Treaties Ratified at the Second Session of the Thirty-sixth Congress.

TREATIES. Claims Convention with New Granada. Concluded at Washington, September 10, 1857. Ratifications exchanged at Washington, November 5, 1859. Proclaimed by the President of the United States, November 5, 1859.

By the President of the United States of America: A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS a convention between the United States of America and the Republic of New Granada was signed in the city of Washington on the tenth day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and the said convention, as amended by the high contracting parties, is, word for word, as follows:

The United States of America and the Republic of New Granada, desiring to adjust the claims of citizens of said States against New Granada and to cement the good understanding which happily subsists between the two Republics, have, for that purpose, appointed and conferred full powers, respectively, to wit: The President of the United States upon Lewis Cass, Secretary of State of the United States, and the President of New Granada upon General Pedro A. Herran, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of that Republic in the United States, who, after exchanging their full powers, which were found in good and proper form, have agreed to the following articles:

ARTICLE I. All claims on the part of corporations, companies, or individuals, citizens of the United States, upon the government of New Granada, which shall have been presented prior to the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, either to the Department of State at Washington, or to the minister of the United States at Bogota, and especially those for damages caused by the riot at Panama on the fifteenth of April, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, for which the said government of New Granada acknowledges its liability, arising out of its previous and obligation to preserve peace and good order along the said route, shall be referred to a board of commissioners, consisting of two members, one of whom shall be appointed by the government of the United States and one by the government of New Granada. In case of the death, absence, or incapacity of either commissioner, or in the event of either commissioner omitting or ceasing to act, the government of the United States or that of New Granada, respectively, or the minister of the latter in the United States, acting by its direction, shall forthwith proceed to fill the vacancy thus occasioned.

The commissioners so named shall meet in the city of Washington within sixty days from the exchange of the ratifications of this convention, and before proceeding to business shall make and subscribe a solemn oath that they will carefully examine and impartially decide, according to justice and equity, upon all the claims laid before them, under the provisions of this convention, by the government of the United States. And such oath shall be entered on the record of their proceedings. The commissioners shall then proceed to name an arbitrator or umpire to decide upon any case or cases on which they may differ in opinion. And if they cannot agree in the selection, the umpire shall be appointed by the minister of Prussia to the United States, whom the two high contracting parties shall invite to make such appointment, and whose selection shall be conclusive on both parties.

ARTICLE II. The arbitrator being appointed, the commissioners shall proceed to examine and determine the claims which may be presented to them, under the provisions of this convention, by the Government of the United States, together with the evidence submitted in support of them, and shall hear, if required, one person in behalf of each government on every separate claim. Each government shall furnish, upon request of either of the commissioners, such papers in its possession as the commissioners may deem important to the just determination of any claims presented to them. In cases where they agree to award an indemnity, they shall determine the amount to be paid, having due regard to claims which have grown out of the riot at Panama of April 15, 1856, to damages suffered through death, wounds, robberies, or destruction of property. In cases where they cannot agree the subjects of difference shall be referred to the umpire, before whom each of the commissioners may be heard, and whose decision shall be final.

ARTICLE III. The commissioners shall issue certificates of the sums to be paid, by virtue of their awards, to the claimants, and the aggregate amount of said sums shall be paid to the Government of the United States at Washington, in equal semi-annual payments, the first payment to be made six months from the termination of the commission, and the whole payment to be completed within eight years from the same date; and each of said sums shall bear interest (also payable semi-annually) at the rate of six per cent. per annum from the day on which the awards, respectively, shall have been decreed. To meet these payments the government of New Granada hereby specially appropriated one half of the compensation which may accrue to it from the Panama Railroad Company, in lieu of postage, by virtue of the thirteenth article of the contract between the Republic of New Granada and said company, made April 15, 1856, and approved June 4, 1856, and also one half of the dividends which it may receive from the net profits of said road, as provided in the fifty-fifth article of the same contract; but if these funds should prove insufficient to make the payments as above stipulated, New Granada will provide other means for that purpose.

ARTICLE IV. The commission herein provided shall terminate its labors in nine months from and including the day of its organization, and shall keep an accurate record of its proceedings, and may appoint a secretary to assist in the transaction of its business.

ARTICLE V. The proceedings of this commission shall be final and conclusive with respect to all claims before it, and its awards shall be a full discharge to New Granada of all claims of citizens of the United States against that Republic which may have accrued prior to the date of this convention.

ARTICLE VI. Each government shall pay its own commission on the awards, as well as the incidental expenses of the commission, which shall be paid one half by the United States and the other half by New Granada.

ARTICLE VII. The present convention shall be ratified, and the ratifications exchanged in Washington.

In witness whereof, we, the respective plenipotentiaries, have signed this convention, and have hereunto affixed our seals.

Done at Washington, this tenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

LEW. CASS, [SEAL.] P. A. HERRAN, [SEAL.]

