

PERSONAL MENTION

H. Sirenebeck returned to Wailuku Tuesday from Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Gesner went to Honolulu for the holidays.

J. M. Medeiros went to Honolulu Friday night, returning Tuesday.

Lewis T. Lyman has returned to Lahaina after a visit to Honolulu.

Harry Holt returned in the Claudine Tuesday from a trip to Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kunewa went to Hana on the Claudine Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Wadsworth are reported as suffering from influenza.

Miss Helen Tamayo of Paia Hospital is a holiday visitor in Honolulu.

Joe Meinecke made a trip to Honolulu last week, returning home Tuesday.

Miss Gladys Meinecke was a returning passenger on the Claudine Tuesday.

George Murray made the trip to Hawaii to attend the Mackenzie-Cook nuptials.

W. R. Filler spent Christmas on the Big Island with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Filler.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Williams spent Christmas in Honolulu, returning home Tuesday.

Miss Ellen Copp of Wailuku school returned Tuesday from a holiday vacation spent on Oahu.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gibb have a Christmas gift of a fine little son who arrived the day before Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Errett of Hana are soon to leave for the coast where they expect to make their home.

Deputy County Attorney Frank Crockett returned from a visit to Honolulu by the Claudine Tuesday morning.

R. A. Wadsworth continues his recovery at the hospital and expects to return to his home within the next few days.

Joe Federell, assistant chemist of Wailuku Sugar Company, spent Christmas in Honolulu returning home Tuesday morning.

J. M. Johnson is over from Honolulu acting as mill engineer of Wailuku Sugar Company during the illness of J. A. Gibb.

A. Albert Reis of the Pauwela cannery made a week end trip to Honolulu, returning on the Claudine Tuesday morning.

Major H. Gooding Field was in Maui on a visit with his brother W. H. Field this week, returning to Honolulu tonight.

Miss Bertha Sterling of Honolulu has been spending her vacation on Maui at Olinda and as a guest of the Wailuku Hotel.

Miss Gladys St. Charles of Paia school went to Hawaii last week to attend the wedding of Miss Cook and Mr. Mackenzie.

L. S. Amesbury returned to Wailuku from Hana Tuesday and left Wednesday for Honolulu where he will spend New Year's Day.

Superintendent Vaughan MacCaughy of the department of public instruction is reported to have been laid up with a severe cold.

J. A. Gibb of the Wailuku Sugar Company, is reported as recovering, and was able to go to Wailuku Mill for a short time on Wednesday.

A. L. Rockwell of the Standard Oil Company is over from Honolulu for a month in connection with the handling of trucks in the delivery system from the new plant at Kahului.

Lou Morris, who spent a considerable time on Maui representing the Pacific Commercial Advertiser is now a Sydney, Australia, business man. He is operating a large store devoted exclusively to women's wear and employs a force of 125 sales people.

THE GRAND HOTEL

A special dinner will be served at the above Hotel on New Year's Eve, December 31st from 6 to 8 o'clock. $2.50 per cover. Phone 80 for table reservations not later than 5 p. m., December 31st. Dancing.—Adv.

Good home for respectable woman. See Matrimonial advertisement in classified column.—Adv.

Pertinent Paragraphs

Lahaina Lot Sale.—Sale of Wailuku beach and house lots will be held at Lahaina a week from next Monday.

Paia Mill's Grind.—Start of the grind at Paia mill is expected to be made early next week, everything being in practical readiness to begin.

Dies in Honolulu.—Moses Kaholol, of Kahului, died in Honolulu on Monday, aged about 60 years. Funeral services were held in Honolulu.

Post Office Closes Tomorrow.—With no incoming or outgoing inter-island mail, the Post Office officials and employees of Wailuku will take a holiday tomorrow, New Year's Day.

Wireless For Mauna Kea.—The steamer Mauna Kea on the Honolulu-Lahaina-Hilo run is shortly to be equipped with wireless telegraphic outfit, is an announcement from Honolulu.

Wailuku Starts Grind.—Wheels at the Wailuku mill turned Wednesday and there was a preliminary grind yesterday. The season campaign will have its real start Monday, it is expected.

Woman's Guild Meeting.—At the home of Mrs. Ben Williams, Paunene, the Woman's Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd, will hold its regular meeting next Tuesday afternoon, January 4, at 2:30 o'clock.

New Teacher Named.—To fill one of the vacancies at Paia School, Miss Dyer, who has been teaching at Hanamaulu, Kauai, has been transferred to Maui. The transfer was made at her request as she has friends on the island.

County is Sued.—Action to recover from the county the pro rata for the unexpired term after prohibition went into effect on his license to sell liquor has been brought in the circuit court by J. M. Medeiros through Eugene Murphy, his attorney.

Lepers Show Gratitude.—Inmates of the Kalaupapa settlement presented Captain Moses Naupala of the steamer Bee with a pair of binoculars as a Christmas gift and a token of their appreciation of the interest he has long felt in their welfare.

Japanese Suicides.—G. Yoshikuni, a Japanese who lived in the Sam Sing camp, Paunene, committed suicide the day before Christmas by slashing his abdomen. It was not until Christmas Day that the body was found. No note of explanation was left by the suicide.

East Maui Late.—Grinding of cane is expected to start at Kaeleku Plantation, Hana, on January 17, and Kipahulu mill will start about the same time. Manager Fassoth of the latter company is on the coast and is expected home before the grind at his mill is started.

New Phone Directory.—With all the changes that have resulted from the new system of operation of the telephone company detailed and all changes of numbers shown, a new telephone directory came off Maui New Press this week, will be delivered to the company this afternoon and it is expected it will go to the subscribers the first of next week.

