Babies and Old Folk Swell New York's Long List Of Fatalities

NEW YORK, Aug. 12—(Associated Press Mail)—Babies who were too young to realize danger, and old men who couldn't move quickly enough to avoid, it, swelled the total of accidental deaths to 3,483 in New York City last year, health department reports reveal. This represents a decrease of 400 from the accidental deaths of 1919. Only 987 of the victims were females, while 2,496 were males. Even among infants the death rate for males was by far the higher, probably because boys often come to grief through inquisitiveness and a natural tendency to seek adventures. "The most important cause of accidental death from a numerical standpoint is the automobile," the report continues. "Last year 849 persons were killed in this city as the result of automobile accidents. This is equivalent to a ratio of almost 15 per 100,000 of population and represents a net increase of one per 100 since 1919. "We must not lose sight, however, of the fact that the number of fatal street accidents has not kept pace with the increase in the number of vehicles using the streets. If the same ratio between accidents and vehicles obtained today as in previous years, the fatalities would be many times greater, so that in reality a big saving in life has been effected through regulations of traffic and the closing of streets for play during certain hours of the day." Almost 12 persons per 100,000 numbering 654 died in falls, says the report; 163 from scaffolds and building and 138 from fire-escapes and windows. "Certainly this was a needless loss of life," says the health department. "Almost one-third of these deaths occurred among children under five years of age. In other words, among little children who were allowed to go out on fire escapes or to lean out of windows. "Surely this indicates gross negligence and calls for active propaganda to educate parents not to permit little tots to engage in such hazardous forms of play." MARKS STILL DROP (ASSOCIATED PRESS). NEW YORK, Aug. 18—German marks are continuing in their downward plunge. Millions of marks are available at prices about eight cents a hundred with no buyers. FILE FOR DELEGATE (ASSOCIATED PRESS). HONOLULU, Aug. 18—John Wise and Bill Jarrett have filed their nomination papers for delegate to congress. Jarrett will begin his campaign next week on Kauai. Attorney General Harry Irwin has written an opinion to the effect that candidates may file at any time up to and including September 7, contradicting the previously expressed opinion of Territorial Secretary R. C. Brown that September 6, is last day to file.