And whereas the said convention, as amended, has been duly ratified on both parts and the respective ratifications of the same were exchanged at Washington on the fifth instant, by Lewis Cass, Secretary of State of the United States, and Señor Rafael Pombo, Chargé d'Affaires ad interim of the Granadine Confederacy, on the part of their respective governments. Now, therefore, be it known, that I, JAMES BUCHANAN, President of the United States of America, have caused the said convention to be made public, to the end that the same, and every clause and article thereof, may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States and the citizens thereof.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington, this eighth day of November, 1859, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and of the independence of the United States of America the eighty-fifth.

JAMES BUCHANAN, By the President: LEWIS CASS, Secretary of State.

ARMY SUPPLIES.

OFFICE OF ARMY CLOTHING AND EQUIPAGE, Corner of Howard and Mercer Streets, New York, July 9, 1861.

SEALED PROPOSALS are invited and will be received at this office until 12 o'clock, M., on MONDAY, the 29th day of July instant, when they will be publicly opened for furnishing by contract the following tents for the use of the army, deliverable at such place or places in the city of New York as may be hereafter designated, in quantities as required.

Proposals should state the price of tents complete, delivered at any of the depots of the Quartermaster's Department, exclusive of tent poles and tent pins, which will be the subject of separate contracts.

Large supplies will be needed, and the purchases will be made from the lowest responsible bidder, at the time it becomes necessary to give the orders.

The prices per tent should be stated, naming the places at which the bidder offers to deliver.

The following specifications will be strictly adhered to:

HOSPITAL TENT. 14 feet long, 15 feet wide, 11 feet high, with a wall at each end, having on one end a lapel, so as to admit of two or more tents being joined and thrown into one, with a continuous covering or roof.

HOSPITAL TENT FLY. 22 feet 10 inches long, 14 feet wide. WALL TENT. 9 feet long, 9 feet wide, 9 feet high, 4 feet wall.

WALL TENT FLY. 18 feet long, 9 feet wide. SIBLEY TENT. 18 feet diameter, 13 feet high.

SERVANTS' TENT. 6 feet 10 inches long, 7 feet wide, 7 feet 1 inch high.

The tents and "flies" are to be made of cotton duck, of the following weight and dimensions, viz:

For Hospital Tent—30 inches wide and 224 ounces per yard. For Hospital Tent Fly—30 inches wide and 154 ounces per yard.

For Wall and Sibley Tent—284 inches wide and 15 ounces per yard. For Servants' Tent and Wall Tent Fly—284 inches wide and 10 ounces per yard.

All the above-mentioned articles must conform in every respect to the sealed standard patterns in this office, where they may be examined and additional information received concerning them.

As it is desirable that the articles be of domestic fabrication, bids from manufacturers and regular dealers will be preferred, which must be made for and conform to such articles only, in quality and description, as are required by the advertisement and the samples in this office, but contracts will be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder who shall furnish satisfactory securities for the faithful performance thereof.

The manufacturer's establishment or dealer's place of business must be distinctly stated in the proposal, together with the names, address, and responsibility of two persons proposed as sureties. The sureties will guarantee that a contract shall be entered into within ten days after the acceptance of said bid or proposal.

Proposals will be received for any one of the articles, separately, and for any portion of each, not less than one fourth of the number or quantity advertised for.

The privileges reserved by and for the United States of rejecting any proposals that may be deemed extravagant.

All proposals will be subject to inspection by sworn inspectors, appointed by authority of the United States.

It is to be distinctly understood that contracts are not transferable without the consent of the proper authority, and that any sale, assignment, or transfer, without such consent having been obtained, except under a process of law, will be regarded as an abandonment of the contract; and the contractor and his, or their, securities will be held responsible for all loss or damage to the United States which may arise therefrom.

Payments will be made on each delivery, should Congress have made an appropriation to meet them, or as soon thereafter as an appropriation shall be made for that purpose. Ten per cent. of the amount of each delivery will be retained until the contract shall be completed, which will be forfeited to the United States in case of default on the part of the contractor in fulfilling the contract.

Forms of proposals and guaranty will be furnished upon application to this office, and none will be considered that do not conform thereto.

Proposals will be endorsed, "Proposals for Furnishing Army Tents," and be addressed to Major D. H. VINTON, Quartermaster, U. S. Army, Box 3,298 Post Office.

Chief Ass't Quartermaster's Office, Washington, D. C., July 4, 1861.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until 12 M. on the 16th inst., to furnish (20,000) twenty thousand bushels of oats, to be delivered at the railroad depot at G Street wharf, Washington, D. C., on or before 30th day of July, 1861.

The oats to be received by weight at the rate of (32) thirty-two pounds to the bushel, and to be put up in good substantial sacks of about two bushels each, free of additional cost to the Government.

ARMY SUPPLIES.

