

'You couldn't let a feller go down, could you?'

'Why do you think you could jump off in time?'

'Oh, yes, I'm reckoned considerable of a jumper—jumpin' does me good; I once jumped on a hay mow thirty feet high, and it made me so supple that I'm give in to be the best dancer in the hull township.'

'Well, get on, and take care of yourself.'

Suddenly the car moved off, and our friend found the speed so fearful, and the declivity so great, that he was forced to stoop down and grasp the sides of his vehicle for support. The place where the laborer had leaped off was reached, but the Yankee was not in the position to jump; he had to hold on, and running down a descent three times as steep as that which he had come, a sudden click shot the bolt, and, with a violent force, out went the contents, Yankee included, into the hopper.

'Murder! get me out! stop the consarn!' shouted our hero, as he felt himself sliding down the hopper to the cylinder. 'Murder! stop the consarn—I'll be killed!'

But the motive power of the 'consarn' was water, which had no sympathy with those who pursue knowledge under difficulties, and those who saw, were too distant, too much convulsed with laughing to yield assistance. Into the screen he slid, landing on the top, and as he felt himself revolving with the coal, he grasped the wires in desperation, to prevent himself from being rolled to the bottom—around the wheel he went, and our friend's sensibilities were touched up by a plentiful shower of fine coal dust riddled through from all the chambers. He managed to get one eye open, and saw with delight, that the cylinder was only about fifteen feet in length, and he forced his way forward to the opening with desperation, but he was not altogether successful; another revolution of the wheel had yet to be borne, and the next time he reached the bottom he was shot out of the scupper into the boat beneath. To the screams of laughter with which his advent was hailed, our hero said not a word, but getting out an old handkerchief—rubbed the dust out of his eyes, and surveying his torn apparel and bruised, battered, scratched, and cut limbs, he 'raised his vein,' to know as what quality of anthracite he had been delivered—when, smashing his remnant of a hat over his eyes, he stumped off, muttering 'BROKEN and SCREENED,' by thunder.'

TERMS OF THE FOUNTAIN.

Subscriptions received for twelve months for $3—half yearly and quarterly at the same rates. All subscriptions in advance. Single copies one cent.

Advertisements, not exceeding twelve lines, inserted for 50 cents, the first, and 25 cents for every subsequent insertion. Those of greater length charged in proportion.

Advertisements, not specified as to time, will be published one month, and charged accordingly; but no advertisement or subscription will be stopped, until all arrearages are paid, unless at the option of the proprietors.

Advertisements published at intervals, viz: weekly, semi-weekly, tri-weekly, or monthly, are charged 50 cents per square for every insertion. A liberal discount will be made to those who advertise by the year.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 11.

The Rochester Advertiser states that Governor Young, of New York, is not expected to recover from an attack of lung disease, under which he is now laboring.

The returns from Michigan are very uncertain, but the Whigs claim 2 members of Congress.

FROM THE ARMY. We learn that despatches arrived last evening from the Army, giving the official accounts of the Battle of Monterey.

MASSACHUSETTS ELECTION. By telegraph from Philadelphia to the Baltimore Patriot yesterday at 2 p. m. we learn that Winthrop, [whig,] has been elected to Congress from Boston by a majority of 2629 votes. In the 9th District, Hale, [whig,] is elected. So far as heard from 80 whigs, 6 democrats, and 2 abolitionists were elected to the Legislature.

Our readers will find in to-morrow's DAILY FOUNTAIN a clear resume of the late Foreign News worth reading.

OUR MARKET.—Vegetables continue very scarce and are of inferior quality, at high prices. All the potatoes brought to this market show a core when boiled. The supply of fowl is very poor indeed, and the price is high. Yesterday there was no fish at all in market. Choice butter for table use is a rarity. Wild game begins to make its appearance, but it is hardly fit for the table. The butchers' stalls show well, and the beef and mutton are excellent. Flour—prime family, New York—brings eight dollars. Grocers have not yet generally got in their supplies, and hence their stocks are light. Brown sugar is scarce and high. Altogether our market is, at present, ill supplied, and prices of every thing have advanced, some 20 to 50 per cent. We should be glad if the Baltimore, the Fredericktown, and the Montgomery county and Prince George county papers would republish this.

GUION'S BAZAAR.—We take pleasure in calling the attention of the public to the splendid assortment of fancy articles advertised in another column by Guion. The most fastidious as well as the most extravagant tastes can be gratified at this Bazaar.

John Minor Botts Esq., is in the field for Congress from the Henrico District Va.

THE TEN CENT FUND OF THE SONS OF TEMPERANCE. According to rule 25, section 1, 'every member of a Subordinate Division of the Sons of Temperance shall annually, on the last meeting of Temperance, pay to his Division, the sum of ten cents. The amount so received shall be paid over to the Grand Division under whose jurisdiction it may be placed. The Grand Division shall transmit the same to the National Division.' This general fund is designed to aid the stranger if he become sick in a distant State. It is a most excellent provision and we give an illustration of its practical benefit in the interesting case recorded last week.

