mathews, accompanied by Miss June Mitchell, will arrive on the incoming Lurline next week. They are to be the new workers at the Alexander House Settlement.

Under the joint committees of the Alexander House Settlement and the gymnasium the work that is to be undertaken by the new comers to Wailuku will be somewhat differently arranged than heretofore. Mr. Mathews will have full charge of the settlement and gymnasium work. In certain classes for the women and girls he will be assisted as heretofore has been the case by ladies who help in the work. He will from now on be in full charge of all departments, however, so that the entire work of the settlement will be directly under his care.

Mr. Mathews comes well prepared for the task, as he is a graduate of the International Young Men's Christian Association College at Springfield, Massachusetts, the school that sent Messrs. Rath and Humphreys to Palama. Mr. Humphreys knows Mr. Mathews and speaks of him in the very highest terms as well equipped for the work here on Maui. Mr. Mathews also is a graduate of Adelphi School in Brooklyn, and took one year of work at Johns Hopkins Medical College, Baltimore. He was director of community work in Old Lyme, Connecticut, for three years, and put special emphasis on boys' classes.

Mrs. Mathews is a graduate of the Emerson School of Oratory in Boston, and for six years has done excellent work as assistant to the pastor of the Central Church, Boston. She was specially in charge of the social work of Central Church, and is excellently fitted for her work here as a missionary among the Chinese and Japanese peoples. She will follow Miss Charlotte L. Turner, who for many years was in charge of this work in Wailuku. This department is now directly connected with the settlement work in Wailuku.

Miss June Mitchell is a graduate with honors of the Wheelock Kindergarten School of Boston, one of the best schools of its kind in the States. She has been working among the foreigners in kindergartens in Boston as a preparation for her professional work, and her training has admirably prepared her for the task of head kindergarten at Wailuku.

A public reception will be tendered the workers at the home of the Alexander House on Tuesday evening, August 31st. Refreshments will be served on the spacious lawn at the home and in the Gymnasium. A large committee under Mrs. H. B. Penhallow is at work to make the affair a pleasant evening for all Maui people, so that an opportunity will be given to get acquainted with the new force of workers at the Alexander House.

E. J. Walker Victim Of Paralytic Stroke

E. J. Walker, the well known salesman of the Paia Store, is in the Paia hospital suffering from a stroke of paralysis. He is reported to be slowly improving at the present time. Mr. Walker's affliction came upon him some time during last Sunday night, being found helpless in his bed by members of his family on Monday morning. He was quickly removed to the hospital, and hopes are now entertained for his complete recovery in time.

Motorcycle and Auto In Collision--Two Hurt

In attempting to make a short turn on a motorcycle at the Lyceum corner in Kahului, about 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening, Alfred Taylor and A. E. Parmelee, machine shop employes at the Punene Mill, collided with an automobile driven by John Vasconcellos, and were both painfully hurt. Their wheel was also badly wrecked, but the automobile got off with scarcely any damage. Taylor's injuries consisted of a bad bump on the head while Parmelee had a severe cut on his leg, which will lay him up for some days.

Racing Association Makes Money on Last Meet

The Maui Racing Association cleared over $600 from the meet last Fourth of July, and after settling various outstanding debts from the previous year, has something over $200 still in the treasury. The officers of the association are much pleased over the results, particularly as the last meet was not as largely attended as some others have been. By putting the management of the meet on a strictly business basis, however, it was found possible to prevent many small leaks which heretofore have cut deeply into the profits. Hopes are strong now of being able to pull out of debt entirely within the next year or two.

MAUI HELPS FLOOD SUFFERERS.

Funds are still being collected and forwarded from Hawaii to the flood sufferers in the Canton district, China. About $150 was sent to Honolulu for this purpose from Maui last week, and represents contributions from Maui Chinese and others. In all between $400 and $500 has thus far been donated from this territory.

Forger Smith Again In Toils of Law

Accused of Forging Hugh Howell's Name and Passing it on Hilo Bank—Served Term Here.

J. C. Smith, alias Fred Smith, alias F. Warren, "son of Senator Warren," who spent the greater part of last year in the Wailuku jail for forgery, is now in the Hilo jail awaiting trial for forging a check for $25 with the name of Hugh Howell. He was arrested last week, after the check in question had been turned down by the First National Bank of Wailuku.

Smith was arrested about a year ago for obtaining $25 from the local bank through representing himself as F. Warren, a son of the Wyoming senator, and served his sentence of nine months. When he was finally discharged a number of automobile tire tubes and other accessories from the county garage disappeared, and he was strongly suspected, but the matter was allowed to drop. He obtained a position with the Maui Vulcanizing Company, but after a few weeks he left the island, and F. M. Enders, who was in charge of the garage at the time has ever since been mourning the loss of a kit of tools, but again no effort was made to fix the responsibility on Smith.

The First National Bank states that the forgery of Howell's name was an exceedingly rank one. The check was cashed by the First Bank of Hilo and sent here for collection.

Palama Basket Ball Team to Play Here

Three Games Scheduled Which Promise to be Interesting—Dance Also—Return Game Next Month.

