Wailuku School Notes

An amusing incident occurred in one of the classes this week which proves that our children of the islands do not lack ability to sense the ludicrous, in spite of the fact that it is sometimes stated that they are all "From Missouri" so far as real humor is concerned. The teacher of Eighth Grade Grammar was drilling the class upon interrogative pronouns by reading different sentences, and requiring pupils to select pronouns and parse the same. With a great deal of emphasis she read the following: "Who is this young and handsome officer now entering the door?" just as our trust officer walked in to give his report. There was a broad smile upon all faces, then an audible titter, which later broke into a hearty laugh, thoroughly enjoyed by pupils and teacher alike—but which was politely restrained until the officer left the room. Judging from the comments by the different pupils it was clearly demonstrated that they mentally grasped the situation without a diagram. Mrs. Wilmington has organized an orchestra in our school. This organization consists of ten pupils, two girls playing the piano, two boys playing guitars, and the rest playing ukuleles. The orchestra will meet every Friday afternoon for practice. This is the first time an orchestra has been organized in this school.—Alfred Kaumehelwa, Grade VI. Mrs. D. W. Chilson who has been substituting in Grade III B, has been succeeded by Mrs. O. J. Whitehead; Mrs. Chilson having resigned recently, and Mrs. Wm. Hansen has taken this work which Mrs. Whitehead had. An interesting spelling match was held between the two third grades on Thursday afternoon. When the bell rang Grade III A, had three left on the floor and Grade III B had two. A meeting of the local bar and court officials is being held this afternoon in the court house to adopt resolutions on account of the death of L. M. Baldwin, county treasurer. SOCIETY

Woman's Guild Bazaar Was Pleasing Success

The annual bazaar held last Saturday night at the Alexander House Gymnasium, by the ladies of the Woman's Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd, was perhaps the most successful from all viewpoints of any heretofore given. As a result of the hard work and enterprise of the members, the total receipts from the fair amounted to about $180. The bazaar was a decided social as well as financial success, a large crowd being present throughout the evening. After the sale, dancing was indulged in by the younger people until midnight. One feature of especial note was the musical program, given by well known Maui artists, and much appreciated by everyone who heard it. The program was as follows: Piano Duet ..... Miss Webb & Miss Russell. Cornet Solo ..... Mr. C. D. Luffkin. Instrumental Trio ..... Messrs. Courson, Luffkin & Vilim Song ..... Miss Trauger. Reading ..... Miss Olive Patterson. Song ..... Miss Drinkel. Piano Solo ..... Master Vivian Vetteson Instrumental Trio ..... Messrs. Courson, Luffkin & Vilim Vocal Duet ..... Miss Trauger & Miss Newby. Players Entertained During their stay on Maui from Saturday night till Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Burnham, Mrs. Frances Reed, Miss Marjorie Guild and Miss Katie Singlehurst, of the Lanai Players, of Honolulu, were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Penhallow. During Sunday the party was given a chance to see something of Maui's attractions by an auto ride through Makawao and Kula. Farewell To The Arletts Maui's colors were prettily suggested in the table decorations at an informal dinner given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Arlett at the nurses' cottage, Kula Sanitarium, by Miss Mabel Shellshear, on Tuesday evening last. Yellow nasturtiums and African marigolds with black and yellow streamers were used with pleasing effect. On the place cards was engraved the Hawaiian coat of arms. Mr. and Mrs. Arlett, who have been staying at Kula for the past year, sailed on the "Manoa" for Honolulu and their home in Oakland, Cal., on Thursday morning. Those invited to the dinner were—Mrs. H. M. Macfarlane, Miss Lady Macfarlane, Mrs. D. von Tempky, Mr. and Mrs. Robert von Tempky, Dr. Mobbs, Miss Daisy Mobbs, Miss Margaret Davenport, Miss Adele Cornwell and Mr. Frank Balls. After dinner a pleasant time at cards was enjoyed. On Wednesday evening a luau was given in the new social hall at the sanitarium by the patients, workmen and staff in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Arlett and also in honor of Dr. C. P. Durney's birthday. Dr. Durney is at present enjoying a well-earned holiday on the mainland and greetings were sent to him by wireless. At the luau Mr. and Mrs. Arlett were presented with a large Hawaiian calabash on which was a suitably inscribed silver shield, as a token of esteem and appreciation of all the people at the sanitarium for the cordial spirit with which Mr. and Mrs. Arlett have entered into all sanitarium activities. Rev. and Mrs. Villiers Home Rev. and Mrs. J. Charles Villiers were returning passengers by the Manoa which reached Maui on Wednesday morning. They spent a several months vacation on the mainland, during which they attended the Episcopal church conference at Detroit. They also saw their daughter, Miss Olive, safely installed in the Cincinnati conservatory of music, where she will remain for a year or more perfecting her musical education; and they visited their son Haydn who recently returned from England after long service as an officer in the British army. Both Mr. and Mrs. Villiers are looking well and say that they enjoyed their trip very much. Woman's Club Elects Officers Many new members were enrolled in the new Maui Woman's Club, at the special meeting held last Monday afternoon at the Kahului community house, and the ladies are all enthusiastic over the outlook for their work. The next meeting will be held on Monday, December 1 at which time business of unusual interest and importance will be taken up. Watkins-Woodworth The marriage of Miss Catherine K. Woodworth and Mr. Wilbur K. Watkins, which occurred in Honolulu last Saturday evening, was a pleasant surprise to the many Maui friends of the young couple. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Albert W. Palmer, pastor of the Central Union church in the presence of a few intimate friends. The official witnesses were Miss Gertrude A. Mason and Miss Hazel L. Dewing. The bride, who last year was one of the popular teachers in the Maui high school, has been living in Honolulu for some time, and her return to Maui will be a matter of congratulation to her friends here. Mr. Watkins is in charge as superintendent of the Maui Agricultural Company's big cement plant at Paia. Pertinent Paragraphs

