Post Office Ready By September 15

C. D. Lufkin Returns From Coast After Purchasing Latest In Furniture And Fixtures

BANK FIXTURES WILL COME LATER

Steel And Marble Will Make Bank One Of Finest In Island—Post Office Furnishings Will Be Here About September 1

C. D. Lufkin, who left for the mainland about a month ago returned on the Lurline and arrived on Maui Wednesday bringing favorable reports of the furnishings which have been purchased for the new bank building and the post office.

"The post office fixtures should arrive here about September first," said Mr. Lufkin. "They are of steel finished in mahogany and very handsome. The mail boxes will be of the best type with automatic keyless lock which will be furnished by the Automatic Keyless Lock company of Indiana." If the furnishings arrive at that time the new post office should be ready for business by September 15.

It is hoped that the furniture for the bank will get here the latter part of September, but Mr. Lufkin is afraid that even if it makes that good time, the bank will not be ready for the County Fair and Civic Convention, although that is a thing much to be desired. The post office, however, will be ready for occupancy by that time.

The bank is to be finished with marble furnished by the American Marble and Mosaic company of San Francisco, and the office furnishings, desks, cabinets, and so forth will be of finely finished steel to be furnished by J. L. Davidson company of Los Angeles. When the interior of the bank is finished it is expected to be one of the handsomest business structures on Maui, and to be the last word in up-to-date bank construction.

Big Auto Nearly Wrecks Building

A pedestrian so it is claimed by a Japanese auto driver, almost caused the demolition of one of Maui's old buildings on Tuesday afternoon. The accident happened when a Cole-S running at high speed swerved off the street and ran into the oldtime home of The Maui News on High street, now occupied as a storeroom for the Singer sewing machines. The impact nearly brought the building down and slewed it around as though an earthquake had occurred. One wall was completely ripped from its fastening to the roof, the front door was smashed in and several of the machines damaged and the door and window frames were left skittishly leaning out of plumb. The accident was caused, it was at first thought by the driver of the car trying to avoid hitting Charles Puck who had just left the Maui News doorway and was starting to turn around. Puck saw the man coming and backed up to give him room, but the driver claimed that just as Puck backed and gave him a clear view of the roadway he saw a pedestrian crossing and had to turn into the building in order to avoid hitting him.

Pastor Returns To Kahului Church

Rev. Pleasant Back After Long Vacation—Secures Several New Pastors And Welfare Worker For Maui

Rev. and Mrs. Ellis E. Pleasant who have been away to the Coast for four months on a vacation, returned to Maui on the Claudine last Saturday morning and Mr. Pleasant preached at the Kahului Union Church Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Pleasant spent most of the time in Indiana and Pennsylvania visiting their people.

While away from Maui Mr. Pleasant was active in securing new workers for the positions that have been made vacant. Of these Rev. and Mrs. Cridler have already been called to the pastorate of the Wailuku Union Church.

The Standing Committee and the Trustees of the Kahului Union church on Monday afternoon voted unanimously to call the Rev. Hugh Vernon White to become pastor of the church. Mr. White is a graduate of the Pacific School of Religion at Berkeley, Cal., and for the past two years has been a graduate student at Harvard taking his Master of Sacred Theology degree there this June. Mr. White has had several years experience as a successful preacher and is especially fitted to do community welfare work. He is a young man, married and has a family of two children. Mr. and Mrs. White are expected to arrive on Maui in October. At present he is preaching in a large Congregational church in Hillsboro, New Hampshire.

For recreational work, Miss Marjorie Howé, who graduated from Oberlin College this June in the college's physical training department, and was a student in the six weeks summer term at Chautauque, N. Y., has been secured and will also arrive on Maui in October or perhaps earlier.

Shield On Flag Means Job Back

Government Will Give Special Certificate To Employers Who Re-Employ Returned Soldiers

A new symbol is now appearing in the United States on the service banners which employers proudly display during the war—those banners on which every star represented a man who had entered the Army or Navy after giving up his job with the concern that displayed the flag.

Today on many of those service banners there is appearing the shield of the United States.

That shield is the symbol that the employer putting it on his service flag is fulfilling his moral obligations to take back into his employ those men who have completed their military service.

Authorization to display the shield is being granted by the Council of National Defense, consisting of the Secretaries of War, Navy, Labor, Interior, Commerce and Agriculture.

To Get Special Citation

In addition to the right of displaying the United States shield as a sign of their pledge to take former employes back, patriotic employers who fulfill this obligation will receive a special citation from the Government.

This citation is in the form of a certificate, headed, "War and Navy Departments, United States of America," and reading as follows:

"This certifies that has assured the War and Navy Departments that he will gladly re-employ everybody for formerly worked for him and left to serve in the Army or Navy during the Great War."

