

BOOKS OF THE BIBLE.

THE OLD TESTAMENT. The great Jehovah speaks to us in Genesis and Exodus; Leviticus and Numbers see Follow'd by Deuteronomy; Joshua and Judges sway the land; Ruth gleams a sheaf with trembling hand; Samuel and numerous Kings appear; Whose Chronicles we wondering hear. Ezra and Nehemiah, now, Either the beautiful mourner show; Job speaks in sighs, David in Psalms; The Proverbs teach to scatter alms; Ecclesiastes then comes on, And the sweet songs of Solomon: Isaiah, Jeremiah, then With Lamentations takes his pen: Ezekiel, Daniel, Hosea's lyres Swell Joel, Amos, Obadiah's; Next Jonas, Micah, Nahum come, And lofty Habakkuk finds room— While Zephaniah, Haggai calls, Wrapt Zachariah builds his walls; And Malachi, with garments rent, Conclude the ancient Testament.

THE NEW TESTAMENT. Methew, Mark, Luke and John, wrote the life of their Lord: The Acts, what Apostles accomplished, record: Rome, Corinth, Galatians, Ephesus, hear What Philippians, Colossians, Thessalonians revere. Timothy, Titus, Philemon, precede The Epistle which Hebrews most gratefully read: James, Peter, and John, with the short letter, Jude, The rounds of Divine Revelation conclude.

RESOLUTIONS. HOWARD DIVISION, No. 10, S. T. February 6th, 1846. Mr. Editor:—At a meeting held by this Division this evening, the following was passed unanimously: Resolved, that this Division hails with satisfaction, the accession of the Columbian Fountain to the ranks of journals advocating the cause of temperance, that we regard it as worthy of encouragement, and recommend it to the favorable consideration of the order and the friends of temperance generally. On motion, it was directed that a copy of this resolution be communicated to the Editor of the Fountain. JAMES P. FUGITT, R. S.

Improved Cheap Sofa Bedsteads.

THE Subscriber has improved the above article by substituting longitudinal slats in lieu of lateral slats,—by which means the sleeping qualities of the machine has been much improved. Several are placed at Mr. Dyer's for sale. They will be found useful for families that are pressed for room; likewise for stores, as they can be shut up under a counter entirely out of sight, and free of dirt. UMBRELLAS Repaired as usual. Orders left at David Miller's, Silver Plater, between 12th and 13th streets, Pennsylvania avenue, or at the subscriber's shop west of the War Office. jan 19—4 DANIEL PIERCE.

COAL! COAL!

NOW is the time! Just arrived and now landing a small vessel load (90 tons) of Coal, (Anthracite) from Philadelphia. Those in want of a good article of this kind of fuel will please apply early, as it would be preferred to deliver it from the vessel, without stowing it. Apply to the undersigned, at his Lumber and Coal Yard, on 7th street, near Centre Market—where all kinds of Lumber, with Lime, Cement, and Calcined Plaster, may be had cheap for cash or short credit. THE CHEAPEST BOOTS AND SHOES IN Washington are sold on Pennsylvania avenue, two doors east of 10th street, and no mistake. Remember that, shoe-wearing community. If any man, woman, or child doubts the truth of the above statement, our answer to such persons is, call and you will be convinced that the declaration we have made is no mere flow of idle words, but of truth, stern matter of fact. Having recently received a large and additional supply of goods, our stock is complete, embracing all kinds of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Boys' and Youths', and Misses and Children's Boots, Shoes, Slippers, &c. Likewise, an extensive assortment of Men's coarse Boots and Brogans, which we offer for such cheaper by far than the cheapest. We are both bachelors, and, as our expenses are inconceivable, we can afford, and will be content to sell, with the smallest profits.