The evenings are now getting long and the Orders of Temperance should renew their efforts to advance the interests of their useful, large and growing divisions and associations.

MORE OF MRS. MYERS.

We had just taken up our pen with a view to throw together a few hasty reflections upon the letter of Mrs. Myers, published yesterday morning exclusively in the DAILY FOUNTAIN, when the following excellent note from a lady of this city was placed in our hands. The sentiments it contains are so touching and so just, that we will not detain our readers from a perusal of them by any remarks of our own. We are sure that they will meet with the response of every man and woman in the community who are governed by a sense of proper responsibility.

TO THE EDITORS OF THE DAILY FOUNTAIN.

'I have read with feelings of deep commiseration and sympathy the letter of Mrs. Myers, and I feel that no one of my own sex can read the lines penned by the stricken one without a deep conviction, that the writer, tho' thoughtless and imprudent in the extreme, was free even in tho' as well as person, of actual guilt. Sincerity breathes in every line, and the candid exposition of her errors must carry conviction to every unprejudiced and right-minded female, that she speaks the truth, the whole truth. It is too much the habit of our sex to condemn with the most unsparring acrimony the errors of a female. Charity, that heavenly virtue, seems to be erased from the female heart in a case like this, and the most bitter epithets, the most cruel and harsh language are bestowed, thus lacerating the heart already stricken with shame for its errors and crushing the already bowed head to the very dust. Is this Christian? Did our blessed Saviour, when the poor degraded woman falls prostrate with shame at his feet expecting to be condemned, did he bestow harsh words, unkind epithets? No—with angel meekness he hid her rise and sin no more.—During his ministry on earth he never ceased to teach us charity, charity. Condemn not—judge not—are words ever flowing from his blessed lips.

Mark the difference. The man—shame for my sex I say it—who leaves his wife, a tender, devoted woman, to spend his days and nights in wickedness, wronging her affection, unfaithful to his vows, bestowing his time and his attentions upon another, forgetting the one who left her girlhood's happy home for his love and the blissful prospect of his society—mark, I say, the difference—this man is received in our houses, caressed and flattered by both mothers and daughters. His poor wife, who sits at home waiting and watching to hear his footsteps is perhaps spoken of by these persons as an ungrateful, dissatisfied creature, because she cannot be happy with a fine equipage, fine furniture, &c., which he purchased in reality to gratify his own vanity; as if glare and glitter could compensate for neglect and the crushed feelings of a too devoted heart. Rather let condemnation fall upon the faithless man than upon such a poor stricken being, whose errors without guilt are so candidly confessed.

Then rise, ye mothers and daughters of Richmond—seek the house of the heart-broken one, raise her bowed head, and throw the mantle of charity over her errors, and bid her, as your Saviour did, to go and sin no more.'

[Correspondence of the Daily Fountain.]

Alexandria Nov. 10th 1846.

A public meeting was held in the market square yesterday afternoon at which all the resolutions of a former meeting authorizing the election of three Commissioners to represent the county before the Legislature, were rescinded and the Commissioners were directed to hold an election for one only.—Whether the mandates of this last meeting will be obeyed I do not know. The election comes off to-morrow.

A gentleman some days since mistaking the bank &c, with which one of our docks was filled during the freshet, for land, (not dry land of course, for of that there was none) deliberately walked over into the Potomac, and was with some difficulty rescued by the bystanders.

The Mount Vernon Guards Capt. Snyder paraded yesterday afternoon and made a fine show. They were accompanied by Plant's Independent Brass Band, which performed with much credit.

What about 'that cow' which came to see a gentleman in this place. One of the name mentioned says he has never had such a cow on a visit to him, and requests me to say to the advertiser that if he is meant, he would be obliged to him not to insert such stuff in future as he was not aware that he possessed a cow. The advertisement our friend takes in high dudgeon and altogether Alexandria has had some fun out of the affair.

SNAGS. The St. Louis papers of the 2d instant record the disasters of 7 steam boats on the Mississippi from snags. Congress ought by special enactment, to devote millions, if needs be to the clearing out of this river and the Ohio.

For the Smithsonian Institute. An exchange paper advertises that it intends to send to the Smithsonian Institute very shortly the following extraordinary curiosities:

Pennsylvania and New York exhibiting their democratic majorities.

A piece of Mr. Clay's last canvass for the Presidency.

The only part of Girards Will—a very small relic by the way—which has not been violated by the city of Philadelphia.

CHURCH AND STATE.—The New York Yankee Doodle has the following hit:

Scene.—Entrance to Grace Church. Time—Sunday morning, half past ten.

Plain Gentleman—Sexton; can you give me a seat?

