

LOCAL NEWS.

St. Joseph's Male Orphan Asylum.—Work has already been resumed on this institution, situated on I street, near St. Anthony Church.

GONE SOUTH.—One of our "city fathers," who lately resigned his clerkship in one of the Departments here, has lately received a similar appointment at Montgomery, Alabama, and has started to take possession of his place.

THE PAVING CONTRACTS FOR 1861.—The bids for the work of paving the streets of the city under the orders of the Mayor and City Councils, to be done during the current year, have all been received, and are now in course of examination preparatory to the awards being made.

POTOMAC LIGHT INFANTRY.—We understand that this fine Georgetown company, Captain McKenna, intend having a parade to-night, and at nine o'clock will drill in front of the President's House.

A DENIAL.—We are requested by Mr. B. C. Crook to deny the statement published, that he intended to resign the position of mail agent on the Orange and Alexandria railroad.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.—The President has made the following nominations for Justices of the Peace for this District, viz: William A. King, Grafton Powell, Daniel Rowland, Nicholas Callan, J. N. Fearson, Terrence Drury, Alfred Ray, Thaddeus Sturgis, John H. Hollingshead, Samuel Drury, Henry Haw, Edgar H. Bates, and Thomas Carberry.

DESERTERS.—Three of the soldiers from Fort Washington deserted on Tuesday, and came up to Alexandria. They were arrested and taken back to the Fort.

THE FEAST OF THE PASSOVER.—The observance by our Hebrew citizens of the feast of the Passover commenced on Sunday evening, and is now being strictly observed. Since the advent of the Messiah it has always been regarded during Easter week, and the design of it was to commemorate the delivery of the Israelites from Egypt; to seal the new covenant with the believers among them; to prefigure our redemption by Christ, and replenish our spiritual fellowship with Him and His people.

Larocque, the Indian songstress, sang "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," "the Indian Lament," and "Faded Flowers," in most beautiful style, and with Red Feather, her husband, the "Funeral Ode"—a most affecting piece.

Mr. Beeson announced that another meeting would take place at the same Hall on Friday evening; and the meeting then adjourned, after a collection had been taken up for the benefit of Red Feather and his wife and children.

PRESENTATION OF A WATCH.—Quite an interesting affair came off last evening at the Columbian Armory, the occasion being the presentation of a handsome gold watch to Sergeant C. H. Pierce, of the Sappers and Miners, by the officers and members of Companies A and B, National Guard Battalion.

ATTEMPTED REVOLT IN THE PENITENTIARY.—A revolt was nearly consummated on Sunday morning last at the U. S. Penitentiary. The plan of operation was rather a poor one. On marching from the dining hall, some thirty or forty prisoners had so arranged themselves in line that in going to the chapel, and passing the iron door leading to the large warehouse, they were to rush through into the hall and shut the door, which would have fastened all the officers inside. They then intended to attack the front iron door, knock the turnkey down, seize the revolvers from a case in the guard room, and then escape out in front.

THE FISH TRADE.—Quite large quantities of shad have been received at the wharf during the past two or three days, but not much more than half enough to supply the city demand, the demand usually being very great at the opening of the season.

POLICE MATTERS.—Before Justice Clark—Officer Ginity, yesterday afternoon, arrested a young man named William Stevens, near the corner of Tenth street and the avenue, for being disorderly. He appeared to be under the influence of liquor, and for a considerable time created much excitement among the wagoners who frequent that thoroughfare, and it is alleged that he threw a brick at one of them, a colored man, cutting his head badly.

George Hartslorn, hackman, was arrested for placing his hack in a position other than that assigned him by the officer at the depot, and also with leaving his reins. He was fined $1.94.

Before Justice Donn.—Miss Ann Cavanaugh, a young lady of about 17 years of age, was brought before Justice Donn yesterday afternoon, on the charge of abusing her father and mother in the most shameful manner. When in the office, she conducted herself in an outrageous manner, by using the most profane language towards her parents and others. The magistrate committed her to the workhouse for ninety days, where it is hoped she will attend to the improvement of her manners.

Officer Carter arrested Wm. J. Donnell for being drunk and disorderly. He was committed to the workhouse for sixty days.

CENTRAL GUARDHOUSE.—Before Justice Thompson.—John Pickett and George Robinson were arrested at the fire by Officers Fanning and Eckloff, for profanity and disorderly conduct, and fined $5.94 each.

THE INDIAN MEETING.—In pursuance of a public notice, a meeting was held at Odd Fellows' Hall last evening, "to consider the best means to preserve our frontier Indians and settlers from the horrors of savage warfare."

THE PUTNAM REPLY.—This fine company, commanded by Captain George Thibault, numbering forty-eight men, and accompanied by martial music, were out on parade last evening, and presented a fine appearance.

THE ZOUAVES.—This company held another meeting at their army, Thorn's Hall, last night, which was very largely attended. In the course of the evening they were visited by Col. Ellsworth, late of the Chicago Zouaves, by whom they were reviewed. We understand that Col. Ellsworth has promised to drill them very frequently, and we may soon expect to find in this company one of the crack corps of the city.

FIRE.—About eight o'clock last evening, the Perseverance Engine-house was discovered on fire, and an alarm was given, which soon brought the Franklin and Columbia companies to the ground, who, with the aid of the Perseverance, soon succeeded in extinguishing it. The destruction of the floor of the second story was the principal damage. It was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary.

