RECRUITING IN BOSTON FOR THE NAVY AND ARMY.

From the Boston Traveller, April 12.
On Monday, an office for the shipping of seamen for the navy was opened on Hanover street by Mr. Moses Ingalls, a well-known shipping agent, who is acting under the directions of Capt. Robert Handy, of the navy. Notice having been pretty extensively given, some hundreds of persons appeared on that day for the purpose of enlisting, and up to this time the work of enlistment is going on as rapidly as possible.

When the office closed yesterday, 93 men had been enlisted, most of whom were first-class seamen, and by to-morrow night the number will be 130 or 140. Among the applicants have been a very large number of young men from the country, who have been out of work, and are willing to take up with anything that offers.

From the crowds around the doors, those within the office from time to time let in the healthiest looking men, who are one by one sent to the room of Commodore Handy, and examined by him. If found suitable, they are at once enlisted, furnished with clothing, and sent to Charlestown.

Every time a door opens, dozens beg to be let in, and so great is the pressure that policemen are employed to keep them back. Large numbers of those from the country are entirely destitute of money, and some have already returned home, having no means to pay for board, without having been able to get inside the office.

The enlistment will probably continue several weeks, as it is understood that 2,000 men, in all, are wanted immediately for the navy; and it will take that time to get the required number, although offices are also open in other cities. So particular are the recruiting officers, that a man who had served in the British navy as an able seaman was rejected because he had lost a finger on the left hand.

The recruiting office for the army in Portland street is doing about the usual amount of business. The enlistments since July last have averaged about seventy per month, and thus far, this month, the proportion is about the same, although the number of applicants has been somewhat larger, as many who have been rejected at the naval shipping office afterwards apply here.

Only a small proportion of the applicants are found suitable. This winter, in consequence of the scarcity of work, an unusually large proportion of Americans have been enlisted—many of them shoemakers—and they have generally been an excellent class of men. While in New York there are many German applicants, and few Irish, the reverse is the case here; but many of that nation are rejected because they do not come up to the required standard—five feet four and a half inches.

Were the Government to reduce the standard two inches, the number of enlistments could be doubled; and the fact that this is not done indicates that there is no desire to greatly increase the army.

Heretofore, recruits have been allowed to enter such arm of the service as they chose, but two days ago a circular was received requiring that enlistments must be unconditional. The men who are enlisted are kept in the office till a squad of ten or twelve is made up, when they are sent to Governor's Island, New York, and from thence to the several stations.

FOREIGN ITEMS.

The French line-of-battle ships are completely overhauled and refitted every two years.

The expense of the command of a first-class ship, in the British navy, a personal tax on the commander, is said to be about £700 per annum, which leaves but a pittance of their pay for themselves. Attempts are making to remedy this injustice.

American mineral teeth are said to be the best used in Europe.

The English iron-masters are now furnishing iron to the French Government, on contract, at a much lower price than those of France have been able to do.

The city of Paris has recently built sixteen thousand houses, and rents are expected to fall.

The animals belonging to Astley's Amphitheatre have been sold by auction. A pair of highly-trained camels, used in the ring, brought $500.

Baron Hochbein, of Prussia, has gone up the Nile, to explore its sources, with scientific persons and thirty attendants. He also proposes to visit the Soudan, where no European travellers have been.

Since 1853, the Austrians have increased their commercial marine to 327 ships, but, in the same period, have lost, out of this number, 225 by shipwrecks. Poor sailors, these Austrians.

The French police department publishes, weekly, a list of articles which have been lost and come into its possession.

Telegraphs begin to be looked upon as the ruin of military strategy, and with their use Konig, a German authority, says it is impossible to exercise real generalship. Under our own observation, we know that a telegraphic dispatch prevented the Star of the West from reinforcing Fort Sumter.

The salt formed in the boilers of a large steamer would, if not prevented by blowing off or surface condensation, amount to twenty tons per day. We observe, in the last number of a late English scientific journal, several notices in reference to this subject, and particularly of the plans of Mr. Pirsson, Mr. Sewell, and Mr. Carpenter, of this city. Pirsson's apparatus, however, wears out in two years.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC GOSSIP.

An extraordinary drama has been produced at the Marlborough Theatre, London, entitled "Woman's Wrongs—the Disputed Marriage; or, the Trial for Truth." Act 1st—The Secret Marriage, the Deceived Wife. Act 2d—The Double Marriage, the Seducer Triumphant. Act 3d—The Trial, the Bigamist Defeated, Woman's Rights Proclaimed. It is founded on the Yelverton case.

Wagner's "Tannhauser" was produced at the Paris opera, on the 14th ult., after six months preparation, twenty rehearsals, and a lawsuit. The mise en scene and mountings are said to be admirable, but the music is more remarkable for noise than melody, and is not calculated to be popular with the Parisians.

Mrs. Lucy Ann McMahon, who a few years ago acquired much notice in the theatrical world by her attempts to convince the public of her histrionic abilities, recovered $200 with interest last week, from John Bates, manager of the National Theatre, Cincinnati, for breach of contract.