Sexton—Come in your carriage, sir, or afoot?

P. G.—I came on foot, sir.

S.—Take a seat on one of them settees.

Q.—We perceive that C. M. Clay's True American has gone to the shades. One of our cotemporaries suggests that the next paper Mr. C. M. C. establishes for abolition purposes shall be called the True African. Good!

WICKED. Some person or persons unknown cut the rope by which the cars are checked in the descent of an Inclined Plane at the Schuylkill near Philadelphia. Fortunately it was discovered in time to prevent accident, but how diabolical must have been that heart which could have perpetrated such an act! We call this a display of the most desperate wickedness.

The Armistice. The following extract of a letter from Monterey, published in the Cincinnati Advertiser, gives some interesting particulars about the armistice:

'The bearer of the flag of truce proposed a surrender of the town, allowing them to remove all the public property: Gen. Taylor asked an unconditional surrender of every thing: quite a difference. They had from 8 to 12 o'clock to answer.' At 12 they sent for Gen. Taylor. After exhausting his patience with diplomacy, and Ampudia had declared he was no way straightened to submission, Gen. Taylor said: 'Sir, I hold your town, yourself, and your army, in the hollow of my hand, and you know it; the conference is closed. In thirty minutes you shall hear from my batteries.' He took his hat to leave the room; Ampudia called him back and submitted. This was told me in person by Gen. Taylor, and is strictly true, of course.'

There is a talk about dividing Fairfax county, Va., and annexing one portion of it to Alexandria, so as to form a new county. The Fairfax people are up in arms against the proposal.

Great Joy. The Troy Post is in ecstasies at the result of the election. Hear him. 'The Empire State triumph—people—rescue—John Young—Cato of America—verdict—J. K. Polk—British free trade—Harbor Veto—Subtreasury War—Slavery—100 guns, &c.'

Duelling. The new constitution of Louisiana disfranchises every man engaged in duelling, either as principal, second, or otherwise. Recently a case came up before the authorities, and had to be dismissed, because the parties concerned refused to give evidence which would of course criminate themselves.

A young widow who edits a paper in a neighboring State, says: 'We do not look so well to-day as usual, on account of the non-arrival of the males.'

Fatal Accident. On Friday last, says the Port Tobacco Times of the 5th inst., on board of the Light Boat stationed near the mouth of Port Tobacco creek, as Wm. Lacy was in the act of trimming the lights he fell to the deck, some forty feet and broke his neck.

The Centerville [Md.] Times, says, that a few days ago Mr. Hanes of that town was killed by coming in contact with a loaded dray, and a son of R. B. Carmichael had his thigh broken by falling from a cart.

John Young. The New York Telegraph, an independent paper, says, that the new Governor of the Empire State is 'a man of fine talents and great sagacity; that his administration will be one of ability and probity; and that the destinies of this State could not be committed to better hands. That he is remarkable in his tendency towards Democratic progress, in his disposition to modify the tenure, by which some ancient properties in N. York are still held.

The vote of the Native American party in Pennsylvania last year, was 22,934. This year it is 15,427.

There have been heavy rains west of the mountains since the 1st inst., and the rivers were all rising at last dates.

The Rockville Journal of the 7th instant has the following:

The Presbytery of the District of Columbia held a meeting at the Presbyterian Church, in this village, on Tuesday, the 27th ult. In the morning, there was preaching by Rev. J. C. Smith, of Washington. In the evening, the ordination of Mr. Charles H. Nourse took place. Rev. R. A. Smith presided and questioned the candidate in the usual manner. Sermon by Rev. Mr. Shepard, of Lisbon. Ordaining prayer, by Rev. Dr. Mines—Charge, by Rev. J. C. Smith. Mr. Nourse is expected to labor, for the present, in this village and the Middlebrook neighborhood.

'Live and Let Live.' We were pleased to learn from the Baltimore Sun of Monday, that it has become an advocate of this ancient and excellent adage. We trust that, in future, their practice will accord with their profession.

'The Rockets Red Glare.' We know not by whose agency those rockets were thrown up in the south-eastern part of our city on Monday evening, but they were beautiful and bright to us; and we have no doubt, that had Ampudia been as near as we were, he and his hosts would have taken to their heels.

Some burglars broke into the office of the St. Louis Organ recently, and got nothing but the Editor's Diamond Bible. It is to be hoped that they discovered on opening this treasure the words 'thou shalt not steal.'

MISSOURI ELECTION. The St. Louis papers of the 3d instant state that KINCAID, (whig) received 1347 votes in St. Louis county for Congress, and McDaniel, (dem.) 658.

The Britannia brought out a number of speculators to buy American wheat and flour.

Sr. Louis. There were imported into this flourishing city, destined to be the London of the west, in the month of October, 24,149 pigs of lead—19,387 bbls. of flour—26,080 lbs. of bacon—169,541 bushels of wheat—4,723 sacks coffee—2,962 sacks of onions, &c.