Guests Enjoy Tree.—In the Wailuku Hotel dining room there was a lighted Christmas tree heavily laden with gifts, Christmas night. Following the serving of dinner, R. C. Bowman officiated as Santa Claus, sans the accepted regalia of office, assisted by Messrs. Lewis and Fortune. For the permanent guests the gifts generally had some humorous significance but there were remembrances of other sorts as well. Help of the hotel usually found their gifts enclosed in envelopes. Dinner guests from outside were not neglected, for the tree bore for all.

CAREY ADDS TIRES.

Dan T. Carey announces that he has laid in and will carry in stock a full line of Goodrich Tires.—Adv.

Mother's Ologies.—Daughter—"Yes, I've graduated, but now I must inform myself in psychology, philology, bibliology."

Practical Mother.—"Stop! I have arranged for you a thorough course in roasting, baking, stitching, darning, patching, and general domestic husbandry."—Texas Christian Advocate (Dallas).

SOCIETY

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.
Announcement of the engagement of Miss Juliet A. Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rice, who has sometimes visited on Maui was made last week. She is to be married to Holbrook M. Goodale.

Miss Rice is attending Vassar College this year, having graduated from Miss Ransom's school in Piedmont, Calif. via, last June, where she had been student for five years.

He fiance is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Goodale of Wailuku Plantation and in June will graduate from Annapolis, where he has made a splendid record, being a "Three Striper" or "Cadet Officer."

No definite date has been set for the wedding as yet.

MACKENZIE COOK

J. S. B. Mackenzie manager of Puunene Store at Kahului, wedded Miss Lorene Cook at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Fred Irwin in Oia, Hawaii, the day before Christmas. Miss Gladys St. Charles was bridesmaid and Geo. Murray best man. Mrs. Irwin, at whose home the ceremony was performed, is a sister of Mr. Mackenzie.

Miss Cook was at one time a teacher at Puunene and later at Paia. She returned to the Mainland for a time and again came to Hawaii, this time to become a bride. She has many friends here and will be welcomed by them.

Mr. Mackenzie was a resident of the Big Island before coming to Maui. Hilo Tribune reported the wedding and said the happy couple were enjoying a honeymoon on the mountain-side.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Announcement of the engagement of Charles C. Larsen to marry Miss Beatrice K. Peters, came in holiday week.

Mr. Larsen for the past ten years or so has been connected with Kahului Railroad Company and is now assistant to Mr. McNicol, foreman of the planing mill of the company.

Miss Peters is a charming teacher at Camp 1 school. Date of the nuptials has not been given.

In The Churches

Wailuku Union Church
W. C. Crider, Minister.
Sunday School at 10 a. m.
Evening worship at 7:30. Sermon to boys and girls with a junior choir furnishing the music.

Makawao Union Church
A. Craig Bowdish, Minister.
10:00 Sunday School.
11:00 Morning service with communion.

Church of the Good Shepherd
Holy Communion, at 8 a. m.
Church school at 10 a. m.
Morning Prayer and sermon at 11.
The people of the community and strangers are invited. Rector, Rev. J. Charles Villiers.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE.
will be held in the Town Hall on High street at 11 o'clock Sunday mornings Sunday School for children up to the age of twenty at 10:15 Sunday mornings. Testimony meetings at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening.
The public is cordially invited.

WANT ADS

FOR SALE.—Sixth Avenue, Kahului, Honolulu; 17 lots containing 85,896 square feet. Address George Soon, Kipahulu, Maui. Dec. 10 '20.

WANTED.—Agents, solicitors, attention!—We want live wire men—all nationalities to handle easy selling proposition on the island of Maui. Agents making $500.00 to $1000.00 a month. Quick action will get you a job that is worth while. Address International Investment Co., 294 Jas. Campbell Building, Honolulu, T. H.

MATRIMONIAL
WANTED.—To make the acquaintance of respectable woman who can speak English, by a middle aged white man. Object marriage. Write G. S. c/o Maui News, Wailuku.

Happy New Year

May the course of your life flow smoothly along pleasant channels and joy and prosperity attend you during 1921.

Maui Dry Goods & Grocery Co.

A Bond That Binds

It is impossible to keep on the heels of your employees, watching and checking them, for then you might just as well do the work yourself. You must trust somebody, therefore to bond your employees is a duty you owe them and yourself.

WE WILL BOND YOU

Henry Waterhouse Trust Co., Ltd.

Fort & Merchant Sts. Phone 5701. Honolulu.

JAMES M. CAMERON
SANITARY PLUMBER

Estimates Furnished. Old Post Office Building, Wailuku.

1920 FORD TOURING CAR

FIRST CLASS CONDITION

$700.00

See H. S. BUSH

AGENT SCHUMAN CARRIAGE CO.

PHONE 53-A — WAILUKU, MAUI

J. C. TONG
MERCHANT TAILOR

CIVILIAN SUITS PRESSED AND REPAIRED.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.

TWO EXPERIENCED TAILORS

KAHULUI, MAUI

Between Sun Kwong On Store and Hatori Fish Market.

That New Leaf

Which you plan to turn over can be found in the 1921 diaries of which we have a full supply. New Year's Greeting Cards In Variety Calendars Place your subscriptions for 1921 magazines now.

MAUI BOOK STORE
Main Street, Wailuku.

May Your Diary For the Year Be a
Log of Happiness and a
Chronicle of Good Cheer

Maui Drug Co., Ltd.
"THE HOME OF SERVICE."
Market Street : Wailuku, Maui
Phone 232.

TONIGHT

TONIGHT

New Year's Costume Dance

At the Territorial Building, Kahului

Carnival of Fun, Sports, Horse Racing

At Fair Grounds, Kahului

TOMORROW

TOMORROW