Palama Girls Basket Ball Team, of Honolulu, will meet the girls of Maui in the Alexander House Basket Ball Team at the Wailuku Gymnasium on Thursday night next week, when the first of three games will be played. Admission of twenty-five cents will be charged for this game and the one following night. On Saturday a dance will follow and fifty cents for each admission will be charged.

Miss Mary E. Hoffman is captain of the Maui girls and a picked team from all Central Maui has been working hard for the meet. It is expected that the games will be one of the most interesting series ever played on Maui. Miss Hoffman and her team will go to Honolulu on September first to play the Palama girls on the floor of their own Gym.

School Commissioners Are to Meet Next Week

The board of school commissioners of the Territory will meet in Honolulu next week, beginning on Monday. Among the matters to be taken up are the filling of a number of vacancies in the teaching force of various schools in all of the islands, including a successor to Mrs. Mary Gunn, supervising principal of Honolulu and Oahu, who has resigned.

The teachers' pension law, which goes into effect July 1, 1916, will be discussed and all teachers in the territory probably will be notified to inform the board at once if they wish to become applicants for pensions. Teachers who become applicants are required to devote one per cent of their yearly salary to the pension fund.

Sylva Lands Contracts For School Buildings

Tenders were opened last Monday afternoon by the board of supervisors for the construction of three new school buildings, and the contract was let in each case to Louis H. Sylva, his bids being the lowest of several submitted. His bids were as follows:

Three-room school house at Punene, $2549; time 50 days; Teachers' cottage, Hamakua, $3290; time 40 days. Two-room frame building for Wailuku public school, $1989; time 50 days.

J. A. Aheong's bids on the three buildings, in the same order, were respectively: $2798, time 72 days; $3456, time 50 days; $2000, time 66 days.

Paul F. Lada submitted tenders as follows: $2875, time 60 days; $3670, time 45 days; $2065, time 59 days.

DEFENDER TAKES LAST OF SUGAR.

The schooner Defender from the coast, arrived at Hana last Monday, and is loading the last of the sugar of the Kaeleku Sugar Company's 1915 crop. She expects to get away for the mainland next Tuesday.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Aug. 17.—Bernard Louis Wessler, American, aged 24, of Wailuku, to Mary Peck, Portuguese, aged 24, of Makawao. Ceremony by Father Athanasius.

BORN.

MacLAREN.—In Honolulu, at the Kapiolani Maternity Home, on Monday, August 16, to Mr. and Mrs. John MacLaren, of Punene, Maui, a son.

How Frank Crawford Fooled Ship Guard

Resemblance to Twin Brother Enabled Him to Board Niagara Unchallenged.

Due to his close resemblance to his twin brother, whom he had not seen for fifteen years, Frank Crawford, second engineer of the Wailuku Sugar Company, was enabled to fool the guards at the gangway of the Canadian-Australian steamer Niagara, when that vessel was in port at Honolulu last week, and to go and come as he pleased, while all others were denied admission to the vessel. Mr. Crawford knew that his brother would be passing through as an engineer on the vessel, and made the trip to Honolulu to see him.

Alfred was there all right but could not come ashore except for a brief time, being on duty. Also, probably because of the fear that some German sympathizer might stow away a bomb in the cargo, the steamship officials had adopted a rule that prevented any one from shore going aboard, except passengers. Frank tried it, but failed. Then he had an idea which he immediately proceeded to put into execution. Getting his brother to bring ashore a cap and pair of overalls, he donned them and boldly walking up the gangway was passed without question by the guard. Everybody on the vessel who noticed him addressed him as his brother, even the officers in the engine room not detecting the duplication.

Remaining on board until the gangway was about to be raised, Frank hustled ashore, and when the boat was pulling out, his presence on the dock almost caused the vessel to be put back, the crew being under the impression that Alfred Crawford was deserting.

County May Support New Wailuku Band

Well Signed Petition Asks That This Be Done—Action Deferred till Next Month.

A petition signed by 132 citizens was presented to the board of supervisors last Tuesday praying that the county provide instruments and offer suitable financial support for the recently organized brass band, in Wailuku. J. A. Hannon, director of the new organization, and M. R. Pereira appeared before the county fathers and explained the importance of having public support if the band is to be a permanent success.

After some discussion the matter was laid over until next meeting, and the clerk instructed to ascertain upon what basis the Hilo band is maintained by the county of Hawaii. It is understood that the band in question is furnished with instruments and also made a regular allowance for music and other expenses.

Paia Aggregation Will Meet Cummings' Colts

Tomorrow's baseball game at Wailuku Park will be between Paia and Hawaii. Judging from the amount of practice done by both sides during the week the contest should be a close one, and both teams are confident of victory.

The winning of this game means a lot to the teams. Should the Hawaii get away with the big end of the score, they will have tied the Paia, who are now in the lead for the second series. On the other hand, if the Paia are victorious they will have practically clinched the championship of the series, and will play off with the Punene, winners of the first series.