A NEW SUNDAY PAPER. THE undersigned will commence the publication of a new weekly paper on Sunday, the 31st of March, in the city of Washington, D. C., to be called the "SUNDAY MORNING CHRONICLE." The Chronicle will be entirely independent of party politics, although strongly devoted to the Union of these States. Our object will be to furnish the reading public such a newspaper as, while filling up the vacuum created by the absence of every medium of news on the first day of the week, will contain nothing inconsistent with the Sabbath, and nothing calculated to wound the sensibilities of those who entertain a just prejudice against the reckless and indecent character of some of the Sunday papers of the great cities. Washington, with a reading population of more than sixty thousand, and at many seasons of the year crowded with strangers from different parts of the country, is probably one of the most interesting fields for the commencement of such an enterprise as ours. It is at this moment the market for the sale of large numbers of periodicals and serials printed elsewhere, and we entertain an undoubting hope that if the pages of the Chronicle are well filled with instructive, agreeable, and elevating reading, as well as with the latest general and local intelligence, so important at all times, and so much sought after now; its editorial columns presided over with dignity and ability, and devoted to the discussion of every question—domestic, social, political, scientific, and literary—it will be welcomed with a hearty reception, and achieve a permanent success. To this end we have made arrangements with the best journalists to contribute to our columns. Communications have already been received from a number of distinguished writers, North and South, whose names will be duly announced in the first number of the Chronicle. We have also engaged the best talent for the collection of news up to 12 o'clock on Saturday night, including the action of the various Departments, the current events of the city and District, telegraphic dispatches from all parts of the Union, &c. The Chronicle will be served to subscribers at one dollar and fifty cents per annum, payable in advance. JAMES B. SHERIDAN & CO. Office of the "Sunday Morning Chronicle" Washington Buildings, northeast corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Seventh street. mar 27—3H

BY TELEGRAPH. Later from California. Fort Kearny, March 27.—The pony express, from California on the 13th, has arrived here. The steamer Golden Gate, from San Francisco for Panama, took nearly $1,000,000. No progress had been made in electing a U. S. Senator. The steamer sloop-of-war Wyoming arrived at Honolulu on the 10th of February, in search of the Levant. The Honolulu Advertiser believed, from Captain Hunt's intention, and the severe gales of the 3d, 15th, and 20th, in which the whaling fleet suffered, that the Levant had met with a serious disaster, that had proved fatal to all on board. From Texas. New Orleans, March 27.—The Legislature of Texas has passed a resolution approving the act of the Convention in deposing Gov. Houston. A bill was passed to raise a regiment of mounted riflemen, 1,000 in number, for the defence of the frontier. The Virginia Convention. Richmond, March 27.—In Committee of the Whole, to-day, Mr. Turner, of Jackson County, offered a substitute for the majority report of the Committee on Federal Relations, making non-equivalent demands on the North, in relation to the subject of slavery, which was rejected, by a vote of yeas 37, nays 89. Mr. Montague moved to amend the first resolution of the report, which declares that the States, when the Federal Constitution was formed, were independent sovereignties, by inserting "and still are" after the word "were." A recess then occurred. On reassembling, the debate was resumed on Mr. Montague's amendment—Mr. Wise in favor, and Mr. McFarland against it. Mr. Seawell offered to amend the amendment by making the resolution declare that the States, when the Federal Constitution was formed, were independent sovereignties, and still are sovereign. Mr. Montague accepted the amendment; pending which, the Committee rose, and Mr. Carlile offered a resolution to terminate the debate in Committee of the Whole on next Monday. This was violently opposed by several members, and rejected by four majority. The Convention then adjourned. Union Meeting at Frederick. Frederick, March 26.—A very large and enthusiastic Union meeting was held here to-day. Every district was largely represented. Strong Union resolutions were adopted, and it was recommended to hold a State convention on the 2d of May, to form a Union party for the State. Each county and Baltimore city were requested to send delegates. Hon. Andrew Johnson, Senator of Tennessee, and Hon. W. C. Rives, of Va., were met by a large delegation at the cars, and headed by the American Band, escorted to the meeting. Senator Johnson made a powerful Union speech, which went home to the hearts of every one present. Serenade to Hon. H. W. Hoffman. Cumberland, March 26.—Hon. H. W. Hoffman, Sergeant-at-arms of the late Republican House of Representatives, was serenaded to-night by a large number of his friends. He responded in a strong Union speech, expressing his gratification at the unanimity with which they had rallied against secession, and hoped that it was but an earnest of the support they meant to accord the Republican President in his efforts to preserve the Union, maintain the Constitution, and enforce the laws. He was applauded when he declared his determination to uphold the arm of the Administration so long as it should stand by the Constitution and the Union. New York Markets. New York, March 27.—Cotton steady—sales of 900 bales. Flour firm—sales of 11,500 barrels; Ohio, $5.60 @ $5.70. Wheat steady—sales of 68,000 bushels; Western, $1.40 @ $1.53; do. red, $1.35. Corn steady—sales of 64,000 bushels; mixed, 65 @ 69 1/2 cents. Whisky firm at 17 1/2 @ 17 3/4 cents. Sugar steady; muscovado, 41 @ 6 cents. Coffee firm—sales of upwards of 1,000 bags at 12 1/2 cents. Spirits of turpentine firm—sales of 2,000 barrels at 34 @ 36 cents. Rosin firm—sales of 6,000 barrels at $1.20 @ $1.25. Rice firm—sales of 1,400 tierces. Financial. New York, March 27.—Stocks firmer but dull. Chicago and Rock Island, 5 1/4; Illinois Central, 38 1/2; do. bonds, 102; Michigan Southern, 38 1/2; New York Central, 98 1/2; Coupon 6's, 93.