BIRTHDAY PARTY In celebration of the seventh birthday anniversary of Duncan Grant McLaren his mother, Mrs. John McLaren of Paia, arranged for him and his little friends a delightful birthday party on Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in games and for luncheon the little folk were seated at two long tables. At the places were tiny baskets of forget-me-nots and pink roses and there was the all important birthday cake with its seven candles, the cake duly cut and served with ice cream, macaroons, lady fingers and candy. Master McLaren's guests were Agnes and Harriet Clark; Bruce, Faith and Ruth Cameron; Desmond and Kathleen Fitzgerald; Roland Irma and Einar Germer; Edith and Gordon Chalmers; Cara and Elliott Sawyer; Harrison, Billie and Frankie Foss; Clare and Colin Murdoch; Esther, Louise Lindsay; June Roach; Vivian and Mona Manary; Charlotte Hohlweg; Ann and Jane McNeill and Jean Phillips. The ladies present were Mesdames W. A. Clark, F. B. Cameron, J. C. Fitzgerald, Charles Savage, C. W. Gerner, John Chalmers, J. H. Foss, D. B. Murdoch, D. C. Lindsay, F. B. Manary, W. L. Roach, Frank Hohlweg, William Phillips, and Misses Stewart and Murdoch. FOR MADAME MIURA Mrs. Harry A. Baldwin will act as hostess tomorrow afternoon at a reception that is to be tendered to Madame Miura, the Japanese prima donna from 3 to 5 o'clock at the Grand Hotel. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to meet Madame Miura. SUPPER AND BRIDGE Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Wilson entertained delightfully with a buffet supper and bridge on Wednesday night for Messrs. and Mesdames William H. Engle, G. H. Lightner, D. T. Balch, H. A. Hansen, A. S. Taylor, Charles E. Morris, Mrs. Eugene Murphy and C. D. Lufkin. Mrs. Lightner won first ladies' prize and Mrs. Murphy consolation and Mr. Balch first men's prize and Dr. Lightner consolation. BEACH BIRTHDAY PARTY In celebration of the seventeenth birthday of Lawrence do Rego he was given a birthday party at Kihel beach at the Carl Rose beach home last night. The evening was spent with swims and dances and games about a huge bonfire. Greatly enjoyed refreshments were served and the jolly affair broke up about 11 o'clock. FOR MRS. L. M. BALDWIN Members of the Woman's Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd gave a social tea, at the rectory of the Church, on Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. L. M. Baldwin, who is soon to leave Wailuku to take up residence in Southern California, while her sons, Arthur and Ralph, attend college. Five of her children are now in California. The members of the guild were present in goodly number, but few being absent, though there had been but a very short time in which to call them together. The occasion was a very pleasant one, the regret, notwithstanding, of the guild that in the removal of Mrs. Baldwin it loses one of its vice-presidents, one of its long-time members, and a most earnest worker for its interests. Rev. J. C. Villiers, the rector, in a few words, spoke of the esteem in which Mrs. Baldwin is held by all connected with the Church of the Good Shepherd, and referred in particular to her services in providing, Sunday by Sunday, year in and year out, flowers for the altar of the church; of her many other quiet ways of service, and said that she would be greatly missed both in the guild, and in the congregation. He truly voiced the feelings of guild and congregation when he said that the hope of all was that ere long Mrs. Baldwin would be in Wailuku again. MISS VILLIERS WEDDING By a typographical error in our last issue the date of the wedding of Miss Villiers, in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Honolulu, was given as August 25th, whereas it will be Tuesday, August 29th. The ceremony will take place in the evening at 8:30 and will be performed by the bride's father, Rev. J. C. Villiers. Miss Villiers will be married from the home of her brother, Ralph N. Villiers, of the First National Bank, whose home is on Pacific Heights. Following the wedding there will be a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Cooke, 1646 Keaumoko Street. DANCE TOMORROW NIGHT David and Richard Penhallow have issued invitations for an informal dance to be held at the Penhallow home at the head of Wells street tomorrow night. About 120 invitations have been issued. INVITATIONS ISSUE Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pershall Rosecrans have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Rita Iolani Rosecrans to Roswell Ernest Howe, the ceremony to occur at Makawao Union Church at 8 o'clock on the evening of Saturday September 2. Government To Chart Unknown Sea Depths

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2—(Associated Press Mail)—Two former mine sweepers, turning from the pursuits of war to those of peace and science, are being remodeled in Delaware river shipyards, and are nearly ready to weigh anchor to start on an indefinitely long cruise in the Pacific ocean for the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey. They are steamers Pioneer and Discoverer, formerly the Auk and the Osprey, which saw service in the North Sea. Now they are to be equipped with the finest scientific instruments for sounding and surveying. Some time during the summer they are to pass through the Panama Canal and proceed up the Pacific coast to Alaska to sound and survey uncharted territory. Contrary to general belief, it was said, there still remains much uncharted territory in that region and many places show channels incorrectly marked and sounded. Also some places once correctly surveyed and sounded, have been altered by the constant action of the waves. They have been enlisted to man each vessel, and with the exception of the two commanding officers the crews have been selected. The Coast and Geodetic Survey has taken over also a third mine sweeper, the Flamingo, from the Navy Department, now lying at Portsmouth, N. H., enlisting a crew. Following alterations, she probably will join her sister ships in Alaskan waters.

Bar Association Is For Plan Of Taft

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11—The American Bar Association which met here in convention on Wednesday, today passed a resolution endorsing the recommendation of Supreme Justice Howard Taft, that plans referring to legal procedure be worked out through a commission to be composed of two judges each from the Federal Supreme Court, Federal Circuit Court, and the Federal District Court, which the association declares, are the three leading American practitioners. Vice-President Coolidge, addressing the convention, declared "The time has come to supplement the laws of appeal, with an appeal to the spirit of the people." Taft said "The failures of justice are due to the withholding of power from the judges, who should be given power commensurate with their responsibility." Yesterday the committee on American ideals, recommended the establishment of a bureau to promote American ideals and offset the growing tide of anti-Americanism which is declared to be arousing prejudice against the courts and the constitution of the United States. Ex-President Taft told the association that the action by congress to speed up the administration of justice

