

LOCAL NEWS.

SERENADE TO CARL SCHURZ.—Last evening, a large number of our German citizens, accompanied by Wagner's Band, serenaded Mr. Schurz at his quarters, the Germania Hotel.

After another air by the band, and a song by the German Glee Club, they repaired to Willards' Hotel, and were addressed by the Hon. C. M. Clay.

PRESENTATION.—At a meeting of Company C, Washington Light Infantry, last evening, a committee of the Zouave Corps, through Lieutenant Walter Banner, presented the corps with a handsomely engraved set of resolutions, neatly framed. Captain Stevens, in a neat address, received the gift on the part of the Company. The resolutions are intended as a compliment to Company C, for the many acts of kindness rendered the Zouave Corps.

The concert and flag presentation of the Washington Light Guard, which was to have taken place to night, has been postponed until the 21st instant.

THE FISHERIES.—The fishermen all along the river are busy making preparations for the opening of the season. The general impression is that the season will be an unusually successful one.

Joe Jefferson, the celebrated comedian, will be in Washington next week, to fulfil an engagement at the Theatre.

ACCIDENT.—About six o'clock last evening, a small boy, named Ludin Beale, was crossing M street, near Twelfth, he was frightened by a horse which was passing; and in running to get out of the way, fell and broke his arm between the wrist and elbow.

DANGEROUS SPORT.—Last evening, two horsemen, dressed in the uniform of United States soldiers, amused themselves by riding at a regular racing pace down Seventh street. Their horsemanship was certainly very creditable; but, for endangering the lives of persons crossing the streets, they deserve to be censured.

We notice that the workmen, under the direction of the Public Gardener, are very busy just now, in trimming the trees along Pennsylvania avenue, and in and about the many handsome public reservations.

THE MOUNT VERNON.—A private dispatch received in Alexandria Tuesday, states that the Mount Vernon arrived there on that day, and was to have left for this city yesterday (Wednesday). She reports seeing the Mount Vernon swinging at anchor inside the bar at five P. M. on Tuesday, with lights ablaze. Her cargo is not thought to be much damaged.

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL.—The canal is now open to its entire length, and business has again commenced in earnest, eight boat loads of coal having arrived at Alexandria on Tuesday.

Lammond, on Seventh street, has just received an additional supply of fancy goods, which he is selling at prices to suit the times. Drop in.

THE CLARENDON RESTAURANT.—This fine establishment, which has recently been started at the corner of Sixth street and Pennsylvania avenue, under the Clarendon Hotel, is rapidly growing into favor with our Washington connoisseurs. The fact of the matter is, that Hobbs undertakes so well the manner in which such an establishment should be conducted, and then makes use of that knowledge. Give him a call.

CRIMINAL COURT.—Yesterday, the case of Thomas Ferguson, charged with stealing two pairs of gaiters, valued at $8, was taken up. The prisoner was found guilty of the charge, and sentenced to eighteen months imprisonment in the penitentiary.

George Evans (colored) was then placed on trial, charged with stealing a coat, valued at $6, from Wall & Stephens. He was found guilty, and sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary for one year.

Joseph Thomas (colored) was then tried for stealing a coat, valued at $15, from John Waters. He was found guilty, and sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary for eighteen months.

Patrick Sullivan was then placed on trial on two separate indictments, the first charging him with an assault and battery on Thomas O'Sullivan, and the second with an assault and battery on Michael O'Sullivan. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty on both indictments.

The jury in the Wigwam case came into court about 12 o'clock, and stated that they were unable to agree upon a verdict, and asked to be discharged; they also stated that one of their number (Mr. Harrison) had been sick during the entire trial. Mr. H. came forward and reported himself as well yesterday morning; whereupon Judge Crawford ordered the jury back to their room.

CENTRAL GARDBOUSE.—Before Justice Donn.—John Pierce, stoning a house; ruled for trial.

John Edwards, colored, drunk and disorderly; fine and costs, $2.15.

Isabella Penny, same offence; fine and costs, $4.15.

Georgetown Correspondence.