A word to the wise is said to be sufficient: therefore, we will conclude by simply inviting old and young, rich and poor, bond and free, to call at Store No. 2 from 10th street, Varnum's row, Pennsylvania avenue. The People's obedient and thankful servants for past patronage, and candidates for future favors. MOORE & DOUGLASS. N. B. PROSPECTUS OF THE NEW LIBRARY

OF LAW AND EQUITY, under the direction of Francis J. Troubat, esq., of Philadelphia; Hon. Ellis Lewis, of Lancaster; and Wilson McCandless, Esq., of Pittsburgh. This work contains the best productions of English law authors, without regard to priority of claim on the part of any American publisher. Such books are now notoriously too dear. The reason is, that as fast as they appear, they become monopolies in the hands of booksellers in the Atlantic cities. Under the plea of right, acquired by the addition of notes of American decisions, the latter claim an undivided title to those works, and set a burdensome price on them. The publishers of the work now offered to the profession throughout the Union, will not respect such titles, but will reprint the standard British law books as fast as they emanate from the London market. Should new editions of the works of such writers as Starkie, the Chittys, Stephen, and Archibald, appear, they shall also be included; and digests of equity and law decisions—works which have been studiously kept out of the Law Library published at Philadelphia—shall have a place in the proposed new one, together with every new valuable English treatise on chancery or common law. This work will be issued monthly, in numbers of 160 pages, printed on fine white paper, and good new long primer type, at seven dollars per annum, payable half yearly. ISAAC G. M'KINLEY, J. M. G. LESURE. Harrisburg, Pa., July 1, 1845—Nov 4—4

New Flour Store.

THE subscriber has taken the warehouse on the north side of water street, opposite Messrs. Read & Son, and intends keeping a supply of all the various grades of flour. IMPORTANT TO GENTLEMEN.

EDWARD McCUBBIN has handsomely fitted up the three-story house recently erected on the site of his former stand, where he will be happy to resume his business as a barber and hair dresser. He very respectfully invites a return of his old and esteemed customers, and solicits the patronage of the public generally to the Temple of Fashion, No. 1, on 8th street, near Pennsylvania avenue. With the most competent assistants, and every description of materials that can render his operations a luxury, instead of a dull, sleepy process, he flatters himself that to him will be accorded the credit of keeping pace with the times in all that has a tendency to add to the comfort and improve the appearance of the outer man. Not only in the face has Nature made her comeliness and beauty to abound, But in the scissors' edge and razor's blade The aids to loveliness are ever found. nov 4—4

NATIONAL LOAN FUND LIFE INSURANCE SOCIETY OF LONDON.

Empowered by act of Parliament. Capital £500,000 Sterling, or 2,500,000 Dollars. GENERAL AGENT FOR THE UNITED STATES, J. LEANDER STARR, No. 74 Wall st. N. York. THE rates of this Society are as low as those of the American companies, and lower than the scale adopted by many London offices. Loans granted to the extent of two-thirds the amount of premium paid, after the lapse of a year. Persons insured in the United States on the scale of "participation" enjoy the important advantage of sharing in the whole business of the Society, which in Great Britain is very extensive. The public are respectfully requested to examine the distinguishing principles of this institution—their tables of rates, their distribution of profits, and the facilities afforded by their loan department—before deciding to insure elsewhere. Pamphlets containing the last Annual Report and the Society's Rates, together with blank forms and the fullest information, may be obtained upon application to any Agent or Sub-Agent. References of the highest character in the United States given to applicants, if required, as to the standing, wealth, and security of the above institution. T. L. & A. THO. SMITH, Agents. WHITE'S Compound Sirup of WILD CHERRY, Sarsaparilla, and other MEDICINAL PLANTS.

The preparer adds to this notice the certificates of two respectable citizens, who ascribe their restoration to health to this preparation. This is to certify that my daughter received great benefit from a mixture called Compound Sirup of Wild Cherry and Sarsaparilla, prepared by Mrs. J. C. White, on 9th street, between D and E streets. Her cough was entirely cured by using the above Sirup, and I take pleasure in recommending it to the public as a sure and speedy remedy for coughs, however violent or long standing. J. K. HANSON, H street, First Ward, Washington. Mrs. J. C. WHITE: Dear Madam,—It affords me heartiest satisfaction to lay before the public the benefit I received from your Compound Sirup of Wild Cherry and Sarsaparilla. I was taken, two years ago, with a bad cough, and tried a great many things that were recommended, and nothing did me any good. I was advised to try some of your Compound Sirup of Wild Cherry and Sarsaparilla. My cough was so bad that I hardly could go along, and after taking the first bottle I was so much better that I was able to attend to my business, and now I am entirely clear of my cough.