NEW YORK TELEGRAPH. This excellent and independent daily newspaper, under the conduct of S. De Witt Bloodgood, Esq., comes to us full of interest and just views of passing events. We return our thanks to the editor for his kindness in interchanging papers.

The Michigan Temperance Journal. Published at Jackson, monthly at 50 cents a year. Quite a good paper.

Two men had a severe fight a few days ago about the wife of one of them, in Stamford, Vt. They began the battle in the house, and after a time agreed to go out doors and finish. As one went out before the other, the latter took up a hoe and drove it into the skull of his opponent.

Mr. David Ela, late printer of Zion's Herald, Boston, died in that city on Thursday last.—He is represented to have been a Philanthropist.

A little daughter of Mr. David Beall, of Alleghany county, Md., was burned to death a few days ago, by her dress taking fire.

COL. FREMONT. The Union of yesterday has a letter from Col. Benton to the President designed to show that the accusation of the Mexican Government of California, that Col. Fremont entered that territory with a view to excite the people to insurrection, is false. The details of Col. Fremont's movements are exceedingly interesting. This gallant officer deserves the warmest thanks of his country for his geographical discoveries.

The Temperance Cause in Wheeling, Va.—The following is an extract from a letter of one of our agents in Wheeling, Va., and will be read with interest by our Temperance friends:

'The Weekly Fountain is much esteemed, where it is known, and could have obtained (no doubt) a wide circulation here, had not other temperance publications been so extensively patronised before the Fountain was known; however its merits will claim attention when it is known.

While I am writing, I feel happy to have the privilege of stating to you, that we are doing up temperance matters here in the right kind of style. Our order is increasing beyond all precedent, we have some opposition from those who have formerly indulged anti sentiments; but this is fast giving way. The hydra-headed monster intemperance roars occasionally, but his voice spreads no terror in our ranks; his doom is fixed, and with heart and hand we are rushing to the charge; determined to hasten his destination; and God grant that it may be speedy and decisive.

On last Thursday we had a procession. The number that turned out was about two hundred and fifty; and in the evening a lecture and presentation of a Bible. All passed off with a high degree of character, leaving a favorable impression on the public mind. The procession needed no herald to proclaim its character, their appearance and conduct, said to all—we are Temperance men—yes, Sons of Temperance. Yours, as ever, truly, N. WATSON.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT. Mr. Wm. H. Ricketts, of Elkton, Md. was out gunning with several persons last Tuesday, when one of the party accidentally shot him. The injury was serious, but it is supposed will not prove fatal.

THE FLOOD. Accounts of the damage done by the flood after the recent rains are coming in from various quarters. No very serious injury however has been done.

APPOINTMENT. James Martin, esq., has received the appointment of Post Master at Ellicott's Mills, vice John Forrest, esq. resigned.

FIRE. An extensive and destructive conflagration occurred last Monday at Madison, Ia. Loss estimated at $20,000, mostly insured.

One of the fruits of the recent victory in New York will be to give the whigs a Senator of the United States, in place of Mr. Dix, whose term expires in March next.

The Cactus Case is resumed in the U. S. Circuit Court, Philadelphia.

Too YOUNG. The papers say New York is too young to go Wright.—Boston Post.

SNAGS. The St. Louis New Era of the 3d inst. says that,

'Mr. Polk and his strict construction friends must gloat with extreme delight on the river news afforded to them almost daily of the destruction of boats on the western waters. Within five days past we have had to announce the snagging of the San Seay, Lady Ayron, James Madison, Clermont No. 2, Tonolouka, Annawan, Planter, Hendrick Hudson, Tompeka, Magic, and Star Spangled Banner and Sea Bird.'

MILLERISM OUTDOXE. The following from the N. Y. Telegraph will show that there are no bounds to the folly of man:

A new sect of fanatics has appeared in Cincinnati. There are about sixty of them, about half the number being females, and they are followers, says the Commercial of that city, of a big, burly, half Indian, half negro, formerly a Mormon, who has proclaimed himself Jesus Christ! He showed his disciples one day last week the scars of wounds in his hands and limbs, received on the cross! He does miracles with a golden rod, and professes that he was the cause of the destruction of Natchez by a whirlwind. He has already organised several apartments to his kingdom; a new Peter, Paul, &c. The members of this new religion are solemnly enjoined to secrecy, and hold meetings nightly.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Tuesday, Nov. 10, 1846.—The first and only case heard to-day was that of M. Antoine Guista, vs. Thomas Layson. An action of Replevin. The question of law in the matter involves the right of Landlord and Trustee. Nineteen witnesses have already been examined, and at 4 p. m. the court adjourned the matter over till to-morrow. Bradley for plaintiff; May for defendant.
