

For the Columbian Fountain.

There is a hope—a blessed hope,
More precious and more bright
Than all the joyous mockery
The world esteems delight.

There is a star—a lovely star,
That lights the darkest gloom,
And sheds a peaceful radiance o'er
The prospect of the tomb.

There is a voice—a cheering voice,
That lights the soul above;
Dispels distrustful, anxious doubt,
And whispers God is love.

That voice is heard from Calvary's height,
And speaks the soul forgiven;
That star is Revelation's light:
That hope, the hope of Heaven.

DEATHS.

Departed this life, at her residence in Colesville, Broome county, N. Y., on the 12th of November, after a long and painful illness, which she bore with calm resignation and Christian fortitude, LUCINDA MARIA STOWELL, aged 18 years, 1 month, and 20 days. Thus, in the bloom and freshness of life's happy morn, she yielded up her spirit to Him who gave it, in a full hope of a glorious immortality.

"Gone to her heavenly Father's rest,
The flowers of Eden round her blooming,
And on her ear the murmers blest
Of Shiloh's waters softly flowing."

The course of studies in Pennsylvania College is as extensive and substantial as that of any institution in the country. The Preparatory Department provides for instruction in all the branches of a thorough English business education, in addition to the Elements of the Mathematics and Classical Literature. The College course is arranged in the four classes usual in the institutions of this country.

The government of the students is as energetic as their circumstances seem to require. They attend at least two recitations a day, and the Faculty contemplate increasing them to three, Church and Bible Class on the Sabbath, and are visited in their rooms so frequently, as to preclude the danger of any great irregularities. It is believed no institution in the United States has more exemplary young men in connexion with it. They are all required to lodge in the College edifice, special cases excepted.

The annual expenses are—for board, tuition and room rent, during the winter session $61 87 1-2; for the summer session, $41 87 1-2; washing, $10; wood, $3 00. Total expense, $116 75. Boarding can be had in
