CONGRESSIONAL INTELLIGENCER.
 The proprietors of the NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER, in order to meet the wishes of those whose circumstances or inclination do not allow them to subscribe even to a weekly Washington paper during the whole year, have determined to issue during each session of Congress, a weekly sheet styled "THE CONGRESSIONAL INTELLIGENCER," as far as its limits will permit, of the Proceedings of both Houses of Congress, and Official Reports and Documents connected therewith, including a complete official copy of all Acts passed by Congress during the session.

To bring the price within the means of every man who can read, the charge for this paper will be for the first session of each Congress One Dollar, and for the second session of each Congress half a Dollar.

The price of the CONGRESSIONAL INTELLIGENCER, to be issued on each Wednesday during the approaching Session of Congress, will therefore be One Dollar paid in advance.

To enlarge upon the value, to those who take no newspaper from Washington, of this publication, containing an impartial but necessarily abbreviated account of the Proceedings in Congress, including an authentic official copy of all the laws passed during the session, would be needless. The man who takes no such paper ought to take one, if he does not prefer remaining ignorant of what most nearly concerns his own destiny, and that of his family and of his posterity for ever.

When six copies are ordered and paid for by any one person, a deduction of one-sixth will be made from the price, that is to say, a remittance of Five Dollars will command six copies of the Congressional Intelligencer for the next Session. A remittance of Ten Dollars will secure thirteen copies; and for Fifteen Dollars remitted from any one person or place twenty copies will be forwarded.

Payment in advance in all cases is indispensable.

PROSPECTUS OF THE INVESTIGATOR.
 This Journal will be devoted to the subjects of Religion, Morality, Science, &c. Religious subjects will be treated in a temperate but fearless manner, and the tenets of the various sects, as occasion may require, will be examined with candor and impartiality. No personalities calculated to displease, will ever be admitted.

Education and Temperance will be advocated. Party Politics will not be touched upon; but dispassionate arguments on general and abstract questions may occasionally appear; and Political questions forming a connection with Religion (such as, the union of Church and State, &c.) will be freely discussed.

As to scientific subjects, preference will be extended to those of a practical and useful character.

The ET CETERA will embrace a variety of topics of general information, et cetera.

The articles will, chiefly, be original. When a selection can be made with decided advantage, it will be done. The subjects will be varied as much as possible, to suit the various tastes of the community.

The first number may be considered as a specimen, though containing less variety, it is believed, than the succeeding ones will contain.

It is intended to be monthly, and of 32 pages. It has to make its way into the world without a father's name to help it, as many a child has been obliged to do before it; and, if only receives that encouragement which they who first help themselves usually receive from the American public, it will not despair of success.

The terms are: 12 1-2 cents each number; $1 50 for the year in advance.

Those wishing to receive the work regularly, can do so by calling at the Periodical agencies of Whitaker & Co., Taylor & Co., Penn. Avenue; Kennedy's Bookstore, F street, in Washington; Clement's agency, Georgetown; Bell & Entwistle, Alexandria; Shurtz & Taylor's, Baltimore; and at the principal Periodical agencies in Philadelphia, New York and Boston.

It would be a great convenience to the Publisher to have the names of subscribers deposited at either of the above places, so that the work can be sent regularly.
