VOLUME XXII.

WAILUKU, MAUI, T. H., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1915.

NUMBER 37.

Governor's Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Governor Pinkham, on Monday, issued the usual Thanksgiving proclamation, calling upon the people to observe Thursday, November 25, as a day of thanks. The text of the proclamation follows:

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION.

The President of the United States having proclaimed the 25th day of November of the year 1915 as a day of national thanksgiving to Almighty Providence that has so kindly cared for, guarded and prospered us, I urge the people of the Territory of Hawaii to join together, with the nation, in rendering praise and thanksgiving for the mercies and favors granted us.

Let us, as we need, broaden our minds, sympathies and understandings, and seek justice for all that the scales may hang even.

While we pray for the nations of the earth, now in desperate struggle, let us trust to the inscrutable ways of the perate struggle, let us trust to the inscrutable ways of the Creator and Ruler of the Universe and bow to his decision, be it as it may.

Let the people gather in their places of worship and homes, and each, as his heart and conscience dictates, give thanks, intensify and renew family affection and welcome the stranger within our gates.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the Territory of Hawaii to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol in Honolulu this 1st day of November, A. D. 1915.

(Seal)

(S.) LUCIUS E. PINKHAM,
Governor of Hawaii.

By the Governor,

(S.) WADE WARREN THAYER,
Secretary of Hawaii.

Territorial Survey of Haleakala Road

Asked For by Chamber of Commerce. — Would Have Convicts Build the County Roads.

The Maui Chamber of Commerce favors a road to the summit of Haleakala—sometime. It isn't ready just yet to say that the time for undertaking the formidable job has arrived, but at the special meeting held yesterday afternoon for the purpose of considering the matter, a motion was adopted by which the superintendent of public works will be asked to make a preliminary survey of such a road, and to furnish some idea of how the work should be done, and how much it will cost. When such data is available, the problem of actually getting the road built will then be in order for consideration.

The Chamber is also in favor of having all the territorial prisoners available put to work on Maui roads, and the committee appointed at the last regular meeting to take the matter up with the board of supervisors, was further instructed to recommend to the county authorities, that steps towards this end be taken. The committee consists of D. C. Lindsay, R. A. Wadsworth, and J. J. Walsh.

The chamber also again went on record of favoring keeping up the county appropriation of $50 per month for the Hawaii promotion committee, and adopted a resolution to this effect.

There was a good deal of discussion as to the value of publicity work and tourist promotion to Maui, both in connection with the proposed mountain road, and the cutting off of the promotion committee subscription by the county some time ago. D. C. Lindsay, William Searby, and some others expressed the conviction that Maui has not profited in any observable degree from the money already spent, and were opposed to doing anything more in that direction. W. B. Thomson and H. A. Baldwin did not favor the idea of asking for territorial convicts for building the Haleakala road, but did want the prisoners for use on county roads. Mr. Thomson urged the importance of building a real road from Kahului to central Kula. Other speakers urged the necessity for road improvement in many other places on Maui. A. C. Bowditch felt that the Paia-Makawao road should be put through, which he held would give Kula an outlet under all conditions.

C. D. Lufkin pointed out that all these roads mentioned are county roads and should be kept up by the county. E. R. Bevin was not in favor of convict work on strictly county jobs. R. A. Wadsworth, J. Garcia, and W. O. Aiken, were among the champions of the getting some kind of a start on the Haleakala road, and of backing up promotion work. D. H. Case presented the resolution, later adopted, urging the supervisors to renew the promotion committee contribution.

President F. F. Baldwin was of the opinion that the building of a road to Haleakala is too big a job to be undertaken without due thought. He thought that such a road would cost at least $500,000. William Searby, thought that $300,000 might do it, but that it would be a road about 20 miles long when it was completed.

Mr. Wadsworth, while not able to point to any specific results from the money spent for promotion, still believed that such results have been received, and Worth Aiken, W. H. Field, and J. J. Walsh were certain that they could show very definite benefit in way of tourist travel.

Promotion Committee Dinner.
On motion of C. D. Lufkin it was decided to give a dinner to the members of the Hawaii promotion committee on the evening of Monday, November 15, thus closing the quarterly meeting which the promotionists are to hold on Maui from the 13th to 15th inclusive. Mr. Lufkin was appointed a committee of one to arrange for the dinner.

On motion of L. von Tempsky, the name of S. A. Baldwin was presented for membership and accepted.

Fight For Property Say Divorce Illegal

Collateral Heirs Claim Property of Former Mrs. Keohokalole.—Many Divorces Will Be Affected.

Because they claim that the late Mrs. Alexandrina Leihulu Clark, of Honolulu, was never legally married to H. M. Clark, for the reason that her divorce from her previous husband, Morris Keohokalole, of Wailuku, was not legal, David U. K. Maikai and Samuel L. Maikai have filed a claim in the Honolulu courts for all of the property of the deceased on grounds that they are the only surviving heirs. Incidentally the case is said to involve some 300 other divorced couples of some three or four years ago.

At that time, through the custom of granting divorces before the specified period of 30 days had elapsed after service of the complaint, the supreme court held that all such were illegal. These were straightened out in many instances, it is now claimed, by simply filing duplicates of the original decree, without further notice to the parties. This is the grounds upon which the Maikais, as collateral heirs, are claiming the estate of the late Mrs. Clark, said to be worth between $10,000 and $15,000.

Clark, who lives on the coast, recently returned to Honolulu to claim the estate. The Maikais are represented in their fight by Stanley & Wilder, and are being assisted by Morris Keohokalole, according to Judge A. A. Wilder, a member of the firm.

HANA SAW SUBMARINES PASS ON WAY TO COAST

The people of Hana had their first glimpse of Uncle Sam's under-sea fighters, last Saturday, when the three "F" class submarines, which have been stationed at Honolulu for several years, passed close by the east Maui port on their way to the coast. The boats were in tow of the cruiser Maryland and the tender Alert. It had been the intention to stop at Hilo and give the crews a chance to see the volcano, which accounts for their unusual course. Rough weather, however, decided the commander not to stop, and the flotilla continued on its way to San Francisco. These submarines will probably be retired as they are considered about obsolete, and have been replaced in Honolulu by the newer "K" class boats.

The Maui Telephone Company has filed a petition with the public utilities commission for permission to raise its rates for service on business phones, and to establish toll rates with Lahaina and Hana. The board has accordingly called a meeting to be held in Honolulu on Wednesday, November 11, at 7:30 p. m., at which time the matter will be considered. The telephone company proposes raising its rate from $3.50 per month to $5 per month for phones in stores, offices, and other business places, and establishing a toll rate of 5 cents on messages to Lahaina, and 10 for connections with Hana. An additional rental of 50 cents per month is to be charged for extension phones. No change is made in the present residence rate of $3.50.

The Japanese caretaker at the Haleakala rest house has been discharged because he has persisted in absenting himself from the place too much of the time. After tomorrow the key of the rest house may be obtained at Idlewild, and the $1 per night for use of the house must be paid there.

The rest house committee announces that all the furniture is now installed and that the roof has been repaired so that it doesn't leak.