The board of harbor commissioners has called for informal tenders for furnishing materials needed for reconstructing the Pakoo, Molokai wharf and repairs of the landing at Keanae. The postponed meeting of the industrial accident board for the county of Maui will be held next Tuesday, November 25, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the Wailuku district court room.—Adv The Wailuku district court took an adjournment Wednesday out of respect to the memory of the late L. M. Baldwin. Several hundred fine white leghorn pullets arrived by the Manoa this week consigned to W. F. Pogue. The birds are from a big poultry firm of Potuluma. Mr. Pogue has perhaps the largest egg ranch in the Islands at the present time. The automobile famine in the islands, which has been acute for several months on account of the stevedores' strike in San Francisco, has been partially relieved by a shipment of some 50 cars which arrived by the Manoa this week. Of these 12 were Fords for Harry Gesner—the first of these to arrive in about 3 months. Besides netting over $370 and clearing of the debt against the Lanakila Catholic church, the concert given last Saturday evening at Lahaina was a delightful artistic success. It was given under direction of K. J. Zedtwitz.

SPORTS

New Winter League Starts Next Sunday

The first game of the new winter baseball league will be played on the Wailuku grounds next Sunday afternoon, beginning promptly at 1:30 o'clock, between the Lahainas and Cockett's Wailuku Stars. The second game, between the Wacs and the Punene-Paia combination will start at 3 o'clock. The series was to have started last Sunday but was postponed on account of the Lahainas being unable to get ready in time. The West Maui aggregation now claims to be fixed for bear and some interest is being expressed as to what they will be able to do. A week from Sunday the Lahainas are scheduled to take on the up-country boys, while the two Wailuku teams will try for a decision. The schedule of games for the winter league has been worked out showing the play through to the end of January with a break at New Years time on account of the special games to be played with the Honolulu Wai-kiki team. BOWLERS ALREADY WORKING Work on the alleys at the Alexander House Gym has been started and is well under way. Manager Puck states that they will be ready for use in a few weeks more. In the meantime the recently organized Wailuku bowling team has been making pilgrimages about once a week to Punene for practice games on the Punene Athletic club alleys.

Basket Ball Juniors Start Series Tonight

The first two games of the recently organized junior basket ball league, will be played this evening at the Alexander House Gymnasium. The first will be between the Maui high school and the Alexander House Settlement teams. The second between the Wailuku Athletic club and St. Anthony's school teams. A good deal of interest has been aroused in the coming series which will be played each Friday night and end January 24. The games next Friday evening will be between the Trade Boys and Saints; and the Gyms and the Wacs. Through the withdrawal of the Chinese team which it was understood would be entered when the league was being formed, five teams instead of six will play the series. MAUI MEN PROPOSE TO HOLD RACES IN HILO HILO, Hawaii, Nov. 14—Although it will be impossible to hold the inter-island race meet hoped for here on January 1, there is no reason why there should not be a good one here on February 22. This is the opinion of Dr. J. H. Raymond of Maui, who promises his personal aid and the backing of the Maui Racing association. Doubt that the local track, stables and grandstands could be gotten into shape in time for New Years, is one reason why the Maui men have decided to hold a meet there at that time instead, and have put off the Hilo meet, as far as they are concerned, until Washington's birthday.