OFFICE OF ARMY CLOTHING AND EQUIPAGE, Corner of Howard and Mercer Streets, New York, July 9, 1861.

SEALED PROPOSALS are invited and will be received at this office until the 1st of August next, for making by contract the following Army Clothing, to be made of materials furnished by the Government, the articles to be delivered at the United States Depot of Army Clothing and Equipage in this city. That is to say: 200,000 infantry forage caps. 200,000 infantry uniform coats. 400,000 blue flannel sack coats. 600,000 trousers. 800,000 flannel shirts. 800,000 drawers. 200,000 greatcoats. 200,000 leather stocks.

The above articles must be as well made in every respect as the sealed patterns in this office, where they may be examined. All articles made under contracts herein invited, will be received under rigid inspection, made by sworn inspectors appointed by authority of the United States.

Proposals will be preferred for each kind of garment separately, and for moderate, though not small quantities of each. Bidders will state the quantities they will contract for, and the shortest periods within which deliveries will be made.

Each bidder in his proposals will distinctly state his place of business, and the names, address, and responsibility of two persons proposed as sureties for the material delivered, and the quality of the work required, and he will also state the shortest periods within which delivery will be made.

Bids for clothing will be accepted only from tailors in extensive business, or dealers in clothing accustomed to employ many operatives in that line.

It is to be distinctly understood that contracts are not transferable without the consent of the proper authority, and that any sale, assignment, or transfer, without such consent, (except under a process of law) will be regarded as an abandonment for which the contractor and his sureties will be held responsible.

Delivery of clothing is to commence ten days after the material shall have been issued, and the whole contracted for is to be promptly delivered according to the terms of each contract.

Payment will be made on the delivery of one half of the amount of any article contracted for, provided appropriations for that purpose be made by Congress; but one-tenth of the amount due for each delivery shall be retained till the contract is completed; and the sum retained shall be forfeited to the United States in case of defaultation or non-fulfillment by the contractor.

Forms of proposals and guaranty will be furnished on application to this office; and no proposal will be considered that does not conform thereto.

Proposals will be endorsed, "Proposals for Manufacturing Army Supplies," and will be addressed to Major D. H. VINTON, Quartermaster U. S. Army, N. Y. Box 3,298 Post Office.

IMPORTANT TO MILITARY OFFICERS.

An Indispensable Article for the Campaign. A TRUNK WITH COUCH, MOSQUITO, AND FLY NET ATTACHED.

Strong's Patent Army Trunk and Portable Bedstead Combined.

THIS new and admirable invention consists of a Trunk, in two sections, opening endways, and when opened, by means of a very simple arrangement, can be transformed into a comfortable couch, 6 feet 6 inches long, with enamelled cloth-covered curled-hair mattress, and overhung by a light frame-work for mosquito net or oil-cloth covering to shed rain, all readily adjusted, without disturbing the contents of the trunk. Can be prepared for sleeping or put up for traveling in two minutes with ease. When closed, it only occupies a space of 28 inches long, 19 wide, and 19 high, and forms a comfortable seat. It is made in the strongest and most durable style, and will stand any wear and tear to which it can be subjected. Being water-proof, it can be spread out in the rain or mud, if necessary. Each section affords a clear space inside for clothes, of 26 1/2 inches long, 18 wide, and 6 high. It has been examined by a large number of army officers, all of whom, without exception, pronounce it just the thing, and none who consult economy, convenience, comfort and health, will be without one. Besides, when in general use, it will save the transportation of a vast deal of luggage.

Price of the trunk, with mattress, mosquito net, and Duck Cover, all complete, $25. Sent by mail or express, accompanied by the cash, will be promptly attended to, and the Trunk forwarded by express to any point.

OFFICE OF SECRETARY AND TREASURER, SOLDIERS' HOME, Near the city of Washington.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until Monday, (noon) the 29th of July, 1861, for the construction of two buildings at the Soldiers' Home, somewhat similar to the two now there known as officers' quarters.

The plans and specifications may be examined at this office, where all information relative to the location and character of the buildings will be given.

Every offer for the construction of these buildings must be accompanied by a responsible written guaranty that, if the bid should be accepted, the party or parties will, within ten days, enter into an obligation, with good and sufficient security, to erect the proposed buildings according to the plans and specifications which have been or may hereafter be furnished and adopted.

The proposals will state the difference between facing the walls with white stone or marble, similar to the buildings already erected, or facings with the best pressed bricks; or bidders may, in addition, make such proposals as to other materials as their experience may suggest.

In deciding on the bids, regard will be had to the materials offered, and the right will be reserved by the Board of Commissioners of the Soldiers' Home to accept such offers only as may be deemed most advantageous for the institution; and also to reject the whole should none of them be deemed acceptable.

All bids to be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for Building," and addressed to BENJAMIN KING, Asst. Surgeon, Secretary and Treasurer. July 3-dtd
