Judiciary Honors Pale Compared With Those Won By Case as Private Citizen

Former Secretary of Chamber of Commerce and Fair and Racing Association is Told at Dinner Of the Esteem In Which He Is Held By His Fellow Islanders.

It was Dan Case, the man and public spirited citizen, rather than D. H. Case, Judge of the Circuit Court for the Second Judicial Circuit, who was guest of honor at the dinner tendered him last night by the Maui Chamber of Commerce and the Maui County Fair and Racing Association at the Grand Hotel. The honor and dignity of his new office was a mere incident in the affair. What Dan Case has done as Secretary of the Maui Chamber of Commerce, Secretary of the Maui County Fair and Racing Association, as a member of both bodies and as one of the community leaders for the past 20 years were what counted.

About 150 of his friends, both men and women, gathered at table with Judge Case. The affair was informal and it was reminiscent of the old Spanish War song "Where you know everybody and they all know you." An excellent dinner was served the guests and the program was started early and carried out while the service of the banquet went on.

J. J. Walsh, vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce, was toastmaster and at the table with the toastmaster was the guest of honor and Mrs. Case, the presidents of the two organizations, A. W. Collins and F. F. Baldwin and their wives, other officers of the two organizations and their wives and some of the speakers.

Speaks for Chamber
 Toastmaster Walsh started things going by announcing the opening of the trial of the People of Maui vs Dan Case. He reversed the usual order of court procedure by calling on the "defense" to open and William F. Crockett opened the argument. Mr. Crockett went back something more than 20 years ago to a day when he and Dan Case took a tramp up the mountain and the latter talked of community affairs and of the advisability of starting a community organization from which an improvement association that grew into the Chamber of Commerce resulted. He told something of the prominent part in community affairs since taken by the guest of honor. A good name to be valued above gold was the burden of his talk.

Next E. R. Bevins, as a government official, was called upon to prosecute. His prosecution was weak for he admitted at the outset he was handicapped by the fact that the defense went back into "offenses," if there were any, which had been committed so long ago that they were barred by the statute of limitations even if it were a heinous thing to take a poor old "tramp" up the mountain and leave him there, referring to the tramp Mr. Crockett had mentioned in his talk.

Would Keep Good Worker
 Senator Harold W. Rice told of the valuable work that Mr. Case had done for the Maui County Fair and Racing Association both as its secretary and in charge of the fruits display at the various county fairs and said he would still need the "rest and recreation" attendant upon agriculture and horticulture and should be forced to take such rest and recreation as head of the fruits display department at the coming fair.

Charming Vocal Numbers
 Before the guests entered the dining hall the Hawaiian orchestra had started playing and during the dinner it rendered several other numbers. Other musical numbers were rendered by Miss Eva Rodriguez, who favored with a piano solo and gracefully responded to an enthusiastic encore. Mrs. Louise Jones, who rendered a delightful vocal solo and favored with an encore and W. H. "Pop" Hutton, who gave two fine songs, one of which was quite new to Maui. Dick P. Harris entertained with a monologue, a song entitled "I Wonder Why" and some good stories.

J. Garcia, when called upon, combined humor with tribute to his friend and business acquaintance, Dan Case, and some thrusts at the Judge and some of the well known Mauiites present. He summed up the "Case" in prose and in rhyme.

Letter From Chamber
 The toastmaster called on the new secretary of the two organizations, Joseph H. Gray, who told of the trials and difficulties that beset an official who has an "illustrious predecessor." He also read the letter of acceptance from the Chamber of Commerce of the resignation as secretary by Judge Case which had been engrossed by

Fire Marshal Visits Maui and Changes In Many Theaters Come

Several Maui picture houses will be closed and important improvements will be made in others owing to the visit from Honolulu this week of Fire Marshal E. P. Fogarty. In Central and East Maui only one house was given a perfectly clean "bill of health" as complying with all the fire laws and regulations of the Territory. That theater is the Wailuku Hippodrome. The alterations demanded of the other theaters are in most instances connected with the cinema booths. In all of the Maui Amusement Company theaters such changes will be made speedily and the company has been allowed 30 days to put in absolutely fireproof booths, but some of the theaters were not so fortunate and were ordered closed for picture showing among them, it is said, the Nippon in Wailuku and houses at Pauwela and lower Paia.

The trouble found by the fire marshal in most cases was that the cinema booths were wooden structures, tin lined and such conditions are contrary to the fire regulations. In many of the plantation camps there are houses that are similarly affected. There it is common to bring a picture showing machine up to the building on a truck or automobile, stick the lens through a hole in the wall and put on the show. That is prohibited so there will be an absence of amusements for many of the camps.

