

Death Of J. P. Cooke Comes As Shock To Many Maui Friends

of the Sugar Factors Co., at different times. As a leader in civic and political affairs Mr. Cooke always took a prominent place in leadership, and his counsel in all matters affecting the public welfare was universally sought. It is generally accepted that his intense devotion to the many interests that claimed his attention was the cause of breaking his health about two years ago from which he never fully recovered. He had much improved apparently, however, and had been able to be about the streets very recently. His sudden taking away was therefore the more of a shock to his family and friends. The deceased was born in Honolulu, December 15, 1870, being the son of the late J. P. Cooke, Sr., an original partner in the firm of Castle & Cooke before its incorporation. He was married to Maud M. Baldwin, at Haku, July 18, 1895, and is survived by his wife and six children—Platt, Emily, Henry, Douglas, Fred and Maud. All of his business life had been connected with the firm of Alexander & Baldwin. The funeral services were held last Saturday afternoon from the family home on Nowewehi street, Honolulu, interment being in the Cooke family plot at Kawaiahao church. The funeral was very largely attended. From Maui Mrs. H. P. Baldwin, mother of Mrs. Cooke, and H. A. F. F. S. A., and W. D. Baldwin, who went down Friday night, attended. They returned on Tuesday accompanied by Mrs. Cooke and daughter Emily and two sons Fred and Douglas, who will visit on Maui for several weeks.

Maui Takes Lead In Novel Stock Feeds

dred acres is also being shredded forming the excellent and well known feed of the mainland, but which has heretofore been of little importance in the Islands. The cane top hay is a development of the Maui Agricultural Company, and is said to be most promising as a stock feed product. The tops are shredded by a special machine, and dried, forming a hay which it is said all kinds of stock greatly relish. If this product fulfills the expectations warranted by experiments thus far made, it promises to go far towards solving the feed problem in the Islands, since it is claimed that at least 50,000 tons of this material could be produced here annually. The Haku Ranch has lately installed grinding machinery for making corn meal and corn flour, and as soon as the corn crop is fully cured, which will be very shortly, it is expected to put out for local domestic a considerable supply of these products.

Lahaina Item

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wells, and Mrs. Norman Wells of Haku are occupying Miss Caldwell's cottage on the beach while Mr. Wells is superintending the building an additional room of the Puukohli school.

Albert, the nine-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gay of Lanai was operated upon for appendicitis at the Pioneer Hospital last week. Mrs. MacGregor, of Honolulu, a trained nurse is taking care of him and his parents are here. The little fellow is convalescing nicely.

Mr. Bigelow, superintendent of Public Works was in Lahaina last week looking into the advisability of having the channel widened. Soundings are now being taken preparatory to cleaning and deepening the channel and it is hoped that this will make the landing safer.

Mr. and Mrs. Koelling, formerly of the Puukohli tunnel are now living at the Pioneer Hotel annex.

Miss Rita Rosecrans of Paia is the house guest of Mrs. J. E. Gannon.

During the remainder of the vacation the Red Cross will meet only once a week, on Friday, instead of on Wednesday afternoon, and Friday as formerly.

Mrs. A. W. Collins and Mrs. W. L. Decoto, went over to Kahului on Tuesday afternoon to attend a meeting of the Red Cross.

The surf was so high on Wednesday evening that the Claudine did not call at Lahaina on her way to Honolulu.

RED CROSS NOTES

RED CROSS MEETING

A meeting of the heads of units and committees was held in the Home Service Room of the Red Cross on Tuesday afternoon, for a general discussion of the work. Several changes are to be made in the patterns and the method of doing the work. It was suggested that hereafter all cutting of hospital garments be done in Kahului with the electric cutter; it is hoped by this change that the work will be systematized and the units will have more time to devote to sewing. All the gauze for surgical dressings has been cut in Kahului for some months and distributed from there to the units making dressings.

Raymond's Chances Good Says Jarrett

"Politically things are very quiet on Hawaii," reports High Sheriff Jarrett, who returned yesterday after an inspection tour of the prison camps of Hawaii and Maui, "and the same is true on Maui. The only candidate I heard mentioned on my trip was Doctor Raymond, as it seems to be generally known, that he is going to start his campaign shortly. In Hilo, I was told that Doctor Raymond intended to fire the first gun of the campaign in that city next week and considerable interest is being taken there in his candidacy. It looks to me as if Raymond will give anyone a hard run for the Democratic nomination for Delegate." The high sheriff denied the report that he combined business with pleasure on his trip and incidentally kept his ear close to the ground, listening for indicating sounds. There are seventy laborers working on the Keaumoku road and six miles of construction work has been completed. John Leal is in charge of the work. On Maui, a gang of sixty prisoners, in charge of Marcus Colburn are engaged in building a road at Kula.—Advertiser.

Child Fines Wailuku Firm For Red Cross

(Special to the Maui News.) Honolulu, July 31.—The Maui Dry Goods & Grocery Co., Ltd., Wailuku, were charged by the food administration with selling a coffee shop wheat flour without the requisite amount of substitutes. Their defense was that they thought the coffee shop was a licensed bakery and entitled to buy flour as sold. Investigation of their sales' records showed that it had been the practice for years to bill all C. O. D. goods to Japanese salesman who would deliver and collect and turn the money in. The firm had no record of the exact quantities of flour and substitutes delivered to any of the Japanese salesman's customers. This system has been changed and a donation of $50.00 made to the Red Cross and $50.00 invested in War-Savings Stamps by the company.

—Say leading motor car distributors, because the records of their service departments show that ZEROLENE, correctly refined from selected California asphalt-base crude, gives perfect lubrication with less wear and less carbon deposit.

Most cars are now lubricated with ZEROLENE because their owners have learned through experience that there is no better oil.

ZEROLENE reduces wear and gives more power because it keeps its lubricating body at cylinder heat. Less carbon because, being made from asphalt-base crude, it burns clean and goes out with exhaust.
