On the Other Islands

The beautiful George C. Beckley home at Waikiki, Honolulu, it is said is likely to be purchased by the owners of the St. Francis Hotel, of San Francisco, and converted into an exclusive resident hotel, of which Rudolph ("Heinie") Heydenreich is to be manager.

More than 20,000 regular troops are to be stationed on Oahu within the next year, according to a statement made by Major-General W. H. Carter, in an address this week. The additional necessary barracks are to be erected very soon.

May Santos, a young girl employed in the Honolulu Star-Bulletin bindery, died last week from burns resulting from her deliberately setting her clothing on fire with the intention of committing suicide. She first saturated her garments with kerosene and then applied a match.

Major-General William H. Carter, for the past year, in command of the Hawaiian department, U. S. Army, has been retired, and Brigadier-General John P. Wissler has succeeded him. General Wissler will also go on the retired list next July.

The grand jury is investigating the police department of Honolulu, in connection with the escape of Jack McGrath. Disgraceful conditions of laxness on the part of the department is alleged in connection with this and other cases.

Mrs. Florence Johnson, teacher in the Hanapepe, Kauai school, leaves in about two months for the Philippine Islands where she has been appointed an assistant at the Manila University.

The College of Hawaii football team defeated the Punahou Academy team in last Saturday's game by a score of 15 to 13.

Carnival Policy Changed.
Following the resignation of Judge Henry E. Cooper as director of the Mid-Pacific Carnival, and the decision of the trustees of the association to get along without any director, the board also canceled arrangements made by Cooper for advertising in the Pathfinder, a mainland publication amounting to $1850. Other methods of advertising are being arranged for.

The Bar Association of Hawaii, at a meeting held last Tuesday, strongly endorsed the name of Judge Dole for reappointment as judge of the Federal court. Judge Dole's present term expires December 16.

John Marcellino Accused.
Much surprise has been expressed over the charges against John Marcellino, of embezzlement amounting to $30,000 or $40,000. He immediately resigned as clerk of the First Circuit Court, a position he had held for many years, though his alleged defalcation does not have to do with any of the court matters. Instead Marcellino was acting with power of attorney for J. J. Egan, now on the coast, in handling certain stocks, which it is claimed that he sold and converted to his own uses. It is claimed that he has confessed to this. The matter came to light when Egan recently turned all his business over to the Hawaiian Trust Company, which demanded an accounting. Marcellino is in jail and has signified his willingness to "take his medicine."

Lord-Young Company Low Bidders.
At the opening of tenders for filling in the Waiolama swamp lands at Hilo, on Tuesday, the Lord-Young Company offered to do the job for $109,600, in 300 working days; and J. T. McGrosson was willing to tackle it for $118,232.45, if given a like time. The Hawaiian Dredging Company stated that the appropriation of $110,000 would not cover the work, and therefore did not submit a bid. The contract has not yet been let.

Over 150 cases of measles are reported in the plantation camps of Kauai. The disease is only partly under control. There is also some diphtheria on the Garden Isle at present.

To aid it in its fight against the Territory in the Honolulu court, the Honolulu street railway company has sent to the mainland for an expert to come and testify as to the value of the local railway property.

Passenger rates on the steamer Great Northern, which goes on the Coast-Hawaii run this month, will range from $65 to $175 for first class one way tickets; and tourist or second class tickets, from $45 to $50. Steerage is $35.

The new Matson steamer, recently contracted for, will be named the Makiki, according to information received this week. It will also be a twin screw vessel.

TELEGRAPH NEWS OF THE WEEK

NEW YORK, November 4.—Damage estimated at $26,000, was caused by fire to British ship Entirpe, at this port, yesterday. Was loaded with sugar for Great Britain.

DOUGLAS, November 4.—The repulse of the main Villa garrison by General Calle seems to be a decisive defeat. Villa forces are withdrawing. Villa wounded in the attack on Agua Prieta.

LONDON, November 4.—Italians continue bombardment of Gorizia district heavily with artillery but infantry attacks have failed at all points.

Russian general offensive reaching from Gulf of Riga to border of Roumania. Coincidentally, an official Berlin despatch received here admits von Hindenbergs withdrawing from between Swenton and Illsen Lakes, in Riga district. Teutons have been driven from trenches and positions are becoming perilous. Germans face offensive of such magnitude that they may be compelled to retreat all along the line giving up positions they have held for months.

BALTIMORE, November 3.—Harrington, democrat, elected Governor.

PHILADELPHIA, November 3.—Suffrage suffered heavy defeat.

MANILA, November 3.—Disastrous typhoon struck Southern Luzon, 20 dead, loss in property million dollars. Two vessels foundered.

MARSHFIELD, Oregon, November 3.—Coasting steamer Santa Clara probably total loss. Eleven known to be dead, nine missing.

DOUGLAS, November 3.—After an unsuccessful attempt on Agua Prieta, Villa retired to Anavachi Pass. Ammunition shortage, hunger and thirst compelled his troops to abandon hostilities for the present. Villa left here 165 dead on field.

WASHINGTON, November 3.—Brigadier-General Sternberg, famous civil war surgeon, died today.

OAKLAND, November 3.—Rear-Admiral Phelps died today.