The booth in the Kahului theater is of concrete and fireproof but the entrance to it is from below, which was unsatisfactory for the safety of the operator. Certain other minor changes are to be made in that theater, however. There is a probability of a complete new theater being built at Puunene.

George Freeland was over from Lahaina yesterday and said that Fogarty was satisfied with his Pioneer theater at Lahaina and the Puukohi theater. Two others of his booths will have to have new booths built within 30 days. The booths in them were built in accordance with the regulations of the time when the theaters were built.

MAKE HAPPY PROCLAMATION

TO THE MAUI PUBLIC AND OUR VISITORS:
 For weeks past we have been working out plans for entertainment and amusement during the coming four days, July 1, 2, 3, and 4, the occasion being the assembling on Maui of the Fourth Annual District Court Convention, A. O. F. The finished product of our labors we call "Make Happy."
 Our days of preparation are over. Tomorrow morning the gates of the Fair Grounds at Kahului will swing open so that you may see for yourselves the results of our efforts. "Make Happy" will then be no longer ours but yours. We submit it to you for your verdict.
 We are offering you, among other things, a racing card of 21 events, six baseball games between Maui's strongest teams, exhibitions of Japanese wrestling by the best wrestlers from all the islands, three out-of-door evening entertainments and the best "joy zone", we believe, ever brought to Maui.
 Let the spirit of carnival and fun reign. Help yourselves to all there is.
 MAKE HAPPY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Warning Issued To Railroad Men Executives Tell Them Strike Would Be Against Government Since All Contentions Were Decided by Board.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
 CHICAGO, June 29.—The executives of six shop crafts prepared an answer to the railway labor board's summons. The board has also summoned 23 railroads on complaint against farming out contracts for repairs.

Railroad executives telegraphed the railroad employees department that the American Federation of Labor's threatened strikers' strike would be a strike against the government and not against the railroads, since all contentions have been decided by the railway board.

DETROIT, June 30.—Although maintenance of way men voted to strike, President Grubb of that body announced he would not call a strike until after the railway labor board's hearing, beginning tomorrow.

CHICAGO, June 29.—Strike orders signed by six crafts presidents of the railroad shopmen's organization were sent out authorizing 400,000 men to strike at 10 o'clock on the morning of July 1. The order includes "all railroad and Pullman shops in the United States."

The railway labor board cited the heads of six crafts unions and officers of four other railway unions, taking strike action, to appear tomorrow at an inquiry into the "unjustified interruption of traffic."
 All maintenance of way men, clerks, stationary men, firemen, others, signal men and shopmen have formally notified the railway labor board the strike has been called.

NEW YORK, June 29.—Officials are planning a motor truck service for the delivery of milk and vegetables if the strike ties up railroads. The railroad managers appear unconcerned.

PINE FREIGHT LOWERED

 SAN FRANCISCO, June 30.—The Luckenbach Company announces a through rate on Hawaiian canned pineapples from San Francisco via the Canal to North Atlantic ports of $15 a ton.

This is the rate the growers and canners asked sometime since but did not get.

 TOKIO, June 29.—The privy council passed the naval treaty without amendments and has sent it to the emperor for final ratification.

Hope of Agreement On Coal Strike Is Made Much Brighter

WASHINGTON, June 29.—With acceptances to Harding's invitation received from all parties in, the administration began preparations for Saturday's conference on the coal strike. It was intimated that employees and miners expected to arrange their own conference after Harding brings them together. Harding will retire immediately after the meeting leaving Secretaries Davis and Hoover to represent the government. It was said it is not expected the conference will end the strike but may provide a basis for negotiations.

ELKINS, West Virginia, June 29.—A Western Maryland train carrying 195 strikers was wrecked at Lime Rock when the rear-most car left the track. One person was killed and $1 injured, two millmen and seven miners seriously injured. The car rolled 50 feet down an embankment.

DENVER, June 29.—Official reports say two mine tipples, an apparatus by which loaded cars are emptied by tipping, were burned, one mine flooded, and two railroad bridges burned at Boulder, in the Huerfano County coal fields last night.

MARION, Illinois, June 29.—Circuit Judge Hartwell announced a special grand jury will begin an investigation of the Herrin massacre on July 10.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Secretary of Labor Davis announced the coal operators had accepted President Harding's invitation to the White House for a conference with leaders of the United Mine Workers.