GEORGETOWN, D. C., March 13, 1861. Mr. John Wilson, whose extreme illness I mentioned in my letter of yesterday, died to-day at about noon. He has long been known in our midst, and was much respected for his sociable qualities and generally affable disposition. Mr. Ignatius Clarke, another one of our venerable citizens, is now lying quite low. The duties of the office of hay-wheeler, an office which he has held for years, he has been obliged of late to perform by deputy.

Captain Stuart's company of Mounted Guards paraded our streets this afternoon. They proceeded out to Drovers' Rest, and there underwent a drilling for some time. Company A, Anderson Rifles, Captain Rodier, were out last night on the streets, parading and drilling.

It would be well for the powers that be to have an eye to the selections which are being made for operators on the work on the line of the Aqueduct. I have learned that some of the selections made by Capt. Meigs have been persons who are avowed secessionists, men who boast of their defiance of the principles of the Republican party. We to that party which nurtured in its bosom secret foes and traitorous friends. They will prove the canker-worm to its strength. Let the appointees be each subjected to a sifting examination as to their opinions and expressions in regard to the great matters of policy at issue, and let no wooden horse be allowed to enter the Republican camp, and convert it into a flaming Troy. I am quite sure that such men, however qualified in other respects, if known to entertain sentiments thus hostile to the welfare of our country, and of seditious tendency against its good order, would never have received Capt. Meigs's approval by reappointment.

Our citizens are awaiting with much interest to hear of the District appointments which are to be made. Every day's delay arms the political foes of the Republican party with means and weapons to carry on their war against the Republicans, while, to the same extent, it disarms and weakens their friends, and keeps them in a state of weakness and suspense. Let not the ranks be chilled into icy numbness by the cold, chilly, timid, and craven cry of "wait! delay! imprudent!" Such fears as these disarray and disorganize all strong masses, and scatter them to the winds. No party can be faithfully served by treacherous friends, nor by smooth-faced, smiling faces. Let them be swept out, and give place to reliable and trusty men.

AN HONORED REGIMENT.—The First Regiment of United States Artillery can boast the following brave and patriotic officers:

Major Robert Anderson, who has so justly acquired the admiration and favor of all Union-gallant citizens of the United States, for his gallant retention of Fort Sumter, notwithstanding the menaces of South Carolina.

Lieut. A. J. Slemmer, the hero of Fort Pickens, at Pensacola, in Florida, who, next to Major Anderson, has set a brilliant example of loyalty and chivalry to all United States officers.

Capt. Bennett H. Hill, who, in Texas, first dared to disobey the unreasonable order of Gen. Twiggs, and, refusing to surrender the Government property under his control to his country's enemies, avowed his purpose to defend it, and called in reinforcements of the United States troops to enable him to do so, and also to recapture other United States property already seized by the Texas authorities.

Capt. J. B. Ricketts, commanding Fort Brown, in Texas, who, imitating the example of Capt. Hill, also refused to surrender the post under his charge, likewise belongs to the same First Regiment United States Artillery.

STEREOTYPING A DAILY NEWSPAPER.—The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Press writes: "The publishers of the Tribune have at last perfected the experiments they have been making for upwards of a year past, to stereotype their daily forms, after the manner of the London Times. The Tribune entire is now stereotyped every morning, and on two days in the week double sets of plates are made. By this process the paper appears as on new type, and an hour and a half is gained each morning in time—a consideration of the first importance for morning papers. The Tribune has accomplished this important result after the expenditure of much time and money, and will doubtless reap its reward."

ANOTHER CRIMINAL ACCIDENT.—A woman in a dry-goods store in Buffalo, N. Y., had seated herself on one of the revolving stools now in use in front of the counters in such establishments, and on rising got her blouse so completely and firmly entangled about and under revolving top as to anchor her for the time being to the spot. The only method of relieving the lady was by uncrewing the top of the revolving seat; this being accomplished by the gallant storekeeper, the fastened fair one was set at liberty.

