The proprietors of the NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER, in order to meet the wishes of those whose circumstances or inclination do not allow them to subscribe even to a weekly Washington paper during the whole year, have determined to issue during each session of Congress, a weekly sheet styled "THE CONGRESSIONAL INTELLIGENCER," to be devoted exclusively to the publication, as far as its limits will permit, of the Proceedings of both Houses of Congress, and Official Reports and Documents connected therewith, including a complete official copy of all Acts passed by Congress during the session. To bring the price within the means of every man who can read, the charge for this paper will be for the first session of each Congress One Dollar, and for the second session of each Congress half a Dollar. The price of the CONGRESSIONAL INTELLIGENCER, to be issued on each Wednesday during the approaching Session of Congress, will therefore be One Dollar paid in advance. To enlarge upon the value, to those who take no newspaper from Washington, of this publication, containing an impartial but necessarily abbreviated account of the Proceedings in Congress, including an authentic official copy of all the laws passed during the session, would be needless. The man who takes no such paper ought to take one, if he does not prefer remaining ignorant of what most nearly concerns his own destiny, and that of his family and of his posterity for ever. When six copies are ordered and paid for by any one person, a deduction of one-sixth will be made from the price, that is to say, a remittance of Five Dollars will command six copies of the Congressional Intelligencer for the next Session. A remittance of Ten Dollars will secure thirteen copies; and for Fifteen Dollars remitted from any one person or place twenty copies will be forwarded. Payment in advance in all cases is indispensable.

Important to Gentlemen.

EDWARD McCUBBIN has handsomely fitted up the three-story house recently erected on the site of his former stand, where he will be happy to resume his business as a barber and hair dresser. He very respectfully invites a return of his old and esteemed customers, and solicits the patronage of the public generally to the Temple of Fashion, No. 1, on 8th street, near Pennsylvania avenue. With the most competent assistants, and every description of materials that can render his operations a luxury, instead of a dull, sleepy process, he flatters himself that to him will be accorded the credit of keeping pace with the times in all that has a tendency to add to the comfort and improve the appearance of the outer man. Not only in the face has Nature made its comeliness and beauty to abound, But in the scissors' edge and razor's blade The aids to loveliness are ever found. nov 4-tf

The Preparatory Department provides for instruction in all the branches of a thorough English business education, in addition to the Elements of the Mathematics and Classical Literature. The College course is arranged in the four classes usual in the institutions of this country. The government of the students is as energetic as their circumstances seem to require. They attend at least two recitations a day, and the Faculty contemplate increasing them to three, Church and Bible Class on the Sabbath, and are visited in their rooms so frequently as to preclude the danger of any great irregularities. It is believed no institution in the United States has more exemplary young men in connexion with it. They are all required to lodge in the College edifice, special cases excepted. They have increased the number of Professors and provided for the most ample instruction of the students. Professor Baugher and Haupt are prepared to board boys and to exercise a special supervision over their studies and deportment, and Parents who may prefer placing their sons under their care, will be secure in regard to their proper management, under arrangements such as pertain to the family circle. PROSPECTUS OF THE NEW LIBRARY OF LAW AND EQUITY, under the direction of Francis J. Troubat, esq., of Philadelphia; Hon. Ellis Lewis, of Lancaster; and Wilson McCandless, Esq., of Pittsburgh. This work contains the best productions of English law authors, without regard to priority of claim on the part of any American publisher. Such books are now notoriously too dear. The reason is, that as fast as they appear, they become monopolies in the hands of booksellers in the Atlantic cities. Under the plea of right, acquired by the addition of notes of American decisions, the latter claim an undivided title to those works, and set a burdensome price on them. The publishers of the work now offered to the profession throughout the Union, will not respect such titles, but will reprint the standard British law books as fast as they emanate from the London market. Should new editions of the works of such writers as Starkie, the Chittys, Stephen, and Archibald, appear, they shall also be included; and digests of equity and law decisions—works which have been studiously kept out of the Law Library published at Philadelphia—shall have a place in the proposed new one, together with every new valuable English treatise on chancery or common law. This work will be issued monthly, in numbers of 160 pages, printed on fine white paper, and good new long primer type, at seven dollars per annum, payable half yearly.

For the Columbian Fountain.

The following Hymn was sung by the first band of missionaries to the Sandwich Islands, on Christmas day, 1819, while crossing the tropic of Capricorn, on their way toward Cape Horn. It was composed for the occasion by Mr. W. G. Conant, one of the officers of the vessel, the brig "Thaddeus":—

"We have seen his Star in the East and have come to worship Him." All hail the bright star that the East once illumed, And blest with its radiance the shepherds and seers, When reigned the emblem of mercy assumed, And glory appeared in this valley of tears. It arose o'er the gloom that enshrouded the earth, And announced, as it burst from the portals of Heaven, That the Savior of sinners, Divine in his birth, The conqueror of death, to the world is now given.

On this day, from the regions of glory and love, As the type of salvation, and symbol of hope, Gently borne through its beams, see the pure, heavenly Dove Appear to mankind, who in darkness now grope. May Religion's best star, as we traverse the ocean, illumine our way and its comforts impart, While our fond, lingering thro'ts we cast back with emotion To the country that holds the dear friends of each heart!

Jehovah! assist, in the soul-trying hour, The Mission of peace to a far distant land, And calm the rude main with thy all-saving power: Be love, grace, and mercy, the gifts of thy hand. When at length on the Isles of the Gentiles they tread, We pray that thy Spirit may smooth their rough ways;

By them may the Heathen to Jesus be led, And receive with fond rapture the Gospels' bright rays. By them may the priests of idolatry learn That their Morais, and Taboos,* and offerings are vain— Let the nation from idols and violence turn, And the joy of salvation perpetual reign. Now swell the loud anthems of praise to the Lord, From whom streams of mercy incessantly flow; Be the Father, the Son, and the Spirit adored By all nations and kindreds and realms here below.

*Morai, an idol Temple—Taboos, religious laws and superstitions, or mysterious rites.

For the Columbian Fountain. A Hymn, SINGED BY THE FIRST MISSIONARIES TO THE SANDWICH ISLANDS, WHILE PASSING CAPE HORN, JANUARY 30, 1820.

EBENEZER. WITH joyful hearts and grateful praise Our Helper, God, thy name we hail; Our Ebenezer here we raise, While round the stormy Cape we sail. Conducted by Thy sovereign hand, Mysterious, mighty, wise and good, We left our friends and native land To toss upon the raging flood. When adverse winds our course delayed, And dangerous currents rolled below, Thy voice the roaring tempest stayed, And made the breeze propitious blow. From want, and pestilence, and death, Defended by thy care, To Thee we raise our tuneful breath, Our Rock of Help forbids our fear. This way-mark in the trackless seas, Fixed by His hand who rules above, The tempests of six thousand years, Have ne'er been able to remove. So shall our grateful record stand, That hither by thine aid we come; So shall we trust thy constant hand Will bring our souls in safety home.