The Annual Festival of the Royal General Theatrical Fund took place in London, March 25th. Quite "a war of words" occurred between Buckstone, manager of the Haymarket, and E. T. Smith, the energetic lessee of Drury Lane. The latter presided at the dinner. Buckstone, in an after-dinner speech, was disposed to ridicule Smith's numerous speculations, and the latter afterwards, in a very severe speech, retorted, saying, among other "ugly things," that he (Smith) should have taken him (Buckstone) for some old washer-woman, had he not known that he (Buckstone) held the position he did at the Haymarket Theatre.

Charles Mathew's new piece, "The Savannah," has been very successful at Drury Lane, London. It is said to hit Bourcault very hard; it abounds in the most bitter satire at the expense of the great dramatist, who is reported to have been terribly nettled at it.

The season at her Majesty's Theatre closed on the 16th of March.

Miss Adah Isaacs Menken is playing at the Albany (N. Y.) Theatre.

Duprez & Green's Minstrels gave one performance at the Lockport (N. Y.) Theatre on the 8th.

Miss Kimberly is playing at Lockport, N. Y.

Miss Fanny Herrington closed a two weeks engagement in Albany, N. Y., on the 6th inst. She had a benefit on the 5th, appearing in the "Invisible Prince" and "Jenny Lind," on which occasion she received a token of esteem from one of the boxes in the shape of an elegant bouquet, attached to which was a bracelet.

Dion Bourcault is about concluding at the Adelphi, London, prior to making a tour in the provinces. His plays are being presented all over England with success.

Mr. Charles Selby, the London author and actor, is about to open an English theatre at Boulogne, for a short season.

It has been recently asserted, and vehemently denied, that Jenny Lind was going to resume her career as prima donna.

Raoul Pungo, a pianist and composer, only eight years old, is giving concerts in Paris.

Sam Sharpley's minstrels were at New Bedford, Mass., last week.

George Christy's Minstrels performed in Cincinnati last week.

The French Zouaves gave their last performance at the Academy of Music, New Orleans, on the 31st ult.

Two equestrian establishments are preparing for a start at Cincinnati—one to be under the management of John Robinson, and the other by James Robinson, bare-back rider.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keen have been engaged to perform at the Standard Theatre, London.

Mr. Brookhouse Bowler, the tenor singer, has joined the Ethiopian Minstrel Troupe of Messrs. Rumsey & Newcomb.

A company, called the "Pea Nut Opera Troupe," are playing in Sonora, California.

never been born, that I do; and now that I am born, I wish myself dead again.

Man. Why, Bet, what's the matter with you now? What are you grumbling about?
Woman. Why, don't I tell you I am as miserable as a rat?
Man. Miserable, indeed! Why, what on earth would you have? You was drunk on Monday, and you was drunk again on Wednesday, and I'm blessed if you haven't had pretty near enough to-day. If that ain't enough for you, I don't know what is. I suppose you wants to be a downright hangel here on earth.

JUST LOOK AT THIS! WHO WANTS A PLEASANT HOME?

THE undersigned offers for sale or rent his place, known as Grove Cottage, in the rural village of Falls Church, Fairfax county, Virginia. It is on the Alexandria and Leesburg turnpike, and within a few minutes' walk of the depot on the A. L. & H. railroad, about five miles from Georgetown, ten from Washington, and eight from Alexandria.

The place contains some ten acres of choice land, its good cultivation, with meadows, pasture, plow land, and garden, in good proportions. Also, about sixty bearing peach trees; a variety of young apple, apricot, pear, plum, cherry, and quince trees; also, gooseberries, raspberries, strawberries, currants, and asparagus, besides any amount of ornamental shrubbery and flowers.

Grove Cottage stands in a beautiful grove of oak and chestnut, with some evergreens, and is convenient in every respect, and in good condition; has a first-rate cellar, and a well of good water by the door; also, a fine spring in the pasture. Convenient to the house is a large carriage barn, stable, yard, shed, and all necessary out-buildings.

Possession can be given immediately.

DR. SCHENCK, the Lung Doctor.—The PROPRIETOR of SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, the inventor of SCHENCK'S RESPIROMETER, the only instrument that can to a certainty detect the slightest murmur of the respiratory organs.

This is of great importance to DR. SCHENCK, to know the exact condition of the lungs, whether it is Tuberculosis, Pulmonary, Bronchial, Pleuritic, or Dyspeptic Consumption, and whether it is both lungs or only one that are diseased.

It requires constant and long practice to become familiar with every sound or rattling of a diseased bronchial tube. Patients come to DR. SCHENCK to get examined that have been examined by their family physician, who told them that their lungs were almost gone; when, by a close examination with the Respirometer, it is often found that it is an affection of the bronchial tube, and by getting a healthy action of the liver and tone to the stomach, the sufferer is soon restored to health. Sometimes medicine that will stop a cough is certain death to the patient. It locks up the liver, stops the circulation of the blood; hemorrhage follows, and, in fact, stopping the action of the very organs that caused the cough.