Last Sunday's game between the Hawaii and the Punene resulted in favor of the former by an 8 to 7 score. The game was an improvement over those of the two previous Sundays. The attendance was not large, but it is expected that tomorrow's game will be a better drawing card.

JOHN BARLEYCORN AMONG FRIENDS.

After helping Yashimura, a Japanese fisherman, to launch his sloop, at Maalaea, last Saturday afternoon, Harada and Makayama, two fishermen friends were invited on board to celebrate the occasion. The party was a merry one for several hours, and then, to further show his affectionate regard, Yashimura slashed both of his friends in the back with a big knife. He is now in jail and his two friends are in the hospital. It is stated that both will recover, although Harada had a cut into his lung cavity, and Makayama is suffering from several deep cuts on his shoulders and back.

ASSAULT CASE APPEALED.

Because S. Aho, proprietor of a Wailuke store objected to what he claimed was the pollution of a barrel of drinking water at his place of business, by three Filipinos, and attempted to put them out of the place, he was attacked by the trio and pretty roughly handled. The police later arrested Simon Delostre, Hinaro Subirano, and Custodio Ceard, and they were charged with the crime of assault and battery, found guilty by District Magistrate McKay, and fined $40 each, except Delostre, who got off for $10. The defendants were represented by Attorney Eugene Murphy, who noted an appeal for his clients. They have been released on $25 cash bail each.

Teaching English in Six Weeks Time

New York Educator Tells of New Methods of Improving the Condition of Workers in the Great City.

Telling how newly arrived immigrants, with no knowledge of English whatever, are taught to intelligently express themselves in the language of this country within six weeks after their arrival, Mrs. Annie Howell Wilcox, one of the leading educators of New York City, deeply interested a good sized audience for over an hour at the Alexander Settlement House, last Friday evening. Mrs. Wilcox, who had been making a short visit to her mother, Mrs. Annie Powell, and her brother, Hugh Howell, left on Saturday evening for her return east.

Mrs. Wilcox's chief work for the past two years, as she described it, has been in organizing what are known as continuation classes among the employes of the great department store, hotels, and factories of the metropolis. The work is under the direction of the board of education, and has proved most practical. Almost everything that can be of practical value to the workers is taught in these classes, and the fact that while at first the greatest difficulty was experienced in interesting employers in the plan, now the demand is so great for these classes from the employers themselves, that the department can scarce keep pace with it. Mrs. Wilcox stated that it is the aim of the board of education to furnish teachers for anything at all that can be useful to residents of New York, and that it is willing to undertake any kind of instruction if a class of a dozen or more can be formed.

Mrs. Wilcox is a pleasing speaker, and her address was much appreciated by all who heard her.

Wailuku is to Have Real Jitney Buses

A. Garcia Has Plan for Latest Mainland Thing in Cheap Transportation—Will Run to Kahului.

The jitney bus has arrived on Maui. It isn't ready for business just yet, but it will be next Saturday morning bright and early, according to Antonio Garcia, who is the father of the new project. A jitney is five cents, and Garcia says his bus line will be a real jitney line with fares from 5 cents and up to 20 cents, the rate between Wailuku and Kahului. The bus is to run between these two towns every hour and a half, and will sell a round trip ticket for 35 cents. Mr. Garcia is confident that his enterprise will be successful, and he is planning to add machines to the line as fast as the business develops.

Demonstration Acres Started By Prof. Krauss

Prof. F. G. Krauss, director of extension work for the Hawaii Experiment Station, is having some five or six one-acre plots in the Kula area home-steads prepared for demonstration crops. These plots are located on the main Kula ridge and are scattered from the lower loes to the higher elevations, in order that the tests may fairly show what can be done in the district in general. They are also generally along the roads, where they may be easily seen. The land is being broken for a number of leguminous crops to be put in this fall, to be followed by other plantings later.

Would Reduce Coastwise Fine From $200 to $25

As a means of compromise in the fight against the coastwise shipping law, which has been attracting so much attention lately, a new feature has been introduced in a plan to ask for a reduction from $200 to $25 of the fine imposed on foreign boats for carrying passengers from Hawaii to mainland ports.

Fred L. Waldron, president of the Chamber of Commerce, one of the men who is back of the new idea, believes that it is one on which the community as a whole could get together. "I am satisfied," says Mr. Waldron, "that those of us who are working tooth and nail for a suspension of the coastwise law for passengers, would fall in and work for this idea, and such a plan should be a reasonable protection to American lines."

"Fines of $25 for first class passengers and $15 for second class ought to meet with popular approval. With such charges, a man who found himself with no other means of getting out than by a foreign boat would in cause of necessity make the payment, without great inconvenience. "As far as freight is concerned," says Mr. Waldron, "the merchants have no reason to complain, and should be well satisfied with both the service and the reasonable rates covering it at present."

IT JUST CAN'T BE TRUE!

There is an unconfirmed report that the Claudine may take the run to Kaula in place of the Mauna Loa, first reported, while the Rangip Kinai is laid up. The Claudine is a Maui stand-by.—Garden Island.