THE LOUISVILLE JOURNAL OF SOUTH CAROLINA.—South Carolina has been trying how "not to do it" long enough. Don't she know how to do it? We will tell her: South Carolina Sumter wants, But of bloodshed has a horror; Let her give Floyd ten per cent.—The regus will steal it for her.

The Rochester papers announce the death, at Hornellsville, N. Y., on the 4th inst., of Calvin Granger, formerly of Rochester. He was one of the earliest pioneers in western New York, and was captain of the canal boat, Young Lion of the West, which conveyed De Witt Clinton and suite from Buffalo to New York, with their "bottle of water" to connect the waters of the upper lakes with the Atlantic, at the great convention on the opening of the Erie Canal in 1824.

A HARD HIT.—The San Joaquin Republican, in describing the antics of a crazy Chinaman, who "hopped on one leg, whirled, shouted, and screamed," adds, "We did not suppose before that a Chinaman had brains enough to be so crazy."

A catamount was killed a few days ago, near Wallpack, N. J., measuring six feet four inches in extreme length. For many nights before he made the neighboring woods resound with his cries, and was so ferocious that he had commenced an attack on the party that killed him.

[COMMUNICATED.] WASHINGTON, March 12, 1861. Mr. Editor: Among the many candidates for the position of postmaster at Baltimore, Maryland, there is not one more worthy of it than Dr. William J. Nicholls, of that city.

No firmer friend has the principles of the Republican party, and no member of that party labored more earnestly, and with a better will, to promote its interests, than Dr. N. Like a faithful sentinel upon the watch-tower, he has stood by it during the battle of the late campaign, ever ready to guard and defend it from its enemies, and to welcome with an open heart and hand its friends. Always ready was he to contribute to its wants and purposes; and now that brilliant success has crowned that party, such men as Dr. Nicholls should not be forgotten.

As a private citizen, no one in the city of Baltimore enjoys more fully the confidence of his fellow men. Intelligent, energetic, kind, and amiable, he is just the gentleman suited to such a position.

I sincerely hope, with a large number of his Republican friends, that full justice will be done him, and that he will be rewarded by his party for his noble and successful efforts to serve it. mar 14—It BALTIMORE.

BY TELEGRAPH.

The New Hampshire Election. Concord, March 12.—The election to-day called out about the usual vote. Nathaniel S. Berry was supported by the Republican party for Governor, and George Stark by the Opposition. Three members of Congress were also voted for.

The vote of Concord was: Berry, 1,362; Stark, 865. Manchester, Berry, 1,509; Stark, 856. Nashua, Berry, 908; Stark, 856.

The result in 53 towns voted up for Berry, 12,065; for Stark, 10,200; scattering, 42. The result in Portsmouth is, Berry, 720; Stark, 727.

For Congress, Marston, Rep., 712; Marcy, Dem., 741. Democratic gain over last year, 159.

11:30 P. M.—102 towns foot up, Berry, 21,889; Stark, 18,012.

One hundred and seven Republican Representatives are elected to the Legislature, in the towns heard from, and 26 Democrats. The vote already received indicates a majority for Berry of 3,500 to 4,000. Rollins, Republican, for Congress, in the Second District, will receive from 800 to 1,000 majority. All the Republican candidates for Congress are elected, four of the five Councillors, and eight or nine of the twelve Senators.

Rhode Island Politics. Providence, March 12.—The Democrats and Constitutional Union Conventions, in the Eastern District, to-day nominated William P. Sheffield, of Newport, for Congress. The Constitutional Union Convention of the Western District nominated George A. Brown, of Gloucester, whom the Democrats had previously nominated.

The Southern Confederacy. Montgomery, March 13.—The tariff act has been made public, and goes into operation the 1st of May. As compared with the tariff of the United States, most of the articles paying 30 per cent. are reduced to 25 per cent.; the larger portion of those paying 24 and 19 per cent. are reduced to 15. There is also a large 10 per cent. schedule, and a very small free list.

The Alabama Convention ratified the permanent Constitution by a vote of 87 to 5. Gen. Jamison, formerly a leading co-operationist, took a bold position in favor of ratification.

Hon. Jeremiah Clemens has been appointed Major General of the Alabama army.