HERRIN, June 29.—The first arrest in connection with the disorders of Williamson county was made when a unioner was jailed and charged with threatening maintenance men at the Madison Coal Company's mine.

PITTSBURG, June 29.—A coal mine enginehouse near Apinwall was wrecked by the explosion of a time bomb.

Activities of Federal Prohibition Enforcement Officer "Ned" Crabbe have not ceased with the filing of the suit against him. This week, up to yesterday afternoon, he had made one arrest and seized about 20 gallons of stuff alleged to be "oke." In the latter case the owner is thought to have become alarmed for he was not in the vicinity of the goods to be arrested.

I. Higashiguchi was the arrest made through the activity of Crabbe. He was arraigned before Magistrate Moan on Wednesday and admitted to $600 bail. He was already on bail in connection with other charges of prohibition law violation. It is said the man was convicted on two counts in Honolulu before coming here and a housekeeper or cook were arrested previously by county officials.

Five of the cases of recent arrests for prohibition violation have been set for July 6 and two for July 7. No agreement has yet been reached by the County Attorney and United States Attorney on the suggestion of the former that the Waikapu raid cases be tried in the Federal court in Honolulu.

No private dwelling can be raided without the preliminary of a search warrant, is the opinion of E. J. Botts, U. S. Commissioner for the Territory, now on Maui trying a civil suit.

He and U. S. Attorney Huber have not been in accord on a number of views relative to prohibition enforcement and the decisions thus far have substantiated the opinions given by Botts on most occasions. He is also of the opinion that an automobile cannot be searched without the preliminary of securing a warrant.

Mr. Botts says that recently in Honolulu out of a dozen cases only one conviction was secured.
 Time for the filing of answers in the suit brought against Crabbe and county officers by Nobriga through Eugene Murphy has not yet expired but it is expected that issue will be joined within a week.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Irish Insurgent Forces are Driven From Stronghold

I. W. W. and Soviet Aid Reported Given Rebels; Provisional Government Postpones Meeting to Organize.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
 DUBLIN, June 30.—The insurgents remaining in the Four Courts building, numbering 130 surrendered at 4 o'clock this afternoon. It is reported that Rory O'Connor, the insurgent leader is among the prisoners. The building is in flames, following an explosion earlier in the day.

The city is taking on the appearance of a great fortress. Free states and insurgents are both seizing and fortifying buildings.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
 LONDON, June 30.—Dispatches from Dublin say that the insurgents in the ruins of the Four Courts Building are escaping through a tunnel they had dug for such an emergency. A tremendous explosion in the Four Courts is believed to have been occasioned by the blowing up of a mine left by the fleeing insurgents. Provisional government troops are attacking other insurgent strongholds.

In County Donegal communists are reported as actively supporting the insurgents acting under instructions of a member of the I. W. W. from America, who is receiving funds from Moscow.

The remaining insurgents in the Four Courts Building raised a white flag late this afternoon.

DUBLIN, June 30.—A Republican news poster says that DeValera is fighting with the Dublin insurgents. The meeting of the new provisional government scheduled for Saturday has been postponed to July 7.

Last night and this morning the beautiful Four Courts Building was slowly crumbling under the bombardment. The government's deliberate methods permitted insurgent sympathizers to take positions around the building from which they sniped systematically.

O'Connor's forces were unable to leave the building but his Dublin Brigade, numbered 4000, seized nearby buildings where they could do the maximum amount of damage.

DUBLIN, June 29.—Insurgents at noon were still holding out in the four court houses and had seized several more buildings. Insurgent activities are reported from other sections of Ireland. Public sentiment is virtually unanimously supporting the provisional government action. DeValera issued a statement praising the insurgents as "the best and bravest in our nation."

LONDON, June 29.—Dispatches from Dublin say the fighting in the streets is increasing in intensity and that irregulars are being reinforced. The total dead is 19. Stores and banks are closing and newspapers are being suspended.

Associated Press reports of yesterday tell of the provisional government taking forceful action against the insurgents. Government troops invaded four court buildings where the insurgents were entrenched and opened a hot attack with about 700 men when the demand to surrender was ignored. The insurgents under Rory O'Connor are well entrenched, armed, and well provisioned and are believed to number several hundred. Fowler memorial hall was also attacked in the fighting which started at four in the morning and was still progressing late in the afternoon. The insurgents were forced to evacuate the hall and retreated to a nearby hotel where they entrenched.

The provisional government in a manifesto denounced the outrages, declaring the boycott against Belfast illegal. A determination to maintain order was announced and a call issued to all citizens to cooperate.
