

On The Other Islands

McBride Indicted—In addition to the charges of attempted bribery, Attorney C. H. McBride, of Honolulu, who was brought back from San Francisco by Police Officer Lake recently, will have to answer to a second indictment which was returned against him by the grand jury. In this latest charge McBride is accused of a statutory offense. Bonds in the sum of $5,000 were fixed by the court in each instance.

Japanese Protest At Cheap Labor—Japanese seamen are contemplating making a protest to their government over the fact that shipowners are employing Chinese seamen and firemen who are working for cheaper wages according to a cable from Tokio to the Nippu Jiji.

Hawaiian fish in large numbers are to be sent as a permanent exhibit to the Steinhart aquarium in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco. Dr. B. W. Evermann, director of the museum of the California Academy of Sciences who is in Honolulu attending the scientific congress is making arrangements for the supply.

Training For Regatta—Oarsmen of the Healani and Myrtle club crews began training last week in preparation for the annual fall regatta to be held next month. Hilo crews are expected in Honolulu at that time and the boys are determined to be in the best of shape for the events in the hope of securing revenge for the July 4 defeats at the hands of the Big Islands boys.

Tourist Bureau Busy—Harry Armitage, acting secretary of the Hawaii Tourist Bureau in his report for July states that 20,747 pieces of literature were distributed, 3700 newspapers mailed out, 435 signed letters were dispatched and 1723 persons called for information.

Sugar Legislation Unlikely—S. M. Ballou, a representative of the planters' association in these Islands, and who has just arrived from Washington, says it is unlikely there will be any sugar legislation at the next session of congress.

Great Northern Will Bring Teachers—The army transport Great Northern will leave San Francisco about August 23 on a special trip to the Hawaiian Islands, according to announcement by the transportation division of the army. As passengers the big ship will have army officers and their families, together with 197 school teachers who have been enjoying their vacation on the mainland.

Consul Favors Treaty—Consul General Yada of Japan, is in favor of some sort of agreement or treaty between the United States and Japan to eliminate the difficulties in connection with the problem of dual citizenship.

Would Regain Citizenship—Dr. F. Schurmann the Honolulu osteopath, whose citizenship papers were revoked by Judge Vaughan owing to alleged disloyal utterances made by Schurmann in his pamphlet entitled "The War Through German Eyes," intends to leave the islands shortly for Washington to lay his case before the U. S. Supreme court.

Charles N. Forbes, curator of botany of the Bishop museum, of Honolulu, died last Monday evening after a short illness from acute inflammation of the brain. He was 37 years of age, a native of Massachusetts, and had been connected with the Museum for 12 years. He is survived by a wife and 3 children.

Bishop Estate To Transfer Lands—Trustees of the Bishop Estate are preparing deeds for the exchange of lands whereby the Territory will acquire title to all lands now owned by the estate within the confines of Kilauea national park, with the exception of that occupied by the Volcano House and the site on the mauka side of the Volcano road. The Bishop people will obtain title to 650 acres of land in the Kau district in exchange.

Oahu Dairies Unclean—The board of health inspection of dairies on the island of Oahu shows that only 27 of a total of 76 establishments on the island are in a sanitary condition. The report shows that many of the dairies fail to carry out even the simplest rules of cleanliness.

Jay Gould To Ride—Jay Gould of New York, who is visiting in the Islands, will be one of the riders in a three-furlong race in the gymkana events in Honolulu in September. It is also expected that the easterner will play with the Kauai polo team during the inter-island matches here.

Rehabilitation Bill Backed—Members of the Hawaiian Civic Club have voiced confidence in the rehabilitation bill which is now awaiting action by congress. Senator J. H. Wise urged that Hawaiians send a monster petition to congress in support of the measure.

Two Die From Poison—Following a visit to his brother who was confined in the Japanese hospital at Wailuku, Makiyo Jikku went out and drank part of a bottle of poison and died on last Sunday night. The brother in the hospital died Tuesday night, also from the effect of drinking poison.

Hilo To Play Golf—The Hawaii board of supervisors has appropriated $2000 which is to be used in laying out a 9-hole golf course at Hoolulu park.

Julian Monsarrat Hurt—Julian Monsarrat, manager of the Kapapala ranch, Hawaii, had his collar bone broken and was otherwise badly hurt when the automobile in which he was driving on Monday of last week turned turtle. He was pinned beneath the car and had an extremely narrow escape from death.

Kuhio To Open In Hilo—The first gun in Delegate Kuhio's campaign for re-election will be fired on the island of Hawaii, it was announced by Senator J. H. Wise who has been chosen to manage the campaign. Kuhio intends to go to the Big Island about the middle of August for a vacation in the Kona district. Later he will open his campaign. Senator Wise also will make the trip to assist the delegate. Two weeks, it is expected, will be devoted to campaigning on Hawaii before the primary election. In addition to Hawaii, Kuhio will devote much of the early days of the campaign to Maui and Kauai and wind up on Oahu.

A. M. Brown M Je Treasures—The republican central committee has named A. M. Brown as treasurer of the territorial organization.

To Naturalize Teachers—Superintendent of public instruction MacCaughy has launched a campaign urging alien teachers to take the first steps in citizenship.

Revised Census Figures—Governor McCarthy has been informed by the census bureau that corrected figures give the population of the Territory as 255,912. Honolulu has 83,327, an increase of 59.7 per cent. Hilo has 10,431, an increase of 54.6 per cent. Hawaii has a population of 64,895.

Much Red Tape For Japanese—Consul General Yada of Japan has informed the department of public instruction that he was unable to accept the petition asking for the repeal of the dual citizenship law, which petition was submitted by 200 Japanese school children of West Hawaii. Yada said his stand was taken because the petition was not accompanied by certain other documents that are necesary before the matter can be considered. Superintendent MacCaughy will ask the consul for the necessary papers so that some action may be taken.

Price Of Sugar Falls—The wholesale price of sugar in Honolulu was cut 1 1/2 cents per pound and the retail price will be reduced 2 cents when the new supply is received by the stores, according to announcement made last week. The new wholesale price is 20 cents per pound and the retail figure reduced to 22 cents or 21 1/2 cents per pound by the bag.

Start On Theater—Pouring of concrete began last week on the construction of the new People's Theater, Fort, above Beretania street. The concrete boxes for the foundations of the building are already in place. The new theater has been projected for a number of years.

Hilo Schools Congested—Superintendent MacCaughy is in Hilo in connection with the controversy over the Piopio school site. He will also inspect the new buildings in East and West Hawaii. The supervising principal has reported to MacCaughy that there will be in Hilo this fall 500 children without school accommodations. East Hawaii will have 495 children more than the buildings will accommodate, Honolulu 480, and rural Oahu 640.

A great clock tower similar to the one on the San Francisco ferry building is to be erected in Honolulu according to plans announced by the harbor board. The tower will be of reinforced concrete and structural steel erected at the foot of Fort street the building to be completed within the next few months if the proposed plans are carried out.