Election in Petersburg. Petersburg, March 13.—This city voted to-day on the question to instruct our delegate in the Convention to vote for the secession ordinance. The polls remain open two days. The result on closing to-night was 51 majority for the instruction. The secessionists expect to largely increase the majority to-morrow, and are parading the streets with music and banners. At eight to-night, Messrs. Pryor, Stringfellow, and others, are to speak in the public square.

Virginia Convention. Richmond, March 13.—In the Convention to-day, Mr. Tyler spoke ably against the Peace Convention propositions. Without concluding, the Convention adjourned.

From Texas. New Orleans, March 12.—Texas advices received here state that the troops formerly stationed at Camp Ringgold had arrived at Fort Brown, on their way to the coast.

The steamer Daniel Webster was outside the harbor of Brazos, waiting to transport the Federal troops to New York.

It is reported that 1,500 Texans were stationed at Rio Grande city, and reinforcements were still arriving.

The collector of customs for the district of Brazos had resigned his office under the United States, and then resumed the discharge of the same duties under the State authority.

Col. Ford was at Brownsville, Gen. McLeod was in command at Brazos, and Gen. Nichols at Point Isabel.

Later from California. Fort Kearny, March 12.—The express brings San Francisco dates to the 27th February. The general news is uninteresting.

The Legislature met on the 26th, after a recess of one week. In a caucus of the friends of General Denver, to nominate him to the United States Senate, they could muster only forty-four members. It requires fifty-eight to elect.

Naval Intelligence. New York, March 13.—A steam frigate is below, coming up. It is supposed to be the Powhatan.

Norfolk, March 13.—The war steamer Pocahontas, from Vera Cruz, arrived in the Roads last evening. The Columbia is hourly expected.

Prospectus of the National Republican.

Believing that the time has arrived when the great Republican party of the United States ought to be fairly represented in the daily press of the National Metropolis, we have embarked in the enterprise of supplying the citizens of the District of Columbia with a daily publication, under the title of the "NATIONAL REPUBLICAN."

In its political department, this journal will advocate and defend the principles of the Republican party, and endeavor to disabuse the public mind of groundless prejudices which have been engendered against it, by the false accusations of its enemies. Having the utmost confidence that the administration of Mr. Lincoln will be such as to merit our approbation, we expect to yield it a cordial, but not a servile support.

In the great issue that is likely to be made with his administration, by the enemies of the Republican party, the people of Washington and the District of Columbia have more at stake than the people of any other portion of our common country. We believe that to support Mr. Lincoln's administration will be synonymous with maintaining the integrity of the Federal Union, against the machinations of those who would rend it asunder. No one can doubt upon which side of this issue the people of Washington will be found, when they come to realize that it is fairly forced upon them.

We feel confident, therefore, that in yielding to the administration of Mr. Lincoln a cordial support, we shall have the sympathy of an immense majority of the people of this District and vicinity.

It is not our design, however, to make the National Republican a mere political paper. We intend, that as a medium of general and local news, it shall not be inferior to any other journal published in this city. We shall pay particular attention to questions of local policy, and advocate such reforms as we may deem essential to the prosperity of the city, and to the advancement of the moral and material welfare of its inhabitants.

We deem it unnecessary, however, to multiply promises, as the paper will immediately make its appearance, and will then speak for itself. It will be published every morning, and delivered to city subscribers at six cents per week. Mail subscribers, $3.50 a year, payable in advance.

The publication office is at the corner of Indiana avenue and Second street. LEWIS CLEPHANE & CO.

Of all the ills that afflict men and women, few are so agonizing as Dyspepsia. It is a sort of combination of many diseases. What is still more unfortunate is, that the treatment of the malady is not generally understood. The medicines usually taken do no sort of good whatever. Thanks to science and Dr. GREENEY, a specific has now been obtained. GREENEY'S BROTHERS BITTERS take straight hold of the disease, and at once begin a cure. Thousands of well-attested cases of cures of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and Fever and Ague, even of the most desperate kind, are in the possession of the proprietors. For sale by druggists and grocers everywhere.