Obituary

MRS. W. W. DISMUKES Mrs. Ida Eleanor Dismukes, who had been in ill health for some time past died on Wednesday night at her home on Vineyard street, Wailuku. The body was taken to Honolulu last night on the Mauna Loa for embalming and will be taken to her former home, Vancouver, Washington, on the next available transportation, accompanied by her husband and brother, funeral services and interment to be held there. Mrs. Dismukes was born at Vancouver, Washington, 45 years ago. She came to the Islands in April 1920 and to Maui the same year. She is survived by Mr. Dismukes and a brother here and by her father, mother and sister in Vancouver. PETER M'CONCHIE Word has reached Peter M'Conchie an employe of the Haiku Fruit and Packing Company of the death of his father, Peter M'Conchie in Scotland. The following obituary appeared in a Scottish paper and was clipped and sent to the son here: The death has occurred, in his 87th year of Mr. Peter M'Conchie, J. P., F. E. I. S., retired parish schoolmaster, West Kilbride. Mr. M'Conchie, who was a native of Kirkeudbright, was head master of Hurford Academy from 1857 to 1860, and in the latter year he was appointed parish school master in West Kilbride. In 1872 he took over the headmastership of West Kilbride Public School, which position he held till 1896, when he retired on account of ill health. Mr. M'Conchie was a typical example of the old dominie. An enthusiastic classical scholar he occupied much of his spare time in writing translations from Greek and Latin authors and also from the French and German, and in 1904 he published a volume of translations under the title of "Cameos from Foreign Literature." For 61 years Mr. M'Conchie was clerk to the heritors of West Kilbride and for 25 years he acted as secretary and treasurer of the West Kilbride Conservative Association. He was also a member of the local School Board for 22 years.

Political Kettle In Arabia Bubbling Up

JERUSALEM, July 12—(Associated Press Mail)—The Transjordanian country has been invaded by Ibn Saoud, Sultan of Nejd, and leader of the powerful Wahabi tribe. Saoud has declared hostilities against Abdullah Emir of Transjordan, and at the head of 19,000 well-armed Arabs he is within four-hours march of Amman, the capital of Transjordan, which is about 50 miles east of Jerusalem. This invasion came without any warning the latter part of May, and it has added materially to the turbulence of Anglo-French relations in this part of the world. It has brought to light what is alleged to be a secret treaty concluded some three months ago between Saoud and representatives of the French Republic. Emir Abdullah realized at once the seriousness of this move by the Wahabis, whose home territory is in the central part of the Arabian peninsula, and did two things; sent a delegation to Saoud to negotiate peace, and informed the Palestine government of the true state of affairs. Mr. Phibby, British representative in Amman, and General Ghalib Pacha, composing the delegation to the Wahabis, were seized by Saoud's followers and released only after very strong representations to the Wahabis from Sir Wyndham Deedes, the British acting high commissioner in Palestine. Saoud is still encamped within a short distance of Amman. The alleged secret treaty with France is said to have been negotiated by a Wahabi named Mohammed Pacha el Osseimi. It involves military and political relations and is aimed against Great Britain and her proteges, King Hussein of Hedjaz, King Feisal of Mesopotamia and Emir Abdullah of Transjordan. Its clauses have been published here. They set forth, among other things, that the French government recognizes the sovereignty of Ibn Saoud; engages to supply him with money, arms and ammunition and to support him if he is attacked by the governments of Hedjaz, Mesopotamia or Transjordan. In return Saoud engages to counteract any tendency toward the formation of an Arab confederation in the Arabian peninsula under the guidance of Great Britain, and to help with troops in case French soldiers in Syria are attacked by troops or irregular bands from Mesopotamia or Transjordan. It will be recalled that Ibn Saoud last year declared war against Hussein, father of Emir Abdullah, and probably would have captured Mecca had it not been for the timely intervention of Great Britain.