Liver complaints and Dyspepsia are the causes of two-thirds of the cases of Consumption. Persons are at this time complaining with dull pain in the side, bowels constipated, and with some times too loose, tongue coated, pain in the shoulder blade, feeling sometimes very restless, and at other times drowsy; everything that is eaten lies heavy on the stomach; acidity, belching up wind. Hundreds are complaining at this time in this way. Let them take a heavy cold, and before they get rid of it, then another, then is the time to know what to do, then is the time to go to DR. SCHENCK and get your lungs examined, then is the time to know the primary cause of a cough, to stop that cough sudden, and then the lungs, liver, and stomach, are all put into an inactive state, and before the patient is aware of his situation, the lungs are a mass of sores, and death must soon follow.

SCHENCK'S "PULMONIC SYRUP" is an expectorant which does not contain any opium, nor anything calculated to check a cough suddenly, but, when assisted by the SEAWEED TONIC, to improve the tone of the stomach, and restore a healthy action of the digestive organs, with the MANDRAKE PILLS, to bring about a healthy action of the liver. When these are taken together, or as indicated, they are sure to bring the constitution back to a healthy state when affected by any of the above diseases. DR. SCHENCK believes that too much cannot be said in favor of the curative powers of the MANDRAKE PILLS. Their action is peculiar, but certain, in all cases of torpid bowels or diseased liver, which is too frequently the primary cause of a broken-down condition of the whole system, and often passes under the name of CONSUMPTION, when that disease does not exist at all, or if it does, is readily cured by a proper attention to restoring a healthy action of the stomach, liver, and other functions, whose duty it is to eliminate and carry off the unhealthy deposits which clog and render sluggish the wheels of the animal organism.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup will prolong life sometimes several months, by keeping the bronchial tubes free from the putrid matter which impedes their functions, when the lungs are too far gone to cure. There is no medicine that can cure Consumption when both lungs are much diseased, and Dr. Schenck would rather every one would know their true condition before taking his medicine.

He treats no diseases but those of the Lungs, Liver, and Stomach, and makes no charges of any kind, or examines, lungs in the ordinary way, or as physicians generally do; but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer he charges three dollars, and wishes every one, rich or poor, that has a Cough, Pain in the Side or Shoulder-blade, troubled with Costiveness or Diarrhoea, Sallow Complexion, Loss of Appetite, Low Spirits, Restlessness at Night, or any other disease leading to Consumption, to call on him as above and get his advice.

Often a twenty-five cent box of SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS will remove the cause of this great error of the country—Consumption. All of Dr. Schenck's medicines are prepared under his own supervision, and sold, wholesale and retail, at his principal office in Philadelphia, No. 39 north Sixth street.

Price of the PULMONIC SYRUP, $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. SEAWEED TONIC same as SYRUP. MANDRAKE PILLS, twenty-five cents per box.

DR. SCHENCK can be seen in Washington city the third Wednesday of each month at his rooms at the Avenue House. S. B. WAITE, corner of Seventh street and Louisiana avenue, is his sole agent in Washington. mar 22—1m

MUSICAL INSTRUCTION.

Piano, Voice, and Violin.
PROF. W. A. LOVELAND, continuing his vocation as Music Teacher in the city of Washington, would announce to strangers coming here to reside that he offers his pupils the superior advantages of a thorough and greatly improved system of instruction, including the departments of Harmony and Composition.

Having had nearly thirty years' experience in teaching, he is able to adapt the lessons pleasingly and philosophically to the comprehension of the scholar, so that much of the tediousness common in musical discipline is obviated, and study and practice rendered highly attractive.

Prof. L. has taught in this city several years, and is pleased to refer to numerous patrons for the most favorable testimonials.
Terms moderate.
Prof. L. will keep in tune the pianos of his pupils without extra charge. Orders may be left at his residence, No. 432 Seventh street, near G street, at Mr. Adamson's book store, Seventh street, opposite the Post Office; or at Mr. J. F. PUBLIC BATHS.

HENRY SCHAEFER, BARBER AND HAIR-DRESSER, 2 STREET, NEAR SEVENTH, Opposite the Post Office Department.

HAS fitted up, in connection with his establishment, convenient accommodations for affording to his customers, and the public the luxury of COLD or WARM BATHS, at any time during business hours. His charges will be moderate—twenty-five cents for a single bath, or five baths for a dollar, when tickets for that number are purchased and paid for in advance.

Mr. Schaefer takes this opportunity to inform his customers that this desirable addition to his establishment will in no manner interfere with his regular professional business. On the contrary, he hopes to add to his present facilities for insuring prompt attention to his numerous patrons in the line of SHAVING and HAIR-DRESSING.

And to the Ladies who patronize him in the line of Cutting or Trimming their own or their children's hair, he begs to say that he has provided for them better accommodations, in having fitted up a small room and appropriated it exclusively to their use. mar 20—1m
