streets, where he can be found at all times, ready to execute any orders he may be favored with, at the shortest notice, and in the best and most fashionable style. He would also wish his customers and the public generally, to take notice that his entire stock will be sold, from and after this date, at Cost, and no mistake. To those wishing to purchase, he would say call and see his stock, consisting of almost every article, size, quality and price, in his line of business, worn by gentlemen, ladies, boys, misses, youths and children.

POETRY.

Its words
Are few, but deep and solemn, and they break Fresh from the fount of feeling.—Percival.

We copy the following beautiful lines from an exchange paper:

BUY THE TRUTH.

ADDRESSED TO A YOUNG FRIEND.

Go thou in life's fair morning,
Go, in the bloom of youth,
And buy for thine adorning,
The precious pearl of truth.
Secure this heavenly treasure,
And bind it on thy heart,
And let not worldly pleasure, E'er cause it to depart.

Go, while the day star shineth, Go, while the heart is light, Go, ere thy strength declineth, While every sense is bright; Sell all thou hast and buy it,
'Tis worth all earthly things, Rubies, and gold, and diamonds, Sceptres and crowns of kings.

Go, ere the cloud of sorrow Steal o'er the bloom of youth; Defer not till to-morrow,
'Go now, and buy the Truth.'
Go seek thy great Creator, Learn early to be wise;
Go, place upon His altar,
A morning sacrifice!

MISCELLANY.

THE DEDICATION OF "THE CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH," WASHINGTON.

The dedication of this chaste and beautiful building took place on last Sabbath morning, in the presence of a large and deeply interested audience, among whom were the President of the United States, the Mayor of this city, the Hon. Mr. Dunlap, of Maine, the Hon. Mr. Collamer, of Vermont, the Hon. Mr. Yost, of Pennsylvania, and other distinguished citizens and strangers. The edifice stands on 8th street, immediately in rear of the Patent Office, on the site generously given about a year since by the late General Van Ness. Its dimensions are fifty by seventy feet, and its neat and unpretending architecture reflects the highest credit on the taste and judgment of its enterprising and generous projector, Mr.
C. L. Colman, and on the skill and liberality of the artisans who were employed in its erection. So many of our worthy mechanics and other citizens have aided to a greater or less extent towards the erection of this edifice that it would be impracticable in a notice of this kind to mention all who have generously contributed of their labor and means. Their names, however, are registered upon "the memory of the heart," and will be long and gratefully cherished by the pastor and members of this infant congregation. We cannot, however, withhold the meed of deserved praise from our worthy fellow-citizen, Mr. Jas. Philips, plasterer, to whose skill and liberality the edifice is largely indebted for the chaste and elegant workmanship with which its interior is enriched and beautified. It is due to him to say that this portion of the building is the subject of universal admiration. The venetian blinds, made by Mr.
Noel, of this city, both by their neatness and excellent quality, are in good keeping with the internal finish of the church, and reflect credit upon the mechanical skill of that worthy citizen. Nor should we omit to mention the name of Mr. Reese, the upholsterer, who, without any charge, has added much to the beauty of the pulpit and to the comfort of the minister who occupies it. We trust he will be rewarded by at least a share of the patronage of the congregation. The pulpit, planned by Mr. J.
C. Harkness, and executed by Messrs.
Donovan & Gerhess, is chaste and appropriate.

The dedication sermon was preached by the Rev. Thomas B. Balch, of Virginia, from Genesis, 28th chapter and 17th verse:
"How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of Heaven." The discourse was rich, eloquent, and appropriate, and was listened to with marked attention. We are gratified to learn that the Session of the church have requested a copy for publication. In the afternoon the communion was administered to a large number of professors of religion from the different evangelical churches in the city, who beautifully illustrated the great principles of christian charity by uniting with members of "the Central Church" in commemorating the love and suffering of their common Saviour."

The occasion was altogether one of profound interest, although the high gratification of those immediately interested in this enterprise was necessarily chastened by the heavy bereavement and deep affliction of one of the most lovely and interesting families connected with the congregation.
We allude to the family of the lamented Col. Cross. As an appropriate appendix to the foregoing notice, it is proper to add, that at a meeting of the congregation, held on Monday afternoon, the Rev. SEPTIMUS TUS-TIN, chaplain of the United States Senate, was unanimously chosen pastor of this congregation.—National Intelligencer.

THE MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH.—The Philadelphia American Sentinel makes some judicious remarks touching the importance to the government of having, at the present juncture, the telegraphic wires laid on to this city. "If the War Department," it says, "could get intelligence in the course of a few minutes from New Orleans by Telegraph, the war operations could be carried on with the greatest despatch, and with the circumspection that the important questions involved demand.
The doings of Congress could be transmitted with the celerity of lightning to the commanding general, and even the enemy would be astounded to find that the representatives of our nation and our army might be said to be almost within speaking distance of each other. We would suggest, if we are to carry on this war, that an appropriation be made forthwith to extend the Telegraph to New Orleans. This great achievement—an almost superhuman invention—has never been sufficiently sustained by our country. We look upon the Magnetic Telegraph as fully destined, throughout all time, to be a wall of safety around this Union.—N. O. Delta.

THE WAY OF THE WORLD.—There goes a virtuous and honest man. Who cares? nobody looks at him, or cares a fig how he dresses or what he says.

Here passes a man of wealth. The old ladies and all the children run to the window, "Where? who?" "How does he dress?" He is a great object of attraction.
"How in the world did he make so much?"
"He doesn't look as if he was worth a penny."

This is the way of the world. Every body gazes with admiration upon the rich, while they turn away from virtuous poverty.

Let a man make ten thousand dollars and he is a gentleman, every inch of him Every body has a kind word and a smile for him.

Be poor and honest, and no one knows you. Men and women have heard of such a name as yours, and you may live at their elbows, but they are not certain about it.

Possess a fortune and live at the mile post, and your neighbors and friends would line the streets to the heart of the city. All would know where you lived, and point a stranger to the very door.

We repeat—such is the world. Golden vice is caressed, while heavenly virtue is not observed. Notwithstanding, we had rather be a Lazarus than a Dives; a Grace Darling than a Stephen Girard.—Portland Tribune.

SHOES IN FRANCE.—There are 100,000, 000 shoes made annually in France. The salaries paid to the men for making them amount to 300,000,000 francs. The value of the leathern gloves annually manufactured in France is 10,000,000 francs, and this business affords employment to 10,000 workmen.

TO TAKE STAINS OUT OF SILK.—Mix together in a vial two ounces of essence of lemon, one ounce of oil of turpentine.— Grease and other spots in silk are to be rubbed gently with a linen rag dipped in the above composition.

DRESS.—Many people imagine that to be dressed gaudily is to be dressed well.— A greater mistake never was committed.— Brilliant colors and quantities of jewelry are evidence of the very worst possible taste.