The certificate carries the signatures of Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War; Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy; and Arthur Woods, Assistant to the Secretary of War, former police commissioner of New York.

Mission Pioneer To Leave Maui

Rev. R. B. Dodge Will Leave Envious Record For Church Work Behind Him—Will Go To States By Manoa

Rev. Rowland B. Dodge, who has been a factor in the upbuilding of the religious and mission work on Maui, will leave on the Manoa, sailing for the States on August 16. With Mr. Dodge will go Mrs. Dodge who has shared in the benefactions of her husband. They are going in the educational interests of their young children.

Mr. Dodge has been an agent of the Hawaiian Board of Missions on Maui for thirteen years.

During the first ten years of his stay on Maui, Mr. Dodge had a record of between thirty and forty churches either built or repaired. He is an indefatigable worker and has contributed much to the educational assets of his island community. Perhaps the prime mover in the enterprise, he was successful in bringing about the establishment of a splendid library at Wailuku, for which he has since sought Carnegie endowment. He did splendid work in connection with citizenship classes and also promoted ministers' classes of a high order for the Hawaiian pastors of his island. During his pastorate the attractive Wailuku Union Church with its beautiful memorial organ was planned and built.

He recently accepted a call from the Pacific School of Religion at Berkeley where he will fill the chair of church extension. He will also be superintendent of church missionary activities around San Francisco bay.

Beware The Bike When It Is New

Bucking Motorcycle Proves Proud Copper's Undoing—It Was The Pride Of The Force Too

Policeman Wilson started bravely from the station on High street Tuesday morning with a brand new motorcycle. It was a beautiful machine, so shiny and new, and he was the envy of the whole force when he started off on it. But alas for the prideful feelings which swelled the breast of Policeman Wilson, that motorcycle proved to be a widdy bucking broncho, and when it encountered a Japanese it gave a snort and bucked so badly that it upset the immaculate Wilson fresh from inspection, busted its gasoline tank and poured the precious and inflammable fluid all over him. Not content with that, however, it took a vicious hold of his nether garments and chewed at them, while the engine continued to run, and by the time Wilson had extricated himself he hastily removed himself from that spot into the obscurity of four walls and frantically telephoned to the station for a new uniform. Thus ended the voyage of the proud knight. He won't trust a deceiving shiny motorcycle again. The only kind he cares for now is one that's battle scarred and mud-bespattered.

TELL YOUR AGE GIRLS!

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 16—(By Associated Press)—Judge F. H. Taft of the Superior Court has ruled that hereafter when women are asked their ages in his court, they must not say: "I'm over 21," but will be required to give the exact years.

"The witnesses must answer the question," said Judge Taft. "I can see no reason why anyone should object to telling their age."

Tavares Gives The Lie To Ugly Rumors

States That He Is Not Turning Away Growers Fruit, And No Fruit Has Rotted

FRUIT SENT HONOLULU BOUGHT

Mel Paid Cash For Fruit Which He Shipped To Big City It Is Assorted, And Transferred To Own Boxes From Haiku's

"It's a lie," stated Acting Manager Antonio Tavares of the Haiku Fruit and Packing Company when asked by a Maui News representative regarding the reports that he was turning away fruit of those farmers who had signed up for the new cannery. Rumors have been flying around Maui for several weeks that such was the case, and it is understood the tales have been circulated in Honolulu.

"Did you tell the farmers, Mr. Tavares, that their fruit could rot on the stems before you'd take it?"

"I did not," emphatically answered Mr. Tavares.

"Did you refuse to take any fruit at all?"

"I refused to take the fruit of four Japanese farmers for two days, which I did purposely in order to bring things to a head. These men claimed they had signed something for the new cannery; that men had come to them and told them that two canneries were better than one, to which statement they agreed and upon such assent they were told to sign a paper which was given them. They claim they did not know what it was they signed. I wanted to get at the truth of the matter and to find out how many others probably had signed without knowing what they were doing so refused the fruit. It brought the results I expected, for Mr. Mel visited me the following day, and I showed him my reasons for refusing these farmers' fruit. I was frank and aboveboard and showed him the terms under which they were working for the Haiku, and explained exactly where I stood. I was called up the next day by an attorney who claimed he was representing the Japanese and demanding to see the mortgages which the bank holds against them. Inquiry from the Japanese elicited the information that they had not retained a lawyer and had not seen one. Mr. Mel did not deal with equal frankness for I have seen none of his papers."

"What became of the fruit, Mr. Tavares? Did it spoil?"

"No, it did not. I took it the third day, after I had gotten the matter straightened out and found that the men had signed without knowing

Hawaii's A Land Of Waters Too

The following is reprinted from the Hilo Post-Herald:
